☐ Prepare order appointing conservator. See § 281.106.

NOTE:
In most counties, the proposed order must be filed before the hearing for review by the court or commissioner.

☐ Obtain bond, if required, in appropriate amount [Prob. Code §§ 2300, 2320; see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds].

☐ Obtain and direct conservator (other than trust company or public conservator) to read Judicial Council's duties-of-conservator form and handbook for conservators [Prob. Code §§ 1834(a), 1835]. Form: See § 281.111.

☐ Have conservator execute oath (or affirmation [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.6]) attached to or endorsed on letters of conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2300(a)].

☐ Have conservator (other than trust company or public conservator) complete acknowledgment of receipt of duties-of-conservator form and handbook for conservators [Prob. Code § 1834(a)]. Form: See § 281.111.

☐ File bond and acknowledgments of receipt, request that clerk issue letters of conservatorship, and obtain sufficient conformed copies of letters of conservatorship to obtain possession of property, transfer securities, and perform similar acts.

☐ No later than 90 days after conservator's appointment, record certified copy of letters of conservatorship of estate with countyrecorder's office in each county in which conservatee owns interest in real property [Prob. Code § 2313].

Click here to view image.

The form in [1], above, is a reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-310, for use in petitioning for the appointment of a conservator or limited conservator.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[3] Contents of Petition

[a] Request for Appointment

The petition must request that a conservator be appointed for the person (Paragraph 1a) or estate (Paragraph 1b), or both, must specify the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the proposed conservator and proposed conservatee (Paragraphs 1 and 2), and must state the reasons why a conservatorship is necessary [Prob. Code § 1821(a)].

[b] Supplemental Information

As a general rule, the petitioner must also file supplemental information as to why the appointment is required (Paragraph 5e). The supplemental information is to be provided on a form that is separate and distinct from the petition [Prob. Code § 1821(a); see § 281.101]. The supplemental information need not be provided when the petitioner is a bank or other entity authorized to conduct the business of a trust company, or when the conservatorship is filed pursuant to Health & Safety Code § 416 et seq. and the conditions of Prob. Code § 1821(j) are met [see Prob. Code § 1821(a), (j)

[c] Names and Addresses of Relatives

The petition must set forth, as far as they are known to the petitioner, the names and addresses of the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297 et seq.] and relatives of the proposed conservatee within the second degree. If there are none, the petition must so state. If no spouse or domestic partner of the proposed conservatee, or relatives of the proposed conservatee within the second degree, be known to the petitioner, the petition must set forth, as far as they are known to the petitioner, the names and addresses of the following persons who, for the purposes of Prob. Code § 1822 (relating to notice of hearing), will all be deemed to be relatives (Paragraph 11) [Prob. Code § 1821(b)]:

- A spouse or domestic partner of a predeceased parent of a proposed conservatee.
- The children of a predeceased spouse or domestic partner of a proposed conservatee.
- The siblings of the proposed conservatee's parents, if any; if none, then the natural and adoptive children of the proposed conservatee's parents' siblings.
- The natural and adoptive children of the proposed conservatee's siblings.

Unless the petition for appointment of a temporary guardian or a temporary conservator is filed together with a petition for appointment of a guardian or a conservator, if the petitioner is a licensed under the Professional Fiduciaries Act [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.], the petition must include a statement of the petitioner's license information and a statement explaining who engaged the petitioner or how the petitioner was engaged to file the petition for appointment of a conservator, and what prior relationship the petitioner had with the proposed conservatee or the proposed conservatee's family or friends [Prob. Code § 1821(c)].

If the petition is filed by a person other than the proposed conservatee, the petition must include a declaration of due diligence showing either the efforts to find the proposed conservatee's relatives or why it was not feasible to contact any of them, and either the preferences of the propose conservatee concerning the appointment of a conservator and the appointment of the proposed conservator or why it was not feasible to ascertain those preferences [Prob. Code § 1821(d)].

If the petition is filed by a person other than the proposed conservatee, the petition must state whether the petitioner is a creditor or debtor, or the agent of a creditor or debtor, of the proposed conservatee (Paragraph 3b) [Prob. Code § 1821(e)].

If either the petitioner or the proposed conservator is the spouse of the proposed conservatee, the petitioner must indicate whether the spouse is a party to any action or proceeding against the proposed conservatee for legal separation, dissolution of marriage, annulment, or adjudication of nullity of their marriage. If the spouse is a party to an action or proceeding against the proposed conservatee for legal separation, dissolution, separation, annulment, adjudication of nullity of their marriage, or has obtained a judgment in any of these proceedings, the petitioner must state whether is in the best interests of the proposed conservatee that a conservator be appointed or that the spouse be appointed as the conservator (Paragraph 6) [Prob. Code § 1813]. If the petitioner or the proposed conservator is the domestic partner of the proposed conservatee, Paragraph 7 must be completed.

If the petitioner knows that the proposed conservatee is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the petition must state that fact and name the institution (Paragraph 4a) [Prob. Code § 1821(f)]. The petition must state, as far as is known to the petitioner, whether the proposed conservatee is receiving or is entitled to receive benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs and the estimated amount of the monthly benefit payable by the Department of Veterans Affairs for the proposed conservatee (Paragraph 4b) [Prob. Code § 1821(g)]. The petition must also state whether the proposed conservatee is capable of completing an affidavit of voter registration (Paragraph 4c) [see Prob. Code § 1826; see also Prob. Code § 1823].

[d] Other Orders

The petition may include an application for any order authorized by the Probate Code provisions governing conservatorships (Paragraphs 1d-1g, 1 l), including, but not limited to, orders under Prob. Code § 1870 et seq. regarding the conservatee's capacity to bind or obligate the estate, to give informed consent to medical treatment, and to marry [Prob. Code § 1821(h)]. For discussion of orders affecting the conservatee's legal capacity, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee , and Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers .

The form provides space (in Paragraph 1k) for a request that orders related to dementia treatment or placement be granted, as requested in Form GC-313 (Attachment Requesting Special Orders Regarding Dementia) [see Prob. Code § 2356.5]. If this box is checked, Form GC-313 should be attached. For discussion of that form, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee .

The petition may also include a statement that the proposed conservatee either is willing to attend the hearing on the petition or is not willing to attend the hearing, does not wish to contest the establishment of the conservatorship, and does not object to the proposed conservator or prefer that another person act as conservator (Paragraph 8) [Prob. Code § 1821(i)].

[f] Deposits to Reduce Bond

The petition for appointment may contain an allegation that deposits have been or will be made into a blocked account, to reduce the amount of the bond (Paragraph 1c) [Prob. Code § 2328; see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds].

[4] Petition for Limited Conservator

In the case of a petition to establish a limited conservatorship for an allegedly developmentally disabled adult, the petition must state the nature and degree of the alleged disability (Paragraph 5f), the specific duties and powers requested by or for the limited conservator (Paragraphs 1h, 1i), the limitations of civil and legal rights requested to be included in the court's order of appointment (Paragraph 1j), and whether the proposed limited conservatee is or is alleged to be developmentally disabled (Paragraph 5f) [Prob. Code § 1821(j)].

[5] Petition for Conservator of Absentee

If the proposed conservatee is an absentee, the petition, and any required notice, must also set forth the last known military rank or grade and the social security number of the proposed conservatee [Prob. Code § 1841(a)]. In addition, the petition must state whether the absentee's spouse has commenced any action or proceeding against the absentee for judicial or legal separation, divorce or dissolution of marriage, annulment, or adjudication of nullity of their marriage [Prob. Code § 1841(b)]. This information may be added to the "Name of Conservatee" answer (Paragraph 2), or in Attachment 2.

[6] Petition for Appointment of Nonprofit Charitable Corporation

The petition for appointment of a nonprofit charitable corporation as conservator must include in the caption the name of a responsible corporate officer who will act for the corporation for the purposes of the conservatorship. If for any reason the officer sonamed ceases to act as the responsible corporate officer for the purposes of the conservatorship, the corporation must file with the court a notice containing the name of the successor responsible corporate officer and the date the successor becomes the responsible corporate officer [Prob. Code § 2104(b)].

[7] Notice

Notice of the hearing on a petition for the appointment of a conservator must be given at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 1822(a)]. For a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice . For a discussion of the persons entitled to notice, see § 281.38.

[8] Verification

All petitions, reports, and accounts, and objections to petitions, reports, and accounts in conservatorship proceedings must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.103(b), (c)]. A verified petition may be used as evidence in uncontested proceedings [Prob. Code § 1022].

[9] Jurisdiction and Venue

A proceeding for the appointment of a conservator must be filed in the superior court [Prob. Code § 2200]. Proper venue is based on the proposed conservatee's residence, the location of the proposed conservatee's property, and the best interests of the proposed conservatee [see Prob. Code §§ 2201, 2202]. For a discussion of venue requirements, see § 281.22.

[10] Professional Fiduciary

If the proposed conservator is a professional fiduciary within the meaning of the Professional Fiduciaries Act, the proposed guardian must complete the Professional Fiduciary Attachment to the Petition for Appointment of Conservator [see Ch. 280, Guardanship and Conservatorship : Appointment of Guardians, § 280.110D (Judicial Council Form GC-210(A-PF)/GC-310(A-PF))] (paragraphs 3b-3d).

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-312, for use by a petitioner other than a bank or other entity entitled to conduct the business of a trust company to provide supplemental information as to why a conservatorship is necessary [Prob. Code § 1821(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1050(a)].

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[3] When Supplemental Information Is Not Required

Supplemental information is not required when the petitioner is a bank or other entity authorized to conduct the business of a trust company [Prob. Code § 1821(a)]. A conservatorship for a developmentally disabled person filed pursuant to Health & Safety Code § 416 et seq., in which the Director of the State Department of Developmental Services is named as conservator, is also exempt from providing the supplemental information, as long as the guidelines adopted by the Department for its regional assessment and training centers require the same information as required by Prob. Code § 1821(a) [Prob. Code § 1821(j)].

[4] Required Contents

The supplemental information must include a brief statement of facts addressed to each of the following matters [Prob. Code § 1821(a)(1)-(5)]:

- The inability of the proposed conservatee properly to provide for his or her needs for physical health, food, clothing, and shelter (Paragraph 2).

- The inability of the proposed conservatee to substantially manage his or her own financial resources, or to resist fraud or undue influence (Paragraph 3).

- The location and residence of the proposed conservatee and the ability of the proposed conservatee to live in the residence while under conservatorship (Paragraphs 4a--c).

- Health or social services or estate management assitance provided to the proposed conservatee during the year preceding the filing of the petition, if the petitioner has information as to those services (Paragraph 6).

- Alternatives to conservatorship considered by the petitioner and reasons why those alternatives are not available (Paragraph 5).

The illustrative form in [1], above, indicates that information about alternatives isset forth in an attachment. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

The required facts must be set forth by the petitioner when he or she has knowledge of the facts or by the declarations or affidavits of other persons having knowledge of those facts (Paragraph 7). If any of the matters listed above would not apply to the proposed conservatorship, the petitioner must so indicate and state on the supplemental information form the reasons why (Paragraph 8) [Prob. Code § 1821(a)].

The supplemental information statement must be separate and distinct from the form for the petition. The supplemental information must be confidential and must be made available only to parties, persons given notice of the petition who have requested this supplemental information or who have appeared in the proceedings, their attorneys, and the court. The court has discretion at any other time to release the supplemental information to other persons if to do so serves the interests of the conservatee. The clerk of the court is required to make provision for limiting disclosure of the supplemental information exclusively to the persons described in this paragraph, inasmuch as they are the only persons who are entitled by statute to disclosure [Prob. Code § 1821(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1050(b), (c)].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a filled-in reproduction of California Judicial Council Form GC-333, which may be used to request an order requiring the completion of a Capacity Declaration [see § 281.102 (capacity declaration form)] regarding a proposed conservatee. A Capacity Declaration must be submitted to the court if it is contended that:

- The proposed conservatee will be unable to attend the hearing for medical reasons [see Prob. Code §§ 1825(b), 1893(b)]. This inability must be established by the affidavit or certificate of a licensed medical practitioner [Prob. Code §§ 1825(b), 1893(b)].

- The proposed conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent to medical treatment and the proposed conservator should be given the exclusive authority to make health care decisions for the conservatee [see Prob. Code §§ 1880, 2355]. Such an order may only be granted if the petition for appointment of a conservator is supported by a declaration executed by a licensed physician (or a licensed psychologist), stating that the proposed conservatee lacks the capacity to give an informed consent for any form of medical treatment and the reasons therefore [Prob. Code § 1890(c)].

- The proposed conservatee suffers from dementia and the proposed conservator requests the special powers set forth in Prob. Code § 2356.5, including the authority to place the conservatee in a secured perimeter residential care facility. The petition in such a case must be supported by a declaration of a licensed physician (or licensed psychologist) regarding each of the findings required to be made for the powers requested [Prob. Code § 2356.5(f)(3)].

Use of this form is mandatory [Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

The appropriate boxes in Item 2 of the form should be checked to indicate the orders requested. The name of each licensed physician (or licensed psychologist) who is requested to complete a Capacity Declaration must be set forth in Item 3 of the form.

This form should be submitted to the court, along with the Ex Parte Order re Completion of Capacity Declaration [see § 281.101B].

Click here to view image.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-335, a multipurpose form that may be used to assist the court in determining any of the following with respect to the conservatee or proposed conservatee:

- Whether he or she is able to attend a court hearing to determine whether a conservator should be appointed.

- Whether he or she has the capacity to give informed consent to medical treatment.

- Whether he or she has dementia and, if so, whether he or she needs to be placed in an appropriate facility, and/or whether he or she needs or would benefit from dementia medications.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

The filled-in form reproduced here illustrates a fact pattern in which the proposed conservatee is physically unable to attend the court hearing to establish a conservatorship. Thus, Item 5 has been completed, while Items 6 and 7 have been left blank.

If the form is used in connection with a determination of an individual's capacity to give informed consent to medical treatment, Items 6 and 7 should be completed, with Item 5 left blank. For discussion of the procedures for obtaining exclusive authority to make medical decisions for a conservatee under Prob. Code §§ 1880-1898, and the use of this form in that context, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee .

If this form is used in connection with a determination relating to dementia, Item 6 should be completed, with Items 5 and 7 left blank. The Judicial Council form, Dementia Attachment to Capacity Declaration--Conservatorship (GC-335A) should also be completed [see § 281.102A]. For discussion of the procedures regarding the placement of conservatees suffering from dementia in a secure perimeter residential care facility under Prob. Code § 2356.5, and the use of this form in that context, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee .

[3] Inability to Attend Hearing

The inability to attend must be evidenced by a declaration of a duly licensed medical practitioner or an accredited practitioner of a religion. The declaration isevidence only of the proposed conservatee's inability toattend the hearing and may not be considered in determining the issue of need for the establishment of a conservatorship [Prob. Code § 1825(b)].

[3] Issuance of Citation

If the petition is filed by a person other than the proposed conservatee, the clerk of the court must issue a citation directed to the proposed conservatee setting forth the time and place of hearing [Prob. Code § 1823(a)]. In a proceeding to appoint a conservator of the estate of a missing person, whereabouts unknown, the issuance of a citation to the proposed conservatee pursuant to Prob. Code § 1823 is not required [Prob. Code § 1848(a)]. In addition, no citation to the proposed conservatee is required under Prob. Code § 1823 if the proposed conservatee is an absentee [Prob. Code § 1843].

[4] Contents of Citation

The citation must include a statement of the legal standards by which the need for a conservatorship is adjudged (Paragraph 2) [Prob. Code § 1823(b); see Prob. Code § 1801]. The citation must also state the following [Prob. Code § 1823(b)]:

- The proposed conservatee may be adjudged unable to provide for personal needs or to manage financial resources and, therefore, a conservator may be appointed for the person or estate, or both (Paragraph 1).

- The adjudication may affect or transfer to the conservator the proposed conservatee's right to contact, in whole or in part, to manage and control property, to give informed consent for medical treatment, and to fix his or her own residence (Paragraph 3).

- The proposed conservatee may be disqualified from voting if not capable of completing an affidavit of voter registration (Paragraph 3).

- The court or a court investigator will explain the nature, purpose, and effect of the proceeding to the proposed conservatee and will answer questions concerning the explanation (Paragraph 3).

- The proposed conservatee has the right to appear at the hearing and to oppose the petition (Paragraph 4), and in the case of an allegedlydevelopmentally disabled adult, to oppose the petition in part, byobjecting to any or all of the requested duties or powers of the limited conservator (Paragraph 5).

- The proposed conservatee has the right to choose and be represented by legal counsel and has the right to have legal counsel appointed by the court (Paragraph 4).

- The proposed conservatee has the right to a jury trial if desired (Paragraph 4).

[5] Service of Citation

The citation and a copy of the petition must be served on the proposed conservatee at least 15 days before the hearing in the manner provided by Code Civ. Proc. § 415.10 for personal service or by Code Civ. Proc. § 415.30 for service by mail, or in the manner authorized by the court. If the proposed conservatee is outside California, service may be made in the manner provided by Code Civ. Proc. § 415.40 for service outside the state [Prob. Code § 1824]. The court may provide by rule for service of the citation by first-class mail, complete on deposit [Conservatorship of Wyatt (1987) 195 Cal. App. 3d 391, 394-395, 240 Cal. Rptr. 632] . No citation is required if the proposed conservatee is an absentee [Prob. Code § 1843]. Service of a citation and petition pursuant to Prob. Code § 1824 is not required in a proceeding to appoint a conservator of the estate of a missing person, whereabouts unknown [Prob. Code § 1848(b)].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative, filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-330, for use in appointing a court investigator to interview the proposed conservatee and to make a report before the hearing on a petition for theappointment of a conservator [see Prob. Code § 1826].

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

CAUTION:

The current version of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-330 does not include the statutory requirement that the investigator consider whether he or she believes that the proposed conservatee suffers from any of the mental function deficits, listed in Prob. Code § 811, that could impair the proposed conservatee's ability to understand the consequences of his or her actions in connection with any of the functions described in Prob. Code § 1801, and that the investigator identify the observations that support that belief [see Prob. Code § 1826(d)(2)]. The practitioner should ascertain local rules or practice regarding this requirement, and proceed accordingly.

This form may also be used to appoint a court investigator to interview a conservatee with respect to an order relating to medical consent, which may be requested in the petition for the appointment of a conservator or in a subsequent petition [see Prob. Code §§ 1880, 1890, 1894]. No court order relating to medical consent may be granted unless it is supported by the declaration of a licensed physician or psychologist acting within the scope of his or her license and stating that the proposed conservatee or the conservatee, as the case may be, lacks the capacity to give an informed consent for any form of medical treatment and the reasons therefor [Prob. Code § 1890(c)].

This form may also be used to appoint a court investigator for the review of a conservatorship [see Prob. Code §§ 1850-1853].

[3] Subsequent Investigation

If the court investigator has performed an investigation within the preceding six months and furnished a report to the court on that investigation, the court may order, on good cause shown, that another investigation is not necessary or that a more limited investigation may be performed [Prob. Code § 1826(p)].

I,_____[name], am the objector in the above proceeding. I have read the foregoing objection and know the contents thereof. The same is trueof my own knowledge, except as to those matters that are therein stated on information and belief, and, as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
Dated:_____[date]

_____ [signature]

_____ [typed name]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in objecting to a petition for the appointment of a conservator. However, there is no statutory requirement that a written pleading be filed.

[3] Who May Object

The proposed conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297 et seq.] of the proposed conservatee, a relative of the proposed conservatee, and any interested person or friend of the proposed conservatee may appear at the hearing to support or oppose the petition [Prob. Code § 1829].

[4] Demand for Jury Trial

The demand for jury trial should be used when the proposed conservatee wants the issue of competency to be tried by a jury [see Prob. Code §§ 1827, 1829]. Some counties require the use of specific printed form for demanding a jury trial. Local practice should be consulted.

[5] Verification

The objection must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021]. The form of verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-340, for use in appointing a conservator.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[3] Contents of Order

The order appointing the conservator must include the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the conservator (Paragraph 18), the conservatee's attorney, if any (Paragraph 1e), and the court investigator, if any (Paragraph 12) [Prob. Code § 1830(a)].

After indicating the appearances made in the proceeding (Paragraph 1), the order must contain a statement of decision prepared by the court when a proper request has been made under Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 3.1590(b) [Code Civ. Proc. § 632; see Prob. Code §§ 1000, 1022, 2100; Guardianship of Brown (1976) 16 Cal. 3d 326, 332, 128 Cal. Rptr. 10, 546 P.2d 298] .

The order must specify whether the conservator is the conservatee's spouse. If so, the order must state whether the conservator is a party to any action or proceeding against the conservatee for legal separation, dissolution of marriage, annulment, or adjudication of nullity of their marriage. If the conservator is a party to an action or proceeding against the conservatee for legal separation, dissolution, separation, annulment, adjudication of nullity of their marriage, the order must state that it is in the conservatee's best interests to appoint the spouse as conservator (Paragraph 16) [Prob.

Code § 1813].

The amounts of the bond and of the deposits in a blocked account are included in the order (Paragraph 20) [Prob. Code § 2320 et seq.; see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds]. The order also fixes the amount of attorney's fees and designates the payer (Paragraph 21) [see Prob. Code § 2640 et seq.]. Orders regarding the powers and duties of the conservator and the legal capacity of the conservatee are set out in attachments to the form (Paragraphs 20-29) [Prob. Code §§ 1870 et seq., 2350 et seq., 2590 et seq. (legal capacity of conservatee; powers and duties of conservator of the person; independent exercise of powers); see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee ; Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

The appointment of a conservator, the taking of the conservator's oath, and the filing of the conservator's bond, if required, are thereafter evidenced by theissuance of letters by the clerk of the court [Prob. Code § 2310(a)]. The order appointing the conservator must state in capital letters on the first page of the order, in at least 12-point type, the following: "WARNING: THIS APPOINTMENT IS NOT EFFECTIVE UNTIL LETTERS HAVE ISSUED" [Prob. Code § 2310(b)].

[4] Order Appointing Limited Conservator

In the case of a limited conservatorship, any order the court makes must include the findings of the court specified in Prob. Code § 1828.5, regarding the extent of impairment and the limited conservatee's capacity to take care of himself or herself and his or her property [Prob. Code § 1830(b)].

The order must specify the powers granted to and duties imposed on the limited conservator (Paragraphs 31-33), and the powers and duties may not exceed the powers and duties applicable to a conservator under the Probate Code [Prob. Code § 1830(b)].

The order must also specify all of the following [Prob. Code § 1830(b)]:

- The properties belonging to the limited conservatee of which the limited conservator is entitled to possession and management, giving a description of the properties that will be sufficient to identify them.

- The debts, rentals, wages, or other claims due to the limited conservatee that the limited conservator is entitled to collect, or to file suit with respect to, if necessary, and to possess and manage.

- The contractual or other obligations that the limited conservator may incur on behalf of the limited conservatee.

- The claims against the limited conservatee that the limited conservator may pay, compromise, or defend, if necessary.

- Any other powers, limitations, or duties with respect to the care of the limited conservatee or the management of his or her property by the limited conservator that the court may specifically and expressly grant.

An information notice of the rights of the conservatee must be attached to the order.

The conservator must mail the order and the attached information notice to the conservatee and specified relatives of the conservatee within 30 days of the issuance of the order [Prob. Code 1830(c); see Prob. Code § 1821(b) (relatives who must be notified) and discussion in § 281.100[3][c]].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in disposing of a petition for transfer of conservatorship proceedings to another county [see Prob. Code § 2211; for the related form of petition, see § 281.108].

In most counties the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Best Interests Standard

If the court determines that the transfer requested in the petition will be in the best interests of the conservatee, the court is required to make an order transferring the proceeding to the other county [Prob. Code § 2215(b)].

[4] Transmittal of Order and Papers

If a transfer is ordered by the court, the clerk must transmit to the clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred a certified or exemplified copy of the order, together with all papers in the proceeding on file with the clerk [Prob. Code § 2216(a)].

[5] Fees

The clerk of the court from which the transfer is made may receive no fee for the transfer, but may be paid out of the estate all expenses incurred by the transfer. The clerk of the court to which the proceeding is transferred is entitled to the fees that are payable on the filing of an original proceeding [Prob. Code § 2216(b)].

[2] Use of Form--In General

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-348, for use in providing the conservator (other than a trust company or public conservator) with a summary statement of the duties of the conservator. It is also to be used by the conservator (other than a trust company or public conservator) to acknowledge receipt of the statement and of the Judicial Council's handbook for conservators [Prob. Code § 1834(a), (b); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1051].

Use of this form is mandatory [Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

The statement contained in this form does not supersede the law on which it is based [Prob. Code § 1834(c)]. The handbook for conservators, available for purchase from local superior courts, is not an official Judicial Council form.

[3] Signature

Even though the signature lines on page 4 of this form are labeled for the petitioner, the statute requires the form to be signed by the proposed conservator [Prob. Code § 1834(a), (b)].

[4] Birth Date or Driver's License Numbers

If local rules require the acknowledgment of receipt to include the conservator's birth date and driver's license number, the court must ensure the confidentiality of this information [Prob. Code § 1834(b)].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-350, letters of conservatorship.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101].

This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

Before letters of conservatorship can be issued to a conservator other than a trust company or a public conservator, the conservator must file with the court an acknowledgment of receipt of the Judicial Council's duties-of-conservator form and handbook for conservators [Prob. Code § 1834(a); for an illustration of the form, see § 281.111].

[3] Content of Letters

The oath (or affirmation [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.6]) of the conservator must be attached to or endorsed on the letters of conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2300(a)]. If the conservator is granted any of the powers enumerated in Prob. Code §§ 2590, 2591, the letters of conservatorship must state the powers granted and the restrictions, conditions, or limitations, if any, and must refer to the statutory provisions under which the powers are granted (Paragraph 3b) [Prob. Code § 2594(a)]. When powers are granted by a subsequent order, new letters must be issued [Prob. Code § 2594(b)]. If powers are withdrawn, restricted, conditioned, or limited by a subsequent order after they are granted, new letters must be issued accordingly [Prob. Code § 2594(c)].

If an order has been made under Prob. Code § 1880 giving the conservator the authority to give consent for and to require the conservatee to receive medical treatment, the letters of conservatorship must state that the conservator has that authority (Paragraph 3a) [Prob. Code § 1880]. If authority has been granted under Prob. Code § 2356.5(b) to place the conservatee in a care or nursing facility, or under Prob. Code § 2356.5(c) to authorize the administration of medications appropriate for the care and treatment of dementia, the appropriate finding should be checked on the form (Paragraphs 3b, 3c). For discussion of the conservator's authority regarding medical treatment, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee .

If conditions providing for the care and custody of the conservatee's property which are not otherwise obligatory have been inserted in the order of appointment, those conditions must be included in the letters of conservatorship (Paragraph 3e) [Prob. Code § 2402]. For discussion of conditions regarding care and custody ofthe conservatee's property, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers . The letters must also include conditions relating to the care, treatment, education, and welfare of the conservatee which are not otherwise obligatory that have been inserted in the order of appointment (Paragraph 3f) [Prob.Code § 2358]. For discussion of conditions relating to care of the conservatee, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee .

In the case of a limited conservatorship, powers granted to the limited conservator in the order of appointment must also be specified in the letters (Paragraphs 3g, 3h) [Prob. Code §§ 1830(b), 2351.5]. For discussion of the powers of limited conservators, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee , and Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers .

[4] Form of Letters

Unless otherwise required by the order of appointment, the letters must be in substantially the same form as letters of administration [Prob. Code § 2311].

[5] Recording of Letters

No later than 90 days after appointment, a conservator of the estate is required to record a certified copy of the letters with the county recorder's office in each county in which the conservatee owns an interest in real property, including a security interest [see Prob. Code § 2313].

Chapter 282 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: TEMPORARY GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
A. Appointment

24-282 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 282.20

§ 282.20 Grounds for Temporary Appointment

[1] Pending Appointment of Guardian or Conservator

The court may appoint a temporary guardian or conservator of the person, estate, or both, to serve pending the final determination on the petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator, on a petition stating facts establishing good cause for the appointment or on such other showing as the court may require [Prob. Code § 2250(b)].

What constitutes good cause depends largely on the circumstances of each case. It calls for a factual exposition of a reasonable ground for the order sought [Conservatorship of Gray (1970) 12 Cal. App. 3d 513, 521, 90 Cal. Rptr. 776] .

[2] Vacancy in Office of Guardian or Conservator

If for any reason a vacancy occurs in the office of guardian or conservator, the court, on a petition filed under Prob. Code § 2250(a) or on its own motion, may appoint a temporary guardian or conservator to exercise the powers of the office until a new guardian or conservator is appointed [Prob. Code § 2250(i)].

[3] Suspension of Guardian's or Conservator's Powers

Appointment of a temporary guardian or conservator when the court suspends the guardian's or conservator's powers under Prob. Code § 2334 (relating to the sufficiency of the security) or Prob. Code § 2654 (relating to removal of the guardian or conservator), or any other provision of Prob. Code §§ 1400-3803, appears to be discretionary with the court [see Prob. Code § 2250(i)]. The temporary guardian or conservator exercises the suspended powers until the powers are restored to the guardian or conservator or until a new guardian or conservator is appointed [Prob. Code § 2250(i)].

[4] Pending Appeal

Although an appeal generally stays the operation and effect of the order [Prob. Code § 1310(a)], the trial court, to prevent injury or loss to a person or property, may appoint a temporary conservator or guardian or direct the exercise of the powers of the conservator or guardian notwithstanding the appeal [Prob. Code § 1310(b)].

All acts of the guardian or conservator under the court's directions are valid, irrespective of the results of the appeal [Prob. Code § 1310(b)].

An appeal does not stay the operation and effect of the judgment or order if the court requires an undertaking and the undertaking is not given, in any of the following cases [Prob. Code § 1310(d); see Code Civ. Proc. § 917.9]:

- The appellant is found to possess money or other property of the respondent;
- The appellant is required to perform an act for the respondent's benefit; or
- The judgment against the appellant is solely for costs awarded under Code Civ. Proc. § 1021 et seq.

An appeal also does not stay the operation and effect of a judgment for money or an order directing payment of money, unless one of the following applies [Prob. Code § 1310(e)]:

- A bond is posted as provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 917.1; or
- The payment is to be made from a decedent's estate being administered under Prob. Code § 7000 et seq. or from the estate of a person who is subject to a guardianship or conservatorship of the estate under Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.

However, a court may require an undertaking as provided in Prob. Code § 1310(d), discussed above [Prob. Code § 1310(e)].

If an order appointing a conservator or guardian is reversed on appeal for error, all acts of the conservator or guardian performed after the issuance of letters and before the reversal are as valid as if the order had been affirmed [Prob. Code § 1311].

Before a temporary guardian or conservator can be appointed, there must be an affirmative showing in the trial court of extraordinary circumstances involving potential injury or loss to the person or property of the ward or conservatee clearly requiring direction by the court for the sole purpose of avoiding that injury or loss [Gold v. Superior Court (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 275, 281-285, 90 Cal. Rptr. 161, 475 P.2d 193 (construing former Prob. Code § 2102)].

Chapter 282 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: TEMPORARY GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
A. Appointment

24-282 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 282.21

§ 282.21 Petition for Appointment

A petition for the appointment of a temporary guardian or conservator [see § 282.80] may be filed on or after the filing of a petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator, and may be filed by any person entitled to petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2250(a); see §§ 280.60 (who may petition for appointment of guardian), 281.30 (who may petition for appointment of conservator)]. The petition must state facts that establish good cause for appointment of the temporary guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2250(b)]. If the petitioner is a private professional conservator under Prob. Code § 2341 or licensed under the Professional Fiduciaries Act [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.], the petition must include a statement of the petitioner's registration or license information, and a statement explaining who engaged the petitioner or how the petitioner was engaged to file the petition and what prior relationship the petitioner had with the proposed conservatee or proposed conservatee's family or friends, unless that information is included in a petition for appointment of a general conservator filed at the same time [Prob. Code § 2250(c)]. If the petition is filed by a party other than the proposed conservatee, the petition must include a declaration of due diligence showing the efforts to find the proposed conservatee's relatives named in the petition or why it was not feasible to contact any of them, and the preferences of the proposed conservatee concerning the appointment of a temporary conservator and the appointment of the proposed temporary conservator, or why it was not feasible to ascertain those preferences [Prob. Code § 2250(d)].

The Judicial Council has approved separate forms for use in petitioning for appointment of a guardian [see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians, § 280.110] or a conservator [see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators, § 281.100] or a temporary guardian or conservator [see § 282.80].

In proceedings for the appointment of a temporary conservator for a person who is gravely disabled as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 5350], any person entitled to petition for appointment of the conservator may file a petition for appointment of a temporary conservator of the person or estate or both [Prob. Code § 2250.2], and the general provisions governing the petition [see Prob. Code § 2250], attendance of the conservatee at the hearing [see Prob. Code § 2250.4], and the duties of the court investigator [see Prob. Code §

2250.6], as discussed above and in § 282.23, do not apply [Prob. Code § 2250.8].

Chapter 282 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: TEMPORARY GUARDIANS AND CONSERVATORS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
A. Appointment

§ 282.22 Notice of Proposed Appointment

Unless the court for good cause orders otherwise, not less than five days before the appointment of the temporary guardian or conservator, notice of the proposed appointment must be personally delivered to the proposed ward, if he or she is at least 12 years old, or conservatee, to the natural parent or parents if the proposed ward is a minor, and to any person having a valid visitation order with the proposed ward that was effective at the time of the filing of the petition. In a proceeding for temporary guardianship of the person, evidence that the custodial parent has died or become incapacitated and that the petitioner is the nominee of the custodial parent may constitute good cause for the court to order that notice not be given [Prob. Code § 2250(e); see also Cal. Rules of Court, Rules 7.1012, 7.1062, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice]. If the proposed ward is under 12 years of age, a notice of hearing must not be delivered to the proposed ward [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(1)].

Notice of the hearing also must be personally delivered to the proposed conservatee, and served on the persons required to be named in the petition for appointment of conservator [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(2)]. If the petition states that the petitioner and the proposed conservatee have no prior relationship with the proposed conservatee and has not been nominated by a family member, friend or other person with a relationship to the proposed conservatee, notice of hearing must be served on the public guardian of the county in which the petition is filed [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(2)]. A copy of the petition for temporary guardianship must be served with the notice of hearing [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(3)].

A public guardian's practice of requesting a waiver of notice under Prob. Code § 2250(c) in all applications for temporary conservatorships was held to violate the potential conservatees' right to due process [Edward W. v. Lamkins (2002) 99 Cal. App. 4th 516, 543-545, 122 Cal. Rptr. 2d 1] . The appointment of a temporary conservator affects a conservatee's liberty, personal autonomy, and dignitary interests in receiving notice and an opportunity to be heard [Edward W. v. Lamkins (2002) 99 Cal. App. 4th 516, 530, 533-535, 538-539, 122 Cal. Rptr. 2d 1] . There is also a substantial risk of erroneous ex parte decisionmaking in the mental health context. When a temporary conservatorship is established without notice to the proposed conservatee, the court often will be acting on incomplete information, because the proposed conservatee is given no opportunity to present his or her side of the story [Edward W. v. Lamkins (2002) 99 Cal. App. 4th 516, 535-536, 122 Cal. Rptr. 2d 1] . Finally, the costs associated with providing notice in most cases are generally minimal [Edward W. v. Lamkins (2002) 99 Cal. App. 4th 516, 544, 122 Cal. Rptr. 2d 1] . The notice requirement of Prob. Code § 2250(c) may be departed from only on a showing of good cause, i.e., an individualized showing of exigent circumstances in a particular case; a blanket statement of reasons offered as a matter of routine policy does not constitute good cause [Edward W. v. Lamkins (2002) 99 Cal. App. 4th 516, 541-545, 122 Cal. Rptr. 2d 1] .

If the temporary guardianship was granted ex parte, and the hearing on the general guardianship is not to be held within 30 days, the court must set a hearing within 30 days to reconsider the temporary guardianship, and give notice of the hearing for reconsideration as provided in Prob. Code § 1511 [Prob. Code § 2250(f)]. For good cause, the court may shorten the time for notice of the hearing [Prob. Code § 2250(f)].

If a temporary conservatorship is granted ex parte, and a petition to terminate the temporary conservatorship is filed more than 15 days before the first hearing on the general petition for appointment of conservator, the court must set a hearing within 15 days of the filing of the petition for termination of the temporary conservatorship to reconsider the temporary conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2250(h)].

The court investigator must interview the proposed conservatee prior to the hearing for a temporary conservator, and complete an investigation prior to the hearing [Prob. Code § 2250.6 (detailed investigation requirements)].

A proposed temporary conservatee must attend the hearing except in the following instances [Prob. Code § 2250.4]:

- The proposed temporary conservatee is out of state when served and is not the petitioner.
- The proposed temporary conservatee is unable to attend due to medical inability.
- The court investigator has visited the proposed conservatee and has reported to the court that the proposed temporary conservatee has expressly communicated that:
    - The proposed conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing;
    - The proposed conservatee does not wish to contest the establishment of the temporary conservator; and

- The proposed conservatee does not object to the proposed temporary conservator or prefer another person act as a temporary conservator.

- The court determines that the proposed conservatee is unable or unwilling to attend the hearing and holding the hearing without the proposed conservatee is necessary to protect the conservatee from substantial harm.

In proceedings for the appointment of a temporary conservator for a person who is gravely disabled as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 5350], the general provisions governing attendance of the conservatee at the hearing [see Prob. Code § 2250.4], and the duties of the court investigator [see Prob. Code § 2250.6], as discussed above, do not apply [Prob. Code § 2250.8].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

B. Powers and Duties

24-282 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 282.30

§ 282.30 General Powers and Duties

A temporary guardian or conservator has only those powers and duties that are necessary to provide for the ward's or conservatee's temporary care, maintenance, and support, and that are necessary to conserve and protect the ward's or conservatee's property from loss or injury [Prob. Code § 2252(a)]. In appropriate cases, these powers may include the power to receive AFDC-FC benefits on behalf of the ward or conservatee, if he or she is in need of those benefits [see Timmons v. McMahon (1991) 235 Cal. App. 3d 512, 515-517, 286 Cal. Rptr. 620] .

Unless the court orders otherwise, a temporary guardian of the person has the medical treatment powers and duties specified in Prob. Code § 2353, and a temporary conservator of the person has the medical treatment powers and duties specified in Prob. Code § 2354 [Prob. Code § 2252(b); see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee].

The temporary guardian or conservator has such additional powers and duties as the court may provide in the order of appointment or by subsequent order [Prob. Code § 2252(c)]. The additional powers and relief may include relief granted under Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586, which authorize the court to permit or require the conservator to take action for certain purposes specified in Prob. Code § 2580 [Prob. Code § 2252(c)]. However, any relief granted under those sections must be requested in a separate petition and not in the petition for appointment of the temporary conservator [Prob. Code § 2252(c)].

24-282 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 282.31

§ 282.31 Sale of Conservatee's Property

[1] Conservatee's Residence

A temporary conservator is not permitted to sell or relinquish, on the conservatee's behalf, any lease or estate in real or personal property that is used as or within the conservatee's place of residence, without specific court approval. Approval is to be granted only if both of the following conditions have been met [Prob. Code § 2252(e)]:

- Notice of the hearing has been personally delivered to the conservatee, unless the court for good cause orders otherwise.

- The court finds that the conservatee will be unable to return to the residence and exercise dominion over it and that the sale or relinquishment is necessary to avert irreparable harm to the conservatee.

[2] Other Property of Conservatee

A temporary conservator is not permitted to sell or relinquish on the conservatee's behalf any estate or interest in other real or personal property without specific court approval, which may be granted only on a finding that the sale or relinquishment is necessary to avert irreparable harm to the conservatee. A finding of irreparable harm as to real property may be based on a reasonable showing that the real property is vacant, that it cannot reasonably be rented, and that it is impossible or impractical to obtain fire or liability insurance on the property [Prob. Code § 2252(e)].

Whether approval of a sale of the conservatee's property is sought in the petition for appointment of the temporary conservator, or in a separate request, the request must be verified [Prob. Code §§ 1021(a), 1430].

B. Powers and Duties

24-282 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 282.32

§ 282.32 Change of Conservatee's Residence

[1] Nonemergency Change of Residence

[a] Written Request

If a temporary conservator of the person proposes to fix the residence of the conservatee at a place other than where the conservatee resided before the commencement of the proceedings, the power to do so must be requested of the court in writing, unless the change of residence is required by a prior court order. The request is to be filed with the petition for temporary conservatorship or, if a temporary conservatorship has already been established, separately [Prob. Code § 2253(a)]. The request must be verified [Prob. Code §§ 1430, 1450]. For a discussion of the information which must be included in the request and the findings the court must make to grant the request, see Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee .

[b] Approval of Request

The court cannot approve a request to remove a conservatee from his or her place of residence unless the court finds that a change of residence is required to prevent irreparable harm to the conservatee and that no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will suffice to prevent that harm. Moreover, the temporary conservator cannot be authorized to remove the conservatee from California unless it is additionally shown that the removal is required to permit the performance of specified nonpsychiatric medical treatment, consented to by the conservatee, which is essential to the conservatee's physical survival [Prob. Code § 2253(g)]. A temporary conservator who willfully removes the conservatee from California without court authorization is guilty of a felony [Prob. Code § 2253(g)].

[c] Notice

When the request to change the conservatee's residence is filed separately after the temporary conservatorship is established, counsel for the temporary conservator must at least give notice of the hearing to those persons who have filed requests for special notice of petitions filed in the temporary conservatorship proceedings under Prob. Code §

2700 [Prob. Code § 2702; see Prob. Code § 2700(a), (b), (c)(1)]. Further, Prob. Code § 2253(a) can be read to contain an implied general notice requirement for separate filing of the request. Under that reading, counsel should follow the notice requirements of Prob. Code § 1460, which governs the manner of giving notice when notice of a hearing is required but the applicable provision does not fix the manner of giving notice [see Prob. Code § 1460]. For further discussion of general and special notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[d] Court Investigation

Unless the court for good cause orders otherwise, the court investigator must do all of the following [Prob. Code § 2253(b)]:

- Interview the conservatee personally.

- Inform the conservatee of the nature, purpose, and effect of the request made under Prob. Code § 2253(a), and of the right of the conservatee to oppose the request, to attend the hearing, to be represented by legal counsel if the conservatee so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by the court if he or she is unable to obtain legal counsel.

- Determine whether the conservatee is unable to attend the hearing because of medical inability and, if able to attend, whether the conservatee is willing to attend the hearing.

- Determine whether the conservatee wishes to oppose the request.

- Determine whether the conservatee wishes to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing and, if so, whether the conservatee has retained legal counsel, or, if not, the name of an attorney the proposed conservatee wishes to retain or whether the conservatee desires the court to appoint legal counsel.

- If the conservatee does not plan to retain legal counsel and has not requested the appointment of legal counsel by the court, determine whether the appointment of legal counsel would be helpful to the resolution of the matter or is necessary to protect the interests of the conservatee.

- Determine whether the proposed change of place of residence is required to prevent irreparable harm to the conservatee and whether no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will suffice to prevent that harm.

- Report to the court in writing, at least two days before the hearing, concerning all of the foregoing, including the conservatee's express communications concerning representation by legal counsel and whether the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to oppose the request.

For a form for an order appointing a court investigator, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

The conservatee must be present at the hearing except in the following cases [Prob. Code § 2253(d)]:

- The conservatee is unable to attend the hearing by reason of medical inability. Emotional or psychological instability is not good cause for the absence of the conservatee from the hearing unless, if by reason of the instability, attendance at the hearing is likely to cause serious and immediate physiological damage to the conservatee.

- The court investigator has reported to the court that the conservatee has expressly communicated that the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to oppose the request, and the court makes an order that the conservatee need not attend the hearing.

[f] Establishing Medical Inability to Attend

Medical inability to attend the hearing must be established in either of the following ways [Prob. Code § 2253(e)]:

- By the affidavit or certificate (or declaration [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5]) of a licensed medical practitioner.

- If the conservatee is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on prayer alone for healing and is being treated by an accredited practitioner of that religion: by the affidavit of the practitioner.

The affidavit or certificate is evidence only of the conservatee's inability to attend the hearing and may not be considered in determining the issue of need for the establishment of a conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2253(e)]. For a declaration of a medical or an accredited practitioner, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

[g] Conservatee's Rights at Hearing

At the hearing, the conservatee has the right to be represented by counsel and the right to confront and cross-examine any witness presented by or on behalf of the temporary conservator and to present evidence on his or her own behalf [Prob. Code § 2253(f)].

[2] Emergency Change of Residence

[a] Removal Permitted

Notwithstanding Prob. Code § 2253 (requiring court authorization to change the residence of the conservatee), a temporary conservator may remove a conservatee from the conservatee's place of residence without court authorization if an emergency exists.

An emergency exists if the conservatee's place of residence is unfit for habitation. An emergency also exists if the temporary conservator determines in good faith based on medical advice that an emergency case exists in which removal from the place of residence is required to provide medical treatment needed to alleviate severe pain or to diagnose or treat a medical condition which, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, will lead to serious disability or death [Prob. Code § 2254(a)].

[b] Written Request for Authorization

No later than one judicial day after the emergency removal of the conservatee, the temporary conservator must file a written request pursuant to Prob. Code § 2253 for authorization to fix the residence of the conservatee at a place other than the conservatee's previous place of residence [Prob. Code § 2254(b)].

Nothing in the Probate Code relating to temporary guardians and conservators (Prob. Code §§ 2250-2258) prevents a temporary conservator from removing a conservatee from the place of residence to a health facility for treatment without court authorization when the conservatee has given informed consent to the removal, or from removing a conservatee without court authorization from one health facility where the conservatee is receiving medical care to another health facility where the conservatee will receive medical care [Prob. Code § 2254(c), (d)].

Unless extended or shortened by court order as provided in Prob. Code § 2257(b), the powers of a temporary guardian or conservator terminate (except for the rendering of the account) at the earlier of the following times [Prob. Code § 2257(a)]:

- The time the temporary guardian or conservator has notice that a guardian or conservator is appointed and qualified.

- Thirty days after the appointment of the temporary guardian or conservator or such earlier time as the court may specify in the order of appointment.

With or without notice as the court may require, the court for good cause may order that the time for the termination of the powers of the temporary guardian or conservator be extended pending final determination by the court of the petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator, or pending the final decision on appeal from that determination, or for other cause. The order that extends the time for termination must fix the time when the powers of the temporary guardian or conservator terminate except for the rendering of the account [Prob. Code § 2257(b)].

[1] Grounds for Removal

A temporary guardian or conservator is subject to the provisions governing the suspension, removal, resignation, and discharge of a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2258]. The grounds for removal are [Prob. Code § 2650]:

- Failure to use ordinary care and diligence in the management of the estate.
- Failure to file an inventory or an account within the time allowed by law or by court order.
- Continued failure to perform duties or incapacity to perform duties suitably.
- Conviction of a felony, whether before or after appointment.
- Gross immorality.
- Having such an interest adverse to the faithful performance of duties that there is an unreasonable risk that the guardian or conservator will fail to perform duties faithfully.
- In the case of a guardian of the person or a conservator of the person, acting in violation of any provision concerning sterilization, or administration of experimental drugs or convulsive treatment [see Prob. Code § 2356].
- In the case of a guardian of the estate or a conservator of the estate, insolvency or bankruptcy of the guardian or conservator.

In any case, the court may in its discretion determine that removal is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee [

Prob. Code § 2650(i)].

For a discussion of removal generally, see Ch. 290G, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Removal or Resignation of Guardian or Conservator . § 282.70 Appointment of Temporary Guardian or Conservator ☐ Prepare petition for appointment of temporary guardian or conservator and have it executed and verified by petitioner [Prob. Code §§ 1021, 2250]. Form: See § 282.80.

☐ Prepare notice of hearing in form prescribed by Judicial Council [Prob. Code § 1001(b); see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice] and effect service on following person(s) [Prob. Code § 2250(e)]. Form: see § 282.22.

☐ For temporary guardianship:

☐ On proposed ward if at least 12 years old.

☐ On natural parent or parents of proposed ward.

☐ On public guardian of county in which petition is filed, if petition states that petitioner and proposed conservatee have no prior relationship with proposed conservatee and has not been nominated by a family member, friend or other person with a relationship to proposed conservatee [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(2)].

☐ File petition and have court execute and file order setting date for hearing and prescribing and/or dispensing with notice [see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

NOTE:
In most counties, the proposed order must be filed before the hearing.

☐ If requesting authority to move proposed conservatee from his or her place of residence, prepare attachment ordering temporary conservator to take all reasonable steps to preserve status quo concerning conservatee's place of residence [Prob. Code § 2253(h)].

☐ Have order appointing temporary guardian or conservator executed by court.

☐ Mail copy of order appointing temporary conservator to conservatee; if ward is at least 12 years old, mail copy of order appointing temporary guardian to ward.

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-110, for use in petitioning for the appointment of a temporary guardian.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory when the petitioner is seeking a temporary guardianship of the estate or of the person and estate [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101; page 1 of form]. If the petitioner is seeking only a temporary guardianship of the person, either this form or Judicial Council Form GC-110(P) [see § 282.80A] may be used [see page 1 of form].

This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[3] Contents of Petition

[a] Grounds for Appointment

To establish grounds for a temporary appointment, the petition calls for a statement that the temporary guardianship is required in one of the following situations (Paragraph 4):

- Pending the hearing on the petition for a general guardian [Prob. Code § 2250(b)].

- During the suspension of powers of the guardian [Prob. Code § 2250(i)].

- Pending an appeal [Prob. Code § 1310(b)].

The petition must state facts establishing good cause for the appointment of the temporary guardian [Prob. Code § 2250(b)]. To satisfy this requirement, the form adopts the language of Prob. Code § 2252(a) relating to the powers of a temporary guardian and calls for a statement of reasons why the ward or conservatee requires a temporary guardian or conservator with those powers (Paragraph 3).

For a discussion of Prob. Code § 2252(a) powers, see § 282.30.

In addition, if for any reason a vacancy occurs in the office of guardian, the court, on a petition filed under Prob. Code § 2250(a) or on its own motion, may appoint a temporary guardian to exercise the guardian's or conservator's powers until a new guardian or conservator is appointed [Prob. Code § 2250(i)].

[b] Bonds

To indicate the manner in which bond requirements will be complied with, the form includes space to enter a request that bond not be required or that it be fixed in a specified amount (Paragraph 1c) [see Prob. Code §§ 2320-2324]. Data relating to estate assets is required for the computation of the bond (Paragraph 5). Space is also provided to request that deposits at a specified financial institution be allowed, a procedure that permits the court to reduce the amount of bond required (Paragraph 1c) [see Prob. Code § 2328].

For a discussion of bond requirements, see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds .

[c] Additional Powers

The court may order that the temporary guardian have additional powers, and the form includes a request for such additional powers (Paragraph 1e) [Prob. Code § 2252(c); see § 282.30]. If the temporary guardian intends to pursue a particular course of action regarding the person or property of the proposed ward or conservatee, the express power to undertake such an action could be sought in Attachment 1e.

[d] Other Orders

A request for other orders, such as the following, may be included in the petition (Paragraph 1f):

- That the temporary guardian not have the power to consent to medical treatment for the ward [Prob. Code § 2252(b); see § 282.30].

- That the powers of the temporary guardian will terminate in less than 30 days [Prob. Code § 2257(a)(2); see § 282.36].

[e] Notice

The form includes space to request for an exception to notice of the hearing for good cause (Paragraph 1d) [see § 282.83]. Unless the court for good cause orders otherwise, not less than five days before the appointment of the temporary guardian, notice of the proposed appointment must be personally delivered to the proposed ward, if at least 12 years old, to the natural parent or parents if the proposed ward is a minor, and to any person having a valid visitation order with the proposed ward that was effective at the time of the filing of the petition [Prob. Code § 2250(c); see also Cal. Rules of Court, Rules 7.1012, 7.1062, see § 282.22]. If the proposed ward is under 12 years of age, a notice of hearing must not be delivered to the proposed ward [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(1)].

A copy of the petition for guardianship must be serves with the notice of hearing [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(3)].

For forms relating to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.103(b), (c)].

[3] Contents of Petition

[a] Grounds for Appointment

To establish grounds for a temporary appointment, the petition calls for a statement that the temporary conservator is required in one of the following situations (Paragraph 4):

- Pending the hearing on the petition for general conservator [Prob. Code § 2250(b)].
- Pending an appeal [Prob. Code § 1310(b)].
- During the suspension of powers of the conservator [Prob. Code § 2250(i)].

The petition must state facts establishing good cause for the appointment of a temporary conservator [Prob. Code § 2250 (b)]. To satisfy this requirement, the form adopts the language of Prob. Code § 2252(a) relating to the powers of a temporary conservator and calls for a statement of reasons why the conservatee requires a temporary conservator with those powers (Paragraph 3). For a discussion of powers under Prob. Code § 2252(a), see § 282.30.

If the petitioner is a private professional conservator under Prob. Code § 2341 or licensed under the Professional Fiduciaries Act [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.], the petition must include a statement of the petitioner's registration or license information, and a statement explaining who engaged the petitioner or how the petitioner was engaged to file the petition and what prior relationship the petitioner had with the proposed conservatee or proposed conservatee's family or friends, unless that information is included in a petition for appointment of a general conservator filed at the same time (Paragraph 7) [Prob. Code § 2250(c)]. If the petition is filed by a party other than the proposed conservatee, the petition must include a declaration of due diligence showing the efforts to find the proposed conservatee's relatives named in the petition or why it was not feasible to contact any of them, and the preferences of the proposed conservatee concerning the appointment of a temporary conservator and the appointment of the proposed temporary conservator, or why it was not feasible to ascertain those preferences (Paragraph 8) [Prob. Code § 2250(d)].

In addition, if for any reason a vacancy occurs in the office of conservator, the court, on a petition filed under Prob. Code § 2250(a) or on its own motion, may appoint a temporary conservator to exercise the guardian's or conservator's powers until a new guardian or conservator is appointed [Prob. Code § 2250(i)].

[b] Bonds

To indicate the manner in which bond requirements will be complied with, the form includes space to enter a request that bond not be required or that it be fixed in a specified amount (Paragraph 1c) [see Prob. Code § 2320-2324]. Data relating to estate assets is required for the computation of the bond (Paragraph 5). Space is also provided to request that deposits at a specified financial institution be allowed, a procedure that permits the court to reduce the amount of bond required (Paragraph 1c) [see Prob. Code § 2328].

For a discussion of bond requirements, see Ch. 283, Guardianships and Conservatorships: Bonds .

[c] Additional Powers

The court may order that the temporary conservator have additional powers, and the form includes a request for additional powers (Paragraph 1e) [Prob. Code § 2252(c); see § 282.30]. If the temporary conservator intends to pursue a particular course of action regarding the person or property of the proposed conservatee, the express power to undertake such an action could be sought in Attachment 1e.

[d] Change of Conservatee's Residence

If a change of a conservatee's residence is requested, the petition must specify in particular the place to which the temporary conservator proposes to move the conservatee, the precise reasons why it is believed that the conservatee will suffer irreparable harm if the change of residence is not permitted, and why no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will suffice to prevent that harm (Paragraph 6a) [Prob. Code § 2253(a)]. In addition, removal from California is limited to instances when it is necessary to permit the performance of specified nonpsychiatric medical treatment, consented to by the conservatee, which is essential to his or her physical survival (Paragraph 6b) [Prob. Code § 2253(g)].

For a further discussion of changing the conservatee's residence, see § 282.32.

To show compliance with the requirement that the conservatee attend the hearing unless unable or unwilling to do so, the form includes statements relating to the attendance of the conservatee at the hearing and to the attachment of a medical affidavit (or declaration [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5]) if he or she is unable to attend because of medical inability (Paragraph 6c) [Prob. Code § 2253(d), (e); see § 282.32[1][f]. Space is also provided to call the court's attention to the fact that a proposed order appointing a court investigator is attached to the petition (Paragraph 6d) [see Prob. Code § 2253(b); see also Prob. Code § 1454 (qualifications of court investigator)].

For forms for a medical declaration and a proposed order appointing a court investigator, see Ch. 281 Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

[e] Other Orders

A request for other orders, such as the following, may be included in the petition (Paragraph 1f):

- That the temporary conservator not have the power to consent to medical treatment for the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2252(b); see § 282.30].

- That the temporary conservator be allowed to sell or relinquish real or personal property on the conservatee's behalf [Prob. Code § 2252(e); see § 282.31].

- That the powers of the temporary conservator will terminate in less than 30 days [Prob. Code § 2257(a)(2); see § 282.36].

[f] Notice

The form includes space to request for an exception to notice of the hearing for good cause (Paragraph 1d) [see § 282.83]. Unless the court, for good cause, orders otherwise, not less than five days before the appointment of the temporary conservator, notice of the proposed appointment must be personally delivered to proposed conservatee [Prob. Code § 2250(c)]; see also Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 7.1012, 7.1062, see § 282.22].

Notice of the hearing also must be personally delivered to the proposed conservatee, and served on the persons required to be named in the petition for appointment of conservator [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(2)]. If the petition states that the petitioner and the proposed conservator have no prior relationship with the proposed conservatee and have not been nominated by a family member, friend, or other person with a relationship to the proposed conservatee, notice of hearing must be served on the public guardian of the county in which the petition is filed [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(2)].

A copy of the petition for guardianship must be serves with the notice of hearing [Prob. Code § 2250(e)(3)].

For forms relating to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice.

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a); Cal. Rules Ct., Rule 7.103(b), (c)].

[3] Contents of Order

[a] Notice

If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that notice has been regularly given or that notice was modified or dispensed with [see §§ 282.83, 282.84] (Paragraph 2) the court must so find in its order, and the order, when it becomes final is conclusive on all persons [*Prob. For further discussion on proof and findings related to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[b] Termination of Appointment

The court may order that the appointment terminate at any time less than 30 days from the date of the appointment (Paragraph 14) [Prob. Code § 2257(a); see § 282.36].

[c] Change of Conservatee's Residence

Findings that change of residence is required to prevent irreparable harm to the conservatee and that no means less restrictive of the conservatee's liberty will prevent irreparable harm are required in order for the court to approve a request to remove the conservatee from his or her place of residence (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 2253(g)]. Moreover, before the temporary conservator can be authorized to remove the conservatee from California, it must be shown that the removal is required to permit the performance of specified nonpsychiatric medical treatment, consented to by the conservatee, which is essential to the conservatee's physical survival (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 2253(g)].

The conservatee generally must attend the hearing on a change of residence, but need not attend if the court investigator has reported to the court that the conservatee has expressly communicated that the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to oppose the request, and the court orders that the conservatee need not attend the hearing [Prob. Code § 2253(d)]. This forms includes both a finding (Paragraph 6) and an order (Paragraph 11) that the conservatee need not attend the hearing.

If the order authorizes a temporary conservator to remove the conservatee from his or her place of residence, the order must state the specific place where the temporary conservator is authorized to place the conservatee (Paragraphs 9, 10) [Prob. Code § 2253(g)].

In addition, subject to the power of the court to approve the sale of the conseravtee's residential property [see Prob. Code § 2252(e); see also § 282.31], if the court approves a request to move the conservatee from his or her previous place of residence, it must order the temporary conservator to take all reasonable steps to preserve the status quo concerning the conservatee's previous place of residence [Prob. Code § 2253(h)]. This order is not printed on the form, and it is suggested that it can be specified in Attachment 12 (Paragraph 12).

[3] Issuance and Purpose of Letters

Before the appointment of a temporary guardian or conservator is effective, he or she must take an oath (or affirmation [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.6]) to perform the duties of the office according to law and file the bond, if bond is required. The appointment, taking of the oath, and filing of any required bond are thereafter evidenced by the issuance of letters by the clerk [Prob. Code §§ 2251, 2300, 2310].

[4] Contents of Letters

The oath (or affirmation [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.6]) must be attached to or endorsed on the letters [Prob. Code §§ 2251, 2300]. The letters must indicate the termination date of the temporary appointment (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code §

2251].

The letters must also include the terms of any order restricting the temporary guardian's or conservator's power relating to medical treatment of the ward or conservatee under Prob. Code § 2252(b) or granting such additional powers and duties as the court may order in the order of appointment or in a subsequent order under Prob. Code § 2252(c) [Prob. Code § 2252(d); see § 282.30].

The seal of the court must be affixed to the letters [Code Civ. Proc. § 153; Prob. Code §§ 2251, 2311, 8405].

§ 283.11 Definitions

[1] Admitted Surety Insurer

An "admitted surety insurer" is a corporate insurer or a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange to which the Insurance Commissioner has issued a certificate of authority to transact surety insurance in California [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.120(a); see Ins. Code § 105 (surety insurance)]. An admitted surety insurer must be accepted as surety on a bond without further acknowledgment if the bond is executed in the name of the surety insurer under penalty of perjury or the fact of execution of the bond is duly acknowledged before an officer authorized to take and certify acknowledgments, and either one of the following conditions, at the option of the surety insurer, is satisfied [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.630]:

- A copy of the transcript or record of the unrevoked appointment, power of attorney, bylaws, or other instrument, duly certified by the proper authority and attested by the seal of the insurer entitling or authorizing the person who executed the bond to do so for and in behalf of the insurer, is filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the court or officer is located.

- A copy of a power of attorney is attached to the bond.

[2] Surety

Anyone promising to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another, or hypothecating property as security for such a promise, is a "surety" [Civ. Code § 2787; Code Civ. Proc. § 995.185(a)]. A surety includes a personal surety and an admitted surety insurer [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.185(a)]. A corporation cannot be accepted or approved as surety on a bond unless specified conditions are met [Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.1130; see Ch. 538, Suretyship, Bonds, and Undertakings].

24-283 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 283.20

§ 283.20 Bond Required Unless Exception Applies

[1] Guardian or Conservator of the Estate

Before the appointment of a guardian or conservator is effective and letters are issued, the guardian or conservator must file a bond if a bond is required [Prob. Code §§ 2300(b), 2320(a)]. Except in special cases [see Ch. 282, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Temporary Guardians and Conservators, §§ 282.22, 282.23], a bond is required, and the guardian or conservator must give a bond approved by the court [Prob. Code § 2320(a)]. The bond is for the benefit of the ward or conservatee and all persons interested in the guardianship or conservatorship estate, and must be conditioned on the faithful execution of the guardian's or conservator's duties according to law [Prob. Code § 2320(b)]. In case of a breach of a condition of the bond, an action may be brought against the sureties on the bond for the use and benefit of the ward or conservatee or of any person interested in the estate [Prob. Code § 2333(a)]. Every bond given by a guardian or conservator must be filed and preserved in the office of the court clerk [Code Civ. Proc § 995.340; see Prob. Code § 2320(e)].

If the guardian or conservator is a nonprofit corporation, the surety on the bond must be an admitted surety insurer [Prob. Code § 2325; see Prob. Code § 2104; see also Code Civ. Proc. § 995.120(a)].

[2] Guardian or Conservator of the Person

One appointed as guardian or conservator of the person need not file a bond, unless required to do so by the court [Prob. Code § 2322].

[3] Deposit in Lieu of Bond

As an alternative to filing the required surety bond, the guardian or conservator may file any of the following with the court clerk [see Code Civ. Proc. § 995.710(a); see also Code Civ. Proc. § 995.160]:

- Lawful money of the United States.

- Bearer bonds or bearer notes of the United States or the State of California.
- Certificates of deposit issued by banks or savings and loan associations.
- Savings accounts, assigned to the court clerk, with evidence of deposit.
- Investment certificates or share accounts assigned to the court clerk.
- Certificates for funds or share accounts assigned to the court clerk.

The deposit must be in an amount or have a face value equal to, or in excess of, the amount that would be required to be secured by the bond if the bond were given by an admitted surety insurer. Bearer bonds or notes must have a market value equal to, or in excess of, this amount [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.710(b)].

If joint guardians or conservators are appointed, the court may order that separate bonds or a joint bond or a combination be furnished [Prob. Code § 2326(a)]. If a joint bond is furnished, the liability on the bond is joint and several [Prob. Code § 2326(b)]. If the proceeding involves more than one ward, the court may order separate bonds or a single bond or a combination [Prob. Code § 2327(b)]. If the proceeding involves more than one conservatee, the court must order a separate bond for each conservatee. However, if the assets of the conservatees are commingled, the court may provide a combined bond that covers all of the assets [Prob. Code § 2327(a)].

[1] Conservator

The court in a conservatorship proceeding may not waive the filing of a bond, or reduce the amout of the bond, without good cause. Good cause may not be established merely by the conservator having filed a bond in another or prior proceeding [Prob. Code § 2321(a)]. Good cause must include a determination by the court that the conservatee will not suffer harm as a result of the waiver or reduction of the bond [Prob. Code § 2321(a)].

If the conservatee, having sufficient capacity to do so, has waived the filing of a bond, the court in its discretion may permit the filing of a bond in an amount less than would otherwise be required [Prob. Code § 2321; see Prob. Code § 2320].

[2] Guardian

If the person making the nomination has waived the filing of a bond, a guardiannominated under Prob. Code § 1500 (nomination by parent) or Prob. Code § 1501 (nomination by person from whom minor receives property) need not file a bond unless required to do so by the court [Prob. Code § 2324]. For discussion of nomination of guardians, see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians .

§ 283.23 Dispensing With Bond for Small Estate

The court may dispense with the requirement of a bond if it appears likely that, for the duration of the guardianship or conservatorship, the estate will satisfy the conditions of Prob. Code § 2628(a) governing small estates [Prob. Code § 2323(a)]. However, if it appears at any time that the estate does not satisfy the conditions of Prob. Code § 2628(a), the court may require the filing of a bond [Prob. Code § 2323(a)].

To qualify as a small estate, all of the following conditions must be satisfied [Prob. Code § 2628(a)]:

- At the beginning and end of a period for which an account is otherwise required, the estate must consist of property of a total net value of less than $15,000.

- The income of the estate for each month of the accounting period, exclusive of public benefit payments must have been less than $2,000.

- All income of the estate during the accounting period, if not retained, must have been spent for the benefit of the ward or conservatee.

B. General Requirements

§ 283.24 Contents of Bond

[1] In General

The bond must be written, signed by the sureties under oath, and must include all of the following [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.320(a)]:

- A statement that the sureties are jointly and severally liable on the obligations of the statute providing for the bond.

- The address at which the principal and sureties may be served with notices, papers, and other documents under this chapter.

- If the amount of the bond is based on the value of property or an interest in property, a description of the property or interest, and the principal's estimate of the value of the property or interest or, if given pursuant to the estimate of the beneficiary or court, the value as so estimated.

[2] Declaration of Personal Surety

A bond executed by personal sureties must be accompanied by an affidavit (or declaration under Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5) of qualifications of each surety [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.520(a)]. The affidavit must contain all of the following information [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.520(b)]:

- The name, occupation, residence address, and business address (if any) of the surety.

- A statement that the surety is a resident, and either an owner of real property or householder, within the state.

- A statement that the surety is worth the amount of the bond in real or personal property, or both, situated in California, over and above all debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

If the amount of the bond exceeds $5,000, the affidavit must contain additional information concerning the property of the surety and its value and title [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.520(c)]. For a discussion of the sufficiency of personal sureties, see Ch. 538, Suretyship, Bonds, and Undertakings .

C. Amount of Bond

24-283 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 283.30

§ 283.30 Determination of Amount

[1] Bond of Admitted Surety Insurer

Unless the court increases or decreases the amount on a showing of good cause, the amount of a bond given by an admitted surety insurer [see Code Civ. Proc. § 995.120; see also § 283.11], must be the sum of the following [Prob. Code § 2320(c)]:

- The value of the personal property of the estate,
- The probable annual gross income of all of the property of the estate, and
- The sum of the probable annual gross payments from:
  - State public assistance [Welf. & Inst. Code § 11000 et seq.], state services for the care of children [Welf. & Inst. Code § 16000 et seq.], or county aid and relief to indigents [Welf. & Inst. Code § 17000 et seq.].
  - Federal supplemental security income for the aged, blind, or disabled [42 U.S.C. §§ 1382-1382g].
  - Any other public entitlements of the ward or conservatee.

- Unless otherwise provided by statute, every conservator or guardian of the estate must furnish a bond that includes a reasonable amount for the cost of recovery to collect on the bond under Prob. Code § 2320 (c)(4) [Cal. Rule Ct., Rule 7.207]. The attorney's fees and costs incurred in a successful action for surcharge against a conservator or guardian for breach of his or her duties will be a surcharge against the conservator or guardian and, if unpaid, will be recovered against the surety on the bond [Prob. Code § 2320(c)(4); see also Cal. Rule Ct., Rule 7.207].

[2] Bond of Personal Surety

If the bond is given by a personal surety, the amount of the bond must be twice the amount required for a bond given by an admitted surety insurer [Prob. Code § 2320(d)].

Chapter 283 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: BONDS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
C. Amount of Bond

24-283 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 283.31

§ 283.31 Sureties

[1] Number of Sureties

The bond must be executed by two or more sufficient personal sureties, by one sufficient admitted surety insurer, or by any combination of sufficient personal sureties and admitted surety insurers [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.310; see Code Civ. Proc. § 995.610(a) (one sufficient admitted surety insurer may be sole surety on bond)].

If the amount of the bond exceeds $10,000, and the bond is executed by more than two personal sureties, the worth of a personal surety may be less than the amount of the bond as long as the aggregate worth of all sureties executing the bond is twice the amount of the bond [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.510(b)].

For discussion of the sufficiency of personal sureties and admitted surety insurers, see Ch. 538, Suretyship, Bonds, and Undertakings .

[2] Substitution and Discharge of Surety

A surety on a bond may apply to the court at any time for an order that the surety be released from liability on the bond [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.110(a)]. If the surety applies for release from liability on a bond, the conservator or guardian may apply to the court for an order that another surety be substituted for the original surety [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.110(b)]. An account must be filed with the application. The court may not order a substitution of sureties unless the account is approved [Prob. Code § 2335].

On hearing the application, the court must determine whether the injury to the estate of the conservatee would result from the substitution or release of the surety. If the court determines that the release would not reduce the amount of the bond [see § 283.30] or the number of sureties [see [1], above] below the minimum required, substitution of a sufficient surety is not required, and the court must order the release of the surety. If the court determines that no injury would result from the substitution of the surety, the court must order the substitution of a sufficient surety within such time as appears reasonable [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.120].

For forms for use in applying for release from liability, see Ch. 538, Suretyship, Bonds, and Undertakings, § 538.40 et seq.

[3] Liability of Surety

[a] Nature and Extent

The bond of a guardian or conservator is conditioned on the faithful execution of the duties of the office according to law [Prob. Code § 2320]. If there is a breach of a condition of the bond of a guardian or conservator, an action may be brought against the sureties on the bond for the use and benefit of the ward or conservatee or of any person interested in the estate [Prob. Code § 2333(a)].

The surety is liable only for injury done to the estate by the guardian or conservator while performing an act in his or her official capacity. The surety is not liable for the guardian's or conservator's personal acts or schemes [see Hornaday v. Hornaday (1949) 95 Cal. App. 2d 384, 396-397, 213 P.2d 91] .

The sureties signing the bond are jointly and severally liable on the obligations of the bond [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.320(b)]. If two or more admitted surety insurers are sureties on a bond by having executed the same or separate bonds for amounts aggregating the required amount of the bond, each admitted surety insurer is jointly and severally liable to the extent of the amount of the liability assumed by it [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.620].

[b] Statute of Limitations

No action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless commenced within four years from the discharge or removal of the guardian or conservator or within four years from the date the order surcharging the guardian or conservator becomes final, whichever is later [Prob. Code § 2333(b)].

When a judgment or order in a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding becomes final, it releases the sureties from all claims of the ward or conservatee based on an act or omission directly authorized, approved, or confirmed in the judgment or order [Prob. Code § 2103(a)]. This rule does not apply when the judgment or order is obtained by fraud, conspiracy, or misrepresentation [Prob. Code § 2103(b)]. However, in any case, and notwithstanding Prob. Code § 2103(b), no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless the action commences within six years from the date the judgment under Prob. Code § 2103 or the later of the orders under Prob. Code § 2333(b) becomes final [Prob. Code § 2333(c)].

Even though Code Civ. Proc. § 337, which applies to actions based on written contracts, is broad enough to encompass an action on a surety bond, Prob. Code § 2333 is the statute of limitations applicable to an action against the surety on the bond for injury done to the estate by a guardian or conservator in the performance of acts in his or her official capacity, because Prob. Code § 2333 is more specifically applicable to the claim than is Code Civ. Proc. § 337 [see Estate of Mason (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 634, 638, 274 Cal. Rptr. 61 (Prob. Code § 2333 was expressly applicable to claim against guardian brought by former ward on surety bond for guardian's performance)].

When Prob. Code § 2333 applies, it is arguable that in the situation in which discharge or removal does not or cannot occur, a former ward or conservatee could indefinitely delay obtaining a surcharge order, thereby providing no outside limit on the liability of the surety on the bond. The doctrine of laches, however, could be invoked to ensure that wards and conservatees exercise reasonable diligence in procuring settlement of their guardians' or conservators' accounts [see Estate of Mason (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 634, 640, 274 Cal. Rptr. 61] .

[c] Accounting Prerequisite to Action Against Surety

An action, except an action based on fraud, will not lie against a guardian's or conservator's surety until after an accounting has been had between the guardian and the ward or the conservator and conservatee [see Richardson v. Royal Indemnity Co. (1943) 21 Cal. 2d 557, 560, 134 P.2d 1 ; Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 51, 19 P.2d 1018] . The probate court has exclusive jurisdiction of the accounting, and the accounting is a prerequisite to the maintenance of an action on the bond [Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 51-52, 19 P.2d 1018 ; see Price v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Companies (1987) 193 Cal. App. 3d 1536, 1541, 239 Cal. Rptr. 158 (action for conversion)].

When an action based on fraud is brought after the final accounting in the probate proceeding, it is not necessary to obtain a court order determining liability of the principal before an action on the bond can be brought against the surety. The liability of both the principal and the surety can be adjudicated in one proceeding [see Alexandrou v. Alexander (1974) 37 Cal. App. 3d 306, 311-313, 112 Cal. Rptr. 307 (estate administration case)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
C. Amount of Bond

24-283 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 283.32

§ 283.32 Bond Reduction by Deposit in Blocked Account

[1] Effect on Amount of Bond

In any proceeding to determine the amount of the bond of a guardian or conservator (whether at the time of appointment or subsequently), if the estate includes property that has been or will be deposited with a trust company or a financial institution pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 2453-2456 (governing deposits of funds, property, and securities), on the condition that the property, including any earnings, will not be withdrawn except on authorization of the court, then the court, in its discretion, with or without notice, may exclude the deposited property in determining the amount of the required bond or may reduce the amount of the bond to an amount that it determines is reasonable [Prob. Code § 2328(a)(1)].

If a bond has already been furnished or the amount has been fixed, the court may reduce the amount to an amount it determines is reasonable [Prob. Code § 2328(a)(2); for a form for an order, see § 283.72].

[2] Establishing Blocked Account

To establish a blocked account, the petitioner for letters, or the proposed guardian or conservator in advance of appointment, may take any the following steps [Prob. Code § 2328(b)]:

- Deliver personal property of the estate in his or her possession to a trust company.
- Deliver money in his or her possession for deposit in an insured account in a financial institution in California.
- Allow a trust company to retain personal property already in its possession.
- Allow a financial institution in California to retain money of the estate already invested with it.

In thus receiving and retaining property on deposit, the trust company or financial institution is protected to the same extent as though it received the property on deposit from a person to whom letters had been issued [Prob. Code § 2328(d)].

[3] Filing of Receipt

Once property is deposited or segregated to be retained, the petitioner or proposed guardian or conservator must obtain and file with the court a written receipt including the agreement of the trust company or financial institution that the property deposited, and any earnings, will not be allowed to be withdrawn except on authorization of the court [Prob. Code § 2328(c); for a form for a receipt, see § 283.73].

D. Reduction or Increase in Bond

§ 283.40 Application to Reduce Bond

A guardian or conservator may apply to the court for reduction in the amount of the bond by filing a noticed motion supported by an affidavit (or declaration under Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5) that sets forth the condition of the estate [Prob. Code § 2329(a); see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030; for forms, see §§ 283.70, 283.71]. Except on a showing of good cause, the amount of the bond must not be reduced below the amount determined pursuant to Prob. Code § 2320, whichgoverns the amount of guardianship and conservatorship bonds [Prob. Code § 2329(b); see § 283.30]. Nothing in Prob. Code § 2329 limits the authority of the court to reduce the amount of the bond, with or without notice under Prob. Code § 2328 [Prob. Code § 2329(c)].

The general procedures for the determination of an excessive bond are set forth in the Bond and Undertaking Law (Code Civ. Proc. § 995.010 et seq.) [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030; see also Code Civ. Proc. § 995.020(a)]. On hearing the motion, the court may reduce the amount of the bond to an amount that the court, in its discretion, determines is proper under the circumstances [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030(a)]. The guardian or conservator may give a bond for the reduced amount. The sureties may be the same sureties as on the original bond [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030(c)].

§ 283.41 Additional Bond for Real Property Sale or Mortgage

On the confirmation of the sale of any real property of an estate or on the authorization of any mortgage or deed of trust with respect to real property of an estate, by which money is to be raised, the guardian or conservator must furnish an additional bond in order to make the sum of the bonds furnished by the guardian or conservator equal to the amount determined pursuant to Prob. Code § 2320 (amount of bond), taking into account the proceeds of the sale or mortgage or deed of trust, unless the court makes an express finding stating the reason why the bond should not be increased [Prob. Code § 2330; see § 283.30]. If a bond or additional bond is required, the order confirming the sale of real property of the estate or authorizing the borrowing of money secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of the estate is not effective and may not be filed by the court until the additional bond is filed [Prob. Code § 2330].

D. Reduction or Increase in Bond

§ 283.42 Motion for Further Security

A guardian or conservator may be ordered to post a bond when no bond was originally required, or may be ordered to furnish an additional bond because the original bond has become insufficient [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010; Prob. Code § 2334], on an appropriate motion for further security [for forms, see §§ 283.74, 283.75]. If the court determines that the bond is insufficient, it must order that a sufficient, new, additional, or supplemental bond be given within a reasonable time, not less than five days [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010(c)]. If a sufficient bond is not given within the time required by the court order, all rights obtained by giving the original bond will immediately cease, and the court, on ex parte motion, must so order [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010(d)].

If a party requests an order that a guardian or conservator be required to give a bond when no bond was originally required, or an objection is made to the sufficiency of a bond, and the notice of motion or affidavit (or declaration under Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5) supporting the objection shows that the guardian or conservator is failing to use ordinary care in the management of the estate, the court, by order, may suspend the power of the guardian or conservator until the matter can be heard and determined [Prob. Code § 2334].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
D. Reduction or Increase in Bond

§ 283.43 Ex Parte Application to Increase Bond

If a guardian or conservator has knowledge of facts from which he knows or should know that the bond posted is less than the amount required by statute, the guardian or conservator, and the attorney, if any, are required to make an ex parte application for an order increasing the bond to the required amount [Prob. Code § 2320.1; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 7.204(a), (b), 7.501(b)]. The application must show the value of the estate's personal property, the probable annual gross income of all property of the estate, and the sum of the probable annual gross payments of the public benefits of the ward or conservatee identified in Prob. Code § 2320(c)(3) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.204(c)(2)]. After January 1, 2008, the amount of the bond must include the reasonable amount for the cost of recovery to collect on the bond, including attorney's fees and costs [Prob. Code § 2320(c)(4)]. The attorney's fees and costs incurred in a successful action for surcharge against a conservator or guardian for breach of his or her duties will be a surcharge against the conservator or guardian and if unpaid, will be recovered against the surety on the bond [Prob. Code § 2320(c)(4); see also Cal. Rule Ct., Rule 7.207]. If the guardian or conservator of the estate has authority to sell estate real property without court confirmation, the application must also show the amount of the equity in estate real property [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.204(c)(3)]. If the court requires additional bond upon hearing the account, the additional bond must be filed before the order approving the account and related matters, including fees, is filed by the court and becomes effective [Prob. Code § 2320.2].

PART IV. PROCEDURAL CHECKLIST

24-283 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 283.60

§ 283.60 Obtaining Original Bond for Guardian or Conservator

[1] Facts to Be Ascertained

☐ Estimated value of all personal property.

☐ Probable gross income of the estate.

NOTE:
The public entitlement payments that must be taken into account are those made under 42 U.S.C. § 1382 et seq. (supplementary security income for aged, blind, or disabled), and under Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 11000 et seq., 16000 et seq., and 17000 et seq. (public assistance, state services for the care of children, and county aid and relief to indigents).

[2] Preliminary Determinations

[a] Use of Blocked Accounts

☐ Ascertain value of cash, securities, and personal property available for deposit in trust company or financial institution, subject to withdrawal only by court order [see Prob. Code § 2328]; property that may be deposited includes [Code Civ. Proc. § 995.710(a)]:

☐ Lawful money of the United States (which must be maintained in an interest-bearing trust account).

☐ Bearer bonds or bearer notes of the United States or the State of California.

☐ Certificates of deposit, not exceeding the federally insured amount, issued by banks or savings associations authorized to do business in California and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

☐ Savings accounts, not exceeding the federally insured amount, together with evidence of the deposit in the savings accounts with banks authorized to do business in California and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

☐ Investment certificates or share accounts, not exceeding the federally insured amount, issued by savings associations authorized to do business in California and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

☐ Certificates for funds or share accounts, not exceeding the guaranteed amount, issued by a credit union.

NOTE:
If a deposit into a blocked account is made, the amount of bond necessary will be reduced by the amount deposited. A receipt for the deposit must be obtained from the institution [Prob. Code § 2328]. For a form, see § 283.73.

☐ Ascertain amount of premium to be saved annually be excluding property deposited in blocked account from amount of bond.

☐ Ascertain charge for blocked account.

☐ If determination is made to deposit property in blocked account:

☐ Collect assets for deposit.

☐ If depository does not have its own receipt form, prepare original and copies of receipt [see § 283.73 (form)].

☐ Deliver property to depository and have authorized officer sign the receipt.

[b] Obtaining Bond

☐ Determine whether to obtain bond in appropriate amount from admitted surety insurer, or from two or more sufficient personal sureties [see Code Civ. Proc. § 995.310].

☐ If personal sureties are being used, prepare bond and declarations.

NOTE:
If an admitted surety insurer is being used, ordinarily the bond will be prepared by the admitted surety insurer. Arrange with a broker or bonding company to have the bond available on the date of the hearing. Many brokers and bonding companies will leave the amount blank to be filled in when the order is made.

[1] FORM Notice of Motion to Reduce Bond

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

_____ [Guardianship or Conservatorship or Limited Conservatorship] of the _____ [Estate or Person and Estate] of _____ [name], _____ [Ward or Conservatee].	)))))	NO. _____ [Hearing set for _____ (date), at _____ (time), in Dept. No. _____] NOTICE OF MOTION FOR ORDER TO REDUCE BOND, SUPPORTING DECLARATION OF _____ [name], AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

To _____ [specify parties, e.g., _____ (name) the conservatee], and to his/her attorney of record:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on _____[date], at _____[time], or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in [_____ (Department or Division) _____ of] this court, located at _____[street address], _____[city], _____[name of guardian or conservator] as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name of ward or conservatee] will move for an order to reduce his/her liability on the bond previously filed with this court. The motion will be made on the ground that the bond is excessive because:

1. At the time of his/her appointment, the moving party filed a surety bond in the sum of $_____;

2. The estimated value of the assets of the estate currently held by the moving party is $_____;

[EITHER]

3. The moving party _____ [has deposited or proposes to deposit] the sum of $_____ in a blocked account at _____[name and address of authorized institution];

[OR]

3. The estimated value of the assets when the bond was filed was $_____ and, as appears above, this total has been reduced to $_____ by reason of _____ [specify, e.g., the use of the principal to provide necessary support for the conservatee];

[CONTINUE]

4. Therefore, the total sum required for the bond is now $_____[, if the value of the deposited assets is excluded in determining the amount of the renewal bond].

[5. Moving party desires that the income from the securities deposited and interest from the money deposited be paid to the moving party. The income is required to provide for the care and support of the _____ (ward or conservatee).]

[6. A request for special notice has _____ (not been filed in this matter or been filed and waived by _____ (name) or been filed in this matter by _____ (name) and notice of the time and place of hearing on this motion will be given).]

The motion will be based on this notice of motion, on the declaration of _____[name of guardian or conservator], setting forth the condition of the estate [and on the declaration(s) of _____ (specify names of additional declarants, if any)], on the memorandum of points and authorities served and filed herewith, on the papers and records on file herein, [including a deposit receipt signed by an authorized agent of _____ (name of depository),] and on such oral and documentary evidence as may be presented at the hearing of the motion.
Dated: _____.

By: _____ [signature]

_____ [typed name]

Attorney for _____ [moving party]

[Append supporting declaration. See § 283.71[1].]

[Append memorandum of points and authorities.]

The notice of motion in [1], above, is for use in obtaining an order reducing the required bond because certain assets have been deposited in a blocked account or because the estate of the ward or conservatee has been reduced [see Prob. Code §§ 2328, 2329].

If assets are deposited in a blocked account at the time of the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator, allegations regarding reduction of thebond may be contained in the petition for appointment [see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians ; Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

A memorandum must be served and filed with the notice of motion [see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 1005(b), 1010; see also Prob. Code § 2329; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 3.1113].

For a form for a declaration that may be used to support this motion, see § 283.71; for the related form of order, see § 283.72.

[3] Reduction of Bond

A guardian or conservator may apply to the court for reduction of the amount of the bond by serving and filing a notice of motion supported by an affidavit (or declaration [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5]) that sets forth the condition of the estate [Prob. Code § 2329(a)]. On hearing the motion, the court may reduce the amount of the bond to such an amount as the court in its discretion determines is proper under the circumstances [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030(a); see § 283.40].

The governing statute does not limit the authority of the court to reduce the amount of the bond with or without notice under Prob. Code § 2328 [Prob. Code § 2329(c)]. Property deposited with the agreement of the depository that withdrawal will not be allowed except on authorization of the court can be excluded from the computation of the amount of the bond [Prob. Code § 2328; see § 283.32].

[4] Notice

It appears that service of the notice of motion is governed by the Bond and Undertaking Law [see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 995.950, 996.030, 996.010; Prob. Code § 2320(e)].

[1] FORM Declaration Supporting Motion to Reduce Bond

DECLARATION OF _____ [name]

I, _____[name of guardian or conservator], declare:

1. I am the _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee].

2. The total value of the assets, excluding real property, of the estate of _____[name of ward or conservatee] is $_____. The assets of the estate are valued as follows:

Real property: $_____
Annual income from real property: $_____
Personal property: $_____
Annual income from personal property: $_____

3. At the time of my appointment, I filed a surety bond for the amount of $_____.

[EITHER]

4. I _____ [have deposited or propose to deposit] the sum of $_____ in a blocked account at _____[name and address of authorized institution].

[OR]

4. Since the amount of the bond was originally set, the total personal property and annual income of the property has been reduced from $_____ to $_____ by reason of _____ [specify, e.g., the use of the principal to provide necessary support for the conservatee].

[CONTINUE]

5. Therefore, the total sum required for the bond is now $_____.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

_____ [typed name]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a declaration setting forth the condition of the estate [Prob. Code § 2329(a); see Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5]. It is to be used to support a notice of motion to reduce the required bond because the guardian or conservator has deposited certain assets in a blocked account[see Prob. Code § 2328] or because the estate of the ward or conservatee has been reduced [see Prob. Code § 2329; see also Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030].

The form may be appended to a notice of motion to reduce the guardian's or conservator's bond [for a form of notice of motion, see § 283.70].

Conservatorship] of the _____	)	ORDER
[Person or Estate or Person and Estate] of	)
_____ [name],	)

The motion of _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name of ward or conservatee], for reduction of liability on his/her bond came on regularly for hearing by the court this date. Moving party appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearance, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

[2. The assets listed below should be deposited in an account from which withdrawals are allowed only on court order.]

3. A liability of $_____ is sufficient on the bond of the _____ [guardian or conservator] for future acts.

IT IS ORDERED:

2. Liability on the bond filed in this matter on _____[date], is reduced to the sum of $_____ for the future acts of _____ [name of guardian or conservator], and the surety is released from liability on the bond for future acts of _____ [name of guardian or conservator] in excess of the sum of $_____, _____ [effective _____ (date) or effective the date the deposit receipt listing all of the above assets, signed by an authorized agent of _____ (name of depository), is filed].
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a motion to reduce the amount of guardian's or conservator's bond [Prob. Code § 2328; for the related form of notice of motion, see § 283.70].

The form contains optional provisions for use when the motion is based on the deposit of assets in a blocked account. In accordance with the general preference of the sureties and the court [see, e.g., Alameda Co. Super. Court Rules, Rule 12.15.11.4], the order reduces the liability on the original bond and does not substitute a new bond.

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

An order for the reduction of the bond based on the deposit of assets in a blocked account pursuant to Prob. Code § 2328 can also be included in the order appointing a guardian or conservator [see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians ; Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

The motion will be made on the ground that the original bond filed with the court is insufficient because:

1. At the time of his/her appointment, the _____ [guardian or conservator] _____[

2. The estimated value of the assets of the estate concurrently held by the _____ [guardian or conservator] _____[name] is $_____.

[A request for special notice has _____ (not been filed or been filed and waived by _____ (name) or been filed by _____ (name) and notice of the time and place of hearing on this petition will be given).]

The motion will be based on this notice of motion, on the declaration of _____[name] and the memorandum of points and authorities served and filed herewith, on the papers and records on file herein, and on such oral and documentary evidence as may be presented at the hearing of the motion.

_____ [typed name]

Attorney for _____ [moving party]

[Append supporting declaration. See § 283.75[1].]

[Append memorandum of points and authorities.]

The form in [1], above, is for use in moving for an order requiring a guardian or conservator to furnish further security [see Prob. Code § 2334; see also Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010].

Even though the governing statute refers to a petition procedure, it appears that an application to require further security should be made by noticed motion. In enacting the Bond and Undertaking Law (Code Civ. Proc. § 995.010 et seq.), the Legislature intended to standardize the procedures regarding bonds and undertakings [see Code Civ. Proc. § 995.020]. This law provides that objections to insufficient and excessive bonds are to be made by noticed motion [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 996.010(b), 996.030(b)]. In addition, Prob. Code § 2329(a) refers to a motion in discussing the procedure when a guardian or conservator desires to reduce the bond. It is doubtful that a guardian or conservator would proceed by notice of motion in order to decrease the bond, but proceed by petition and notice of hearing in order to increase the bond [see Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 (notice of hearing)]. Thus, it appears that the application must be made by noticed motion, supported by an affidavit (or declaration under Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5) or on the court's own motion [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010(b)]. The notice of motion must specify the precise grounds on which the motion is made, must state the reasons for the insufficiency in the amount of the bond, and must include an estimate of the amount that would be sufficient [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010(b); see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.030(a)].

If the court determines that the bond is insufficient, it must order that a sufficient new, additional, or supplemental bond be given within a reasonable time, not less than five days [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010(c)]. If a sufficient bond is not given within the time required by the court order, all rights obtained by giving the original bond will immediately cease, and the court, on ex parte motion, must so order [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010(d)].

For a form of declaration that may be used to support this motion, see § 283.75; for the related form of order, see § 283.75.

For further discussion of a motion to require further security, see Ch. 538, Suretyship, Bonds, and Undertakings .

§ 284.10 Governing Law

The law governing notice in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings is generally set forth in Prob. Code §§ 1460 et seq. and 2700 et seq. Notice in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings is also governed by the notice provisions applicable to probate proceedings generally [see Prob. Code § 1200(a); see also Prob. Code §§ 1202, 1203(a), 1205, 1215, 1216(a), 1260 et seq.]. When notice of a hearing is required but no other period or manner is prescribed by statute, then unless the period or manner of giving the notice is ordered by the court or judge, the notice must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1220 [see Prob. Code § 1221]. Additional requirements for notices are set forth in Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 7.50-7.55.

Chapter 284 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: NOTICE
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
A. General Notice Requirements

24-284 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 284.20

§ 284.20 Application of General Notice Requirements

Some provisions in the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law specify particular notice requirements for hearings on particular matters. When notice of a hearing is required under Prob. Code § 1400 et seq., but the provision requiring notice does not fix the manner of giving notice, the general notice requirements of Prob. Code § 1460 apply [Prob. Code § 1460(a)]. In addition, many provisions expressly require that notice be given pursuant to Prob. Code § 1460.

Subject to Prob. Code §§ 1202 and 1203 (concerning shortening and lengthening the notice period), at least 15 days before the day of a hearing, the person filing any petition, report, or account must cause notice of the hearing to be mailed to the following persons [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]:

- The guardian or conservator.

- The ward, if at least 14 years old, or the conservatee.

- The spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297] of the ward or conservatee.

- Any interested person who has appeared in the particular matter to which the hearing relates.

- The persons described in Prob. Code § 1510 (concerning a petition for appointment of a guardian), if the hearing is on a petition to terminate a guardianship or to accept the resignation of, or to remove, the guardian.

- The persons described in Prob. Code § 1821 (concerning a petition for appointment of a conservator), if the hearing is on a petition to terminate a conservatorship or to accept the resignation of, or to remove, the conservator.

However, the court may, for good cause, dispense with the notice otherwise required to be given to any of the persons listed above [Prob. Code § 1460(d),(e);see § 284.24].

Notice must also be given to any person who has properly requested special notice [see Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700 et seq.;see also § 284.23].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
A. General Notice Requirements

24-284 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 284.21

§ 284.21 Notice to Director of Mental Health or Director of Developmental Services

[1] Requirements for Notice

If, during the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding, the ward or conservatee is or has been a patient in or on leave from a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the Department of Mental Health or the Department of Developmental Services, then when a petition, report, or account is filed with respect to the following matters, 15 days notice of the time and place of the hearing must be given by mail to the director of the department having jurisdiction over the hospital [Prob. Code § 1461(a), (b)]:

- Appointment of a guardian [Prob. Code § 1510].
- Appointment of a conservator [Prob. Code § 1820].
- Termination of a conservatorship [Prob. Code § 1861].
- Change of venue [Prob. Code § 2212].
- Instruction or confirmation of acts of the guardian or conservator of the estate [Prob. Code § 2403].
- Payment of an allowance to the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2421].
- Support from the estate notwithstanding a third person's support obligation [Prob. Code § 2422].
- Distribution of surplus income of a conservatee's estate [Prob. Code § 2423].
- Sale of estate property [Prob. Code § 2540 et seq.].
- Substituted judgment [Prob. Code § 2580].

- Independent administration of the estate [Prob. Code § 2592].

- Periodic accounts [Prob. Code § 2620], except in some cases involving a very small estate (see below).

- Appointment of a successor guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2670 et seq.].

- Enforcement of spousal support for a conservatee [Prob. Code §§ 3080, 3088].

- Transactions involving community or homestead property [Prob. Code § 3100 et seq.].

A copy of the petition, report, or account must be mailed with the notice [Prob. Code § 1461(b)].

Notice is not required in the case of an accounting pursuant to Prob. Code § 2620 if the total guardianship or conservatorship assets are less than $1,500, the gross annual income, exclusive of any public assistance income, is less than $6,000, and the ward or conservatee is not a patient in, or on leave or on outpatient status from, a state hospital at the time of the filing of the petition [Prob. Code § 1461(b)(2)].

[2] Tolling of Statute of Limitations

The statute of limitations does not run against any claim of the Department of Mental Health or the Department of Developmental Services against the estate of the ward or conservatee for board, care, maintenance, or transportation with respect to an account that is settled without giving the notice required by Prob. Code § 1461 [Prob. Code § 1461(d)].

[3] Waiver of Notice

If the ward or conservatee has been discharged from the state hospital, the director having jurisdiction over the hospital, on ascertaining the facts, may file with the court a certificate stating that the ward or conservatee is not indebted to the state and waiving the right to further notices under Prob. Code § 1461. Compliance with the notice requirements of Prob. Code § 1461 is not required after the director files the certificate, unless the certificate is revoked by the director and notice of the revocation is filed with the court [Prob. Code § 1461(c)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
A. General Notice Requirements

24-284 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 284.23

§ 284.23 Special Notice

[1] Written Request for Special Notice

At any time after the issuance of letters of guardianship or conservatorship, the ward, if at least 14 years old, or the conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297] of the conservatee, any relative or creditor of the ward or conservatee, or any other interested person, in person or by attorney, may file with the court clerk a written request for special notice [Prob. Code § 2700(a)]. The request for special notice must be so entitled and set forth the name of the person and the address to which notices will be sent [Prob. Code § 2700(b); for form,see § 284.73]. Special notice may be requested for any of the following matters [Prob. Code § 2700(c)]:

- Petitions filed in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding.
- Inventories and appraisals of property in the estate, including any supplemental inventories and appraisals.
- Accounts of the guardian or conservator.
- Proceedings for the termination of the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding.

By requesting special notice, a person entitled to notice under Prob. Code § 1460(b) can ensure that he or she will receive notice of the matters listed above even when the court dispenses with notice [see Prob. Code § 1460(d), (e)].

[2] Service of Request for Special Notice

A copy of the request must be personally delivered or mailed to the guardian or conservator or to the attorney for the guardian or conservator. If personally delivered, the request is effective when it is delivered. If mailed, the request is effective when it is received [Prob. Code § 2700(e)]. When the original of the request is filed with the court clerk, it must be accompanied by a written acknowledgment or proof of service [Prob. Code § 2700(f); for form,see § 284.73].

[3] Manner of Giving Special Notice

Unless the court makes an order dispensing with the notice, if a request has been made for special notice of a hearing, the person filing any petition, account, or other paper must give written notice of the filing, together with a copy of the petition, account, or other paper, and the time and place set for the hearing. The notice must be given by mail to the person named in the request at the address set forth in the request, at least 15 days before the time set for the hearing [Prob. Code § 2702(a)].

If a request has been made for special notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of the estate or of the filing of any other paper that does not require a hearing, the inventory and appraisal or other paper must be mailed not later than 15 days after the inventory and appraisal or other paper is filed with the court [Prob. Code § 2702(b)].

[4] Proof of Giving Special Notice

Proof of giving special notice must be made to the satisfaction of the court at or before the hearing [Prob. Code § 1260(a)]. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that special notice has been regularly given or that the person entitled to the notice has waived it, the court must so find in its order [Prob. Code § 1260(b)]. Such a finding, when the order becomes final, is conclusive on all persons [Prob. Code § 1260(c)].

[5] Modification or Withdrawal of Request for Special Notice

A request for special notice may be modified or withdrawn in the same manner as provided for the making of the initial request. It is also automatically deemed withdrawn at a date three years from the date it was served on the guardian, conservator, or the attorney for the guardian or conservator. A new request for special notice, however, may be served and filed atany time as provided in the case of an initial request [Prob. Code § 2701; for form,see § 284.74].

If the court determines that the notice otherwise required is insufficient in the circumstances, the court may require a longer period of notice or further or additional notice [Prob. Code § 1202;see § 284.71]. Furthermore, unless a particular provision governing the notice of a hearing otherwise provides, the court may, for good cause, shorten the time for giving a notice of hearing [*Prob. 24-284 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 284.25

§ 284.25 Rules Governing Notice by Mail

If a notice or other paper is required or permitted to be mailed to a person, the notice or other paper must be mailed or personally delivered [Prob. Code § 1215(a); see Prob. Code § 1216 (personal delivery)]. If mailed, the notice or other paper must be sent by first-class mail (which includes certified, registered, and express mail) to an address within the United States, or by airmail to an address outside the United States [Prob. Code § 1215(b)].

The notice or other paper must be deposited for collection in the U.S. mail, in a sealed envelope, with postage paid, addressed to the person to whom it is mailed [Prob. Code § 1215(c)]. The notice or other paper must be addressed to the person at the person's place of business or place of residence [Prob. Code § 1215(d)]. If the person's address is not known, however, notice may be given in a manner that is reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the person. Proof of service may be made as prescribed by the court [see Code Civ. Proc. § 413.30; Prob. Code § 1212].

When the notice or other paper is deposited in the mail, mailing is complete, and the period of notice is not extended [Prob. Code § 1215(e)]. If service of a summons is made by mail in the manner authorized by Code Civ. Proc. § 415.30, the service is complete on the date a written acknowledgment of receipt is executed [Prob. Code § 1467].

Except as otherwise permitted in the Probate Code, a notice sent by mail under Prob. Code § 1220 must be mailed individually and directly to the person entitled to notice [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(a)(1)]. A notice mailed to a person in care of another person is insufficient unless the person entitled to notice is an adult, and has directed the party giving notice, in writing, to send the notice in care of that other person [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(a)(2)]. Notices mailed to two or more persons in the same household must be sent separately to each person [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(a)(3)].

If a notice is required or permitted to be given to a person who is represented by an attorney of record in the proceeding, the notice must be sent to that attorney [Prob. Code § 1214; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(b)]. If a guardian or conservator has been appointed for a person entitled to notice, the notice must be sent to the guardian or conservator and, unless the court has dispensed with this notice, to the ward or conservatee [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(c)]. Notice to a minor must be sent directly to the minor, except as permitted in Prob. Code § 1460.1 for guardianships, conservatorships, and certain protective proceedings [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(d)]. A separate copy of the notice must be sent to the persons having legal custody of the minor with whom the minor resides [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.51(d)].

If a person who is entitled to notice cannot be located after a diligent search, the court may prescribe the manner of giving notice to that person or may dispense with notice to that person [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.52(c)]. The petitioner must file a declaration describing the efforts made to locate the person before the court will prescribe an alternate form of notice or dispense with notice [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.52(a)]. The declaration must state the name of the person whose address is unknown, the person's last known address, the approximate date on which the person was last known to reside there, the efforts made to locate the person, and any facts explaining why the person's address cannot be obtained [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.52(a)]. The declaration must describe the attempts to learn of the person's business and residences by: (1) inquiry of the relatives, friends, acquaintances, and employers of the person entitled to notice and of the person who is the subject of the proceeding; (2) review of appropriate city telephone directories and directory assistance; and (3) search of the real and personal property indexes in the recorder's and assessor's offices for the county in which the person was last known or believed to reside [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.52(a)]. Mailing notice to a person at a county seat is not a manner of giving notice that is reasonably calculated to give actual notice [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.52(b)].

§ 284.42 Temporary Conservatorship or Guardianship

Notice of hearing on a petition for appointment of a temporary conservator or guardian is governed by Prob. Code § 2250. Notice of hearing on a petition to sell or otherwise relinquish certain specified residential property of the conservatee is governed by Prob. Code § 2252(e). Notice of hearing on a request to change the residence of a conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2253] is governed by Prob. Code § 2250 when the request is part of a petition for appointment of a temporary conservator or by Prob. Code § 2253 when the request stands alone [see also §§ 284.20, 284.23].

Notice provisions applicable to proceedings involving the filing of inventories and accounts in temporary guardianships and conservatorships are the same as those applicable to proceedings involving the filing of inventories [see § 284.47] and accounts [see § 284.48] in regular guardianships and conservatorships.

An order under Prob. Code § 2252(c) granting a temporary guardian or conservator powers in addition to those stated in Prob. Code § 2252(a) and (b) can be made with or without notice, as the court may require [see Prob. Code § 2252(c)]. An order under Prob. Code § 2257(b) extending or shortening the time for termination of the powers of a temporary guardian or conservator can be made with or without notice [see Prob. Code § 2257(b)].

Notice requirements for a temporary guardianship or conservatorship are discussed further in Ch. 282, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Temporary Guardians and Conservators.

§ 284.44 Care of Ward or Conservatee

[1] Powers of Conservator

Notice of the hearing on a petition to limit the powers of a conservator, or to modify or revoke such an order [see Prob. Code § 2351], is governed by Prob. Code § 2351(c) and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20]. When the order is sought in a petition to appoint a conservator [see Prob. Code § 1820], the notice requirements for the hearing on the petition for appointment apply [see § 284.40].

Notice of the hearing on a petition to modify a limited conservatorship [see Prob. Code § 2351.5] is governed by Prob. Code § 2351.5(c) and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

Notice requirements for proceedings concerning the care of the ward or conservatee are discussed further in Ch. 285, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Care of Ward or Conservatee.

[2] Medical Treatment

Notice of the hearing on a petition for an order that a conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent for medical treatment and giving the conservator of the person the powers specified in Prob. Code § 2355 [see Prob. Code § 1891] is governed by Prob. Code § 1892 and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

Notice of the hearing on a conservator or guardian's petition to authorize specified medical treatment for a ward or conservatee and to authorize the guardian or conservator to consent to the treatment on behalf of the ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2357(b)] is governed by Prob. Code § 2357(e)-(g).

Notice of the hearing on a ward's, conservatee's, or other interested person's petition under Prob. Code § 2357(i) to require a guardian or conservator to obtain and consent to, or obtain or consent to, specified medical treatment to be performed on the ward or conservatee is governed by the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

[3] Capacity of Conservatee

Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 1873 to authorize the conservatee to enter into specified transactions, or to broaden or restrict the conservatee's capacity to enter into specified transactions, is governed by Prob. Code § 1874(b) and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20]. When the order is sought in a petition to appoint a conservator [see Prob. Code § 1820], the notice requirements for the hearing on the petition for appointment apply [see § 284.40].

Notice of the hearing on a petition or judicial determination of the conservatee's capacity to marry or to enter into a registered domestic partnership [see Prob. Code § 1901(b)] is governed by Prob. Code § 1901(c) and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

[4] Fixing Residence Outside of California

Notice of the filing of a petition under Prob. Code § 2352, and of the hearing, if any, to fix the residence of a ward or conservatee outside of California is governed by the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

[5] Instruction or Confirmation of Acts of Guardian or Conservator

Notice of the hearing on a petition for instruction on or confirmation of the acts of a conservator or guardian of the person [see Prob. Code § 2359] is governed by Prob. Code § 2359(b) and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
B. Notice Requirements in Specific Proceedings

24-284 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 284.45

§ 284.45 Estate Management

[1] Instruction or Confirmation of Acts

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for instruction on or confirmation of the acts of a conservator or guardian of the estate [see Prob. Code § 2403(b)] and notice of the hearing on a petition to limit the authority of a guardian or conservator to exercise powers or duties without court authorization [see Prob. Code § 2450(b)].

[2] Independent Exercise of Powers

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 2592 for a grant of independent powers to a guardian or conservator, when the petition is filed after the filing of the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 2592(c);see also Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

When a grant of independent powers under Prob. Code § 2592 is sought in the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator, notice of the hearing on the request for the grant is governed by the statutory provisions governing notice of the hearing on the petition for appointment [see § 284.40].

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] also govern notice of the hearing on an interested person's petition for withdrawal of a grant of independent powers to, or imposition of restrictions, conditions, and limitations on the exercise of independent powers by, a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2593(b)].

[3] Support of Ward or Conservatee

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition directing the payment of a debt, expense, or charge of the estate or compelling the provision of specified support from the estate to the ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2404(b)], notice of the hearing on a petition authorizing the payment of an allowance to a ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2421(b)], notice of the hearing on a petition for specified support of a ward or conservatee from the estate, regardless of the obligation of a third person to provide that support [see Prob. Code § 2422(b)], and notice of the hearing on a petition for authority to distribute surplus income of the estate [see Prob. Code § 2423(c)].

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 3080 for the enforcement of a conservatee's spousal support from community property [see Prob. Code § 3081(a)], provided that if the other spouse is not the conservator, notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition must be served on that spouse [Prob. Code § 3081(b)].

Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 3088 for modification or vacation of an order enforcing a conservatee's support from community property is governed by Prob. Code § 3088(f), which requires that at least 15 days before the hearing on the petition to modify or vacate the order, notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, must be mailed to the other spouse. Notice to any other person is governed by the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

Notice requirements for proceedings concerning the management of community property are discussed further in Ch. 289, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Management of Community Property.

[4] Annuities and Insurance

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for authority for a guardian to use estate funds to effect or maintain in force specified contracts for annuities and life and disability insurance entered into by a minor ward [see Prob. Code § 2459(e)].

[5] Partition Action

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the filing of a petition and of the hearing for authorization for a guardian or conservator to commence an action for partition of estate property under Prob. Code § 2463.

[6] Acceptance of Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for authorization for a guardian or conservator to accept a deed to property that is subject to a mortgage or a trust deed in lieu of foreclosure of the mortgage or sale under the trust deed [see Prob. Code § 2464(b)].

[7] Compromise of Claims

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition to limit a guardian's or conservator's authority to compromise claims by or against, or to extend, renew, and otherwise modify obligations owing to or running in favor of, a ward, conservatee, or the estate [see Prob. Code § 2500(c)], as well as notice of the hearing on a petition for court approval of any compromise, settlement, extension, renewal, or modification of any claim [see Prob. Code § 2506; see also Prob. Code §§ 2501-2504 (claims for which court approval is required)]. These proceedings are discussed further in Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims.

[8] Conveyance and Transfer of Property Under Existing Contract

Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 850 (see below) is governed by Prob. Code § 851. At least 30 days before the hearing, notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition must be served on the guardian or conservator and each person claiming an interest in, or having title to or possession of, the affected property [Prob. Code § 851(a)]. The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice to all other persons [Prob. Code § 851(b). The time for giving notice of a hearing on the petition may not be shortened [Prob. Code § 851(c); see Prob. Code § 1203(a)].

Under Prob. Code § 850, the guardian or conservator or any claimant may file a petition requesting that the court make an order concerning the transfer of title to property in any of the following cases:

- The conservatee is bound by a contract in writing to convey real property or to transfer personal property, executed by the conservatee while competent or executed by the conservatee's predecessor in interest, and the contract is one that can be specifically enforced.

- The minor has succeeded to the interest of a person bound by a contract in writing to convey real property or to transfer personal property, and the contract is one that can be specifically enforced.

- The guardian or conservator or the minor or conservatee is in possession of, or holds title to, real or personal property, and the property or some interest in it is claimed to belong to another.

- The minor or conservatee has a claim to real or personal property the title to or possession of which is held by another.

[9] Confirmation of Sale

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a report of sale and petition for confirmation of the sale of real or personal property [see Prob. Code §§ 1220, 1469, 2543, 10260(c), 10308(c)]. In addition, notice must be given to the purchasers named in the petition and posted as provided in Prob. Code § 1230.

[10] Borrowing Money

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for an order authorizing a guardian or conservator to borrow money for specified purposes and secure the loan with specified estate property [Prob. Code § 2551(b)].

[11] Leases

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for an order authorizing a guardian or conservator to execute a lease covering estate property [Prob. Code § 2553(b)].

[12] Conveyance, Dedication, or Exchange of Real Property

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for an order authorizing a guardian or conservator to convey or dedicate real property, easements over real property, or other access rights to real property [Prob. Code § 2556(b)], and notice of the hearing on a petition for an order authorizing a guardian or conservator to exchange property for other property [Prob. Code § 2557(c)]. However, if the petition is for authorization to exchange stocks, bonds, or other securities [see Prob. Code § 10200 ("securities" defined)] for different stocks, bonds, or other securities, then on a showing of good cause, the court may order that the notice be given for a shorter period or be dispensed with [Prob. Code § 2557(d)].

The general notice provisions [see § 284.20] govern notice of the hearing on a petition for an order authorizing a guardian or conservator to invest money of the estate [see Prob. Code § 2570], purchase real property for specified purposes [see Prob. Code §§ 2571, 2572], or select among specified government bonds for investment [Prob. Code § 2570(c); see Prob. Code § 2573]. The court may order that notice be dispensed with [Prob. Code § 2570(c)].

[14] Substituted Judgment

Notice of the hearing on a petition for an order authorizing a conservator or other interested person to take a proposed action under the substituted-judgment doctrine is governed by Prob. Code § 2581. Notice of the hearing of the petition must be given, pursuant to the general notice provisions [see § 284.20], to all of the following persons, regardless of age, in addition to those otherwise required to be given notice [Prob. Code § 2581]:

- The persons required to be named in a petition for the appointment of a conservator.

- The beneficiaries, as far as the petitioner knows, under any document executed by the conservatee that may have testamentary effect, unless the court for good cause dispenses with notice.

- The persons who, as far as the petitioner knows, would be the conservatee's heirs under the laws of intestate succession if the conservatee were to die immediately, unless the court for good cause dispenses with notice.

- Other persons as the court may order.

[15] Transfer of Property to Foreign Guardian or Conservator

Notice of the hearing on a petition for authority to transfer personal property to a foreign guardian or conservator in a jurisdiction outside California [see Prob. Code § 2802] is governed by Prob. Code §§ 2804 and 2808(b). Notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition must be mailed at least 30 days before the hearing to each person required to be listed in the petition, at the address stated in the petition [Prob. Code § 2804].

The guardianship or conservatorship may be terminated if the court's order provides for the transfer of all of the property of the estate to the foreign guardian or conservator. The court may order termination on settlement of the final account and the filing with the clerk of the court of a receipt for the property, executed by the foreign guardian or conservator. Unless notice is waived, a copy of the final account of the guardian or conservator and of the petition for discharge, together with a notice of the hearing, must be mailed at least 30 days before the date of the hearing to all persons required to be listed in the petition for transfer, including the foreign guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2808].

§ 284.46 Management of Community Property

[1] In General

Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 3054 for inclusion of community property in the conservatorship estate of a married person is governed by the general notice provisions [see § 284.20]. Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 3111 for authorization of a proposed transaction concerning community property [see Prob. Code § 3100 et seq.] is governed by Prob. Code §§ 3130, 3131 [see [2], below].

Notice requirements for obtaining support for a conservatee from community property are discussed in § 284.45[3]. Notice requirements for proceedings concerning the management of community property are discussed further in Ch. 289, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Management of Community Property.

[2] Authorization of Transaction Concerning Community Property

[a] Nonpetitioning Spouse

Under Prob. Code § 3130, if a nonpetitioning spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction and has no conservator, he or she must be served with a citation and a copy of the petition at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3130(a)]. If the spouse has a conservator, then unless the court orders otherwise, no citation to the spouse is required, and the conservator must be served with notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3130(b); see Prob. Code § 3130(c); see also Code Civ. Proc. §§ 415.10, 415.30, 415.40 (manner of service)].

Any nonpetitioning spouse not alleged to lack capacity must be served with notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3131(a); see Prob. Code § 3131(b); see also Code Civ. Proc. §§ 415.10, 415.30, 415.40 (manner of service)].

[b] Others Named in Petition

At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition, notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition must be mailed to the persons required to be named in the petition, at the addresses set forth in the petition [Prob. Code § 3131(c)].

[3] Vacation of Order Authorizing Transaction

Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 3154(a) for vacation of an order authorizing a proposed transaction under Prob. Code § 3100 et seq. is governed by Prob. Code § 3154(a), which provides that notice to the parties to the transaction must be given as the court directs.

[4] Supplemental Petition

Notice of the hearing on a supplemental petition for an order authorizing another sale or encumbrance of property under Prob. Code § 3100 et seq. [see Prob. Code § 3154(b)] is governed by Prob. Code §§ 3130, 3131 [see [2], above], except that no further citation is required, and a copy of the supplemental petition and a notice of the time and place of the hearing must be served on any person who has appeared as representative of a nonpetitioning spouse and served on counsel of record for a nonpetitioning spouse or as otherwise directed by the court [Prob. Code § 3154(b)].

§ 284.47 Inventories and Appraisals

[1] Filing of Inventory and Appraisal

Notice of the hearing, if any, on an ex parte petition for an extension of time within which to file an inventory and appraisal of the estate, as well as notice of the filing of the inventory and appraisal [see Prob. Code § 2610(a)], or supplemental inventory and appraisal [see Prob. Code § 2613], is governed by the special notice provisions [see Prob. Code § 2700 et seq.;see also § 284.23]. In addition, a copy of the inventory and appraisal, or supplemental inventory and appraisal, must be mailed to the county assessor if a timely request is made [Prob. Code § 2612], and to the director of the Department of Mental Health or the Department of Developmental Services if required [Prob. Code § 2611;see § 284.21 (when notice is required)].

Notice requirements for proceedings concerning the filing of inventories and appraisals are discussed further in Ch. 286, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Inventory and Appraisal.

[2] Waiver of Appraisal

Notice of the hearing on a petition for a waiver of appraisal by the probate referee is governed by Prob. Code § 8903(c) and the general notice provisions [see § 284.20].

[3] Objection to Appraisal

Notice of the hearing on objections under Prob. Code § 2614(a) to any appraisal is governed by the general notice provisions [see § 284.20]. In addition, if the appraisal was made by a probate referee, notice of the hearing and a copy of the objection must be mailed to the probate referee at least 15 days before the time set for the hearing [see Prob. Code § 2614(b)].

[4] Request for Order To File Inventory and Appraisal

Notice of the filing of a request for an order that a guardian or conservator file an inventory and appraisal or show cause why he or she should not be removed [see Prob. Code § 2614.5], together with notice of any hearing thereon, is governed by the provisions for special notice [see Prob. Code § 2700 et seq.;see also § 284.23]. In addition, notice must be served on the guardian or conservator by personal delivery, mail, or as otherwise ordered by the court [Prob. Code § 2614.5(a); see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 415.10, 415.30].

[5] Examination Regarding Assets

Notice of the filing of a petition to require an examination of a person regarding estate assets [see Prob. Code §§ 2616-2619.5], together with notice of any hearing thereon, is governed by the provisions for special notice [see Prob. Code § 2700 et seq.;see also § 284.23]. If the petition is granted, a citation must issue to the person to be examined [Prob. Code § 2616(b)].

§ 284.52 Termination of Limited Conservatorship

Notice of the hearing on a petition under Prob. Code § 1860.5 for termination of a limited conservatorship is governed by Prob. Code § 1860.5(d), which provides, in part, that the notice requirements are the same as for appointment of a limited conservator. If the limited conservator is not the petitioner or has not joined in the petition, he or she must be served with a notice of the time and place of the hearing accompanied by a copy of the petition at least five days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 1860.5(d)]. Service must be made by personal delivery or mail or as otherwise ordered by the court [Prob. Code § 1860.5(d); see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 415.10, 415.30]. However, if the limited conservator cannot, with reasonable diligence, be served with notice, the court may dispense with notice [Prob. Code § 1869.5(d)].

Notice requirements for proceedings concerning the termination of limited conservatorships are discussed further in Ch. 290H, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Termination of Guardianships and Conservatorships.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative, filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-020, for use in giving notice of hearings in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 1.35; but see Cal. Rules of Court, Rules 7.2(a), 7.101 (Judicial Council forms must be used in proceedings governed by Probate Code when appropriate)]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

If notice by posting is desired, a copy of GC-020(C), Clerk's Certificate of Posting Notice of Hearing, should be attached to this form. For an illustration of Form GC-020(C), and discussion, see § 284.70B.

The notice of hearing must state the complete title of the pleading to which the notice relates [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.50]. An amended pleading (or an amendment to a pleading) requires the same notice of hearing, including publication, as the pleading it amends [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.53(a)]. A supplement to a pleading does not require additional notice of hearing, but a copy of the supplement must be served if service of a copy of the pleading was required, unless the court waives service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.53(b)].

[3] Notice Accompanied by Copy of Petition or Other Paper

In many instances, the notice must be accompanied by a copy of the petition, report, account, or objection to which it relates [see, e.g., Prob. Code §§ 1511, 2614 (petition for appointment of guardian; objections to inventory and appraisal)]. When notice is required to be given to the Director of Mental Health, the Director of Developmental Services, or the Department of Veterans Affairs, a copy of the related petition, report, or account must be served with the notice [see Prob. Code §§ 1461, 1461.5;see also §§ 284.21, 284.22].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a reproduction of California Judicial Council Form GC-020(C). If notice by posting is desired or required [see Prob. Code § 2543], a copy of this notice should be attached to the Notice of Hearing [see § 284.70]. The court clerk will then complete the form and post it at the courthouse where the proceedings are pending [see Prob. Code § 1230]. The form reproduced here is not filled in because the form indicates that it is for court use only; however, the attorney may want to check local practice with regard to completion and submission of the form.

At least 15 days before the hearing, the court clerk must post the notice of hearing at the courthouse where the proceedings are pending [Prob. Code § 1230(a)]. The posted notice of hearing must state the name of the estate, the name of the petitioner, the nature of the petition, and the time and place of the hearing on the petition [Prob. Code § 1230(b)]. Proof of the posting may be made by the affidavit of the person who posted the notice [Prob. Code § 1263].

The Judicial Council has designated this form as optional [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 1.35; but see Cal. Rules of Court, Rules 7.2(a), 7.101 (Judicial Council forms must be used in proceedings governed by Probate Code when appropriate)]; however, the Notice of Hearing form [see § 284.70] indicates that it should be attached to the notice when notice by posting is required. The form in [1], above, is an illustrative filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-022, for use in prescribing notice in guardianship and conservatorship matters. The form may be used in guardianship or conservatorship matters in any of the following situations:

- The notice period is to be shortened or additional notice is to be prescribed [Prob. Code §§ 1202, 1203(a);see § 284.24].

- A provision requires notice to be given as prescribed by the court [see, e.g., Prob. Code § 3054].

- The manner of notice is being changed under a section which requires notice to be served in a specified manner, but alternatively allows notice in such other manner as the court may authorize [see, e.g., Prob. Code § 1511].

In most guardianship and conservatorship situations in which this form is used, it will be necessary to specify in Paragraph 1f the nature of the petition, report, or account that is the subject of the notice.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. This form can provide for dispensing with notice of a hearing on a petition so that notice would be required to be given only to persons who filed requests for special notice (Paragraphs 1d, 2a, and 2b) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 1460(b), (d), (e), 2359, 2700 et seq.]. The form also can provide specifically for dispensing with notice to particular persons who would be entitled to notice of a hearing on a petition for the appointment of a guardian (Paragraphs 1a and 1b) [Prob. Code § 1511(g)]. There are several situations in addition to appointment of guardians in which notice may be dispensed with if it cannot be given with reasonable diligence (Paragraph 1a). However, because Paragraph 1b of the form is limited to guardianships, Paragraph 1d should be used if notice is to be dispensed with in a conservatorship proceeding. Miscellaneous instances when the court may dispense with notice, such as notice to relatives named in a petition for appointment of a guardian of the estate, may also be entered on the form (Paragraph 1d) [see Prob. Code § 1511(c)(2)].

Regardless of the basis for dispensing with notice, Paragraph 2 of the form should be filled out, listing the persons who will not receive notice (Paragraph 2b) and, if applicable, stating that no notice is required except to persons who filed requests for special notice (Paragraph 2a). Even though the court dispenses with notice to a person under Prob. Code § 1460(e), the person is entitled to notice if he or she has filed a request for special notice under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1460(d)].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-035, for use in requesting special notice in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. If the request is for notice of all of the matters referred to in Prob. Code § 2700(c), Paragraph 2a(1) should be checked. If, however, the request is for notice of only some of the matters set forth in Prob. Code § 2700(c), the appropriate boxes in Paragraph 2a should be checked. Special notice is discussed further in § 284.23.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

Chapter 285 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: CARE OF WARD OR CONSERVATEE
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
B. Care in General

24-285 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 285.20

§ 285.20 Duty of Care, Custody, and Control

[1] In General

A guardian of the person or conservator of the person, but not a limited conservator, has the care, custody, and control of the ward or conservatee and has charge of his or her education [Prob. Code § 2351(a)]. Statutory provisions regulate and limit the powers and duties of the guardian or conservator in regard to fixing the residence [see § 285.23] and consenting to medical treatment [see §§ 285.40, 285.41] for the ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code §§ 2352-2357]. Other statutes provide in general terms for imposing limitations on the power of a conservator and for imposing additional duties on a conservator or guardian [see Prob. Code §§ 2351, 2358; see also Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.1009 (standards of conduct for the guardian of the estate) and Rule 7.1059 (standards of conduct for the conservator of the estate), see also § 285.21].

[2] Guardian

Since a guardian's ward is a minor, the guardian has a special and personal duty of watchfulness, care, and discipline, which the guardian cannot delegate to others [Guardianship of Howard (1933) 218 Cal. 607, 610, 24 P.2d 486] .

[3] Conservator

[a] Limitation on Conservatee's Activity

A conservator can limit the conservatee's activities in a reasonable manner for the conservatee's own benefit, for example, by limiting his or her visitors and mail, but the conservator may not deny the conservatee the freedom essential to his or her welfare without good cause [Browne v. Superior Court (1940) 16 Cal. 2d 593, 599-601, 107 P.2d 1] .

[b] Duty to Refrain From Neglect and Abuse

In the case of a conservatee who is elderly or a dependent adult, the conservator has a duty to refrain from neglecting the conservatee and from subjecting the conservatee to physical or financial abuse. These duties are implicit in Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657, under which a conservator can be held civilly liable for the physical abuse, neglect, or financial abuse of a conservatee who is elderly or a dependent adult [see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 15610.23 ("dependent adult" defined), 15610.27 ("elder" defined), 15610.30 ("financial abuse" defined), 15610.57 ("neglect" defined), 15610.63 ("physical abuse" defined)]. For further discussion of an action under Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657, particularly in the context of fiduciary abuse, see Ch. 290D, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions Against Guardian or Conservator .

[4] Limited Conservator of Person

[a] In General

A limited conservator has the care, custody, and control of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2351.5(a)(1)]. The limited conservator must secure for the conservatee such habilitation or treatment, training, education, medical and psychological services, and social and vocational opportunity as may be appropriate and as will assist the conservatee in the development of maximum self-reliance and independence [Prob. Code § 2351.5(a)(2)].

[b] Powers Specifically Granted by Court

A limited conservator does not have any of the following powers or controls over the conservatee, unless these powers or controls are specifically requested in the petition for appointment of a limited conservator and granted by the court in its order appointing the limited conservator [Prob. Code § 2351.5(b)]:

- To fix the residence or specific dwelling of the conservatee.
- Access to the confidential records and papers of the conservatee.
- To consent or withhold consent to the marriage of, or the entrance into a registered domestic partnership by, the conservatee.
- Power over the right of the conservatee to contract.
- Control over the power of the conservatee to give or withhold medical consent.
- Control over the conservatee's right to control his or her own social and sexual contacts and relationships.
- Control over decisions concerning the education of the conservatee.

The limited conservator or the conservatee or any relative or friend of the conservatee may apply by petition to the superior court of the county in which the proceedings are pending, to have the limited conservatorship modified by theelimination or addition of any of the powers that have beenspecifically granted to the limited conservator. The granting or elimination of these powers is discretionary with the court [Prob. Code § 2351.5(c)]. For a form of petition to modify a limited conservatorship, see § 285.72.

[5] Petition for Instruction or Confirmation

The guardian or the ward, the conservator or the conservatee, or any interested person, may petition the court for an order authorizing and instructing or approving and confirming the acts of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2359(a)]. When the order becomes final, it releases the guardian or conservator, and the sureties, from all claims of the ward or conservatee and of any other person based on any act or omission directly authorized or confirmed in the order [

Prob. Code § 2103(a)]. The protective provisions of Prob. Code § 2103(a), however, do not apply when the order has been obtained by fraud or misrepresentation contained in the petition or order as to any material fact. In this context, misrepresentation includes omission of a material fact [Prob. Code § 2103(b); see Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421] .

When a conservator provides medical or other care for the conservatee, fixes the conservatee's residence, and supervises the conservatee's visitors, mail, or other personal activities in accordance with instructions of the court that appointed the conservator, the exclusive continuing jurisdiction of that court prevents the use of habeas corpus proceedings in any other California court to review the propriety of the care that the conservator provides for the conservatee [Browne v. Superior Court (1940) 16 Cal. 2d 593, 598-601, 107 P.2d 1] .

A conservator who petitions for the approval of a purchase, lease, or rental of real or personal property from the estate of a conservatee must provide a statement disclosing any family or affiliate relationship between the conservator and the purchaser, lessee, or renter of the property, and the family or affiliate relationship between the conservator and any agent hired by the conservator [Prob. Code § 2359(c)(1)]. For this purpose, "family" means a person's spouse or domestic partner (as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297), or relatives within the second degree of lineal or collateral consanguinity of a person or that person's spouse. Further, "affiliate" means an entity that is under the direct control, indirect control, or common control of the conservator [Prob. Code § 2359(c)(2)].

A violation of these requirements will result in the rescission of the purchase, lease, or rental of the property. Any losses incurred by the conservatee's estate because the property was sold or leased at less than fair market value will be deemed as charges against the conservator under Prob. Code §§ 2401.3 and 2401.5. Further, the court must assess a civil penalty equal to three times the charges against the conservator or other person in violation of these rules, and may assess punitive damages as itdeems proper. If the estate does not incur losses as a result of the violation, the court must instead order the conservator or other person in violation of these rules to pay a fine of up to $5,000 for each violation. These fines and penalties are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law [Prob. Code § 2359(c)(3)].

If the guardian or conservator consents, when the court appoints the guardian or conservator, it may include in the order of appointment conditions not otherwise obligatory, for the care, treatment, education, and welfare of the ward or conservatee. The performance of those conditions is a part of the duties of the guardian or conservator, for the faithful performance of which the guardian or conservator and the sureties on the bond are responsible [Prob. Code § 2358]. The conditions may include, for example, visitation rights for relatives or religious upbringing in a particular faith [see Guardianship of Davis (1967) 253 Cal. App. 2d 754, 760, 61 Cal. Rptr. 297] . The court at any time may consider granting visitation rights to an interested nonrelative of a ward [Guardianship of Martha M. (1988) 204 Cal. App. 3d 909, 912-914, 251 Cal. Rptr. 567] . The court has continuing jurisdiction to impose regulations on the guardian relating to custody of the ward [Guardianship of Reynolds (1943) 60 Cal. App. 2d 669, 676, 677, 141 P.2d 498 (visitation rights)].

§ 285.22 Limitations on Powers and Duties of Conservator

When the court determines that it is appropriate in the circumstances, it may, in its discretion, limit the powers and duties of a conservator by an order stating the following [Prob. Code § 2351(b)]:

- The specific powers that the conservator does not have with respect to the conservatee's person (reserving the powers so specified to the conservatee).

- The specific powers and duties the conservator has with respect to the conservatee's person (reserving to the conservatee all other rights with respect to the conservatee's person, which the conservator would otherwise have).

An order limiting the conservator's powers may be included in the order appointing the conservator or may be made, modified, or revoked on a petition subsequently filed when notice of the hearing on the petition has been given as required [Prob. Code § 2351(c)]. For forms for petitions imposing, modifying, or removing limitations on a conservator's powers, see §§ 285.70 and 285.71.

In exercising his or her duties, a conservator may not hire or refer any business to an entity in which he or she has a financial interest, except with court authorization after written disclosure of the interest to the cour [Prob. Code § 2351(d)]. A "financial interest" means any of the following [Prob. Code § 2351(d)]:

- An ownership interest in a sole proprietorship, partnership, or closely held corporation;

- An ownership interest of greater than 1 percent of the outstanding shares in a publicly traded corporation; or

- Being an officer or a director of a corporation.

The prohibition against the referral of business to an entity in which the conservator has a financial interest applies only to conservators required to register with the Statewide Registry under Prob. Code §§ 2850-2856 [Prob. Code § 2351(d)].

The Professional Fiduciaries Act [Stats. 2006 ch. 491; see Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.] replaced former requirements with respect to the licensing of professional fiduciaries, operative July 1, 2008. The Professional Fiduciaries Act creates the Professional Fiduciaries Bureau in the Department of Consumer Affairs, and requires the Bureau to license and regulate professional fiduciaries. As of January 1, 2009, all professional fiduciaries must be licensed under the Professional Fiduciaries Act [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6530 et seq.]. Former Probate Code provisions governing professional fiduciaries became inoperative as of July 1, 2008, and are repealed effective January 1, 2009 [Prob. Code §§ 2345, 2856]. For a detailed discussion on the Professional Fiduciaries Act, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators, § 281.66.

[1] Residence in California

A guardian may fix the residence of the ward at any place in California, without first obtaining the permission of the court [Prob. Code § 2352]. A conservator has the same power, except in the case of a conservatee who has retained the right to fix his or her own residence pursuant to an order under Prob. Code § 2351.

In fixing the residence, the guardian or conservator must select the least restrictive appropriate setting that is available and necessary to meet the needs of the ward or conservatee and is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. [Prob. Code § 2352(b)]. It is presumed that the personal residence of a conservatee at the time of the commencement of the proceeding is the least restrictive appropriate residence for the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2352.5]. If a conservator is seeking an order to sell the personal residence of the conservatee, the conservator must demonstrate that the terms of the sale are in the best interest of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2591.5].

[2] Residence Outside California

A guardian or conservator must first obtain a court order to fix the residence of the ward or conservatee at any place outside California [Prob. Code § 2352; for forms for a petition and an order, see §§ 285.73 and 285.74]. An order permitting the residence of the ward or conservatee to be fixed outside California must require the guardian or conservator either to return the ward or conservatee to California or to cause a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding or its equivalent to be commenced in the place of the new residence after the ward or conservatee has resided in the place of new residence for four months, or such a longer or shorter period as is specified in the order [Prob. Code § 2352(d)].

When the guardian or conservator seeks court permission to fix the residence of the ward or conservatee outside California, counsel for the guardian or conservator must give notice of the hearing to all persons who have filed requests for special notice of petitions filed in the guardianshipor conservatorship proceedings under Prob. Code § 2700 [Prob. Code § 2702; see Prob. Code § 2700(a), (b), (c)(1)]. For discussion and forms relating to special notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[3] Notice of Change in Residence

The guardian or conservator must file a notice of change of residence with the court within 30 days of the date of the change [Prob. Code § 2352(e)(1), see also Cal. Rules Ct, Rules. 7.1013, 7.1063]. The conservator must include in the notice of change of residence a declaration stating that the conservatee's change of residence is consistent with the standard provided in Prob. Code § 2352(b) [Prob. Code § 2352(e)(1); for form, see § 285.75A]. If the guardian or conservator proposes to remove the ward or conservatee from his or her personal residence, the guardian or conservator must mail a notice of his or her intention to change the residence of the ward or conservatee to all persons entitled to notice under Prob. Code § 1511(b) and Prob. Code § 1822(b), except as provided in Prob. Code § 2352(c) [Prob. Code § 2352(e)(3), see also Cal. Rules Ct, Rules 7.1013, 7.1063]. In the absence of an emergency, notice must be mailed at least 15 days prior to the proposed removal of the ward or conservatee from his or her personal residence [Prob. Code § 2352(e)(3)]. If the notice is served less than 15 days prior to the proposed removal of the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservatee must provide the basis for the emergency in the notice [Prob. Code § 2352(e)(3); for form, see § 285.75].

§ 285.24 Funds for Support, Maintenance, and Education

[1] No Duty of Support

Neither a guardian nor a conservator is under a duty to pay for the care and education of a ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code §§ 2404, 2466 (proceeding against guardian or conservator of estate to compel payment for support, maintenance, or education from estate; reimbursement of guardian or conservator by estate for advances); cf. Guardianship of Reynolds (1943) 60 Cal. App. 2d 669, 676, 141 P.2d 498 (dictum)].

[2] Source of Funds for Support

The primary duty to support a minor rests on the minor's parents, and the minor's estate can be resorted to only when the parents are unable to fulfill theobligation in whole or in part [In re Carboni (1941) 46 Cal. App. 2d 605, 613, 116 P.2d 453 ; see Fam. Code § 3900 et seq.]. For further discussion and forms relating to the enforcement of a parent's duty of support, see Ch. 394, Parent and Child .

On the other hand, because conservatees are adults or married or previously married minors [Prob. Code § 1800.3(a)], the primary burden of their support generally falls on their own estates [see Prob. Code § 2466]. However, spouses have a mutual duty of support, and a child must support his or her parent when in need [Fam. Code §§ 4300 et seq., 4400 et seq.]. For a discussion and forms relating to the possible duties of support between parents and adult children, see Ch. 394, Parent and Child . If one spouse has a conservator and the other spouse has the management or control of the community property, the spouse who has the management or control of the community property may be required to apply the income or principal of the community property to the support and maintenance of the conservatee [see Prob. Code § 3080 et seq.; see also Ch. 289, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Management of Community Property].

Notwithstanding the existence of another person legally obligated to provide support, maintenance, and education for a ward or conservatee, the court may for good cause order the ward or conservatee to be wholly or partially supported, maintained, or educated out of his or her own estate, on the petition of the guardian, conservator, ward, conservatee, or other interested person [Prob. Code § 2422]. The guardian or conservator of the estate has a duty to apply the assets of the estate to the support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee, which may be enforced by petitioning the court [Prob. Code §§ 2404, 2420]. For further discussion and forms related to obtaining funds for support, maintenance, and education from the guardian or conservator of the estate, see Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee .

The appointment of a conservator does not affect the capacity of the conservatee to marry or enter into a registered domestic partnership [Prob. Code § 1900]. The conservatee, conservator, any relative or friend of the conservatee, or any interested person may petition for an order to determine whether the conservatee has the capacity to enter into a valid marriage as provided in Fam. Code § 300 et seq., or to enter into a registered domestic partnership as provided in Fam. Code § 297, at the time the order is made [Prob. Code § 1901(a), (b)]. C. Consent to Medical Treatment

§ 285.40 Consent to Medical Treatment in Guardianships

Generally, the guardian has the same right as a parent having legal custody of a child to give consent to medical treatment of the ward and to require the ward to receive medical treatment [Prob. Code § 2353(a)]. If the ward is at least 14 years old, however, no surgery can be performed on the ward unless both the guardian and the ward consent or a court order authorizing the treatment is obtained pursuant to Prob. Code § 2357 [Prob. Code § 2353(b); see § 285.42; for a form for a petition, see § 285.93]. This requirement is subject to the exception that the guardian's consent alone to surgery is sufficient if the guardian determines in good faith based on medical advice that a case is an emergency in which the ward faces loss of life or serious bodily injury if the surgery is not performed. In such a case, the guardian may require the ward to receive surgery, and no person is liable because the surgery is performed without the ward's consent [Prob. Code § 2353(c)].

Nothing in Prob. Code § 2353 requires the guardian's consent when the ward alone may consent to medical or surgical treatment under other provisions of law [Prob. Code § 2353(d)], such as Family Code provisions covering general medical or dental care, mental health treatment or counseling or residential shelter services, treatment for communicable disease, rape, or sexual assault, and drug or alcohol treatment [see Fam. Code §§ 6920, 6924, 6926-6929].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
C. Consent to Medical Treatment

24-285 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 285.41

§ 285.41 Consent to Medical Treatment in Conservatorships

[1] Conservatee Not Adjudicated as Unable to Consent

The fact that a patient has a conservator does not necessarily preclude the patient from giving valid consent to medical treatment. In fact, the opposite is true. Unless the conservatee has been adjudicated to lack the capacity to give informed consent to medical treatment [see discussion below; see also [2], below], the conservatee may consent to his or her own medical treatment and consent of the conservator is not required [Prob. Code § 2354(a); but see Prob. Code§ 2354(b) (consent of conservator is sufficient, notwithstanding refusal of conservatee, if conservator obtains order under Prob. Code § 2357)].

Prob. Code § 1880 authorizes the court to make a general determination that the conservatee lacks the capacity to consent to any form of medical treatment. If the statutory criteria for such a determination are satisfied [see Prob. Code §§ 811, 1881], the court, following a hearing [see Prob. Code §§ 1892, 1895 (procedures for hearing and determination)], may issue an order to that effect and grant the conservator of the person the power to consent to medical treatment as specified in Prob. Code § 2355 [Prob. Code §§ 1880, 1896; see [2], below]. Prob. Code § 2355 requires that the conservator make health care decisions for the conservatee in accordance with the conservatee's health care instructions and other wishes, to the extent known, and otherwise in accordance with the conservator's determination of the conservatee's best interest. Special rules apply to certain types of drugs and treatment, such as experimental drugs, convulsive treatment, and placement of persons suffering from dementia in a secured facility [see Prob. Code §§ 2356, 2356.5].

In addition, Prob. Code § 2357 provides a procedure by which a conservator may obtain a court order authorizing medical treatment for an existing or continuing medical condition if that treatment is not otherwise authorized by the applicable statutes, and permitting the conservator to consent to that medical treatment on behalf of the conservatee. A conservator who obtains an order under Prob. Code § 2357 may require the conservatee to receive medical treatment specifically authorized by that order, whether or not the conservatee consents to the treatment [Prob. Code § 2354(b)]. For additional discussion of Prob. Code § 2357, see § 285.42.

In the absence of authorization under Prob. Code § 1880 et seq. or Prob. Code § 2357 as described above, a conservator has the power to give consent to medical treatment for the conservatee, but only if the conservatee does not object to the treatment [Prob. Code § 2354(a)], or if an emergency exists as described in Prob. Code § 2354(c).

If the conservatee has designated an agent under a power of attorney for health care, that agent, if known to the health care provider to be reasonably available and willing to make health care decisions, has priority over any other person in making health care decisions for the principal [Prob. Code § 4685]. The Law Revision Commission comments to Prob. Code § 4685 make it clear that this section was intended to give an agent priority over a conservator or a statutory surrogate [2000 Health Care Decisions Law and Revised Power of Attorney Law, 30 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports at 82 (Mar. 2000)]. Based on the Law Revision Commission comment, it appears that this provision in Prob. Code § 4685 overrides language in Prob. Code § 2355 stating that if a conservatee has been adjudicated to lack capacity to make health care decisions, the conservator has "exclusive" authority to make health care decisions for the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2355(a)]. For discussion of the Health Care Decisions Law, see Ch. 427, Principal and Agent .

[2] Conservatee Lacking Capacity to Consent

[a] Order for Conservator to Make Health Care Decisions

In the order appointing the conservator or on a subsequent petition, if the court determines that the conservatee lacks capacity to make health care decisions, the court must so adjudge. At the same time, the court must by order give the conservator of the person exclusive authority to make the health care decisions for the conservatee that the conservator determines, in good faith based on medical advice, to be necessary. The order must also give the conservator the power to require the conservatee to receive that health care, whether or not the conservatee objects [Prob. Code §§ 1880, 1890, 2355; for an illustration of the Judicial Council form of order, see § 285.92].

Any request for such an order must be supported by the written declaration of a licensed physician or psychologist stating that the conservatee lacks the capacity to give an informed consent for any form of medical treatment and the reasons for that conclusion. The declaration must be filed at or before the hearing on the request [Prob. Code § 1890(c)].

If the conservator has these powers, his or her consent alone is sufficient, and no person is liable because the health care is performed on the conservatee without the conservatee's consent [Prob. Code § 2355(a)].

[b] Basis for Conservator's Decision

The conservator must make health care decisions for the conservatee in accordance with the conservatee's "individual health care instruction," if any [see Prob. Code § 4623], and other known wishes of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2355(a)]. Otherwise, the conservator must make health care decisions in accordance with his or her determination of the conservatee's best interests [Prob. Code § 2355(a)]. In determining the conservatee's best interests, the conservator must consider the conservatee's known personal values [Prob. Code § 2355(a)].

If, before the establishment of the conservatorship, the conservatee was an adherent of a religion the tenets and practices of which call for reliance on prayer alone for healing, then treatment required by the conservator under the provisions of Prob. Code § 2355 must be by an accredited practitioner of that religion [Prob. Code § 2355(b)].

[c] Authority to Withhold or Withdraw Consent to Treatment

Under Prob. Code § 2355, a conservator may withhold or withdraw consent to health care as well as give consent. This power permits a decision to forgo life-sustaining treatment in the case of a conservatee who is comatose with no reasonable possibility of regaining cognitive life. Further, the power supports a decision to withdraw nutrition and hydration from the conservatee [Conservatorship of Drabick (1988) 200 Cal. App. 3d 185, 200-204, 245 Cal. Rptr.

840 ; see Barber v. Superior Court (1983) 147 Cal. App. 3d 1006, 195 Cal. Rptr. 484] . This authority extends to the withholding of nutrition and hydration from a conservatee who is conscious but severely mentally and physically disabled, but a conservator claiming statutory authority for withholding life-sustaining treatment in accordance with the conservatee's wishes must present clear and convincing evidence of those wishes [Conservatorship of Wendland (2001) 26 Cal. 4th 519, 110 Cal. Rptr. 2d 412, 28 P.3d 151] . A person's right to determine the scope of his or her own medical treatment, and to refuse treatment if it is not desired, is grounded both in the constitutional right of privacy and in common law [Conservatorship of Drabick (1988) 200 Cal. App. 3d 185, 206, 245 Cal. Rptr. 840 ; see Bouvia v. Superior Court (1986) 179 Cal. App. 3d 1127, 225 Cal. Rptr. 297 ; Bartling v. Superior Court (1984) 163 Cal. App. 3d 186, 209 Cal. Rptr. 220] . The right survives incompetence and must be exercised by the conservator on behalf of the conservatee if the conservatee is incapable of exercising the right [Conservatorship of Drabick (1988) 200 Cal. App. 3d 185, 207-208, 245 Cal. Rptr. 840] .

In exercising the right, the conservator must act in good faith and in the best interests of the conservatee. The conservatee's prior informal statements concerning a particular course of treatment may be relevant to the exercise of the right, but the conservator is not absolutely bound by them, nor is discontinuance foreclosed in a case in which the conservatee did not disclose his or her wishes while competent [Conservatorship of Drabick (1988) 200 Cal. App. 3d 185, 210-212, 245 Cal. Rptr. 840] . In the case of a conservatee who is conscious but severely mentally and physically disabled, a conservator claiming statutory authority for withholding life-sustaining treatment in accordance with the conservatee's wishes must present clear and convincing evidence of the conservatee's wishes [Conservatorship of Wendland (2001) 26 Cal. 4th 519, 110 Cal. Rptr. 2d 412, 28 P.3d 151] .

The conservator may elect to discontinue or refuse treatment without first seeking court approval. If the matter comes before the court on a petition for instructions [see Prob. Code § 2359(a)], the standard for judicial review is whether the conservator has acted in good faith to determine whether treatment is necessary, based on medical advice. The concept of good faith precludes a decision affected by a material conflict of interest and requires the conservator to consider the available information relevant to the conservatee's best interests [Conservatorship of Drabick (1988) 200 Cal. App. 3d 185, 216, 245 Cal. Rptr. 840] .

In the case of a decision to forgo life-sustaining treatment, including the withholding of nutrition and hydration, the conservator's decision must be based on the prognosis that there is no reasonable possibility that the conservatee will return to cognitive, sapient life. However, such a prognosis does not compel the conservator to forgo life-sustaining treatment [Conservatorship of Drabick (1988) 200 Cal. App. 3d 185, 217, 245 Cal. Rptr. 840] .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
C. Consent to Medical Treatment

24-285 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 285.42

§ 285.42 Court Authorization of Medical Treatment

[1] Petition by Guardian or Conservator

If a ward or conservatee would benefit from medical treatment for an existing or continuing medical condition, and treatment cannot be authorized under the guardian's or conservator's existing power to consent [see Prob. Code §§ 2352-2355], and the ward or conservatee is unable to give an informed consent to the medical treatment, the guardian or conservator may petition the court for an order authorizing the medical treatment and authorizing the guardian or conservator to consent on behalf of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2357(b); for a form of petition, see § 285.93].

When a petition to authorize medical treatment is filed by the guardian or conservator, and the ward or conservatee has no attorney of record, the court must appoint the public defender or private counsel under Prob. Code § 1471 to consult with and represent the ward or conservatee at the hearing on the petition. If an appointment is made, the court must fix a sum as reasonable compensation for counsel, payable by the person or estate of the person who is furnished with counsel, to the extent of his or her ability, or by the county, or both, pursuant to Prob. Code § 1472 [Prob. Code § 2357(d)].

[2] Petition by Ward, Conservatee, or Interested Person

The ward or conservatee, or an interested person, may petition the court for an order under Prob. Code § 2357 requiring the conservator to obtain or consent to, or obtain and consent to, specified medical treatment to be performed on the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2357(i)]. The contents of the petition are not prescribed, but it should contain substantially the same allegations as a petition by the guardian or conservator [for form, see § 285.93].

General notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner set forth in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2357(i)]. Special notice of the filing of the petition, when requested, must be given for the period and in the manner set forth in Prob. Code § 2702 [Prob. Code § 2702; see Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. (requests for special notice)]. For discussion and forms relating to general and special notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

When a ward or conservatee, or an interested person, files a petition pursuant to Prob. Code § 2357(i), to compel the guardian or conservator to obtain and consent to medical treatment for the ward or conservatee, the court may appoint private legal counsel for the ward or conservatee, if not otherwise represented by counsel, provided the appointment would be helpful to the resolution of the matter or necessary to protect the interests of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 1470].

[3] Procedure on Hearing of Petition

[a] Who May Appear

The conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner and any relative or friend of the conservatee, the conservator, and any other interested person, may appear at the hearing to support or oppose the petition [Prob. Code § 1895(a)].

A Domestic Partnership is formed when two persons who meet specific requirements complete and file a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the Secretary of State. In order to file a valid declaration, the two parties must meet the following requirements:

- Both must have a common residence;
- Both agree to be jointly responsible for each other's basic living expenses incurred during the domestic partnership;
- Neither is married or a part of another domestic partnership;
- Neither is related by blood in a way that would prevent them from being married in the state of California;
- Both are over 18;
- Both are either of the same sex or one or both meet the eligibility criteria under Title II of the Social Security Act for old-age insurance benefits [42 U.S.C. § 1381]. Persons of opposite sexes may not form a valid domestic partnership unless at least one is 62 years of age;
- Both are capable of consenting to a domestic partnership;
- Neither has previously filed a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the Secretary of State which has not been terminated; and
- Both must file the Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the Secretary of State [Family Code § 297].

[b] Information to Conservatee

Unless the conservatee is absent from the hearing pursuant to Prob. Code § 1893, the court, before granting the petition, must inform the conservatee of the following [Prob. Code § 1895(b)]:

- The nature and purpose of the proceeding.
- The nature and effect of the order requested on the conservatee's basic rights.

- The conservatee's right to oppose the petition, to be represented by legal counsel if he or she so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by the court if unable to retain legal counsel.

Before granting the petition, the court must consult the conservatee to determine the conservatee's opinion concerning the order requested in the petition [Prob. Code § 1895(c)].

If an affidavit or certificate of the conservatee's medical inability to attend the hearing was filed, it is evidence only on that issue, and cannot be considered in determining the issue of the conservatee's legal capacity [Prob. Code § 1893(b)]. For further discussion of the presence of the conservatee at the hearing, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

[4] Order Authorizing Guardian or Conservator to Give Consent

[a] Required Findings

The court may authorize the recommended course of medical treatment and may authorize the guardian or conservator to give consent to the recommended course of medical treatment on behalf of the ward or conservatee if the court determines, from the evidence, all of the following [Prob. Code § 2357(h)]:

- The existing or continuing medical condition of the ward or conservatee requires the recommended course of medical treatment.

- There is a probability that if the condition is left untreated, it will become life-endangering or will result in a serious threat to the physical or mental health of the ward or conservatee.

- The ward or conservatee is unable to give an informed consent to the recommended course of treatment [see [b], below].

[b] Basis for Determining Incapacity to Consent

A conservatee is deemed unable to give informed consent to any form of medical treatment if the conservatee is unable to respond knowingly and intelligently to queries about medical treatment or is unable to participate in treatment decisions by a rational thought process [Prob. Code § 1881(a)]. For a court to determine that a conservatee is unable to respond knowingly and intelligently to queries about his or her medical treatment or is unable to participate in treatment decisions by means of a rational thought process, the court must determine that, for all medical treatments, the conservatee is unable to understand at least one of the following items of minimum basic medical treatment information [Prob. Code § 1881(b)]:

- The nature and seriousness of any illness, disorder, or defect that the conservatee has or may develop.

- The nature of any medical treatment that is being or may be recommended by the conservatee's health care providers.

- The probable degree and duration of any benefits and risks of any medical intervention that is being or may be recommended by the conservatee's health care providers, and the consequences of lack of treatment.

- The nature, risks, and benefits of any reasonable alternatives.

In addition, the court must determine that one or more of the mental functions of the conservatee described in Prob. Code § 811(a) is impaired, and that there is a link between the deficit or deficits and the conservatee's inability to give informed consent [Prob. Code § 1881(b)(2)]. This requirement does not apply, however, if the conservatee, after notice by the court of his or her right to object (which must include, at least, an interview by a court investigator before the hearing on the petition), does not object to the proposed finding of incapacity, or waives any objections [Prob. Code § 1881(e)].

Prob. Code § 810 et seq. set forth the rules for determining whether an individual who is suffering from a deficit in medical functions has the capacity to consent to medical treatment. For detailed discussion of these rules, see Ch. 304, Insane and Incompetent Persons . A deficit in the mental functions listed in Prob. Code § 811(a) may be considered only if the deficit, by itself or in combination with one or more of the other mental function deficits, significantly impairs the conservatee's ability to understand the consequences of his or her decisions regarding medical care [Prob. Code § 1881(c)]. In determining whether a conservatee's mental functioning is so severely impaired that the conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent to any form of medical treatment, the court may take into consideration the frequency, severity, and duration of periods of impairment [Prob. Code § 1881(d)].

§ 285.43 Mental Health Treatment

[1] Placement in Mental Health Facility

No ward or conservatee can be involuntarily placed in a mental health treatment facility under the provisions of the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law [Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.]. Involuntary civil placement of a ward or conservatee in a mental health treatment facility may be obtained only pursuant to the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act [Prob. Code § 2356(a); see Welf. & Inst. Code § 5150 et seq. (involuntary treatment for dangerous or gravely disabled persons); Welf. & Inst. Code § 5350 et seq. (conservatorship for gravely disabled persons)]. A guardian, however, may apply for the placement of the ward in a state hospital as provided in Welf. & Inst. Code § 6000 [Prob. Code § 2356(a)]. For a discussion of voluntary admissions under Welf. & Inst. Code § 6000 and of involuntary civil commitment proceedings, see Ch. 304, Insane and Other Incompetent Persons , Pt. I.

[2] Convulsive Treatments

Convulsive treatments cannot be performed on a ward or conservatee under the provisions of the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law [Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.] but may be performed only as provided in the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act [Prob. Code § 2356(c); see Welf. & Inst. Code § 5325 et seq. (rights of involuntarily detained dangerous or gravely disabled persons); Conservatorship of Fadley (1984) 159 Cal. App. 3d 440, 446, 205 Cal. Rptr. 572 ; see also Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 5326.7, 5326.8 (when guardian or conservator may consent to convulsive treatment)]. The standard of proof in a hearing to determine whether the conservatee has the capacity to give informed consent to convulsive treatment is clear and convincing evidence [Lillian F. v. Superior Court (1984) 160 Cal. App. 3d 314, 324, 206 Cal. Rptr. 603] .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
C. Consent to Medical Treatment

24-285 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 285.44

§ 285.44 Special Treatment of Conservatee With Dementia

[1] Circumstances Under Which Permitted

A conservator may in specified circumstances authorize the placement of the conservatee in a secured perimeter residential care facility for the elderly or a locked and secured nursing facility that specializes in the care and treatment of people with dementia [Prob. Code § 2356.5(b); see Health & Safety Code § 1569.698 (residential care facility for elderly); Health & Safety Code § 1569.691 (locked and secured nursing facility)]. The conservator also may authorize the administration of medication appropriate for the care and treatment of dementia [Prob. Code § 2356.5(c)]. However, the conservator may authorize these things only upon the court's finding, by clear and convincing evidence, of all of the following [Prob. Code § 2356.5(b),(c)]:

- The conservatee has dementia, as defined in the last published edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders.

- The conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent to the placement or the administration of medication, or both, as the case may be.

- The conservatee has at least one mental function deficit pursuant to Prob. Code § 811(a), and this deficit significantly impairs the conservatee's ability to understand and appreciate the consequences of his or her actions pursuant to Prob. Code § 811(b). For discussion of Prob. Code § 811, see Ch. 304, Insane and Other Incompetent Persons , Pt. V.

- The conservatee needs or would benefit from a restricted and secure environment or from appropriate medication, or both, as the case may be, as demonstrated by evidence presented in a supporting declaration by a licensed physician or psychologist with at least two years of experience in diagnosing dementia and acting within the scope of his or her license [see Prob. Code § 2356.5(f)(3)].

The court must also find that proposed placement in a locked facility is the least restrictive placement appropriate to the conservatee's needs [Prob. Code § 2356.5(b)(4)]. A literal reading of Prob. Code § 2356.5(b)(4) would seem to require that the court make this finding when authority is sought to authorize the placement of the conservatee in a secured perimeter residential care facility for the elderly as well as when authority is sought to place the conservatee in a locked and secured nursing facility [see Prob. Code § 2356.5(b)(4)]. Logically, however, it would seem that the finding should be required only when authority is sought for placement in the locked facility.

Further, a conservatee who is to be placed in a secured perimeter or locked facility as described above may not be placed in a mental health rehabilitation center as described in Welf. & Inst. Code § 5675 or an institution for mental disease as described in Welf. & Inst. Code § 2356.5(e) [Prob. Code § 2356.5(e)].

[2] Conservatee With Certain Religious Beliefs

If the conservatee is an adherent of a religion the tenets and practices of which call for reliance on prayer alone for healing, the conservatee must be treated by an accredited practitioner of that religion in lieu of the administration of medication [Prob. Code § 2356.5(d)].

[3] Contents of Petition

A petition seeking authority for the placement or treatment described above is governed by the usual rules for petitions for medical treatment of wards and conservatees [see Prob. Code § 2357 (medical treatment for existing or continuing condition); see also § 285.42], except that the following are required [Prob. Code § 2356.5(f)]:

- The conservatee must be represented by an attorney [see Prob. Code § 1470 et seq. (appointment of legal counsel)].

- The conservatee must be produced at the hearing, unless properly excused [see Prob. Code § 1893 (presence of conservatee at hearing and grounds for excusing conservatee from being present at hearing)].

- The petition must be supported by a declaration of a licensed physician or psychologist with at least two years of experience in diagnosing dementia and acting within the scope of his or her license, and the declaration must support each of the findings required to be made by the court [see Prob. Code § 1890(c) (declaration); see also Prob. Code § 2356.5(b),(c) (findings)].

- The petition may be filed by the conservator, the conservatee, or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or any relative or friend of the conservatee [see Prob. Code § 1891(b) (persons who may file petition)].

[4] Court Investigation

The court investigator is required to investigate every year and to report to the court every two years if the conservator is authorized to act under Prob. Code § 2356.5 [Prob. Code § 2356.5(g); see Prob. Code § 1850 (review at six months, at end of first year, and every two years thereafter); see also Prob. Code § 1851 (investigation by court investigator)]. In addition to the other advice that the court investigator is required to give the conservatee [see Prob. Code § 1851; see also Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators], the investigator is required to advise the conservatee that he or she has the right to object to the powers granted to the conservator under Prob. Code § 2356.5 [Prob. Code § 2356.5(g)]. The investigator's report must include whether the powers granted under that section are warranted [Prob. Code § 2356.5(g)]. If the conservatee objects to those powers, or if the investigator determines that some change in those powers is warranted, the court must provide a copy of the report to the conservatee's attorney, and the attorney must, within 30 days after receiving the report, file a petition with the court regarding the conservatee's status or file a written report with the court stating that the attorney has met with the conservatee and has determined that the petition would be inappropriate [Prob. Code § 2356.5(g)].

However, a physician with moral objections cannot be compelled to remove a nasogastric tube if the conservatee can be transferred to the care of another physician who will carry out the direction [Conservatorship of Morrison (1988) 206 Cal. App. 3d 304, 308-312, 253 Cal. Rptr. 530] .

If the conservatee is conscious but severely mentally and physically disabled, a conservator claiming statutory authority for withholding life-sustaining treatment in accordance with the conservatee's wishes must present clear and convincing evidence of those wishes [*Conservatorship of Wendland (2001) 26 Cal. 4th 519, 110 Cal. The Probate Code sets forth procedures by which a conservator, or a person authorized to petition for conservatorship, may file a petition for the appointment of a limited conservator authorized to consent to the sterilization of an adult with developmental disabilities [see Prob. Code § 1950 et seq.]. These procedures do not apply to a person who has the ability to consent to his or her sterilization [see Prob. Code § 1951(a)]. The statutes set forth detailed procedural protections intended to ensure that no individual will be sterilized solely by reason of a developmental disability and that no one who knowingly opposes his or her own sterilization will be involuntarily sterilized [see Prob. Code § 1950; see also Conservatorship of Angela D. (1999) 70 Cal. App. 4th 1410, 83 Cal. Rptr. 2d 411] . 1. Petitioner is _____ [the conservator of the _____ (person or person and estate) of _____ (name) or the conservatee in this proceeding, appearing by his/her guardian ad litem, _____ (name) or specify relationship to conservatee, e.g., the sister of _____ (name), the conservatee].

[EITHER]

2. The order of this court dated _____, appointing _____ [petitioner or name of conservator] as conservator of the _____ [person or person and estate] of _____[name], did not limit the powers and duties of the conservator over the care, custody, control, or education of the conservatee, nor has any such limitation been imposed by subsequent order of the court.

[OR]

2. The powers and duties of _____ [petitioner or name of conservator] as conservator of the [person or person and estate] of _____[name] were limited by the order of _____[date], which provided that _____[set forth existing limitations].

[CONTINUE]

3. _____ [Facts showing why order limiting or further limiting conservator's powers should be made, e.g., The conservator has arbitrarily prevented the relatives of the conservatee from communicating with the conservatee, by censoring the conservatee's mail, telephone calls, and visitors, all without good cause]. The powers and duties of the conservator of the _____ [person or person and estate] should be limited by an order providing that _____ [specify limitations, e.g., the conservator does not have the power to censor the conservatee's mail, telephone calls, or visitors, or otherwise to interfere with communication between the conservatee and his family].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order providing that _____[name], as conservator of the _____ [person or person and estate] of _____[name], does not have the power _____ [specify limitation, e.g., to censor mail, telephone calls, or visits of relatives with _____ (name of conservatee) or otherwise to interfere with communication between the conservatee and his relatives], and for such other orders as the court may deem proper.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning the court for an order imposing limitations or further limitations on the powers and duties of a conservator of the person or person and estate regarding the care, custody, control, or education of the conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2351(b),(c)].

The form may not be used in a guardianship [see Prob. Code § 2351(b),(c)].

[3] Who May Petition

Although Prob. Code § 2351 provides that an order limiting the powers of a conservator of the person may be made in an order appointing him or her, or may be made, modified, or revoked in a subsequent order, the statute does not specify who may petition for such a subsequent order. This form has been drafted based on the assumption that the same person who may petition for appointment of a conservator may petition to impose, modify, or revoke limitations on a conservator's powers (Paragraph 1). Since there is no specific authority for the conservatee to file the petition, however, if a conservatee does file it, he or she probably must do so by a guardian ad litem [see Code Civ. Proc. § 372; Prob. Code § 2351; Guardianship of Boxley (1953) 115 Cal. App. 2d 483, 486, 252 P.2d 348 (guardian ad litem is required when no statute expressly allows incompetent to petition)].

[4] Contents of Petition

The contents of a petition to impose limitations on the power and duties of a conservator of the person are not specified by statute. The petition should state the standing of the petitioner (Paragraph 1) and any existing limitations on the conservator's powers (Paragraph 2). Because the powers and duties of a conservator of the person may be limited if the court determines that it is appropriate in the circumstances of the particular conservatee, the petition should state the reasons why the limitations on the conservator's powers should be imposed, along with the terms of any limitations to be imposed (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code § 2351(b)].

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a)].

[6] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given as provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2351(c)]. For discussion and forms, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[7] Order

If the court orders limitations on the conservator's powers, the order must set out the specific powers that the conservator does not have with respect to the conservatee's person, and reserve the powers so specified to the conservatee; or set out the specific powers and duties the conservator has with respect to the conservatee's person, and reserve to the conservatee all other rights with respect to the conservatee's person, which the conservator otherwise would have [Prob. Code § 2351(b)].

The order must include a finding that notice was regularly given or waived by the party entitled to notice, if it so appears to the satisfaction of the court. The order will thus be conclusive as to all persons when it becomes final [Prob. Code § 1260(b),(c)].

For a general form of order, see Ch. 372, Motions and Orders .

[1] FORM Petition to Modify or Remove Limitations on Powers of Conservator of the Person

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

_____ [Conservatorship or Limited Conservatorship] of the _____ [Person or Person and Estate] of _____ [name], Conservatee.	)))))))	NO. _____ [Hearing set for _____ (date), at _____ (time), in Dept. No. _____] PETITION TO MODIFY OR REMOVE LIMITATIONS ON POWERS OF CONSERVATOR

Petitioner, _____[name], respectfully represents:

1. [Capacity of petitioner. See § 285.70[1], Paragraph 1.]

2. The powers and duties of _____ [petitioner or name of conservator] as conservator of the _____ [person or person and estate] of _____[name] were limited by the order of _____[date], which provided that _____ [set forth the existing limitations, e.g., the conservator did not have the power to fix the residence of the conservatee; that power was reserved to the conservatee].

3. The limitations on the powers and duties of _____ [petitioner or the conservator] should be _____ [removed or modified] because _____ [state facts showing why revocation or modification required, e.g., the conservatee adamantly refuses to give up her home, although advancing senility has rendered her incapable of safely living alone, so that the conservator needs the power to fix the residence of the conservatee at a place where she can receive proper supervision].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order _____ [removing or modifying] the limitations on the power of _____[name] as conservator of the _____ [person or person and estate] of _____[name], _____ [specify modified limitations, if applicable, e.g., so that the conservator does have the power to fix the residence of the conservatee outside San Diego County], and for such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 285.70.]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning the court for an order modifying or removing limitations on the powers and duties of a conservator of the person regarding the care, custody, control, or education of the conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2351(b),(c)].

The form may not be used in a guardianship [see Prob. Code § 2351(b),(c)].

§ 285.72 Petition to Modify Limited Conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2351.5]

[1] FORM Petition to Modify Limited Conservatorship

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

Limited Conservatorship of the _____ [Person or Person and Estate] of _____ [name], Conservatee.	))))))	NO. _____ [Hearing set for _____ (date), at _____ (time), in Dept. No. _____] PETITION TO MODIFY LIMITED CONSERVATORSHIP

Petitioner, _____[name], respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is _____ [specify status of petitioner, e.g., the sister of the conservatee].

2. On _____[date], _____[name], conservatee, was found to be developmentally disabled, and _____ [name or petitioner] was appointed limited conservator of the _____ [person or person and estate] of _____[name] and granted the following power(s): _____[specify].

3. Petitioner is informed and believes that _____ [set forth facts establishing that powers listed in Prob. Code § 2351.5(a) should be granted to or withdrawn from limited conservator, e.g., the conservatee has attained a state of maturity that enables him to control his own social and sexual contact and relationships, as is more fully set out in the declaration of _____ (name of doctor, social worker, or other person with knowledge of relevant facts), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A].

[EITHER]

4. Because the conservatee has the capacity to _____ [specify subject matter of powers to be withdrawn, e.g., control his own social and sexual contacts and relationships], the following powers of _____ [petitioner or the limited conservator] should be withdrawn: _____ [list powers to be revoked].

[OR]

4. Because the conservatee lacks the capacity to _____ [specify subject matter of power(s) to be granted, e.g., control his own social and sexual contacts and relationships], the following powers should be granted to _____ [petitioner or the limited conservator]: _____ [list powers to be granted].

[CONTINUE]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order that the following power(s) be _____ [granted to or withdrawn from] _____ [petitioner or name of limited conservator], as limited conservator of _____[name]: _____[list powers], and for such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 285.70.]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning the court to modify a limited conservatorship by the grant or withdrawal of powers that must be specifically granted to the limited conservator [see Prob. Code § 2351.5(a),(b)].

[3] Modification of Limited Conservatorship

A limited conservator or the conservatee or any relative or friend of the conservatee may apply by verified petition to the superior court in which the proceedings are pending, to have the limited conservatorship modified by the grant or withdrawal of any of the powers that must be specifically granted to the limited conservator [Prob. Code § 2351.5(b); for discussion of those powers, see § 285.20[4][b]]. The grant or withdrawal of such powers is discretionary with the court [Prob. Code § 2351.5(c)].

[4] Contents of Petition

The petition must state the facts alleged to establish that the limited conservatorship should be modified (Paragraphs 3 and 4) [Prob. Code § 2351.5(c); see Prob. Code § 1828.5]. The affidavit of a social worker or other person is not required but may be included if it is desired to provide more factual background to the court than is set out in the petition. Although Prob. Code § 2351.5 does not specify the remaining contents of the petition, the petition should state the status of the petitioner to show that a proper person is petitioning the court (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2351.5]; the date the conservatee was found to be developmentally disabled and the limited conservatorship was established, and the powers that were granted to the limited conservator (Paragraph 2); and the specific powers to be granted or withdrawn (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 1821(j)].

[5] Notice

The petition must be set for hearing and notice must be given in the same manner as is provided for a petition for the appointment of a limited conservator [see Prob. Code § 2351.5(c)]. In addition, the limited conservator, if he or she is not the petitioner or has not joined in the petition, must be served with notice of the time and place of the hearing, along with a copy of the petition, at least five days before the hearing. Service must be made in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.10 or 415.30 (personal service or service by mail), or in a manner authorized by the court. For discussion and forms, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[6] Procedure at Hearing

The limited conservator or any relative or friend of the conservatee may appear and oppose the petition. The court must hear and determine the matter according to the laws and procedures relating to the trial of civil actions, including trial by jury if demanded [Prob. Code § 2351.5(d)].

If any powers are granted or withdrawn, then new letters of limited conservatorship must be issued reflecting the change in the limited conservator's powers [Prob. Code § 2351.5(d)].

Procedures relating to the establishment of limited conservatorships may be applicable because "proceeding to establish a limited conservatorship" is defined to include proceedings to modify or revoke the powers or duties of a limited conservator [Prob. Code § 1431; see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

[7] Order

The order must include a finding that notice was regularly given or waived by the party entitled to notice, if it so appears to the satisfaction of the court. The order will thus be conclusive as to all persons when it becomes final [Prob. Code § 1260(b),(c)].

For a general form of order, see Ch. 372, Motions and Orders .

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning the court for authorization and instruction, or approval and confirmation of a guardian's or conservator's acts, relating to the care, custody, control, or education of the ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2359(a)]. This form need not be used for routine matters but would be used when the relatives of the ward or conservatee disagree, or the matter is extraordinary, or the guardian or conservator reasonably needs the protection of a court order.

For the related form of order, see § 285.77.

[3] Contents of Petition

On petition of the guardian or conservator, or the ward or conservatee, or any interested person, the court may authorize and instruct the guardian or conservator, or approve and confirm the acts of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2359(a)]. The contents of the petition are not specified in the statute. The petition should include the status of the petitioner as a proper person to petition the court (Paragraph 1) [Prob. Code § 2359(a)] along with either a request for authorization and instruction, including a suggested course of action, or a statement of the acts already undertaken, which are to be approved and confirmed (Paragraph 2).

If the petition is for approval of a purchase, lease, or rental of real or personal property from the estate of a conservatee, the petitioner must provide a statement disclosing any family or affiliate relationship between the conservator and the purchaser, lessee, or renter of the property, and the family or affiliate relationship between the conservator and any agent hired by the conservator [Prob. Code § 2359(c)].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2359(b)]. A petition filed pursuant to Prob. Code § 2359 is also subject to the special notice requirements of Prob. Code § 2700 et seq.; accordingly, the petition should state whether any request for special notice has been filed and, if so, should represent that proper notice will be given (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code § 1260]. For further discussion and forms relating to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-380, for use in petitioning the court to issue, modify, or revoke an order declaring that a conservatee lacks capacity to consent to medical treatment and conferring on the conservator the exclusive power to consent to medical treatment for the conservatee [see Prob. Code §§ 1880, 1890, 1891].

Use of this form is mandatory in all counties [see Prob. Code § 1834(a)]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[3] Who May Petition

The petition may be filed by the conservator, the conservatee, or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or any relative or friend of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 1891].

[4] Contents of Petition

[a] General Requirements

This form requests that [Prob. Code §§ 1880, 2355].

- The conservatee be adjudged to lack capacity to give informed consent for medical treatment (Paragraph 1a).

- The conservator be granted exclusive authority to consent to medical treatment that he or she in good faith determines to be necessary based on medical advice (Paragraph 1b).

- New letters of conservatorship be issued including a statement of the powers granted pursuant to the petition (Paragraph 1g).

If, before the establishment of the conservatorship, the conservatee was an adherent of a religion the tenets and practices of which call for reliance on prayer alone for healing, the treatment required by the conservator under Prob. Code § 2355 must be by an accredited practitioner of that religion [Prob. Code § 2355(b)]. In recognition of this requirement, the form provides for a request that the medical treatment be performed either by a licensed medical practitioner or by an accredited practitioner of a religion that relies on prayer alone for healing (Paragraph 1c) and also includes a statement that the conservatee is or is not an adherent of such a religion (Paragraph 4).

The form provides space for a request that orders related to dementia treatment or placement be granted (Paragraph 1d), as requested in an attachment [see for an illustration of the Judicial Council form of attachment, see § 285.91]. The form also provides space to request a modification or revocation of an order adjudging a conservatee to lack capacity to give informed consent and conferring on a conservator the exclusive power to give consent under Prob. Code § 2355 (Paragraph 1e) [Prob. Code §§ 1880, 1891].

[b] Declaration of Physician or Psychologist

A request for a court order under Prob. Code § 1880 must be supported by a declaration, filed at or before the hearing on the request, executed by a licensed physician, or a licensed psychologist within the scope of his or her license, and stating that the conservatee lacks the capacity to give an informed consent for any form of medical treatment and the reasons for that conclusion (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code § 1890(c)]. Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-335 may be used to make this declaration; for a filled-in reproduction of that form, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

[5] Attendance of Conservatee at Hearing

The form includes a statement of whether the conservatee will attend the hearing and, if not, the reason for his or her nonattendance (Paragraph 5). The conservatee must be produced at the hearing on the petition unless one of the following conditions applies [Prob. Code § 1893]:

- The conservatee is outside California when served and is not the petitioner (Paragraph 5d).

- The conservatee is unable to attend the hearing because of medical inability established by the affidavit of a licensed medical practitioner or, if the conservatee is an adherent of a religion that relies on prayer alone for healing, the affidavit of an accredited practitioner of that religion (Paragraph 5c) [see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

- The court investigator reports to the court that the conservatee has expressly communicated that the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing and does not wish to contest the petition, and the court makes an order that the conservatee need not attend the hearing (Paragraph 5b).

[6] Report by Court Investigator

If the petition alleges that the conservatee is not willing to attend the hearing, or on receipt of an affidavit or certificate attesting to the conservatee's medical inability to attend, the court investigator must interview the conservatee and make a report to the court [Prob. Code § 1894]. This form provides space to state that a proposed order appointing a court investigator and specifying the investigator's duties has been filed with the petition (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code § 1454 (qualifications of court investigator); see also Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

[7] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1892]. For a discussion of these requirements, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice . This form states whether special notice has been requested (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code § 2700(c)(1)].

If the order that is sought relates to a limited conservatee, the petition must be made, noticed, and heard by the court in the manner provided by Prob. Code § 1820 et seq., relating to establishment of conservatorships [Prob. Code § 1890(b); see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators ; Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-313, an attachment to Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-380 [for an illustration of that form, see § 285.90], for use when the conservatee has dementia, as defined in the current edition of Diagnosis and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders [see Prob. Code § 2356.5]. (It also may be attached to Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-310, the petition for appointment of a conservator [see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].) The attachment specifies the orders sought by the petitioner regarding options for the treatment of the conservatee in such a case, and the bases for the diagnosis. If the attachment is used, the appropriate box on the face of the petition should be checked.

Use of this form is mandatory in all counties [see Prob. Code § 1834(a)]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[3] Contents of Attachment

The attachment includes requests for authorization to place the conservatee in a secure perimeter residential care facility for the elderly, as defined in Prob. Code § 2356.5 (Paragraph 1a), as well as the assertion that the conservatee or proposed conservatee has dementia (Paragraph 2), supported by a medical declaration (Paragraph 3), and that the conservatee needs or would benefit from that placement, which is the least restrictive placement appropriate to the conservatee's needs (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 2356.5(b)].

The attachment also includes a request to authorize the administration of medication appropriate for the care and treatment of dementia (Paragraph 1b), and an assertion that the conservatee needs or would benefit from the medication, and that the conservatee lacks capacity to give informed consent to the administration of the medication (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code § 2356.5(c)].

[4] Supplemental Declaration by Physician or Psychologist

A petition under Prob. Code § 2356.5 must be supported by a declaration of a licensed physician, or a licensed psychologist acting within the scope of his or her license and having at least two years experience in diagnosing dementia, regarding each of the findings required to be made under that section for any power requested in the petition [Prob. Code § 2356.5(f)(3)]. Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-335 may be used to make this declaration; for a filled-in reproduction of that form, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

Petitioner, _____[name], respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is the _____ [guardian or conservator] of the _____ [person or person and estate] of _____[name].

2. Petitioner is informed, believes, and alleges that _____[name] suffers from _____[specify medical condition that requires treatment], which, without the course of treatment recommended by _____[name of physician], will _____ [become life-endangering or result in a serious threat to his/her health, or both], as is more fully set out in the declaration of _____[name of physician], attached as Exhibit A.

3. The probable outcome of the recommended course of treatment will be _____ [specify extent of recovery, e.g., that _____ (name) will regain partial use of her leg], and the recommended course of treatment is more appropriate than any of the medically available alternatives listed in Exhibit A.

4. The recommended course of treatment is not authorized to be performed on the _____ [ward under Probate Code Section 2252 or 2353 or conservatee under Probate Code Section 2252, 2354, or 2355].

5. _____[Name of physician] has attempted to explain the _____ [ward's or conservatee's] medical condition and the recommended course of treatment, together with its probable benefits and risks, to the _____ [ward or conservatee] on several occasions, but the _____ [ward or conservatee] has not understood the implications of his/her condition or the recommended course of treatment and is unable to give an informed consent.

6. The names and addresses of the persons entitled to notice are as follows: _____ [names and addresses of persons entitled to notice under Prob. Code § 2357(e)].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order authorizing the recommended course of treatment of the _____ [ward or conservatee] and authorizing the _____ [guardian or conservator] to consent on behalf of the _____ [ward or conservatee] to the recommended course of treatment, and an order setting the hearing on this petition for a date not later than _____ (date), and prescribing the notice to be given], and for such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator in petitioning the court for an order authorizing medical treatment for a ward or conservatee and authorizing the guardian or conservator to consent to the medical treatment on behalf of the ward or conservatee. The form is for use when the ward or conservatee needs medical treatment for an existing or continuing medical condition, which is not authorized to be performed on the ward or conservatee under the guardian's or conservator's existing power to consent [see Prob. Code §§ 2352-2355].

[3] Contents of Petition

[a] In General

This form states the status of the petitioner as a guardian or conservator (Paragraph 1) [Prob. Code § 2357(b)] and the following facts to show that the court should make an order authorizing medical treatment for the ward or conservatee:

- That the ward or conservatee suffers from an existing or continuing medical condition requiring a recommended course of medical treatment; that, if the condition is left untreated, there is a probability that the condition will become life-endangering or seriously threaten the ward or conservatee's physical or mental health; and that the ward or conservatee is unable to give informed consent to the recommended course of treatment (Paragraph 2) [Prob. Code § 2357(h)(1)-(3)].

- The predictable or probable outcome of the recommended course of treatment, and the medically available alternatives, if any, to the recommended course of treatment (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code § 2357(c)(4), (5)].

- That the recommended course of treatment is not authorized to be performed on the ward or conservatee under Prob. Code §§ 2352-2355 (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 2357(b)].

- That the ward or conservatee is unable to give informed consent to the recommended course of treatment (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 2357(h)(3)].

- The names and addresses of interested persons, to the extent known to petitioner [see Prob. Code §§ 1510(c), 1821(b), 2357(c)(7)].

[b] Interested Persons

A petition by a conservator must include the names and addresses of the conservatee's spouse and relatives within the second degree. If the petitioner knows of no spouse nor any relatives within the second degree, the petition must include names and addresses of the following [Prob. Code § 1821(b)]:

- A spouse of a predeceased parent of the conservatee.
- The children of a predeceased spouse of the conservatee.
- The siblings of the conservatee's parents or, if none, their natural and adoptive children.
- The natural and adoptive children of the conservatee's siblings.

A petition by a guardian must include the names and addresses of the following persons [Prob. Code § 1510(c)]:

- The ward's parents.
- The person having legal custody of the ward and the person having the care of the ward.
- The ward's relatives within the second degree.
- Any person nominated as guardian of the ward [see Prob. Code §§ 1500, 1501].

[4] Notice

Notice of the time and place for the hearing must be given, and a copy of the petition must be personally served on the ward, if 12 years old or older, or the conservatee, and on the attorney for the ward or conservatee at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 2357(e)(1)]. Notice of the time and place for the hearing must be given, and a copy of the petition must be mailed to the conservatee's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], if any, and all relatives named in the petition, at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 2357(e)(2)]. The court may shorten or waive the notice requirements for good cause [Prob. Code § 2357(f)]. In determining the appropriate notice period, the court must consider the medical circumstances as set forth in the medical affidavit accompanying the petition, and the desirability, when the condition of the ward or conservatee permits, of giving adequate notice to the interested parties [Prob. Code § 2357(f)]. Accordingly, this form includes an optional statement regarding when the hearing on the petition should be held in light of the condition of the ward or conservatee, and suggesting the persons, if any, to whom notice should be given (Paragraph 7).

In relation to giving notice to interested persons, counsel may wish to bring requests for special notice under Prob. Code § 2700 to the court's attention. This is not necessary, however, because the kinds of petitions for which special notice may be requested do not include petitions pursuant to Prob. Code § 2357 [see Prob. Code §§ 2357(e), (f), 2700].

Notwithstanding the above notice provisions [see Prob. Code § 2357(e), (f)], a petition for an order under Prob. Code § 2357 may be submitted for the determination of the court on medical affidavits or declarations if the attorney for the petitioner and the attorney for the conservatee so stipulate and further stipulate no issue of fact remains to be determined [Prob. Code § 2357(g)]. If the matter is to be decided on affidavits or declarations, the stipulation to that effect should be prepared and submitted to the court, and the language of this form relating to urgency (Paragraph 7) should be omitted.

[5] Medical Affidavit

A medical affidavit (or declaration [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.5]) attached to the petition must set forth all of the following as far as may be known to the petitioner at the time the petition is filed [Prob. Code § 2357(c)]:

- The nature of the medical condition of the ward or conservatee that requires treatment.
- The recommended course of medical treatment that is considered to be medically appropriate.
- The threat to the health of the ward or conservatee if authorization to consent to the recommended course of treatment is delayed or denied by the court.
- The predictable or probable outcome of the recommended course of treatment.
- The medically available alternatives, if any, to the course of treatment recommended.
- The efforts made to obtain an informed consent from the ward or conservatee.
- The names and addresses, to the extent known by the petitioner, of interested persons listed in Prob. Code § 1510(c) (for guardians) or Prob. Code § 1821(b) (for conservators) [see [3][b], above].

Alternatively, this information may be included in the petition [Prob. Code § 2357(c)].

§ 286.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses the inventory and appraisal of the ward's or conservatee's property. Filing and oath requirements for inventory are covered in § 286.11, appraisal is covered in §§ 286.12 -286.15, and examination of a person regarding assets is discussed in § 286.16.

This chapter also provides a research guide [see § 286.30 et seq.] and includes the following forms:

- Request [see § 286.40] and order [see § 286.41] for appointment of a probate referee.
- Ex parte request for an order requiring a guardian or conservator to file an inventory and appraisal [see § 286.42].
- Application [see § 286.43] and order [see § 286.44] for extension of time to file the inventory and appraisal.
- The Judicial Council form for inventory and appraisal [see § 286.45].
- Objections to an inventory and appraisal [see §§ 286.46, 286.46A].
- Petition [see § 286.47] and citation [see § 286.48] to compel an examination of a person regarding estate assets.
- The Judicial Council form for notice by an institution that a guardian or conservator has taken possession or control of a minor's or conservatee's asset [see § 286.49].
- The Judicial Council form for notice by a financial institution that a guardian or conservator has opened or changed the name on an account or a safe deposit box [see § 286.50].

§ 286.11 Inventory

[1] Filing Requirements

Within 90 days after appointment, or such further time as the court for reasonable cause on ex parte petition may allow, the guardian or conservator of the estate must file with the clerk of the court an inventory and appraisal of the estate, made as of the date of the appointment [Prob. Code § 2610(a); for forms for an application and order for additional time to file inventory and appraisal, see §§ 286.43 and 286.44, for the form for inventory and appraisal, see § 286.45]. The guardian or conservator must also mail the inventory and appraisal of the estate, and a notice of how to file an objection, to the conservatee, the attorneys of record for the ward or conservatee, the conservatee's spouse or registered domestic partner, the conservatee's relatives in the first degree, or the next closest relatives, unless the court determines that mailing this information would result in harm to the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2610 (a); for form, see § 286.45A].

The inventory, including partial and supplemental inventories, must include all property in the ward's or conservatee's estate [Prob. Code § 8850(a)]. All property, including any out-of-state property, must be accounted for [see Conservatorship of Hume (2006) 139 Cal. App. 4th 393, 397, 42 Cal. Rptr. 3d 796] . The inventory must specify the following property [Prob. Code § 8850(b)]:

- Money owed to the ward or conservatee, including debts, bonds, and notes, with the name of each debtor, the date, the sum originally payable, and the endorsements, if any, with their dates. The inventory must also specify security for the payment of money to the ward or conservatee, including mortgages and deeds of trust. If security for the payment of money is real property, the inventory must include the recording reference or, if not recorded, a legal description of the real property [Prob. Code § 8850(b)(1)].

- A statement of the interest of the ward or conservatee in a partnership, appraised as a single item [Prob. Code § 8850(b)(2)].

- All money and other cash items, as defined in Prob. Code § 8901, of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 8850(b)(3); for discussion of what constitutes cash items, see § 286.12[2]].

Before 1981, the inventory had to include and designate which portion of theestate was community property and which portion was separate property. However, since January 1, 1981, community property is not part of the conservatorship estate when the conservatee's spouse has legal capacity [Prob. Code § 3051(b)]. Thus, although some courts may still require inclusion in the inventory of the conservatee's interest in community property, Prob. Code § 3051(b) implies that the conservator need only include the conservatee's separate property if the conservatee's spouse has legal capacity. Local practice should be consulted.

[2] Oath Requirement

The guardian or conservator must endorse on or annex to the inventory an oath that the inventory contains a true statement of the entire estate of the ward or conservatee of which the guardian or conservator has possession or knowledge. The oath must be endorsed on or annexed to the inventory [Prob. Code § 2610(b); for the form for an inventory and appraisal, see § 286.45].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-286 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 286.12

§ 286.12 Appraisal

[1] In General

The appraisal, made as of the date of the appointment of the guardian or conservator, must be performed in the manner provided for the inventory and appraisal of decedents' estates [Prob. Code § 2610(a), (c); see Prob. Code §§ 8900-8903].

[2] By Guardian or Conservator

The guardian or conservator must appraise the following property, excluding items whose fair market value is, in the opinion of the guardian or conservator, an amount different from the face value of the property [Prob. Code § 8901; see Prob. Code § 2610(c)]:

- Money and other cash items. A "cash item" is a check, draft, money order, or similar instrument that can be immediately converted to cash [see Prob. Code § 8901(a)]. However, wages or salaries for employment during the guardianship or conservatorship are not part of the ward's or conservatee's estate, and the guardian or conservator is not accountable for them [Prob. Code § 2601(a)].

- Refund checks, including tax and utility refunds, and Medicare, medical insurance, and other health care reimbursements and payments [see Prob. Code § 8901(b)(2)].

- Accounts in financial institutions [Prob. Code § 8901(c)]. An "account" includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit, share account, mutual capital certificate, and other like arrangements [Prob. Code § 21]. A "financial institution" is a state or national bank, state or federal savings and loan association or credit union, or like organization [Prob. Code § 40].

- Cash deposits and money market mutual funds, as defined in Prob. Code § 9730, whether in a financial institution or otherwise, including a brokerage cash account. All other mutual funds, stocks, bonds, and other securities must be appraised pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 8902-8909.

- Proceeds of life and accident insurance policies and retirement plans and annuities payable on death in lump-sum amounts [Prob. Code § 8901(e)].

If the conservatorship is initiated pursuant to the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Welf. & Inst. Code § 5000 et seq.) and no sale of the estate will occur, all the property may be appraised by the conservator; there is no need for a probate referee [Prob. Code § 2610(d)]. There also is no need for a referee if the entire estate consists of cash and similar items that may be appraised by the guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code §§ 2610(c), 8901].

[3] By Probate Referee

All property not appraised by the guardian or conservator must be appraised by a probate referee [Prob. Code § 8902(b); for forms for request and order for appointment of referee, see §§ 286.40, 286.41]. On designation by the court, the probate referee has all the powers of a referee of the superior court and all other powers provided in Prob. Code §§ 450-453 (powers of probate referee) [Prob. Code § 450]. For appraisal purposes, the referee may require, and may issue a (deposition), subpoena to compel, the appearance of the guardian or conservator, an interested person, or anyone the referee has reason to believe has knowledge of the ward's or conservatee's property [Prob. Code § 451; see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 2020.020-2020.510]. The referee may examine and take the testimony under oath of a person appearing before the referee, or require, and issue a (deposition) subpoena to compel, the person to produce any document in the person's possession or control, concerning the value of any property in the estate [Prob. Code § 452; see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 2020.020-2020.510]. For forms for subpoenas, see Ch. 193, Discovery: Depositions .

On petition of a person required to appear before the referee, the court may make a protective order to protect the person from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression. The petitioner must mail notice of the hearing on the petition to the referee and to the personal representative, the guardian or conservator, or other fiduciary, at least 15 days before the date set for the hearing. Any subpoena issued by the referee is stayed during the pendency of the petition [Prob. Code § 453(a)]. For a form for a notice of motion for a protective order restricting deposition testimony, see Ch. 193, Discovery: Depositions .

On petition of the referee, the court may make an order to show cause why a person who is required, but fails, to appear before the referee should not be required to do so. The referee must mail notice of the hearing on the petition to the person at least 15 days before the date set for the hearing [Prob. Code § 453(b)]. For a general form for an order to show cause, see Ch. 372, Motions and Orders .

[4] Oath Requirement

The person who appraises the ward's or conservatee's property, whether the guardian or conservator, probate referee, or independent expert, must sign the appraisal with respect to the property he or she appraised, and must take and subscribe an oath that he or she has truly, honestly, and impartially appraised the property to the best of his or her ability [Prob. Code § 8905].

[5] Referee's Commission and Expenses

The commission and expenses provided for the services of a probate referee are paid from the ward's or conservatee's estate [Prob. Code § 8960(a)]. The referee may not withhold the appraisal until the commission and expenses are paid, but must deliver the appraisal to the guardian or conservator promptly on completion [Prob. Code § 8960(b)].

Compensation for probate referee appraisal services is the following [Prob. Code § 8961]:

- A commission of one-tenth of 1 percent of the total value of the estate property, excluding property appraised by the guardian or conservator or by an independent expert; and

- The actual and necessary expenses for the appraisal. The referee must file with, or list on, the inventory and appraisal a verified account of the referee's expenses [Prob. Code § 8961(a)].

The probate referee's commission may in no event be less than $75 or more than $10,000 [Prob. Code § 8963(a)]. However, on the referee's application, the court may allow a commission in excess of $10,000 if it determines that the reasonable value of the referee's services exceeds that amount [Prob. Code § 8963(b)]. Notice of the hearing must be given as provided in Prob. Code § 1220 to all of the following persons [Prob. Code § 8963(b)]:

- Each person listed in Prob. Code § 1220;

- Each known heir whose interest in the estate would be affected by the petition;

- Each known devisee whose interest in the estate would be affected by the petition;

- The Attorney General, at the office of the Attorney General in Sacramento, if any portion of the estate is to escheat to the state and its interest in the estate would be affected by the petition; and

- Each person who has requested special notice of petitions filed in the proceeding.

If more than one probate referee appraises or participates in the appraisal of property in the estate, each is entitled to the share of the commission agreed on by the referees or, absent an agreement, that the court allows. In no case may the total commission for all referees exceed the maximum commission that would be allowable for a single referee [Prob. Code § 8964].

[6] Persons to Receive Copies

If a timely request is made, the court clerk is required to mail a copy of the inventory and appraisal to the county assessor [Prob. Code § 2612].

If the ward or conservatee is or has been, during the guardianship or conservatorship, a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, a copy of the inventory and appraisal must be mailed to the director of the appropriate department, at the director's office in Sacramento, not later than 15 days after the inventory and appraisal is filed with the court, unless an unrevoked certificate described in Prob. Code § 1461(c) is on file with the court [Prob. Code § 2611; for discussion of Prob. Code § 1461, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

Whenever any property of the ward or conservatee is discovered that was not included in the inventory, or whenever any other property is received by the ward or conservatee or by the guardian or conservator on behalf of the ward or conservatee (other than by the actions of the guardian or conservator in the investment and management of the estate), the guardian or conservator must file a supplemental inventory and appraisal for that property, and the same procedure must be followed as in the case of an original inventory, except that the appraisal must be made as of the date the property was so discovered or received [Prob. Code § 2613]. The same forms are used for the supplemental inventory and appraisal as are used for the original inventory [for an illustration of the Judicial Council form for inventory and appraisal, see § 286.45].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

§ 286.14 Failure to File

If the guardian or conservator fails to file an inventory and appraisal within the time allowed by law or by court order, on request of the ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297] of the conservatee, any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person, the court must order the guardian or conservator to file the inventory and appraisal within such time as the order prescribes or to show cause why the guardian or conservator should not be removed. The person who requested the order must serve it on the guardian or conservator in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.10 or 415.30 or in such manner as is ordered by the court [Prob. Code § 2614.5(a)].

If the guardian or conservator fails to file the inventory and appraisal as required by the order within the time prescribed in the order, unless good cause is shown for not doing so, the court, on its own motion or on petition, may remove the guardian or conservator, revoke the letters of guardianship or conservatorship, and enter judgment accordingly, and order the guardian or conservator to file an account and to surrender the estate to the person legally entitled to it [Prob. Code § 2614.5(b)]. The procedure provided by Prob. Code § 2614.5 is optional and does not preclude the use of any other remedy or sanction when an inventory and appraisal is not timely filed [Prob. Code § 2614.5(c)].

If a guardian or conservator fails to file any inventory required by this article within the time prescribed by law or by court order, the guardian or conservator is liable for damages for any injury to the estate or to any interested person directly resulting from the failure to file the inventory in a timely manner. Damages awarded pursuant to this section are a personal liability of the guardian or conservator and a liability on the bond, if any [Prob. Code § 2615].

For a form for compelling filing of an account, see § 286.42.

§ 286.15 Objections to Appraisals

The guardian or conservator or any creditor or other interested person may file written objections to any or all appraisals within 30 days after the inventory and appraisal is filed [for forms for an objection, see §§ 286.46 (attorney-drafted form), 286.46A (Judicial Council form)]. The clerk is required to set the objections for hearing not less than 15 days after the filing of these objections [Prob. Code § 2614(a)].

Notice of the hearing, together with a copy of the objections, must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469. If the appraisal was made by a probate referee, the person objecting must also mail notice of the hearing and a copy of the objection to the probate referee at least 15 days before the time set for the hearing [Prob. Code § 2614(b)]. For a general discussion of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

The court will determine the objections and may fix the true value of any item to which objection has been filed. The court may have an independent appraisal made at the expense of the estate, or, if the objecting party is not the guardian or conservator and the objection is rejected by the court, the court may assess the cost of the additional appraisal against the objecting party [Prob. Code § 2614(c)].

24-286 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 286.16

§ 286.16 Examination of a Person Regarding Assets

[1] Who May Petition

A petition may be filed to examine a person concerning the assets of an estate by any one or more of the following [Prob. Code § 2616(a); for a petition, see § 286.47]:

- The guardian or conservator;
- The ward or conservatee;
- A creditor or other interested person, including persons having only an expectancy or prospective interest in the estate.

[2] Citation

On the filing of such a petition, the court may order a citation to be issued to a person to answer interrogatories or to appear before the court and be examined under oath, or both [Prob. Code § 2616(b); for a form for this citation, see § 286.48]. Interrogatories and their answers must be in writing. The answers must be signed under penalty of perjury by the person cited. The interrogatories and answers must be filed with the court [Prob. Code § 2617].

If the person must appear before the court, the court and the petitioner may examine the person under oath on the matters recited in the petition. The citation may include a requirement for this person to produce documents and other personal property specified in the citation [Prob. Code § 2616(c)].

Disobedience of a citation may be punished as a contempt of the court issuing it [Prob. Code § 2616(d)].

[3] Scope of Examination

The person cited may be examined concerning any of the following allegations made in the petition [Prob. Code § 2616(b):

- The person has wrongfully taken, concealed, or disposed of property of the ward or conservatee.
- The person has knowledge or possession of any one or more of the following:
  - A deed, conveyance, bond, contract, or other writing that contains evidence of or tends to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the ward or conservatee to property.
  - An instrument in writing belonging to the ward or conservatee.
- The person asserts a claim against the ward or conservatee or the estate.
- The estate asserts a claim against the person.

An "instrument in writing" referred to above is an instrument the guardian or conservator is entitled to possess as an estate asset or as evidence of the ward's or conservatee's title to property [Conservatorship of DuNah (1980) 106 Cal. App. 3d 517, 519-522, 165 Cal. Rptr. 170 (construing former Prob. Code § 1903; "instrument in writing" does not encompass will, and court does not have jurisdiction to order custodian of will to deliver it to conservator)].

At a court examination, witnesses may be produced and examined at either side [Prob. Code § 2618(a). If, on examination, the allegations of the petition appear to be true, the court may order the person to disclose his or her knowledge of the facts [Prob. Code § 2618(b)].

[4] Expenses Chargeable to Petitioner

If the allegations of the petition appear not to be true, the person's necessary expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, must be charged against the petitioner or allowed out of the estate, in the discretion of the court [Prob. Code § 2618(c)].

[5] Liability for Wrongful Taking, Concealing, or Disposing of Property

A person who in bad faith has wrongfully taken, concealed, or disposed of property in the estate of the ward or conservatee is liable for twice the value of the property, recoverable in an action by the guardian or conservator for the benefit of the estate [Prob. Code § 859].

§ 286.17 Notification to Court by Institutions

[1] When Guardian or Conservator Takes Possession of Asset

When a guardian or conservator takes possession or control of any asset of the ward or conservatee held by an institution, the institution must file with the court a statement containing the following information [Prob. Code § 2890(a)]:

- The name of the ward or conservatee.
- The name of the guardian or joint guardians or conservator or joint conservators.
- The court case number.
- The name of the institution.
- The address of the institution.
- The account number of the account, if any, in which the asset was held by the ward or conservatee.
- A description of the asset or assets held by the institution. If an asset is a life insurance policy or annuity, the description must include the policy number, if available. If the asset is a security listed on a public exchange, the description must include the name and reference number, if available.
- The value, if known, or if unknown, the estimated value, of the asset on the date the letters were issued by the court to the guardian or conservator, to the extent this value is routinely provided in the statements from the institution to the owner.

For purposes of this requirement, taking possession or control of an asset includes changing title to the asset, withdrawing all or any portion of the asset, or transferring all or any portion of an asset from the institution [Prob. Code § 2890(b)]. An institution is an insurance company, insurance broker, insurance agent, investment company, investment bank, securities broker-dealer, investment adviser, financial planner, financial adviser, or any other person who takes, holds, or controls an asset subject to a conservatorship or guardianship [Prob. Code § 2890(c)].

The statement required to be filed under Prob. Code § 2890 is an affidavit by a person having authority to make the statement on behalf of the institution, and must include that fact in the statement [Prob. Code § 2891(a)]. If the affidavit and any accompanying information also contains the ward or conservatee's social security number or any other personal information, including financial information regarding the ward or conservatee that would not be disclosed in an accounting, inventory and appraisal, or any other nonconfidential pleading, the information must be kept confidential and may be disclosed only upon court order [Prob. Code § 2891(b)]. The court must not charge a fee for filing the affidavit or related information [Prob. Code § 2891(d)].

The affidavit need not be filed in a proceeding more than once for each asset. However, all assets held by institutions may be listed in a single affidavit filed with the court [Prob. Code § 2891(e)]. Further, when a guardian or conservator takes possession or control of an asset in an institution, the institution may then file an affidavit as to any or all other assets of the ward or conservatee held in the institution [Prob. Code § 2891(f)].

The affidavit requirement does not apply to any trust arrangement described in Prob. Code § 82(b), except that it does apply to assets held in Totten trust (see Prob. Code § 82(b)(4)) [Prob. Code § 2891(c)].

Additionally, when taking possession or control of an asset held by an institution in the name of a ward or conservatee, a temporary or general guardian, or temporary, general, or limited conservator of the estate must provide the following [Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 7.1011, 7.1061]:

- A certified copy of the guardian's Letters of Temporary Guardianship or Conservatorship [see § 282.82 (Judicial Council Form GC-150)], or Letters of Guardianship [see § 280.116 (Judicial Council Form GC-250)] / Letters of Conservatorship [see § 281.112 (Judicial Council Form GC-350)] containing the Notice to Institutions and Financial Institutions on the second page; and

- A blank copy of a Notice of Taking Possession or Control of an Asset of Minor or Conservatee [see § 286.49 (Judicial Council Form GC-050)].

These rules apply to Totten trust accounts but do not apply to any other trust arrangements described in Prob. Code § 82(b) [Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 7.1011, 7.1061].

For a form for giving notice of taking possession or control of a minor's or conservatee's asset, see § 286.49.

[2] When Guardian or Conservator Opens or Changes Account or Safe Deposit Box

When a guardian or conservator opens or changes the name to an account or safe deposit box in a financial institution, the financial institution must send to the court a statement containing the following information [Prob. Code § 2892(a)]:

- The name of the person with whom the account or safe deposit box is opened or changed.

- The account number or reference number.

- The date the account or safe deposit box was opened or changed ownership pursuant to letters of guardianship or conservatorship.

- If the asset is held in an account in a financial institution, the balance as of the date the account was opened or changed.

- If the asset is held in a safe deposit box, and the financial institution has been given access to the safe deposit box, a list of its contents, including, for example, currency, coins, jewelry, tableware, insurance policies or certificates, stock certificates, bonds, deeds, and wills.

- The name and address of the financial institution in which the asset is maintained.

A financial institution subject to this requirement is a bank, trust, savings and loan association, savings bank, industrial bank, or credit union [Prob. Code § 2891(b)].

The written statement required by Prob. Code § 2892 must be in the form of an affidavit signed by an officer of the financial institution, and the officer must provide his or her name and title in the affidavit [Prob. Code § 2893(a)]. The affidavit need not be filed in a proceeding more than once for each asset. However, all assets held by the financial institution may be listed in a single affidavit filed with the court [Prob. Code § 2893(d)].

The affidavit is subject to disclosure under the circumstances described in Gov. Code § 7480(l) [Prob. Code § 2893(b)]. However, if the affidavit and any accompanying information contains the ward or conservatee's social security number or any other personal information, including financial information regarding the ward or conservatee that would not be disclosed in an accounting, inventory and appraisal, or any other nonconfidential pleading, the information must be kept confidential and may be disclosed only upon court order [Prob. Code § 2893(e)].

The affidavit requirement does not apply to any trust arrangement described in Prob. Code § 82(b), except that it does apply to assets held in Totten trust (see Prob. Code § 82(b)(4)) [Prob. Code § 2893(c)].

Additionally, when opening or changing the name on an account or a safe deposit box in a financial institution, the temporary or general guardian, or temporary, general, or limited conservator of the estate must provide the following [Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 7.1011, 7.1061]:

- A certified copy of the guardian's Letters of Temporary Guardianship or Conservatorship [see § 282.82 (Judicial Council Form GC-150)], or Letters of Guardianship [see § 280.116 (Judicial Council Form GC-250)]/Letters of Conservatorship [see § 281.112 (Judicial Council Form GC-350)] containing the Notice to Institutions and Financial Institutions on the second page; and

- A blank copy of a Notice of Notice of Opening or Changing a Guardianship or Conservatorship Account or Safe-Deposit Box [see § 286.50 (Judicial Council Form GC-051)].

These rules apply to Totten trust accounts, but do not apply to any other trust arrangements described in Prob. Code § 82(b) [Cal. Rules Ct., Rules 7.1011, 7.1061].

For a form for a notice that a guardian or conservator has opened or changed the name on an account or a safe deposit box, see § 286.50.

§ 286.42 Ex Parte Request for Order and Order Requiring Guardian or Conservator to File Inventory and Appraisal or to Show Cause Why He or She Should Not Be Removed [Prob. Code § 2614.5]

[1] FORM Ex Parte Request for Order and Order Requiring Guardian or Conservator to File Inventory and Appraisal or to Show Cause Why He or She Should Not Be Removed

[Caption. See § 286.40[1].]

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is the _____ [ward or conservatee or _____ (specify relationship, e.g., wife of _____ (name of ward or conservatee))].

2. _____[Name of guardian or conservator] was appointed _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name] and qualified, and letters of _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] were duly issued to him/her on _____[date]. At all times since the letters issued, he/she has been acting as _____ [guardian or conservator].

3. _____[Name of guardian or conservator] has failed to file an inventory and appraisal for the above-entitled estate within _____ [specify number of months or years, e.g., one year from the time of his/her appointment as _____ (guardian or conservator)] as _____ [required by law or ordered by the court].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order as follows:

1. That _____[name of guardian or conservator] file his/her inventory and appraisal in the _____ [Guardianship or Conservatorship] of the Estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], on or before _____[date].

2. That, if _____[name of guardian or conservator] does not file his/her inventory and appraisal by _____[date], he/she must appear in court to show cause why he/she should not be removed as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the above-referenced estate.

3. For such other orders as the court deems proper.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature] Petitioner

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the petitioner in this proceeding. I have read the foregoing petition and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters which are therein stated on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____ [signature]

ORDER REQUIRING _____ [GUARDIAN or CONSERVATOR] TO FILE INVENTORY AND APPRAISAL OR TO SHOW CAUSE WHY HE OR SHE SHOULD NOT BE REMOVED [Prob. Code § 2614.5]

On proof being made to the satisfaction of the court that the foregoing application should be granted,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that _____[name of guardian or conservator] file his/her inventory and appraisal in the _____ [Guardianship or Conservatorship] of the Estate of _____[name] on or before _____[date].

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, if _____[name of guardian or conservator] does not file his/her inventory and appraisal by _____[date], he/she must appear in [_____ (Department or Division) _____ of] this court, located at _____[address], _____[city], on _____[date], at _____[time], or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, then and there to show cause, if he/she has any, why he/she should not be removed as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the above-referenced estate.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the service of this order and a copy of the declaration of _____[name of ward or conservatee, spouse or relative of ward or conservatee, or interested person] be served on _____[name of guardian or conservator] at least _____[leave blank for court to fill in] days before the date and time set for the hearing on this order to show cause.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The ex parte request for an order in [1], above, is for use by the ward or conservatee, a spouse, relative, or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person in requesting the court to order the guardian or conservator to file an inventory and appraisal when the guardian or conservator has failed to do so [Prob. Code § 2614.5]. It includes the order granting the request and an order to show cause why the guardian or conservator should not be removed that is pertinent when the guardian or conservator does not file the account within the time specified by the court in the order. The form should be entitled: EX PARTE REQUEST FOR ORDER AND ORDER REQUIRING _____ [GUARDIAN or CONSERVATOR] TO FILE ACCOUNT OR TO SHOW CAUSE WHY HE OR SHE SHOULD NOT BE REMOVED.

Local court procedure should be consulted for the format of papers used for obtaining ex parte orders.

This procedure is optional and does not preclude the use of any other remedy or sanction when an account is not timely filed [Prob. Code § 2614.5(c)].

For further discussion of this procedure, see § 286.14.

[3] Verification

A petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021]. Because a petition may include an application or request in the nature of a petition, it is recommended that the request for an order completeing the filing of an inventory an appraisal be verified [see Prob. Code § 1430].

The form of the verification used in this form complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[4] Local Court Practice

Since Prob. Code § 2614.5(c) does not explicitly state the procedure to be followed in obtaining the order to file the account or to show cause why the guardian or conservator should not be removed, counsel should ascertain local court practice to determine whether a particular court requires a noticed motion, an order to show cause, or an ex parte application.

[1] FORM Application for Additional Time to File Inventory

[Caption. See § 286.40[1].]

IT IS HEREBY REQUESTED that the time for filing the initial inventory and appraisal in this proceeding be extended to _____[date]. This extension is necessary because it is impractical to complete the inventory and appraisal by _____[date], in that _____ [set forth facts justifying the extension, e.g., the _____ (ward's or conservatee's) estate is extensive and is located in several different counties in California as well as out-of-state. Certain assets, including real property and valuable personal property, were not located until _____ (date), which does not leave sufficient time to have them appraised by _____ (date)].

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____ [date]

_____ [signature]

Attorney for _____

[Guardian or Conservator]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in obtaining an extension of time to file the inventory and appraisal because the appraisal cannot be completed in time [see Prob. Code § 2610(a)]. It should be entitled: EX PARTE APPLICATION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE INVENTORY AND APPRAISAL. It is made under penalty of perjury because it also serves as a declaration of the facts on which the application is based. When the facts on which the application is based are not within the knowledge of counsel, this form should be modified and accompanied by a declaration from the guardian or conservator.

[2] Use of Form

The form and attachments in [1], above, are illustrative filled-in reproductions of forms approved by the Judicial Council for optional use in the guardian or conservator's inventory and appraisal of the ward or conservatee's estate [see Prob. Code § 2610]. They are Cal. Judicial Council Forms GC-040 (inventory and appraisal) and GC-041 (attachments).

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

This form must be accompanied by the official Judicial Council form for notice of filing of the inventory and appraisal and how to file an objection [Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-045; see Prob. Code § 6210(a)], which is illustrated and discussed in § 286.45A.

[3] Time for Filing

This form must be filed within 90 days of the appointment of the guardian or conservator unless the court grants an extension [see Prob. Code § 2610(a); for forms for an application and order for additional time to file the inventory and appraisal, see §§ 286.43, 286.44].

[4] Copies to State Department of Health and County Assessor

If the ward or conservatee, during the guardianship or conservatorship, is or has been a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the guardian or conservator must mail a copy of the inventory and appraisal to the director of the appropriate department at the director's office in Sacramento not later than 15 days after the inventory and appraisal is filed with the court [Prob. Code § 2611].

If a timely request is made, the court clerk must mail a copy of the inventory and appraisal to the county assessor [Prob. Code § 2612].

[5] Community Property

As of January 1, 1981, community property is not part of a conservatorship estate if the conservatee's spouse has legal capacity [Prob. Code § 3051(b)(2)]. However, Prob. Code § 2610(b) requires that the guardian or conservator take and subscribe to an oath that the inventory contains "a true statement of all of the estate of the ward or conservatee of which the guardian or conservator has possession or knowledge." Therefore, it is suggested that the conservatee's interest in community property assets be listed separately on the inventory and appraisal and designated as community property that is not included in the conservatorship estate if the ward's or conservatee's spouse has legal capacity. Local practice should be consulted.

In attachment 2 to this form, a one-half interest in real estate owned in joint tenancy by the conservatee and her spouse has been listed as a part of the conservatee's estate [see item 6]. It has not been separately listed as community property, as suggested above. This is because property acquired by the spouses in joint tenancy during marriage is presumed to be community property only on division of the property on dissolution of marriage or legal separation [see Fam. Code § 2580]. Thus, unless the marriage has been dissolved or the parties are legally separated, each spouse, while living, owns a one-half separate property interest in the jointly held property.

This form is used to list the cash-type assets which are appraised by the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code §§ 2610(c), 8901(a)].

[7] Attachment Number 2

This form is used to list the noncash-type assets that must be appraised by the probate referee appointed by the court [Prob. Code §§ 2610(c), 8901(b)-(e)].

[8] Waiver of Probate Referee

The court, for good cause, may waive appraisal by a probate referee [Prob. Code § 8903(a)]. The guardian or conservator may apply for a waiver together with the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator, or together with another petition. The guardian or conservator may also apply for a waiver in a separate petition, but the application may not be made later than the time the guardian or conservator delivers the inventory to the probate referee, if a probate referee has been designated. A copy of the proposed inventory and appraisal and a statement that sets forth the good cause cause that justifies the waiver must be attached to the petition [Prob. Code § 8903(b)].

The hearing on the waiver may not be held sooner than 15 days after the petition is filed. At least 15 days before the time set for the hearing, notice of the hearing, together with copies of the petition and the proposed inventory and appraisal, must be given as provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. and also to the following persons [Prob. Code § 8903(c); see Prob. Code § 1469]:

- Each known heir whose interest in the estate will be affected by the waiver;
- Each known devisee whose interest in the estate will be affected by the waiver;
- The Attorney General, at the office of the Attorney General in Sacramento, if any portion of the estate is to escheat to the State of California and its interest in the estate would be affected by the waiver; and
- The probate referee, if one has been designated.

Special notice of the hearing on the waiver must be given to all persons who have filed requests, under Prob. Code § 2700, for special notice of either petitions filed in the guardianship or conservatorship proceedings or inventories and appraisals of property in the estate [Prob. Code § 2702; see Prob. Code §§ 2700-2701].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a filled-in reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-42, a mandatory Judicial Council form which is used to give notice of a filing of inventory and appraisal and how to object to the inventory or the appraised value of property. The notice must be mailed with the inventory and appraisal of the estate, to the conservatee, the attorneys of record for the ward or conservatee, the conservatee's spouse or registered domestic partner, and the conservatee's relatives in the first degree or, if there are no such relatives, to the next closest relative, unless the court determines that mailing this information would result in harm to the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2610(a)]. If additional space is necessary, given the number of parties to whom notice must be given, Judicial Council Form GC-42(MA)--Attachment to Notice of Filing of Inventory and Appraisal and How to Object to the Inventory or the Appraised Value of Property, may be used to show additional names and address of each person to whom notice was mailed.

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct. Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Counsel Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. § 286.46 Objection to Inventory and Appraisal [Prob. Code § 2614]--Attorney-Drafted Form

[1] FORM Objection to Inventory and Appraisal

[Caption. See § 286.40[1].]

_____[Name], as _____ [guardian of or conservator of or a creditor of or a person interested in] the above-entitled estate, objects to the appraisal of the estate filed on _____[date], on the basis of the following:

1. The referee has appraised the conservatee's _____ [specify asset, e.g., 1950 Mercedes automobile] at _____[specify appraised value].

2. Objector contends that the appraised value of the _____[specify asset] is not accurate because _____ [set out basis of objection, e.g., it does not truly reflect the age and restored condition of the automobile]. [Objector is informed and believes that the true value of the _____ (specify asset) is $_____.]

WHEREFORE, objector prays for an order as follows:

[1. That the court order an independent appraisal of _____ (specify asset);]

2. That the court fix the true value of _____[specify asset]; and

3. For such other orders as the court may deem proper.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]
Objector

_____ [signature]
Attorney for Objector

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the _____ [guardian of or conservator of or a creditor of or a person interested in] the above-entitled estate. I have read the foregoing objection to appraisal and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters that are therein alleged on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____ [date]

_____ [signature]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in objecting to any of the appraised values assigned to any asset in an inventory and appraisal [Prob. Code § 2614]. It should be entitled OBJECTION TO APPRAISAL. If objection is to be made to the appraisal of more than one asset, the objector would repeat paragraphs similar to Paragraphs 1 and 2 for each additional asset.

This form is an attorney-drafted notice of objection. As an alternative to this forms, attorneys may use optional Judicial Council Form GC-045, the Judicial Council's notice form, which is illustrated and discussed in § 286.46A.

[3] Time for Filing

The written objections must be filed within 30 days after the inventory and appraisal is filed [Prob. Code § 2614(a)].

[4] Who May File

Objections may be filed by the guardian or conservator or any creditor or other interested person [Prob. Code § 2614(a)].

[5] Verification

The objection must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021(a)(2)]. The form of verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[6] Notice

Notice of the hearing, together with a copy of the objections, must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469. If the appraisal was made by a probate referee, the person objecting must also mail notice of the hearing and a copy of the objection to the probate referee at least 15 days before the time set for the hearing [Prob. Code § 2614(b)]. See Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[7] Independent Appraisal

The court may have one or more independent appraisals performed by at least one additional appraiser at the expense of the estate or, if the objecting party is not the guardian or conservator and the objection is rejected by the court, the court may assess the cost of any such additional appraisals against the objecting party [Prob. Code § 2614(c)].

Petitioner, _____[name], alleges:

1. Petitioner is _____ [the conservator of the estate or the guardian of the estate or the ward or the conservatee or a creditor of the estate] in the above-entitled proceeding.

[EITHER]

2. _____[Name of person to be examined] is suspected of having _____ [embezzled or concealed or smuggled or falsely or fraudulently obtained or wrongfully disposed of] property of the _____ [ward or conservatee].

[OR]

2. _____[Name of person to be examined] has _____ [in his/her possession or knowledge of] an instrument in writing belonging to the _____ [ward or conservatee].

[OR]

2. _____[Name of person to be examined] asserts a claim against the _____ [ward or conservatee or estate].

[OR]

2. The above-entitled estate asserts a claim against _____[name of person to be cited].

3. _____ [Allege facts showing basis for examination, e.g., _____ (Name of person to be examined) told me he/she bought a car with money he/she persuaded the conservatee to give to him/her].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that _____[name of person to be examined] be cited to appear before this court to be examined on the matters recited in this petition.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning the court to cite someone or examination who is suspected of having embezzled, concealed, smuggled, falsely or fraudulently obtained, or wrongfully disposed of any property of the ward or conservatee; who has in his or her possession, or has knowledge of, any instrument in writing belonging to the ward or conservatee; who asserts a claim against the ward, conservatee, or estate; or against whom the estate asserts a claim [Prob. Code §§ 2616-2619.5]. The petition should be entitled: PETITION FOR EXAMINATION OF PERSON REGARDING ESTATE ASSETS.

[3] Who May Petition

The petition may be filed by the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, or a creditor or other interested person, including persons having only an expectancy or prospective interest in the estate [Prob. Code § 2616(a)].

[4] Contents of Petition

The status of the petitioner permitting him or her to file the petition should be alleged [Prob. Code § 2616(a)]. An allegation of the specific statutory grounds for citing the person to be examined should also be included [Prob. Code § 2616(b)]. Although not expressly required by statute, it is suggested that the petition include factual allegations supporting the statutory grounds for citing the person to be examined.

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

Chapter 287 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: GENERAL MANAGEMENT POWERS
PART I. SCOPE

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.01

§ 287.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses the general powers and duties of the guardian or conservator of the estate [see §§ 287.11, 287.12], the supervisorial power of the court [see § 287.13], and the exercise of powers without court authorization [see § 287.14].

The chapter also discusses the liability of a joint guardian for breach of duty by another [see § 287.15] and when a joint guardian is authorized to act alone [see § 287.16].

The chapter discusses the management powers of a guardian or conservator of a nonresident [see § 287.17], a guardian nominated by will [see § 287.18], and a guardian for a particular property [see § 287.19].

This chapter also covers the capacity of the conservatee to bind the estate [see § 287.20] and the durable power of attorney [see § 287.21].

The forms provided in this chapter are:

- A petition for authorization and instructions as to the management of estate property [see § 287.40].
- An objection to the petition [see § 287.41].
- An order authorizing and instructing the guardian or conservator as to the management of estate property [see § 287.42].
- A petition and an order for approval and confirmation of acts by guardian or conservator in management of estate property [see §§ 287.43, 287.44].
- A petition and order to broaden or restrict a conservatee's power to enter into transactions binding the estate [see §§ 287.45, 287.46].

This chapter also includes a Research Guide [see § 287.30 et seq.].

§ 287.10 Governing Statutes

Statutes governing the general principles and procedures for management of the ward's or conservatee's estate are set forth as follows in statutory numerical order:

- Capacity to bind or obligate the conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 1870 et seq.].
- General provisions relating to guardianships and conservatorships [Prob. Code §§ 2100-2103].
- Joint guardians or conservators [Prob. Code §§ 2105, 2105.5].
- Nonresident wards or conservatees and nominated guardians [Prob. Code §§ 2107-2109].
- General provisions relating to the powers and duties of guardians and conservators [Prob. Code §§ 2401-2403].
- Exercise of powers without court authorization [Prob. Code § 2450].
- Duty after the death of wards or conservatees [Prob. Code § 2467].
- Independent exercise of powers [Prob. Code § 2590 et seq.].

§ 287.11 Overview of Responsibilities

The guardian or conservator, or limited conservator to the extent specifically and expressly provided in the appointing court's order, has the management and control of the estate of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2401(a)]. The guardian or conservator is given certain powers to carry out this responsibility. These include:

- The powers to represent the ward or conservatee in actions and proceedings and to compromise or otherwise to settle disputed claims [see Prob. Code §§ 2405-2406, 2462, 2500-2507, discussed in Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims].

- The powers to support the ward or conservatee and any dependents, to pay debts and expenses, to collect debts, to make deposits and withdrawals, and otherwise to handle and maintain estate assets [see Prob. Code §§ 2420-2423, 2430, 2431, 2450 et seq., discussed in Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee].

- The powers to sell, encumber, convey, exchange, invest, purchase, and otherwise to dispose of estate property [see Prob. Code §§ 850 et seq., 2540 et seq., 2550 et seq., 2570 et seq., 2580 et seq., discussed in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment].

- The power to request additional independent powers [see Prob. Code § 2590 et seq.; Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

The guardian or conservator continues to have the duty of custody and conservation of the estate after the death of the ward or conservatee, pending the delivery of the estate to the personal representative of the ward's or conservatee's estate or other disposition according to law [Prob. Code § 2467(a)]. The guardian or conservator has such powers granted by statute as are necessary for the performance of this duty [Prob. Code § 2467(b)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.12

§ 287.12 Standard of Care

The guardian or conservator must use ordinary care and diligence in managing and controlling the estate. What constitutes the use of ordinary care and diligence is determined by all the circumstances of the particular estate [Prob. Code § 2401(a)]. A professional guardian or conservator is held to a greater standard of care based on its presumed expertise than is a lay guardian or conservator [see Estate of Beach (1975) 15 Cal. 3d 623, 635, 125 Cal. Rptr. 570, 542 P.2d 994 (bank executor); Estate of Collins (1977) 72 Cal. App. 3d 663, 673, 139 Cal. Rptr. 644 (dictum stating rule applicable to corporate trustees); Coberly v. Superior Court (1965) 231 Cal. App. 2d 685, 689, 42 Cal. Rptr. 64 (bank trustee)].

The guardian or conservator must (1) exercise a power to the extent that ordinary care and diligence require that the power be exercised; and (2) not exercise a power to the extent that ordinary care and diligence require that the power not be exercised [Prob. Code § 2401(b)].

The guardian or conservator also must use ordinary care and diligence to determine whether the ward or conservatee owns real property in a foreign jurisdiction and to preserve and protect that property [Prob. Code §§ 2401.1].

The performance of conditions, not otherwise obligatory, that have been inserted in the order of appointment providing for the care and custody of the property of the ward or conservatee is a part of the duties of the guardian or conservator. He or she is responsible for the faithful performance of any of these conditions [Prob. Code § 2402].

The relationship of guardian and ward and of conservator and conservatee is a fiduciary relationship that is governed by the law of trusts, except as provided in Prob. Code §§ 1400-3925 [Prob. Code § 2101].

Chapter 287 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: GENERAL MANAGEMENT POWERS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.13

§ 287.13 Supervisorial Power of Court

[1] In General

A guardian or conservator is subject to the regulation and control of the court in the performance of the duties of the office [Prob. Code § 2102; see Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 718, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685 (probate court had exclusive jurisdiction to consider whether guardian improperly invested guardianship funds during pendency of guardianship)].

[2] Petition for Instructions

The general supervisorial power of the court under Prob. Code § 2102 includes the power to instruct the guardian or conservator. On petition of the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or other interested person, the court may authorize and instruct the guardian or conservator, or approve and confirm the acts of the guardian or conservator, in the administration, management, investment, disposition, care, protection, operation, or preservation of the estate, or in the incurring or payment of costs, fees, or expenses in connection with it [Prob. Code § 2403(a); see §§ 287.40 (petition for authorization and instructions as to management of estate property), 287.41 (objection to petition), 287.42 (order authorizing and instructing guardian or conservator), 287.43 (petition for approval and confirmation of acts by guardian or conservator), 287.44 (order approving and confirming acts of guardian or conservator)].

A conservator who petitions for the approval of a purchase, lease, or rental of real or personal property from the estate of a conservatee must provide a statement disclosing any family or affiliate relationship between the conservator and the purchaser, lessee, or renter of the property, and the family or affiliate relationship between the conservator and any agent hired by the conservator [Prob. Code § 2403(c)(1)]. For this purpose, "family" means a person's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297], or relatives within the second degree of lineal or collateral consanguinity of a person or that person's spouse. Further, "affiliate" means an entity that is under the direct control, indirect control, or common control of the conservator [Prob. Code § 2403(c)(2)].

A violation of these requirements will result in the rescission of the purchase, lease, or rental of the property. Any losses incurred by the conservatee's estate because the property was sold or leased at less than fair market value will be deemed as charges against the conservator under Prob. Code §§ 2401.3 and 2401.5. Further, the court must assess a civil penalty equal to three times the charges against the conservator or other person in violation of these rules, and may assess punitive damages as it deems proper. If the estate does not incur losses as a result of the violation, the court must instead order the conservator or other person in violation of these rules to pay a fine of up to $5,000 for each violation. These fines and penalties are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law [Prob. Code § 2403(c)(3)].

[3] Finality of Orders

Unless reversed on appeal, a judgment, order, or decree made pursuant to the Probate Code provisions governing guardianships and conservatorships, including the provisions governing the management of estate property, is final. It releases the guardian or conservator and the sureties from all claims of the ward or conservatee and of any persons affected thereby based on any act or omission directly authorized, approved, or confirmed in the judgment, order, or decree [Prob. Code § 2103(a); see, e.g., Conservatorship of Harvey (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 646, 650-652, 91 Cal. Rptr. 510, 477 P.2d 742] .

Nevertheless, the judgment, order, or decree is not final and does not operate as a release when it is obtained by fraud or conspiracy or by misrepresentation as to any material fact contained in the petition or account or in the judgment, order, or decree. Misrepresentation includes, but is not limited to, the omission of a material fact [Prob. Code § 2103(b); Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421 (omission of material fact); see Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 715, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685 (acknowledging proposition but finding no misrepresentation)]. Intermediate orders also are denied res judicata effect when rendered in ex parte proceedings before a commissioner or when hearing and notice requirements are not followed and the orders fail to recite that proper notice has been given [Guardianship of Slakmon (1978) 83 Cal. App. 3d 224, 231-235, 147 Cal. Rptr. 777 (applying former code provision that only gave conclusive effect to intermediate conservatorship orders)].

[4] Referral of Business to Entity in Which Conservator Has a Financial Interest

In exercising his or her duties, a conservator may not hire or refer business to an entity in which he or she has a financial interest, except with court authorization after written disclosure of the interest to the court [Prob. Code § 2401(c)]. A "financial interest" means any of the following [Prob. Code § 2401(c)]:

- An ownership interest in a sole proprietorship, partnership, or closely held corporation;
- An ownership interest of greater than 1 percent of the outstanding shares in a publicly traded corporation; or
- Being an officer or a director of a corporation.

The prohibition against the referral of business to an entity in which the conservator has a financial interest applies only to conservators required to register with the Statewide Registry under Prob. Code §§ 2850-2856 [Prob. Code § 2401(c)].

The Professional Fiduciaries Act ("Act") [Stats. 2006 ch. 491; see Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.] replaced former requirements with respect to the licensing of professional fiduciaries, operative July 1, 2008. The Act creates the Professional Fiduciaries Bureau ("Bureau") in the Department of Consumer Affairs, and requires the Bureau to license and regulate professional fiduciaries. As of January 1, 2009, all professional fiduciaries must be licensed under the Act [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.]. Former Probate Code provisions governing professional fiduciaries became inoperative as of July 1, 2008, and are repealed effective January 1, 2009 [Prob. Code § 2345, 2856]. For a detailed discussion on the Professional Fiduciaries Act, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators, § 281.66.

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.14

§ 287.14 Exercise of Powers Without Court Authorization

[1] In General

Unless Prob. Code § 2451 et seq. (discussed in Chs. 290, Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee , and 290C, Guardianship and Conservationship: Actions and Disputed Claims) specifically provide for a proceeding to obtain court authorization or to require court authorization, the routine estate management powers and duties set forth in these sections may be exercised or performed by the guardian or conservator without court authorization, instruction, approval, or confirmation [Prob. Code § 2450(a)]. Other powers also exercisable without court authorization include the powers, as discussed in Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee, to support, maintain, and educate a ward or conservatee and dependents [Prob. Code § 2420(d)], to pay debts [Prob. Code § 2430], and to pay wage claims [Prob. Code § 2431]; to compromise claims or extend obligations [Prob. Code § 2500(a)], as discussed in Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims ; and, as discussed in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment , to sell listed stocks and bonds [Prob. Code § 2544(a)], to sell or exchange tangible personal property [Prob. Code § 2545(a)], to lease real property [Prob. Code § 2555], and to invest in listed securities [Prob. Code § 2574(a)].

The relationship of guardian and ward and of conservator and conservatee, however, is a fiduciary relationship that is governed by the law of trusts [Prob. Code § 2101]. These principles may sometimes require that the guardian or conservator obtain court authorization for particular transactions despite the fact that he or she has the statutory authority to act independently [see, e.g., Prob. Code § 16004(a) (duty not to use trust property for trustee's own profit)]. Moreover, nothing precludes the guardian or conservator from seeking court authorization, instructions, approval, or confirmation when he or she is doubtful as to the proper action to take [Prob. Code § 2450(a)]. It should also be noted that sales, purchases, or other transactions not previously authorized by the court are subject to review on the next succeeding account [Prob. Code § 2625, discussed in Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts].

For discussion and forms for obtaining independent powers, see Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers .

[2] Limitation of Authority

The court may also limit the authority of the guardian or conservator to exercise or perform any particular powers or duties without court authorization. Such an order may be obtained by petition of the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or any other interested person, or on the court's own motion [Prob. Code § 2450(b)].

In general, when there are multiple guardians or conservators of an estate, one guardian or conservator is not liable for a breach of fiduciary duty committed by another guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2105.5(a)]. Nevertheless, one guardian or conservator will be liable for such a breach by another when the guardian or conservator acts in any of the following ways [Prob. Code § 2105.5(b)]:

- Participates in a breach of fiduciary duty committed by the other guardian or conservator;
- Improperly delegates the administration of the estate to the other guardian or conservator;
- Approves, knowingly acquiesces in, or conceals a breach of fiduciary duty committed by the other guardian or conservator;
- Negligently enables the other guardian or conservator to commit a breach of fiduciary duty; or
- Knows or has information from which he or she reasonably should have known of the breach of fiduciary duty by the other guardian or conservator and fails to take reasonable steps to compel the other guardian or conservator to redress the breach.

If a guardian of the estate or guardian for particular property is nominated by will and appointed by the court, he or she will be granted in the order of appointment, to the extent provided in the will, the right to exercise any one or more of the powers listed in Prob. Code § 2591 (additional independent powers). Those powers may then be exercised without notice, hearing, or court authorization, instructions, approval, or confirmation in the same manner as if the authority were granted by court order. The additional authority of a guardian for particular property nominated by will is limited to the property covered by the nomination. In addition, the grant of the powers may be otherwise determined by the court for good cause and is subject to Prob. Code §§ 2593-2595, discussed in Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers [Prob. Code § 2108(b)]. The terms of any order granting these additional powers must be included in the letters of guardianship [Prob. Code § 2108(c)].

The court is not precluded from granting a guardian nominated in a will additional powers under the independent exercise of powers provisions even though these powers were not granted in the will [see Prob. Code §§ 2590-2592].

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.19

§ 287.19 Guardian for Particular Property

Subject to Prob. Code § 2108, discussed in § 287.18, a guardian for particular property, nominated under Prob. Code § 1501 (nomination as to particular property) and appointed under Prob. Code § 1514(d), has the same powers and duties as a guardian of the estate, with respect to that particular property. The responsibility of such a guardian with regard to disposal of the estate is confined to the property covered by the nomination [Prob. Code § 2109(a)].

When a guardian is appointed in this manner for particular property and there is also an appointed guardian of the estate, the guardian appointed for the property covered by the nomination manages and controls that property and the guardian of the estate manages and controls the balance of the guardianship estate [Prob. Code § 2109(b)(1); see Guardianship of Joaquin (1959) 168 Cal. App. 2d 99, 101, 335 P.2d 507] . Either guardian may petition the court in which the guardianship of the estate proceeding is pending for instructions concerning how the duties that are imposed by law on the guardian of the estate are to be allocated between the two guardians [Prob. Code § 2109(b)(2)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.20

§ 287.20 Legal Capacity of Conservatee

[1] In General

The establishment of a conservatorship does not deny a conservatee the right to do any of the following [Prob. Code § 1871; Conservatorship of Bookasta (1989) 216 Cal. App. 3d 445, 450, 265 Cal. Rptr. 1 (capacity to make will); Estate of Mann (1986) 184 Cal. App. 3d 593, 602-606, 229 Cal. Rptr. 225 (same)]:

- Control an allowance provided to him or her under Prob. Code § 2421.
- Control wages or salary paid to him or her as provided in Prob. Code § 2601.
- Make a will.
- Enter into transactions to the extent reasonable to provide the necessaries of life to the conservatee and the spouse and minor children of the conservatee and to provide the basic living expenses, as defined in Fam. Code § 297, to the conservatee's domestic partner [see Fam. Code § 297 (defining domestic partners and domestic partnership; filing declarations of domestic partnership)].

Nevertheless, except as otherwise provided by court order, the appointment of a conservator of the estate is an adjudication that the conservatee lacks the legal capacity to enter into or make any transaction that binds or obligates the conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 1872(a); see Hellman Commercial T. & S. Bk. v. Alden (1929) 206 Cal. 592, 604-605, 275 P. 794] . The appointment of a limited conservator, however, does not limit the limited conservatee's legal capacity to enter into certain transactions unless otherwise provided in the court order appointing the limited conservator [Prob. Code § 1872(b)].

It has been held that, pursuant to Prob. Code § 1872(a), an order appointing a temporary conservator constitutes an adjudication that the conservatee lacks the capacity to give away his or her real property [O'Brien v. Dudenhoeffer (1993) 16 Cal. App. 4th 327, 330, 19 Cal. Rptr. 2d 826] . However, a transaction that affects any real property of the conservatorship estate, entered into by a person acting in good faith, for a valuable consideration, and without knowledge of the establishment of the conservatorship, is not affected by any provision of or any order made under Prob. Code §§ 1870-1876 (governing the conservatee's legal capacity), unless a notice of the establishment of the conservatorship or temporary conservatorship has been recorded prior to the transaction in the county in which the property is located [Prob. Code § 1875].

The statutes governing the legal capacity of a conservatee to bind or obligate the conservatorship estate, and any court order broadening that capacity, do not displace, but are supplemented by, general principles of law and equity relating to transactions. These principles include, but are not limited to, capacity to contract, joinder or consent requirements, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, or other validating or invalidating causes [Prob. Code § 1876].

As used in Prob. Code § 1870 et seq., unless the context otherwise requires, the term "transaction" includes, but is not limited to, making a contract, sale, transfer, or conveyance, incurring a debt or encumbering property, making a gift, delegating a power, and waiving a right [Prob. Code § 1870].

[2] Modification of Capacity

The court, by order, may authorize the conservatee, subject to general principles of law and equity relating to transactions, to enter into such transactions or types of transactions as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the particular conservatee and conservatorship estate. Further, the court may by order modify the legal capacity that a conservatee would otherwise have by broadening or restricting the power of the conservatee to enter into any transactions or types of transactions that may be appropriate in the circumstances of the particular conservatee and conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 1873(a); see Conservatorship of Bookasta (1989) 216 Cal. App. 3d 445, 451-452, 265 Cal. Rptr. 1] .

These orders can be made either in the order appointing the conservator or on a petition filed after the appointment of a conservator [Prob. Code § 1873(a)]. A petition requesting the orders may be filed by the conservator, the conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or any relative or friend of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 1874(a); see §§ 287.45 (petition to broaden or restrict power of conservatee to enter into transactions binding estate) 287.46 (order broadening or restricting power of conservatee to enter into transactions binding estate)].

In the order, the court may include such limitations or conditions on the exercise of the authority granted to the conservatee as the court determines to be appropriate. These include, but are not limited to, the following [Prob. Code § 1873(b)]:

- A requirement that, for specific types of transactions or for all transactions authorized by the order, the conservatee obtain prior approval of the transaction by the court or conservator before exercising the authority granted by the order.

- A provision that the conservator has the right to avoid any transaction made by the conservatee pursuant to the authority of the order if the transaction is not one into which a reasonably prudent person might enter.

The court, in its discretion, may also provide in the order that unless extended by subsequent order of the court, the order or specific provisions of the order terminate at a time specified in the order [Prob. Code § 1873(c)]. The order continues in effect until the time (1) specified in the order, if any, (2) the order is modified or revoked, or (3) the conservatorship of the estate is terminated, whichever time is earlier [Prob. Code § 1873(d)].

An order affecting the legal capacity of the conservatee may be modified or revoked on petition filed by the conservator, the conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], of the conservatee, any relative or friend of the conservatee, or any interested person. Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1873(e); see discussion in Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

Chapter 287 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: GENERAL MANAGEMENT POWERS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-287 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 287.21

§ 287.21 Durable Power of Attorney

[1] Creation

A durable power of attorney may be created by a writing that shows the principal's intent that the authority conferred be exercisable notwithstanding the principal's subsequent incapacity [see Prob. Code §§ 4018, 4124]. For further discussion of the creation of durable powers of attorney generally, see Ch. 427, Principal and Agent .

In addition, the conservatee may execute a power of attorney for health care [see Prob. Code §§ 4600-4805]. Effective July 1, 2000, powers of attorney for health care are governed separately from durable powers of attorney [see Prob. Code §§ 4050(a)(1), 4600-4805]. For further discussion of durable powers of attorney for health care, see Ch. 427, Principal and Agent ; see also California Legal Forms, Ch. 104, Health Care Transactions, Consents, and Directives (Matthew Bender) for a detailed discussion of the execution requirements for advance health care directives, including powers of attorney for health care.

[2] Authority of Attorney in Fact

Acts done by the attorney in fact pursuant to a durable power of attorney during a period of incapacity of the principal are as binding as if the principal were competent [Prob. Code § 4125]. If a court appoints a conservator of the estate following execution of a durable power of attorney, the attorney in fact is accountable to the fiduciary as well as to the principal [Prob. Code § 4206(a)].

[3] Authority of Conservator

[a] Regarding Property

When both a durable power of attorney and a conservatorship exist at the same time, it is unclear whether the power of the attorney in fact over the property to which the power relates is exclusive or if the attorney in fact and the conservator have concurrent powers over the property [see Prob. Code §§ 4124, 4206(a)].

[b] Revocation and Amendment

A conservator of the estate who is appointed by a California court can revoke or amend a durable power of attorney only if the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending has first made an order authorizing or requiring the fiduciary to modify or revoke the durable power of attorney and the modification or revocation is in accord with the order [Prob. Code § 4206(b); see §§ 287.40 (petition for authorization and instructions as to management of estate property), 287.42 (order authorizing and instructing guardian or conservator)].

[c] Petition for Relief

[i] Purposes

Subject to limits under Prob. Code § 4503, the conservator of the person or estate of the principal may file a petition for any one or more of the following purposes [Prob. Code §§ 4540(e), 4541]:

- To determine whether the power of attorney is still effective or has terminated.
- To pass on the acts or proposed acts of the attorney in fact.
- To compel an accounting by the attorney in fact.
- To declare the power of attorney terminated.
- To approve the resignation of the attorney in fact.
- To compel a third person to honor the authority of the attorney in fact.

A power of attorney can only be terminated in this manner if the court determines that the attorney in fact has violated or is unfit to perform the fiduciary duties under the power of attorney, that the principal lacks capacity to give or revoke a power of attorney at the time the court is making its determination, and that the termination is in the best interest of the principal or the principal's estate [Prob. Code § 4541(d)]. The terms of the power of attorney cannot preclude the principal's conservator from bringing a petition for any of these purposes [Prob. Code § 4503(b)].

[ii] Venue

The proper court for filing the petition is determined in the following order of priority [Prob. Code § 4523]:

- The county in which the principal resides.
- The county in which the attorney in fact resides.
- A county in which property subject to the power of attorney is located.
- Any other county that is in the principal's best interest.

[4] Termination

Two methods may exist to terminate a durable power of attorney after a conservator has been appointed for the principal. One method is by obtaining authorization to revoke the power in the conservatorship proceeding or by petitioning the superior court to terminate the power in an independent proceeding. Alternatively, the statutes may be construed as requiring the conservator to obtain an order in the conservatorship proceeding under Prob. Code § 4206(b) authorizing or requiring him or her to revoke the power, and then to petition the superior court in an independent proceeding under Prob. Code §§ 4540 and 4541 actually to terminate the power.

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the petitioner in the above-entitled proceeding. I have read the foregoing petition and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters which are therein represented on information and belief, and, as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____[date]

_____ [signature]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or other interested person in obtaining authorization and instructions in the administration, management, investment, disposition, care, protection, operation, or preservation of the estate, or the incurring or payment of costs, fees, or expenses in connection with it [Prob. Code § 2403(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition under Prob. Code § 2403 should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2403(a)].
- The matters on which instructions are sought (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2403(a)].
- The authorization and instructions that the petitioner seeks from the court (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code §§ 2401(a) (duty to manage using ordinary care and diligence), 2403(a)].
- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

Except as otherwise specifically provided, all petitions filed pursuant to the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see Prob. Code § 1430 (the term "petition" includes an application or a request in the nature of a petition)]. Verification enables a petition to be used as evidence in uncontested proceedings [Prob. Code § 1022].

The form of verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[5] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2403(b)], which generally requires that notice be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Additionally, special notice must be given to those persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 1260(a), 2700, 2701]. For further discussion and a form for notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the objector in the above-entitled proceeding. I have read the foregoing objection and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters which are therein stated on information and belief, and, as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____[date]

_____ [signature]

[2] Use of Form

The objection in [1], above, is a general form for use to object to petitions filed in guardianship or conservatorship matters [see Prob. Code § 1043]. The objection should be entitled OBJECTION TO PETITION FOR _____ [specify, e.g., INSTRUCTIONS].

The statutory form of pleading for opposing a petition under the Probate Code, unless otherwise specified, is a response or an objection [see Prob. Code § 1043]. Apparently, the objection must be made in writing, even though provision is made in the Probate Code for oral objection at a hearing [see Prob. Code §§ 1021(a)(2) (objections required to be verified), 1043(a), (b) (interested person permitted to appear and to respond or object in writing at or before hearing or orally at hearing)]. Counsel should consult local practice for the form and content of, and procedural matters related to, an objection.

[3] Verification

An objection or response filed pursuant to the Probate Code to a petition, report, plan, or account must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021(a)(2); see Prob. Code § 1021(b)(3) (who can verify)]. The form of verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an order under Prob. Code § 2403(a) for use with the general form of petition for authorization and instruction under Prob. Code § 2403(a) [see § 287.40], and specific forms for petitions for authorization to expend money pursuant to Prob. Code § 2420(a) for the support, maintenance, or education of a ward or conservatee or those legally entitled thereto from the ward or conservatee [see Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee, §§ 290.50 (petition to authorize payment for support, maintenance, or education of ward or conservatee), 290.51 (petition to authorize payment for support, maintenance, or education of ward's or conservatee's dependents)]. The order should be entitled ORDER _____ [AUTHORIZING or INSTRUCTING] _____ [GUARDIAN or CONSERVATOR] AS TO _____ [specify].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Required Finding of Notice

The order must state that notice, including special notice, if requested, has been regularly given or that the party entitled to notice has waived it (Finding 1) [Prob. Code §§ 1260 (notice), 2700 et seq. (special notice)].

[4] Appealability of Order

An order authorizing or instructing a guardian or conservator is appealable [Prob. Code § 1300(c)]. Similarly appealable are orders directing or allowing payment of a debt, claim, or cost and orders directing, authorizing, approving, or modifying payments, whether for support, maintenance, or education of the ward or conservatee or for a person legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code §§ 1300(d), 1301(c); for forms of petitions to authorize payment for support, maintenance, or education of a ward or conservatee or for support, maintenance, or education of ward's or conservatee's dependents see Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee, §§ 290.50, 290.51, respectively]. For a discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 2403, see § 287.13[3].

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or other interested person in obtaining approval and confirmation of acts by the guardian or conservator in the administration, management, investment, disposition, care, protection, operation, or preservation of the estate, or the incurring or paying of costs, fees, or expenses in connection with it [Prob. Code § 2403(a)]. The petition should be entitled PETITION FOR CONFIRMATION OF ACTS.

[3] Contents of Petition

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition under Prob. Code § 2403 should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2403(a)].

- The actions for which approval and confirmation are sought (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2403(a)].

- Why the actions should be approved and confirmed (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code §§ 2401(a) (duty to manage using ordinary care and diligence), 2403(a)].

- Whether or not a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260, 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 287.40[4]].

1. Petitioner is _____ [the duly appointed, qualified, and acting conservator or the conservatee or the spouse of the conservatee or the _____ (specify family relationship to conservatee) of the conservatee or a friend of the conservatee] in the above-entitled proceeding.

2. _____[name], conservatee, is under a conservatorship of the estate.

[EITHER]

3. The conservatee presently lacks the legal capacity to enter into or make any transaction that binds or obligates the conservatorship estate, including the power _____ [specify transactions sought to be authorized, e.g., to make gifts of estate property not exceeding $_____ to members of the conservatee's family].

[OR, if the petitioner seeks to modify powers that the conservatee already possesses]

3. The conservatee presently has the power _____ [specify transactions that bind or obligate estate into which conservatee has the capacity to enter, e.g., to make a gift of his/her wages under Probate Code Section 1871(b)].

[CONTINUE]

4. It is appropriate to _____ [broaden or restrict] the power of the conservatee to _____[specify power] because _____[state circumstances of the conservatee and conservatorship estate that make modification appropriate].

[5. If seeking specific limitations on additional powers, add the following: It is appropriate to _____ (limit or condition) the power of the conservatee to _____ (specify additional power) by _____ (state limitations or conditions sought, e.g., requiring the conservatee to obtain prior court approval of the transaction described above before exercising the power to enter into the transaction) because _____ (specify circumstances that make imposition of limitations or conditions appropriate).]

[6. It is appropriate to terminate the power of the conservatee to _____ (specify power to be terminated) on _____[date], because _____ (specify circumstances that make termination of authorization on a specified date appropriate).]

7. [Special notice allegation. See § 287.40[1], Paragraph 4.]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order _____ [broadening or restricting] the power of the conservatee to enter into the _____ [transactions or types of transactions] described above that bind the estate, and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

[Verification. See § 287.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use in obtaining an order to broaden or restrict the power the conservatee would otherwise have to enter into transactions or types of transactions that bind or obligate the conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 1873(a)]. The petition should be entitled PETITION TO _____ [BROADEN or RESTRICT] POWER OF CONSERVATEE TO ENTER INTO TRANSACTIONS. The petition may be filed by the conservator, the conservatee, or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or any relative or friend of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 1874(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition under Prob. Code §§ 1873 and 1874, should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [Prob. Code § 1874(a)].

- That the conservatee is under a conservatorship of the estate (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code §§ 1872, 1873(a)].

- The transactions or types of transactions to be affected by the proposed order (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 1873(a)].

- The circumstances of the particular conservatee and conservatorship estate that show it is appropriate for the court to broaden or restrict the power of the conservatee to enter into transactions that bind the estate (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 1873(a)].

- If desired, the facts that show it is appropriate for the court to limit or condition the exercise of authority granted to the conservatee (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code § 1874(b)].

- If appropriate, that the order or specific provisions of it terminate at a time specified in the order (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code § 1873(c)].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 287.40[4]].

[5] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1874(b)], which generally requires that notice by mail be given to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Additionally, special notice must be given to those persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2701]. For further discussion and a form for notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, broadening or restricting the power of the conservatee to enter into specified transactions, is for use with the petition in § 287.45 [see Prob. Code § 1873]. The order should be entitled ORDER _____ [BROADENING or RESTRICTING] POWER OF CONSERVATEE TO ENTER INTO TRANSACTIONS.

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Duration, Modification, or Revocation of Order

The order continues in effect until the time (1) specified in the order, if any, (2) the order is modified or revoked, or (3) the conservatorship of the estate is terminated, whichever time is earliest [Prob. Code § 1873(d)].

For discussion of when and how the order may be modified or revoked, see § 287.20[2].

[4] Appealability of Order

An appeal may be taken from the making of, or the refusal to make, an order affecting the legal capacity of the conservatee pursuant to Prob. Code § 1870 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1301(e)]. For a discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 1873, see § 287.13[3].

Chapter 288 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: INDEPENDENT EXERCISE OF POWERS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-288 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 288.11

§ 288.11 Order Granting Independent Powers

[1] Court's Discretion

[a] General Standard: Advantage, Benefit, and Best Interest of Estate

The court, in its discretion, may make an order granting the guardian or conservator of an estate any or all of the powers specified in Prob. Code § 2591 [see § 288.12], if the court determines that, in the circumstances of the particular guardianship or conservatorship, it would be to the advantage, benefit, and best interest of the estate to do so [Prob. Code § 2590(a)].

Subject only to any requirements, conditions, or limitations that are specifically and expressly provided, either directly or by reference, in the order granting the powers, the guardian or conservator may exercise the granted powers without notice, hearing, or court authorization, instructions, approval, or confirmation, in the same manner as could the ward or conservatee if possessed of legal capacity Prob. Code § 2590(a)]. A guardian does not have any powers provided by Prob. Code § 2591 without authorization by a court [Prob. Code § 2590(b)].

The purpose of Prob. Code § 2590 et seq. is to provide a means for empowering an experienced and qualified guardian or conservator of an estate, when the nature of the estate will entail repeated transactions of the same kind. An order granting power to engage in the transactions without the usual court oversight would spare the guardian or conservator the trouble of repeatedly obtaining the court's approval, and the estate would be spared the attendant expenses. It is to be expected that the court would exercise adequate oversight when reviewing the guardian's or conservator's periodic accounts [see Prob. Code § 2625 (any transaction "not previously authorized, approved, or confirmed by the court is subject to review by the court upon the next succeeding account of the guardian or conservator occurring after the transaction"); see generally Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts]. Having power to act without obtaining the court's specific prior approval would not excuse the guardian or conservator from adhering to other, normal standards and requirements, such as the requirement to use ordinary care and diligence in managing the estate [see Prob. Code § 2401].

A request for independent powers should be regarded as an unusual step, which might be taken only in a rare case. Local court rules indicate that courts are inclined to exercise their discretion sparingly [see § 288.22].

[b] Mandatory Empowerment of Nominated Guardian

In the case of a guardian of the estate for a minor, if the guardian was nominated under Prob. Code § 1500 by a parent [see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians], and the nomination provided for the right to exercise any of the powers listed in Prob. Code § 2591 without notice, hearing, or court authorization, instructions, approval, or confirmation, then the court normally is required to grant the independent powers in the order of appointment, to the extent provided in the nomination, in the same manner as if granting powers by an order under Prob. Code § 2590. This mandate is subject to the proviso that the court may for good cause determine otherwise [Prob. Code § 2108(b)].

The court likewise must make a mandatory empowering order in the case of a guardian for property received by a minor, if the guardian was nominated under Prob. Code § 1501 by the transferor of the property [see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians]; however, in this case, the order must be limited to the property covered by the nomination [Prob. Code § 2108(b)].

The terms of a mandatory order granting independent powers must be included in the letters of guardianship [Prob. Code § 2108(b)].

A mandated grant of powers is subject to Prob. Code §§ 2593-2595 [Prob. Code § 2108(b)], which provide for the rescission or modification of a grant of powers [see § 288.15], the notation of granted powers in the letters [see § 288.13[2]], the guardian's right to exercise statutory powers in the absence of a grant of independent powers [see § 288.11[2][b]], and court approval of the guardian's acts on the guardian's petition for approval [see § 288.14].

[c] Empowerment of LPS Act Conservator

A conservator of the estate for a person who is gravely disabled as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism--that is, a conservator appointed under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 5350 et seq.; see generally Ch. 304, Insane and Other Incompetent Persons, § 304.30 et seq.]--"shall have" the powers specified in Prob. Code § 2591 "as the court may designate" [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5357].

The court is not required, but is merely authorized, to grant independent powers to the LPS conservator [cf. Board of Regents v. Davis (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 33, 42, 120 Cal. Rptr. 407, 533 P.2d 1047 (dictum that Welf. & Inst. Code § 5357 provides for LPS conservator to have general powers of probate conservator "and such additional powers, if any, that a court could grant under probate conservatorships" pursuant to former Prob. Code § 1853, which provided for "additional" powers, now independent powers listed in Prob. Code § 2591; emphasis added)].

The required report of the court investigator [see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 5352, 5356; see generally Ch. 304, Insane and Other Incompetent Persons, § 304.30 et seq.] must set forth which, if any, of the independent powers the investigator recommends [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5357].

[2] Guardian's or Conservator's Authority

[a] After Issuance of Order

Nothing in Prob. Code § 2400 et seq. (governing the powers and duties of guardians and conservators) limits or restricts any authority granted to a guardian or conservator pursuant to Prob. Code § 2590 et seq. to administer the estate [Prob. Code § 2408].

[b] In Absence of Order

When authority exists under other provisions of law, either general or specific, for the guardian or conservator to do any act or to enter into any transaction described in Prob. Code § 2591, the guardian or conservator may proceed under the other provisions of law and is not required to obtain an order granting independent powers [Prob. Code § 2595(b)]. For discussions of powers under other provisions of law, see the chapters listed in § 288.02.

[3] Appealability of Order

An order granting independent powers is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, it appears that such an order may be appealable as an order authorizing a fiduciary, under Prob. Code § 1300(c). Alternatively, since an application for an order granting independent powers may be made either in the initial petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator or in a later petition [Prob. Code § 2590(a)(b); see also § 288.13], and since letters of guardianship or conservatorship must reflect any independent powers that have been granted [see Prob. Code § 2594; see also § 288.13[2]], it may be argued that an order granting independent powers is part of the order granting letters and, as such, is appealable under Prob. Code § 1301(a).

Chapter 288 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: INDEPENDENT EXERCISE OF POWERS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-288 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 288.12

§ 288.12 Independent Powers

[1] Estate Property Generally

The powers referred to in Prob. Code § 2590 comprise powers concerning real property [see [2][a], below], powers concerning money and investments [see [4], below], and the following powers:

- To operate, for a period longer than 45 days, at the risk of the estate a business, farm, or enterprise constituting an asset of the estate [Prob. Code § 2591(a)].

- To grant and take options [Prob. Code § 2591(a)].

- To sell at public or private sale personal property of the estate, other than the personal residence of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2591(c)(1)].

- To sell property of the estate on credit if any unpaid portion of the selling price is adequately secured [Prob. Code § 2591(l); see [3], below (sale by public guardian)].

- To purchase personal real or property [Prob. Code § 2591(g)].

- To exchange property of the estate [Prob. Code § 2591(k)].

- To commence and maintain an action for partition [Prob. Code § 2591(m)].

- To pay, collect, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise adjust claims, debts, or demands on the guardianship or conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2591(p)].

The powers of a guardian or conservator with respect to the sale of estate property are limited to a degree by Prob. Code § 2541, which provides that a guardian or conservator may sell real or personal property of the estate in any of the following cases:

- When the income of the estate is insufficient for the comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee (including care, treatment, and support of the ward or conservatee if a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services) or of those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee.

- When the sale is necessary to pay the debts referred to in Prob. Code §§ 2430 and 2431.

- When the sale is for the advantage, benefit, and best interest of (1) the ward or conservatee, (2) the estate, or (3) the ward or conservatee and those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee.

[2] Real Property

[a] Powers Generally

The powers referred to in Prob. Code § 2590 include the following powers concerning real property:

- To sell at public or private sale real property of the estate, other than the personal residence of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2591(c)(1)].

- To sell at public or private sale the personal residence of conservatee as described in Prob. Code § 2591.5, subject to the requirements of Prob. Code §§ 2352.5 (discussed in [b], below) and 2541 (discussed in [1], above) [Prob. Code § 2591(c)(2)].

- To create, by grant or otherwise, easements and servitudes [Prob. Code § 2591(d)].

- To purchase real property [Prob. Code § 2591(g)].

- To alter, improve, and repair or raze, replace, and rebuild property of the estate [Prob. Code § 2591(h)].

- To let or lease property of the estate, or extend, renew or modify a lease of real property, for which the monthly rental or lease term exceeds the maximum specified in Prob. Code §§ 2501 and 2555 for any purpose (including exploration for and removal of gas, oil, and other minerals and natural resources) and for any period, including a term commencing at a future time [Prob. Code § 2591(i)].

[b] Sale of Conservatee's Primary Residence

Sales of real or personal property of a conservatorship estate ordinarily are subject to authorization, confirmation, or direction of the court [see Prob. Code § 2540(a); see generally Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment]. There is a special provision for the sale of the conservatee's personal residence [see Prob. Code § 2540(b)]; however, that provision does not apply when the court has made an order under Prob. Code § 2590 granting the conservator the power to sell real property of the estate [Prob. Code § 2540(b)]. Prob. Code § 2352.5 creates a presumption that the conservatee's personal residence at the time of commencement of the proceeding is the least restrictive appropriate residence for the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2352.5(a)]. The conservatee, at the time of appointment, is required to determine the appropriate level of care for the conservatee. If the conservatee is not residing at his or her personal residence, the conservator must provide either a plan to return the conservatee to his or her personal residence, or an explanation of the limitations or restrictions on a return of the conservatee to his or her personal residence in the foreseeable future [Prob. Code § 2352.5(b)].

[3] Sales by Public Guardian as Conservator

When the public guardian is the conservator of an estate and seeks authority pursuant to Prob. Code § 2590 to sell the conservatee's real property valued in excess of $10,000, or an item of personal property (other than an investment security) valued in excess of $10,000, that property must be appraised by a probate referee [Prob. Code § 2543(b)]. Sales of estate property in general are discussed in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment .

[4] Money and Investments

The powers referred to in Prob. Code § 2590 include the following powers concerning money and investments:

- To borrow money and give security for repayment [Prob. Code § 2591(e)].
- To lend money on adequate security [Prob. Code § 2591(j)].
- To exercise stock rights and stock options [Prob. Code § 2591(n)].
- To participate in and become subject to, and to consent to the provisions of, a voting trust or a reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, liquidation, or other modification or adjustment affecting estate property [Prob. Code § 2591(o)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-288 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 288.13

§ 288.13 Issuance of Order and Letters

[1] Application for Order

[a] Included in Petition for Appointment

The guardian or conservator may apply by petition for an order granting independent powers [Prob. Code § 2592(a)]. Alternatively, any petition to grant a guardian or conservator any power or authority under the Probate Code division governing guardians and conservators, which may be filed by a guardian or conservator, may be filed by a person who petitions for the appointment of a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 1455]. The application for independent powers may be included in the petition for the appointment of the guardian or conservator. In that case, the notice of hearing on the petition must include a statement that the petition includes an application for the grant of powers under Prob. Code § 2590 et seq. and must list the specific powers applied for [Prob. Code § 2592(b)].

The Judicial Council form "Petition for Appointment of Guardian of Minor" includes an entry that the petitioner may use to request any of the powers listed in Prob. Code § 2591; the form provides for the list of specific powers that are requested to be attached to the petition [see Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-210, PP 1e, 14]. The Judicial Council form "Order Appointing Guardian of Minor" likewise provides for an attachment listing the powers granted [see Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-240, PP 4, 11]. For illustrations of those forms and further discussion, see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians .

The Judicial Council form "Petition for Appointment of Probate Conservator" includes an entry that the petitioner may use to request any of the powers listed in Prob. Code § 2591; the form provides for the list of specific powers that are requested to be attached to the petition [see Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-310, P 7]. The Judicial Council form "Order Appointing Probate Conservator" likewise provides for an attachment listing the powers granted [see Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-340, PP 6, 21]. For illustrations of those forms and further discussion, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

[b] Subsequent Application

If the application for the order is made by petition filed after the filing of the petition for the appointment of the guardian or conservator, then only the guardian or conservator may apply for the order [see Prob. Code §§ 1455, 2592(a)]. For a form for a petition, see § 288.30.

Notice of the hearing on a petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2592(c); see § 288.30[4]; see generally Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[2] Notation of Powers in Letters

When the court grants any power to be exercised independently, which is requested in the petition for appointment of a guardian or conservator, the letters of guardianship or conservatorship must state the powers granted and any restrictions, conditions, or limitations prescribed in the order; and the letters must refer to Prob. Code § 2590 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2594(a)].

When the court grants such a power by a subsequent order, as well, new letters must be issued, following the same form [Prob. Code § 2594(b)].

The Judicial Council form "Letters of Guardianship" provides for an attachment listing the granted powers [see Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-250, P 2a]. For an illustration of the form and further discussion, see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians .

The Judicial Council form "Letters of Conservatorship" likewise provides for an attachment [see Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-350, P 3d]. For an illustration of the form and further discussion, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

§ 288.14 Effect on Subsequent Petition for Court's Oversight

A grant of independent powers pursuant to Prob. Code § 2590 does not affect the right of the guardian or conservator to petition the court for authorization, instruction, approval, or confirmation [see Prob. Code § 2403], or for any other result obtainable under provisions of the Probate Code, as to a particular transaction or matter, in the same manner as if the independent powers had not been granted [*Prob. PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-288 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 288.15

§ 288.15 Order Modifying or Rescinding Grant of Powers

[1] Issuance of Order

The court, on its own motion or on the petition of any interested person, when it appears to be for the best interests of the ward or conservatee or the estate, may withdraw independent powers previously granted or may impose restrictions, conditions, or limitations on the exercise of the powers by the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2593(a)].

Notice of the hearing on a petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2593(b); see § 288.30[4]; see generally Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[2] Issuance of New Letters

If independent powers are withdrawn, restricted, conditioned, or limited by a subsequent order after being granted, then new letters must be issued accordingly [Prob. Code § 2594(c)].

[3] Appealability of Order

An order modifying or rescinding a grant of independent powers is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, it appears that such an order may be appealable as an order refusing to authorize a fiduciary, under Prob. Code § 1300(c). Alternatively, since new letters of guardianship or conservatorship must reflect any modification or rescission of the grant of independent powers [see Prob. Code § 2594(c)], it may be argued that the order is part of an order granting letters and, as such, is appealable under Prob. Code § 1301(a).

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator in applying for independent powers specified in Prob. Code § 2591, after the guardian or conservator has been appointed [see Prob. Code §§ 2590, 2592(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should state the following:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2592(a)].
- The powers to be exercised independently (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2591].

- Circumstances showing that it would be to the advantage, benefit, and best interest of the estate to grant the requested powers (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 2590].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a)(1)] by the petitioner [see Prob. Code § 1021(b)(1)].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq., when the petition is filed after the filing of the petition for the appointment of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2592(c)]. Generally, notice by mail must be given to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a),(b)]. Additionally, special notice must be given to persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 1460(d), 2700, 2701]. Notice may not need to be given to the ward if he or she is not at least 12 years old [see Prob. Code § 1460.1]. Notice may have to be given to the state Director of Mental Health and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs [see Prob. Code §§ 1461, 1461.5]. Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is a person interested in the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] estate of _____[name], in that _____[describe nature of interest].

2. On _____[date], this court granted to the _____ [guardian or conservator] the following powers set forth in Probate Code Section 2591: _____[specify].

3. It is in the best interests of the _____ [ward or conservatee] that the above-described powers be _____ [withdrawn or restricted or conditioned or limited] because _____ [set forth reasons, e.g., the power is no longer necessary or the _____ (guardian or conservator) has been abusing the power by _____ (specify)].

4. A request for special notice has _____ [not been filed or been filed by _____ ( name), and notice of the time and place of hearing on this petition will be given as required by law or been filed and waived by _____ (name)].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order _____ [withdrawing or restricting or conditioning or limiting] the powers described above and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 288.30[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by any interested person in obtaining the withdrawal of independent powers or the imposition of restrictions, conditions, or limitations on the exercise of those powers granted to a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2593(a)]. For a discussion of notice, see § 288.30[4].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petitioner must show that it is in the best interest of the ward or conservatee or the estate to withdraw powers previously granted or to impose restrictions, conditions, or limitations on the exercise of those powers by the guardian or conservator (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 2593(a)].

Additionally, the petition should state the following:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2593(a)].

- The independent powers previously granted to the guardian or conservator pursuant to Prob. Code § 2590 (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2591].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a)(1)]. The verification ordinarily must be by the petitioner [see Prob. Code § 1021(b)(1)], but, if the petitioner is not the guardian or conservator and is absent or from some other cause is unable to verify it, the petition may be verified by the petitioner's attorney [see Prob. Code §§ 1021(b), 1023].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. It is in the best interest of the _____ [ward or conservatee] that certain independent powers of the _____ [guardian or conservator] be _____ [withdrawn or restricted or conditioned or limited].

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The following powers previously granted to _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], by this court on _____[date], be _____ [withdrawn or restricted or conditioned or limited]: _____[describe powers and specify any restrictions, conditions, or limitations].

2. New letters of _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] be issued to the _____ [guardian or conservator], _____ [omitting or stating the foregoing _____ (restrictions or conditions or limitations) on the exercise of] the powers described above.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition seeking the withdrawal, restriction, conditioning, or limitation of independent powers granted to a guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 2593(a)]. For a form of petition, see § 288.32.

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

Chapter 289 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: MANAGEMENT OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY
PART I. SCOPE

24-289 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 289.01

§ 289.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses the determination of the character of property when one or both spouses have a conservator [see § 289.12], the legal capacity of a spouse who has a conservator [see § 289.13], and the management powers of the spouse and the conservator [see § 289.14].

The chapter also discusses joinder or consent requirements for certain transactions involving community property [see § 289.15], proceedings to authorize or determine legal capacity of the spouse for transactions [see § 289.16], and enforcement of support for the conservatee spouse from community property [see § 289.17].

The chapter includes a Research Guide [see § 289.30 et seq.] and the following forms:

- A petition and an order to authorize the inclusion of community property in one spouse's estate pursuant to an agreement [see §§ 289.40, 289.41].

- A petition and an order to terminate the inclusion of community property in a spouse's estate [see §§ 289.42, 289.43].

- A petition and an order to authorize a guardian or conservator to join in or consent to the disposition of community property [see §§ 289.44, 289.45].

- A petition and an order to authorize a proposed transaction involving community property when a spouse has or is declared to have legal capacity for the transaction [see §§ 289.46, 289.47].

- A petition, a citation, and an order to authorize a proposed transaction involving community property when a spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity for the transaction [see §§ 289.48 -289.50].

- Petitions, citations, and orders to use for the enforcement of support for a conservatee spouse from community property when the other spouse has management or control of the community property [see §§ 289.51 -289.57].

§ 289.11 Definitions

Unless the provision or context requires otherwise, the definitions discussed below and used in this chapter govern the construction of Prob. Code § 3000 et seq. [Prob. Code § 3000].

The term "community property" means community real and personal property. Community property includes, but is not limited to, a community property business that is or was under the primary management and control of one of the spouses. However, community property does not include that which is in a revocable trust, as described in Fam. Code § 761 (transfer of community property into trust by spouse) [Prob. Code § 3002].

The term "conservator" means conservator of the estate, or limited conservator of the estate to the extent that the powers and duties of the limited conservator are specifically and expressly provided by the order appointing him or her, and includes the guardian of the estate of a married minor [Prob. Code § 3004].

The term "conservatorship estate" includes the guardianship estate of a married minor [Prob. Code § 3006].

The term "conservatorship proceeding" means a conservatorship of the estate proceeding and includes a guardianship of the estate proceeding of a married minor [Prob. Code § 3008].

§ 289.12 Determining Character of Property

[1] By Court After Hearing

When one or both of the spouses has a conservator, the court in which any of the conservatorship proceedings is pending may hear and determine, when the issue is raised, the validity of a homestead and whether or not the property is community property or the separate property of either spouse [Prob. Code § 3023(a)]. However, any person having or claiming title to or an interest in the property, at or prior to the hearing on the issue, may object to the hearing if, under any other provision of law, the court is not the proper court for the trial of an action to determine the issue. If the objection is established, the court must not hear and determine the issue [Prob. Code § 3023(b)]. In addition if a civil action is pending with respect to the issue and jurisdiction has been obtained in the court hearing the action, on request of any party to the action, the court must discontinue the hearing until the conclusion of the action [Prob. Code § 3023(c)]. The court need not abate the hearing, however, if it determines that the civil action was filed for the purpose of delay [Prob. Code § 3023(d)].

[2] Proceeds of Community Property

The proceeds, rents, issues, and profits of community property dealt with or disposed of under the statutes governing guardianships and conservatorships [Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.], and any property taken in exchange for the community property or acquired with the proceeds, are community property [Prob. Code § 3020(a)]. Except as provided for the management, control, and disposition of community property as discussed in this part, nothing alters the rights of the spouses in community property or its proceeds, rents, issues, or profits [Prob. Code § 3020(b)]. For discussion of spouses' rights in community property, see Ch. 122, Community Property .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-289 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 289.13

§ 289.13 Legal Capacity of Spouse

A spouse who has a conservator of the estate lacks legal capacity to manage and control community property, including the legal capacity to dispose of community property and to join in or consent to a transaction involving community property [Prob. Code § 3012(a), (b)].

A spouse also lacks legal capacity [Prob. Code § 3012(b)]:

- To manage and control community property, including legal capacity to dispose of it, if he or she is substantially unable to manage or control the community property; and

- To join in or consent to a transaction involving community property if he or she does not have legal capacity for the particular transaction measured by principles of law otherwise applicable to the particular transaction.

However, nothing in Prob. Code § 3012 may be construed to deny a spouse any of the following, whether or not he or she lacks legal capacity [Prob. Code § 3012(c)]:

- The right to control an allowance provided under Prob. Code § 2421 [for discussion of allowances, see Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee].

- The right to control wages or salary to the extent provided in Prob. Code § 2601 [for discussion of wages, see Ch. 286, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Inventory and Appraisal].

- The right to make a will.

- The right to enter into transactions to the extent reasonable to provide the necessities of life to the spouse, the other spouse, and the minor children of the spouses.

Volume 24: Guardianship and Conservatorship thru Guardians ad Litem-Chs. 280-291
Chapter 289 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: MANAGEMENT OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-289 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 289.14

§ 289.14 Management Powers of Spouse or Conservator

[1] Community Property

The right of a spouse to manage and control community property, including the right to dispose of it, is not affected by the lack or alleged lack of legal capacity of the other spouse [Prob. Code § 3051(a); for discussion of legal capacity of spouse, see § 289.13].

If one spouse has legal capacity and the other has a conservator, the spouse with legal capacity has the exclusive management and control of the community property, including the exclusive power to dispose of that property. Further, the community property is not part of the conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 3051(b)]. However, the spouse with legal capacity may consent, by a writing filed in the proceeding, that all or part of that property be included in and managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 3051(c)].

If both spouses have conservators, an undivided one-half interest in the community property must be included in and managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate of each spouse [Prob. Code § 3051(d)]. Nevertheless, when authorized by order of the court in which any of the conservatorship proceedings is pending, the conservators may agree in writing that all or specific parts of the community property be included in the conservatorship estate of one or the other of the spouses and be managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of that estate [Prob. Code § 3051(e); see §§ 289.40, 289.41 (petition and order for authorization to include community property in estate of one spouse pursuant to agreement)].

The right to manage, control, and dispose of community property is limited by Prob. Code § 3071, which applies when joinder or consent would be required for a transaction if both spouses had legal capacity [Prob. Code § 3051; see § 289.15].

[2] Enforcement of Spouse's Duty Regarding Management and Control

The Probate Code provides that, when one spouse has a conservator and the other spouse is managing or controlling community property, the conservator has the duty to remain reasonably informed concerning the management and control, including the disposition, of the property. The Probate Code further provides that if the conservator has knowledge or reason to believe that the conservatee's rights in the property are being prejudiced, the conservator may bring an action on the conservatee's behalf to enforce the fiduciary duty imposed by Fam. Code §§ 721 and 1100 [see Prob Code § 3057]. If a spouse lacks legal capacity and does not have a conservator, the Probate Code also provides that any interested person who has knowledge or reason to believe that the spouse's rights are being prejudiced may also bring an enforcement action [Prob. Code § 3057(a)].

Except as otherwise provided in specified sections of the Probate Code [see Prob. Code §§ 143, 144, 146, 16040, 16047], a husband and wife, in transactions between themselves, are subject to the general rules governing fiduciary relationships that control the actions of persons occupying confidential relationships with one another [Fam. Code § 721(b); see Fam Code § 1100(e)]. This confidential relationship includes a duty of the highest good faith and fair dealing with one another, and neither is permitted to take any unfair advantage of the other [Fam. Code § 721(b)]. The relationship is a fiduciary relationship subject to the same rights and duties of nonmarital business partners, and includes (but is not limited to) the following [Fam. Code § 721(b); see Fam Code § 1100(e)]:

- Providing each spouse access at all times to any books kept regarding a transaction for the purposes of inspection and copying.

- Rendering on request, true and full information of all things affecting any transaction which concerns the community property. Nothing in this section is intended to impose a duty for either spouse to keep detailed books and records of community property transactions.

- Accounting to the spouse, and holding as a trustee, any benefit or profit derived from any transaction by one spouse without the consent of the other spouse which concerns the community property.

With respect to these requirements, Fam. Code § 721 refers to the duties imposed under the Uniform Partnership Act, specifically Corp. Code §§ 16403 (disclosure of books, records, and other information to business partner), 16404 (partner's fiduciary duty), and 16503 (transfer of partnership interest). For discussion, see Ch. 400, Partnerships: Governing Law .

[3] Conservator's Duty Towards Property Included in Estate

When community property is included in a conservatorship estate for the purpose of management, control, and disposition, the conservator has the same powers and duties with respect to management and control of the property as he or she has with respect to other property of the estate [Prob. Code § 3056; for discussion of powers and duties, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers]. However, limitations on dispositions are imposed by Prob. Code § 3071, discussed in § 289.15, and by other provisions [see, e.g., Prob. Code §§ 3020 (community property interests not affected), 3054 (authority of court), 3055 (effect on consent of death or subsequent lack of legal capacity)].

[4] Terminating Inclusion of Property in Estate

When community property is included in or proposed to be included in the conservatorship estate of a spouse, the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, on its own motion or on petition of a spouse having legal capacity or the conservator of either spouse, and on such notice to such persons as the court prescribes, may do any of the following [Prob. Code § 3054; see §§ 289.42, 289.43]:

- Determine that the inclusion of some or all of that property that is proposed to be included in the estate is not in the best interest of the spouses or their estates and order that the property not be included.

- Permit revocation of a written consent for inclusion of property in the estate, with or without terms or conditions.

- Determine that the continued inclusion of some or all of that property in the estate is not in the best interest of the spouses or their estates and order that the inclusion be terminated, with or without terms or conditions.

- Make such other orders as may be appropriate for the orderly administration of the estate or to protect the interests of the spouses.

If consent is given that community property be included in a spouse's estate, the death of either spouse also terminates the consent [Prob. Code § 3055(a)].

If a spouse consents that community property be included in the other spouse's estate, the subsequent lack of legal capacity of the consenting spouse has no effect on the property's inclusion in the other spouse's estate. However, the appointment of a conservator for the consenting spouse terminates the consent [Prob. Code § 3055(b)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-289 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 289.15

§ 289.15 Joinder or Consent Requirements

[1] In General

Certain transactions involving community property require the joinder or consent of both spouses [see, e.g., Fam. Code §§ 1100 (gift of community personal property and disposition of property used as family dwelling, home furnishings, and clothing), 1202 (disposition of community real property)]. When one spouse has legal capacity for the transaction and the other spouse has a conservator, the joinder or consent requirement of any such statute is satisfied if the joinder or consent of both the spouse having legal capacity and of the other spouse's conservator are obtained [Prob. Code §§ 3070, 3071(b)]. When both spouses have conservators, the requirement is satisfied by the joinder or consent of each conservator [Prob. Code §§ 3070, 3071(c); for discussion of the manner of obtaining court authorization for conservator's joinder or consent, see [2], below].

In any case, the requirement of joinder or consent is satisfied if the transaction is authorized by a court order obtained in a proceeding pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 3100-3154 [Prob. Code § 3071(d); see § 289.16].

[2] Authorization for Joinder or Consent

Generally, a conservator may join in or consent to a transaction only after authorization by court order obtained in a conservatorship proceeding on a petition for [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(1)]:

- Instructions under Prob. Code § 2403 [see §§ 289.44, 289.45].

- Approval or confirmation of sales under Prob. Code §§ 2540-2548 [see Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment];

- Authority to take a proposed action by a conservator under the substituted judgment doctrine contained in Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586 [see Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment].

That authority may also be obtained in a proceeding pursuant to Prob. Code § 3100 et seq. to authorize a proposed transaction when a spouse lacks legal capacity [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(2); see § 289.16].

However, a conservator may consent without court authorization to a sale, conveyance, or encumbrance of home furnishings or clothing which are community personal property requiring consent under Civ. Code § 5125(c) if the conservator could sell or transfer the property under Prob. Code § 2545 (sales of tangible personal property not in excess of $5,000 per year) without authorization if it were a part of the estate [Prob. Code § 3072(b); for discussion of Prob. Code § 2545, see Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment].

[3] Manner of Effecting Joinder or Consent

The joinder or consent of a conservator must be made in the same manner as that of a spouse joining in or consenting to the transaction under the governing statute [Prob. Code § 3073(b)]. The conservator must execute the joinder or consent, which must refer to the court order authorizing the conservator to join in or consent to the transaction, if such an order is required [Prob. Code § 3073(b)].

A spouse having legal capacity must join in or consent to a transaction in such manner as complies with Civ. Code §§ 5125, 5127, or any other statute that applies to the transaction [Prob. Code § 3073(a); for discussion of Civ. Code §§ 5125 and 5127, see Ch. 122, Community Property].

[4] Effect of Estate on Good Faith Purchase of Real Property

Notwithstanding Prob. Code §§ 3070-3073 [see [2], [3], above], a transaction that affects real property, entered into by a person acting in good faith and for a valuable consideration, is not affected by the fact that one or both spouses have conservators unless a notice of the establishment of the conservatorship or conservatorships, as the case may be, has been recorded prior to the transaction in the county in which the property is located [Prob. Code § 3074].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-289 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 289.16

§ 289.16 Proceeding to Authorize or Determine Legal Capacity for Transaction

[1] In General

A special proceeding may be brought under Prob. Code § 3100 et seq. for a court order authorizing a proposed transaction that involves community real or personal property, tangible or intangible, or an interest in or a lien or encumbrance on that property [Prob. Code §§ 3100, 3101(a)]. To bring the proceeding, both of the following conditions must be satisfied, whether or not the proposed transaction is one that otherwise would require the joinder or consent of both spouses [Prob. Code § 3101(a)]:

- One of the spouses must be alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, whether that spouse has a conservator or not.

- The other spouse must either have legal capacity for the proposed transaction or have a conservator.

A proceeding may also be brought under Prob. Code § 3100 et seq. for a court order declaring that one or both spouses has legal capacity for a proposed transaction [Prob. Code § 3101(b)]. Alternatively, a single proceeding may be brought for a declaration of legal capacity and for authorization for a proposed transaction [Prob. Code § 3101(c)]. The existence or lack of legal capacity is determined according to the standard in Prob. Code § 3012 [see § 289.13].

When both spouses have conservators of the estate, or if one spouse has legal capacity and the other has a conservator, the procedure described above is available to obtain court authorization for the joinder or consent of a conservator as an alternative to the procedures under Prob. Code § 3072 [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(2); see § 289.15]. This procedure is permissive and cumulative for the transactions to which it applies [Prob. Code § 3101(e)].

For forms that may be used to authorize a proposed transaction and to determine legal capacity, see §§ 289.46, 289, 47 (petition and order to authorize transaction when spouse has or is declared to have legal capacity) and 289.48-289.50 (petition and order to authorize transaction when spouse alleged to lack legal capacity).

[2] Determining Character of Property

In a proceeding under Prob. Code §§ 3100-3154, the court may determine whether or not the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is subject to a valid homestead and whether or not it is community property or the separate property of either spouse. However, such a determination may not be made if the court determines that in the interest of justice the determination must be made in a civil action [Prob. Code § 3101(d)].

[3] Subject Transactions

The transactions that may be the subject of the proceedings described above include, but are not limited to, the following [Prob. Code § 3102]:

(a) A sale, conveyance, assignment, transfer, exchange, conveyance pursuant to a preexisting contract, encumbrance by security interest, by deed of trust, by mortgage, or otherwise, a lease, including but not limited to a lease for the exploration for and production of oil, gas, minerals, or other substances, or unitization or pooling with other property for or in connection with such exploration and production;

(b) An assignment, transfer, or conveyance, in whole or in part, in compromise or settlement of an indebtedness, demand, or proceeding to which the property may be subject;

(c) A dedication or conveyance, with or without consideration, of the property or an interest therein to a public entity (including but not limited to the United States or an agency or instrumentality thereof) for any purpose, or of an easement over the property to any person for any purpose;

(d) A conveyance, release, or relinquishment to a public entity, with or without consideration, of any access rights to a street, highway, or freeway from the property;

(e) Consenting as a lienholder to a dedication, conveyance, release, or relinquishment under paragraphs (c) or (d), above, by the owner of property subject to the lien; and

(f) A conveyance or transfer, without consideration, to provide gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty, as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses.

[4] Who May Petition

Either spouse, whether or not the spouse has legal capacity, or the conservator of either spouse may file or join in a petition under Prob. Code §§ 3100-3154 [Prob. Code § 3111(a)].

However, if the petition requests approval of a proposed action, at least one of the petitioners must be either a conservator or a spouse having legal capacity for the transaction [Prob. Code § 3111(b)].

If a proceeding is brought by the conservator of a spouse, or by a spouse having legal capacity for the proposed transaction, a conservator does not have to be appointed for the other spouse [Prob. Code § 3113].

[5] Contents of Petition

Several proposed transactions may be included in one petition and proceeding [Prob. Code § 3120(a)]. The petition may contain inconsistent allegations and may request relief in the alternative [Prob. Code § 3120(b)].

The petition must set forth all the following information [Prob. Code § 3121]:

- The name, age, and residence of each spouse.

- If one or both spouses are alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, a statement that the spouse has a conservator or a statement of the facts on which the allegation is based.

- If there is a conservator of a spouse, the name and address of the conservator, the county in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending, and the court number of the proceeding.

- If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the name and address of the institution.

- The names and addresses of the adult relatives within the second degree of each spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, if known to the petitioner [see Prob. Code §§ 251-253 (second degree relations)].

- A sufficient description of the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction;

- An allegation of the status of the property, whether community property, community property subject to a homestead, or separate property subject to a homestead.

- The estimated value of the property.

- The terms and conditions of the proposed transaction, including the names of all parties to it.

- The relief requested.

If the proceeding is brought for a court order authorizing a proposed transaction, the petition must set forth, in addition to the information required by Prob. Code § 3121 as discussed above, all of the following [Prob. Code § 3122]:

- An allegation that one of the spouses has a conservator or facts establishing lack of legal capacity of the spouse for the proposed transaction.

- An allegation that the other spouse has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

- An allegation that each spouse either (1) joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, (2) has a conservator, or (3) is substantially unable to manage his or her financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence.

- Facts that may be relied on to show that the authorization sought is for one or more of the following purposes: (1) the advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates; (2) the care and support of either spouse or of such persons as either spouse may be legally obligated to support; (3) the payment of taxes, interest, or other encumbrances or charges for the protection and preservation of the homestead or community property; or (4) the providing of gifts for such purposes, and to such charities, relatives (including one of the spouses), friends, or other objects of bounty as would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses.

If the proceeding is brought for a court order declaring that one or both spouses have legal capacity for a proposed transaction, the petition must set forth, in addition to the information required by Prob. Code § 3121 as discussed above, an allegation of the legal capacity of such spouse or spouses for the proposed transaction [Prob. Code § 3123].

[6] Notice and Citation

At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition, the petitioner must cause a notice of the time and place of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served on any nonpetitioning spouse who is not alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction [Prob. Code § 3131(a)]. For additional notice requirements, see § 289.46[6]. For a form for giving this notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

Generally, on the filing of the petition, the clerk must issue a citation to each nonpetitioning spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction, setting forth the time and place of hearing. The citation and a copy of the petition must be served on the spouse at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3130(a)]. For a form for this citation and additional discussion of citation requirements, see § 289.49.

[7] Appearance by Representative

If a petitioning spouse's legal capacity for the proposed transaction is to be determined in the proceeding, the court may permit the spouse to appear without a representative, appoint a guardian ad litem for the spouse, or take such other action as the circumstances warrant [Prob. Code § 3112(a)]. If a petitioning spouse lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction, the court may require the spouse to be represented by his or her conservator, or may appoint a guardian ad litem for him or her [Prob. Code § 3112(b); for discussion of guardians ad litem, see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians].

A conservator who is served a notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition must appear at the hearing and represent a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction. The Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services given notice pursuant to Prob. Code § 1461 may also appear and represent such a spouse [Prob. Code § 3140(a); for discussion of Prob. Code § 1461, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice]. If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity is not otherwise represented, the court may in its discretion appoint the public guardian, public administrator, or a guardian ad litem to represent the spouse's interests [Prob. Code § 3140(c)].

[8] Appointment of Legal Counsel

If a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity is unable to retain legal counsel, on his or her request, the court must appoint the public defender or private counsel under Prob. Code § 1471 to represent the spouse, with payment of such counsel governed by Prob. Code § 1472 [Prob. Code § 3140(d)(1)]. If the petition proposes a transfer of substantial assets to the petitioner from the other spouse and the court determines that the spouse has not competently retained independent counsel for the proceeding, the court, in its discretion, may appoint counsel for the other spouse if the court determines that appointment would be helpful to resolve the matter or necessary to protect the interests of the other spouse [Prob. Code § 3140(d)(2)]. Except for an appointed public defender or private counsel, the court may fix a reasonable fee, to be paid out of the proceeds of the transaction or otherwise as the court may direct, for all services rendered by privately engaged counsel, the public guardian, public administrator, or guardian ad litem, and by counsel for those persons [Prob. Code § 3140(e)].

[9] Presence of Spouse Alleged to Lack Legal Capacity at Hearing

If a spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction and has no conservator, the spouse must be produced at the hearing unless unable to attend [Prob. Code § 3141(a)]. If the spouse is unable to attend because of medical inability, the inability must be established by the affidavit or certificate of a licensed medical practitioner or, if the spouse is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on prayer alone for healing and is under treatment by an accredited practitioner of the religion, by the affidavit of the practitioner [Prob. Code § 3141(b)]. Emotional or psychological instability is not good cause for absence of the spouse from the hearing unless, by reason of that instability, attendance is likely to cause serious and immediate physiological damage [Prob. Code § 3141(c)].

[10] Informing Spouse Alleged to Lack Legal Capacity of Legal Rights

If a spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction and has no conservator, the court, before commencement of the hearing on the merits, must inform the spouse of all the following [Prob. Code § 3142(a)]:

- A determination of lack of legal capacity for the proposed transaction may result in approval of the proposed transaction.

- The spouse has the right to legal counsel of the spouse's own choosing, including the right to have legal counsel appointed by the court if unable to retain counsel.

However, the information need not be provided if the spouse is absent from the hearing and is not required to attend and any showing in inability to attend required by Prob. Code § 3141 has been made [Prob. Code § 3142(b)].

[11] Order Determining Legal Capacity

If the petition requests an order declaring a spouse to have legal capacity for the proposed transaction and the court determines that the spouse has such capacity, the court must so order [Prob. Code § 3143(a)]. If the petition alleges that a spouse having no conservator lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction and the court determines that the spouse has such capacity, the court must make an order so declaring [Prob. Code § 3143(b)]. A determination that a spouse lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction affects the spouse's legal capacity for that transaction alone and has no effect on his or her legal capacity for any other purposes [Prob. Code § 3145].

[12] Order Authorizing Transaction

The court may authorize a proposed transaction if it determines all of the following [Prob. Code § 3144(a)]:

- The property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is community property of the spouses and, if the proposed transaction involves property in which a spouse also has a separate property interest, that there is good cause to include that separate property interest in the transaction.

- One of the spouses has a conservator or otherwise lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction.

- The other spouse either has legal capacity for the proposed transaction or has a conservator.

- Each of the spouses either joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, has a conservator, or is substantially unable to manage his or her own financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence. Substantial inability may not be proved by isolated incidents of negligence or improvidence.

- The proposed transaction is one that should be authorized under Prob. Code §§ 3100-3154.

If the court determines that the transaction should be authorized, it must so order and may authorize the petitioner to do and perform all acts and to execute and deliver all papers, documents, and instruments necessary to effectuate the order [Prob. Code § 3144(c)]. The court may also prescribe such terms and conditions as it determines in its discretion to be appropriate, including but not limited to requiring joinder or consent of another person [Prob. Code § 3144(d)].

If the proposed transaction is to provide gifts to likely beneficiaries of the spouses under Prob. Code § 3102(f) [see [3], above], the court may authorize the transaction only if it satisfies the requirements of the substituted judgment doctrine contained in Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586 [Prob. Code § 3144(b); see Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment].

[13] Bond

Unless the court for good cause dispenses with the bond, the court must require the petitioner to give a bond, in the amount fixed by the court, conditioned on the duty of the petitioner to account for and apply the proceeds of the transaction to be received by the petitioner only as the court may by order direct [Prob. Code § 3150(a)]. Unless the court for good cause fixes the amount of the bond in a lesser amount, if given by an authorized surety company, the bond must be in an amount not less than the value of the personal property (including cash and any notes) to be received by the petitioner, as determined by the court [Prob. Code § 3150(b)]. If the sureties on the bond are individual sureties, the bond must be approved by the court and must be for twice the amount required for a bond given by an authorized surety company [Prob. Code § 3150(c)]. The general bond requirements for guardians or conservators in Prob. Code §§ 2328, 2329, 2331, 2334, 2335, and 2336 are applicable to this bond [Prob. Code § 3150(d); see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds].

[14] Execution, Recordation, and Receipt of Documents

The petitioner, on receipt of the consideration for them, must execute, acknowledge, and deliver any necessary instruments or documents as directed by the court, stating in them that they are made by authority of the order [Prob. Code § 3151(a)]. The petitioner must cause a certified copy of the order to be recorded in the office of the recorder of each county in which any real property affected by the order or any real property on which there is a lien or encumbrance affected by the order is situated [Prob. Code § 3151(b)]. If a sale is made on a credit pursuant to the order, the petitioner must take the note of the person to whom the sale is made for the amount of the unpaid balance of the purchase money, with such security for the payment of it as the court approves by order. The note must be made payable to the petitioner or, if the petition was made by a conservator, to the petitioner as conservator [Prob. Code § 3151(c)].

[15] Effect of Documents Made Pursuant to Order

A sale, conveyance, assignment, transfer, exchange, encumbrance, security interest, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, dedication, release, or relinquishment, and any instrument or document, made pursuant to the court's order, is as valid and effectual as if the property affected by it were the sole and absolute property of the person making it [Prob. Code § 3152]. Notes, encumbrances, security interests, mortgages, leases, or deeds of trust, executed by a petitioning conservator, create no personal liability against the conservator so executing, unless the conservator is one of the spouses and then only to the extent that personal liability would have resulted had both spouses had legal capacity for the transaction and joined in the execution [Prob. Code § 3153].

[16] Subsequent Proceedings

If any party to the transaction, other than the petitioner, does not consummate an authorized transaction, the court, on application of the petitioner and after such notice to the parties to the transaction as the court directs, may vacate the order authorizing the transaction [Prob. Code § 3154(a)].

If the order authorized the sale or encumbrance of property, the petitioner may, by supplemental petition, apply to the court for an order authorizing any other sale or encumbrance of the property to the advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates. The supplemental petition and a notice of the time and place of the hearing must be served and mailed as provided in Prob. Code §§ 3130 and 3131. However, no further citation may be issued. Additionally, a copy of the supplemental petition and a notice of the time and place of the hearing must be served on any person who has appeared as representative of a nonpetitioning spouse, on counsel of record for a nonpetitioning spouse, or as the court may otherwise direct [Prob. Code § 3154(b)]. If it appears to the court that the other sale or encumbrance is to the advantage, benefit, or best interests of the spouses or their estates and that the request in the supplemental petition that the transaction be authorized should be granted, the court may so order and may authorize the petitioner to perform acts and to execute and deliver all papers, documents, and instruments necessary to effectuate the order [Prob. Code § 3154(c)].

Chapter 289 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: MANAGEMENT OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-289 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 289.17

§ 289.17 Enforcement of Support of Conservatee Spouse

[1] Petition for Support from Community Property

If one spouse has a conservator and the other spouse has the management or control of the community property, the court in which the conservatorship proceeding is pending may, on petition, make an order requiring the spouse who has the management or control of the community property to apply the income or principal, or both, of the community property to the support and maintenance of the conservatee, including the care, treatment, and support of a conservatee who is a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services [Prob. Code §§ 3080, 3088(a); see § 289.51 (petition for enforcement of support of conservatee spouse)]. The petition may be filed by the conservator, the conservatee, a relative or friend of the conservatee, or any interested person [Prob. Code § 3080].

The procedure for obtaining such an order is set forth in Prob. Code §§ 3080-3092. These provisions for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse do not affect or limit the right of the conservator or any interested person to institute an action against any person to enforce the duty otherwise imposed by law to support a conservatee spouse. The provisions of Prob. Code §§ 3080-3092 are permissive and in addition to any other procedure otherwise available to enforce the obligation of support [Prob. Code § 3092].

[2] Notice of Hearing

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code § 3081(a); for a further discussion of and forms relating to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

If the spouse who has the management or control of the community property is not the conservator, the petitioner must also cause notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served on the spouse in accordance with Code Civ. Proc. §§ 410.10-418.10 [Prob. Code § 3081(b); for further discussion of service, see Ch. 518, Service of Summons and Papers].

[3] Obligations of Spouse on Filing of Petition

[a] Citation and Examination of Spouse

On the filing of the petition, the court may cite the spouse who has the management or control of the community property to appear before the court, and the court and the petitioner may examine the spouse under oath concerning the community property and other matters relevant to the petition [Prob. Code § 3082; see § 289.54]. On examination, the court may make an order requiring the person cited to disclose his or her knowledge of the community property and other matters relevant to the petition. If the person cited refuses to appear and submit to an examination, or appears and refuses to comply with an order requiring disclosure, the court may commit the person to the county jail in accordance with Prob. Code § 614 [Prob. Code § 3082].

[b] Declarations to Be Filed

When a petition is filed for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse, the spouse having the management or control of the community property must serve and file a current income and expense declaration and a current property declaration on the forms prescribed by the Judicial Council for use in family law proceedings [Prob. Code § 3084]. For illustrative filled-in reproductions of these forms, see Ch. 221, Dissolution of Marriage: Procedure . Copies suitable for reproduction may be found in California Forms Of Pleading And Practice, Judicial Council Forms, Part F.

[4] Permitted Orders Pending Determination

[a] Order for Payment of Support Pending Determination

The court, after notice and hearing, may order the spouse who has the management or control of the community property to pay from the community property the amount the court determines is necessary to the support and maintenance of the conservatee spouse pending the determination of the petition [Prob. Code § 3083; see § 289.53 for an order for payment of support; for a discussion of and forms relating to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice]. An order for the payment of support pending the determination does not prejudice the rights of the spouses or other interested parties with respect to any subsequent order in the proceeding and may be modified or revoked at any time except as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of filing of the petition to modify or revoke the order [Prob. Code § 3083].

[b] Ex Parte Orders Enjoining and Reporting Use of Property

During the pendency of a proceeding for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse, the court, on application of the petitioner, may issue ex parte orders for the following purposes [Prob. Code § 3085]:

- To restrain the spouse who has the management or control of the community property from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; or

- To require the spouse who has the management or control of the community property to notify the petitioner of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all such extraordinary expenditures.

For a form for a petition requesting the above relief, and a form for an order granting that relief, see §§ 289.51 and 289.52, respectively.

[c] Continuances

Any person interested in the proceeding for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse may request time for filing a response to the petition, for discovery proceedings, or for other preparation for the hearing, and the court is required to grant a continuance for a reasonable time for any such purpose [Prob. Code § 3086].

[5] Determination of Amount and Findings

In determining the amount to be ordered for support and maintenance, the court must consider the following circumstances of the spouses [Prob. Code § 3088(b)]:

- The earning capacity and needs of each spouse.
- The obligations and assets, including the separate property, of each spouse.
- The duration of the marriage.
- The age and health of the spouses.
- The standard of living of the spouses.
- Any other relevant factors that it considers just and equitable.

At the request of any interested person, the court must make appropriate findings on the circumstances [Prob. Code § 3088(c)].

The court may hear and determine whether property is community property or the separate property of either spouse if the issue is raised in the proceeding [Prob. Code § 3087].

[6] Permitted Orders After Determination

[a] Order for Application of Community Property to Support

After determining the amount to be ordered for support and maintenance as provided by Prob. Code § 3088(b), the court may order the spouse who has the management or control of the community property to apply the income or principal, or both, of the community property to the support and maintenance of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 3088(a); see § 289.55 for order for enforcement of support of conservatee spouse].

[b] Order for Periodic Payments

The court may order the spouse who has the management or control of the community property to make a specified monthly or other periodic payment to the conservatee's conservator of the person or to any other person designated in the order. The court may also order the spouse required to make the periodic payments to give reasonable security for them [Prob. Code § 3088(d); see § 289.55 for order for enforcement of support of conservatee spouse].

[c] Assignment of Wages

The court may order the spouse required to make periodic payments to assign, to the person designated in the order to receive the payments, the portion of the earnings of the spouse, due or to be due in the future, that will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for the support and maintenance of the conservatee. The order operates as an assignment and is binding on any existing or future employer on whom a copy of the order is served. The order must be in the form for an order assigning salary or wages prescribed by the Judicial Council for use in family law proceedings. The employer may deduct the sum of $1.50 for each payment made pursuant to the order. An assignment made pursuant to court order has priority over any execution or other assignment unless otherwise ordered by the court or unless the other assignment is made pursuant to Fam. Code § 5200 et seq. An employer may not use any such assignment as grounds for dismissal of the employee-spouse [Prob. Code § 3088(e)(1)]. The term "employer" includes the United States government and any public entity defined in Gov. Code § 811.2. These provisions apply to the money and benefits described in Code Civ. Proc. §§ 704.110 and 704.113 to the extent they are subject to a wage assignment for support under Code Civ. Proc. § 703.010 et seq. [Prob. Code § 3088(e)(2)].

For a further discussion and a form for assignment of wages, see Ch. 259, Family Law Enforcement: Special Remedies for Support Enforcement .

[7] Modification or Revocation of Order

The court retains jurisdiction to modify or to vacate an order for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse when justice so requires; it does not retain jurisdiction as to any amount that may have accrued prior to the date of the filing of the petition to modify or revoke the order. At the request of any interested person, the order of modification or revocation must include findings of fact and may be made retroactive to the date of the filing of the petition to revoke or modify, or to any subsequent date. At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition to modify or vacate the order, the petitioner must mail a notice of the time and place of the hearing, accompanied by a copy of the petition, to the spouse who has the management or control of the community property. Notice must also be given for the period, in the manner, and to the persons specified in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code § 3088(f); for further discussion, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage pursuant to Civ. Code § 4500 et seq., the court has jurisdiction to modify or vacate an order made under Prob. Code § 3088 for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse to the same extent as it has jurisdiction to modify or vacate an order in a dissolution proceeding [Prob. Code § 3088(g)]. For further discussion, see Ch. 221, Dissolution of Marriage: Procedure , and Ch. 225, Dissolution of Marriage: Spousal Support .

[8] Order for Division of Community Property

If the spouse who has the management or control of the community property refuses to comply with any order made under Prob. Code § 3080 et seq. or an order made in a separate action to provide support for the conservatee spouse, the court, in its discretion, on request of the petitioner or other interested person, may divide the community property and the quasi-community property of the spouses, as it exists at the time of division, equally, in the same manner as when a marriage is dissolved. If the property is so divided, the property awarded to each spouse is the separate property of that spouse and the court is required to order that the property awarded to the conservatee spouse be transferred or paid over to the conservator of the estate of that spouse to be included in and managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the conservatorship estate. The fact that property has been divided pursuant to Prob. Code § 3089 has no effect on the nature of property thereafter acquired by the spouses, and the determination of whether thereafter-acquired property is community or separate property must be made without regard to the fact that the property has been divided [Prob. Code § 3089; see §§ 289.56 (application for division of community and quasi-community property), 289.57 (order for division of community and quasi-community property)].

[9] Enforcement of Orders

Any order made under Prob. Code § 3080 et seq. for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse may be enforced by the court by execution, the appointment of a receiver, contempt, or by such other orders as the court in its discretion may deem necessary [Prob. Code § 3090].

§ 289.40 Petition for Authority to Include Community Property in Estate of One Spouse Pursuant to Agreement [Prob. Code § 3051(e)]

[1] FORM Petition for Authority to Include Community Property in Estate of One Spouse Pursuant to Agreement

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

_____ [Guardianship or Conservatorship or Limited Conservatorship] of the _____ [Person or Estate or Person and Estate] of _____ [name], _____ [Ward or Conservatee].	))))))	NO. _____ [Hearing set for _____ [date], at _____ [time] in Dept. No. _____] PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO INCLUDE COMMUNITY PROPERTY IN ESTATE

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed, qualified, and acting _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee].

2. The _____ [ward or conservatee] is the _____ [husband or wife] of _____[name], who is also under a _____ [guardianship or conservatorship]. His/Her duly appointed, qualified, and acting _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate is _____[name]. His/Her _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] proceeding is pending in the Superior Court of _____ County, California, case number _____.

3. The spouses are owners of _____ [real or personal] property [if real property, add: located in _____ County, California], described as follows: _____[give legal description, if possible].

4. The property is owned by the spouses as community property.

5. Petitioner and _____[name of guardian or conservator of ward's or conservatee's spouse] propose to enter into a written agreement by which this property will be included in and managed, controlled, and disposed of as a part of the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] estate of _____[name of spouse indicated in agreement]. A copy of the proposed agreement is attached as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference.

6. Petitioner believes that the inclusion of the property into one estate according to the proposed agreement should be authorized because _____ [specify reasons, e.g., administration fees will be reduced, the property will be better managed since the _____ (guardian or conservator) of the estate into which the property is proposed to be included has more experience in managing property of this kind than the representative of the other estate, and the property will thus produce more net income for both spouses].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order authorizing him/her to enter into the agreement described above with _____[name of guardian or conservator of ward's or conservatee's spouse], and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator of a spouse, if both spouses are under a guardianship or conservatorship, in obtaining authority to enter into a written agreement that all or specific parts of the community property be included in and managed, controlled, or disposed of as a part of the guardianship or conservatorship estate of one spouse. Even if the agreement is authorized, the management, control, and disposition of the property remains subject to the requirements of joinder or consent for certain transactions under Prob. Code § 3071 [Prob. Code § 3051(e); see Prob. Code § 3004 ("conservator" defined)].

[3] Contents of Petition

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition under Prob. Code § 3051(e) should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 3051(e)].

- The name and address of the guardian or conservator of the estate of the ward's or conservatee's spouse and the location and case number of that guardianship or conservatorship proceeding (Paragraph 2).

- A property description and the manner of holding title (Paragraphs 3-4) [see Prob. Code § 3002 ("community property" defined)].

- A description and incorporation by reference of a copy of the proposed written agreement (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code § 3051(e)].

- Any reasons why the petitioner believes the property should be included in one estate (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code § 3051(e)].

[4] Jurisdiction and Venue

The petition may be filed in the court in which any of the guardianship or conservatorship proceedings are pending.

[5] Verification

Except as otherwise specifically provided, all petitions filed pursuant to the guardianship and conservatorship law must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see also Prob. Code § 1430 ("petition" includes application or request in nature of petition)]. A verified petition must be received as evidence when offered in any uncontested probate proceedings [Prob. Code § 1022].

The form of verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[6] Notice

Although there are no express notice requirements contained in Prob. Code § 3051(e), it is suggested that notice of the hearing be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. as is required for a petition for authorization and instructions in the management of the estate [see Prob. Code §§ 1460, 2403]. These sections generally require that notice be given by mail to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a),(b)]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by a spouse having legal capacity or by the conservator of either spouse in obtaining an order terminating the inclusion, or permitting revocation of the consent for inclusion, of community property in the guardianship or conservatorship estate of a spouse. The court may also terminate the inclusion on its own motion [Prob.

Code § 3054; see Prob. Code § 3004 (conservator defined)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should be entitled: PETITION TO TERMINATE INCLUSION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY IN ESTATE.

A petition under Prob. Code § 3054 should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's status as a party entitled to bring the petition, and the names of all estate representatives (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 3054].

- A property description and the manner of holding title (Paragraphs 2-3) [see Prob. Code § 3002 (community property defined)].

- The manner in which the property was included in the estate (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 3051(c), (e) (consent or authorization to include community property)].

- Why the inclusion of property is not in the best interests of the spouses or their estates (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code § 3054].

[4] Jurisdiction and Venue

The petition must be filed in the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship of the spouse's estate that includes or is proposed to include the property is pending [Prob. Code § 3054].

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 289.40[5]].

[6] Notice

The petition is given on such notice to such persons as the court prescribes [Prob. Code § 3054]. For discussion and a form of order prescribing notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[7] Determination

The court may revoke written consent for inclusion or terminate the continued inclusion of property in the estate with or without terms or conditions [Prob. Code § 3054(b), (c)]. It may also make such other orders as may be appropriate for the orderly administration of the guardianship or conservatorship estate or to protect the interests of the spouses [Prob. Code § 3054(d)].

[Verification. See § 289.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator in obtaining authority to join in or consent to a transaction involving community property [Prob. Code §§ 2403, 3070, 3072(a)(1); see Prob. Code §§ 3002 (community property defined), 3004 (conservator defined)]. The order is obtained from the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship of the estate is pending [Prob. Code §§ 3008, 3072(a)(1)].

If the petitioner seeks authority to join in or consent to a sale of the property, the petition must conform to the requirements of Prob. Code §§ 2540-2548 [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(1); see discussion and form in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment]. For the transaction to accomplish one of the purposes within the substituted judgment doctrine, the petition must conform to the requirements of Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586 [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(1); see discussion and form in Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment]. Authority to join in or consent to a proposed transaction involving such property may also be obtained through a proceeding pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 3100 et seq. [see § 289.16].

A conservator may consent without court authorization to a sale, conveyance, or encumbrance of property used as the family dwelling or the home furnishings or clothing which is community personal property [see Civ. Code § 5125(c)] if the property could be sold or transferred under Prob. Code § 2545 without authorization if it were part of the estate [Prob. Code § 3072(b); see § 289.15[2]]. A good-faith purchase or encumbrance of real property for a valuable consideration is not affected by the fact that a spouse has a conservator unless a notice of the establishment of the conservatorship has been recorded prior to the transaction in the county in which the property is located [Prob. Code § 3074].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should be entitled: PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO JOIN IN DISPOSITION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY.

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition under Prob. Code §§ 2403 and 3072(a)(1) should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's status as a party entitled to bring the petition, and the names of the spouses and representatives (Paragraphs 1-2) [see Prob. Code §§ 2403, 3072(a)].

- A legal description of the property and manner of ownership (Paragraph 3-4) [see Prob. Code § 3002].

- A description of the proposed transaction and an attachment of any documents setting forth its terms (Paragraph 5) [see Civ. Code §§ 5125, 5127; Prob. Code § 3071; see also [4], below].

- The reasons why the proposed transaction should be authorized (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code § 2403 (petition for instructions)].

- If income is generated by the transaction, whether or not an additional bond is required (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 2328, 2330].

- Whether or not a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 8) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Transactions Requiring Joinder or Consent

Transactions that require the joinder or consent of both spouses if they had legal capacity include the following:

- A gift, or disposition for less than fair and reasonable value, of community personal property, unless the gift is mutually given by both spouses to a third party or the gift is given by one spouse to the other spouse [Civ. Code § 5125(b)].

- The sale, conveyance, or encumbrance of a family dwelling, home furnishings, or clothing that is community personal property [Civ. Code § 5125(c)].

- The lease (if longer than one year), sale, encumbrance, or conveyance of community real property [Civ. Code § 5127].

For a general discussion of these sections, see Ch. 122, Community Property .

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 289.40[5]].

[6] Notice

Notice of the hearing must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code § 2403(b)]. These sections generally require that notice by mail be given to certain persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Special notice must also be given to any person who has filed a request under Prob. Code §§ 2700-2703 [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700(a)(1), (4)]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[7] Manner of Joinder or Consent

The joinder or consent of a guardian or conservator, and of the spouse having legal capacity, must be in a manner that complies with the following procedures as set out in Prob. Code § 3073, or any other statute applicable to the transaction:

- Written consent to make a gift of (except for a gift mutually given by both spouses to a third party or a gift given by one spouse to the other), to effect a disposition for less than fair and reasonable value of, or to sell, convey, or encumber community personal property used as a family dwelling, or home furnishings or clothing that is community personal property [Civ. Code § 5125(b), (c)].

- Execution of any instrument by which community real property is leased for a period longer than one year, or is sold, conveyed, or encumbered [Civ. Code § 5127].

The joinder or consent of a guardian or conservator must also be executed by him or her and must refer to the court order, if one is required, authorizing the joinder or consent [Prob. Code § 3073(b); see Prob. Code § 2111].

[Caption. See § 289.40[1].]

The petition of _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], for an order authorizing and instructing petitioner to _____ [join in or consent to] the _____ [specify transaction, e.g., lease] of the community property described below by _____[name of spouse, spouse's guardian, or spouse's conservator], came on regularly for hearing by the court on this date. Petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearances, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court as follows:

1. All notices of hearing have been _____ [given as required by law or waived] [including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. The spouses own, as community property, the _____ [real or personal] property described as follows: _____[give legal description].

3. Petitioner should be authorized to _____ [join in or consent to] the _____ [specify transaction, e.g., lease] of the property described above on the terms and conditions in the _____ [specify document, e.g., lease] attached hereto and made a part hereof.

[EITHER]

4. An additional bond is not required of _____[name] as _____ [guardian or conservator].

[OR]

4. _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator], should give an additional bond in the sum of $_____.

[CONTINUE]

5. [State additional findings as appropriate, depending on transaction involved].

IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. Petitioner, as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], is authorized to _____ [join in or consent to] the _____ [specify transaction, e.g., lease] of the property described above with _____[name], the _____ [ward's spouse or conservatee's spouse or guardian of the _____ (ward's or conservatee's) spouse or conservator of the _____ (ward's or conservatee's) spouse] on the terms and conditions set forth in the _____[specify document, e.g., lease] attached hereto and made a part hereof.

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use with the petition in § 289.44. The order should be entitled: ORDER AUTHORIZING JOINDER IN DISPOSITION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY. In most counties the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

The findings shown are those suggested for an order obtained pursuant to a petition for instructions under Prob. Code § 2403 authorizing the guardian or conservator to join in or consent to a transaction involving community property [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(1)]. Additional findings are required if the petition is filed pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 2540-2548 for authority to join in or consent to a sale of that property, or pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586 for authority to accomplish one of the purposes within the substituted judgment doctrine [Prob. Code § 3072(a)(1); see discussions and forms in Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment].

A certified copy of an order authorizing or directing a conveyance, lease, mortgage of, or deed of trust on real property must be recorded in the office of the county recorder in each county in which any portion of the real property is located

[Verification. See § 289.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator in obtaining an order authorizing a proposed transaction involving community property when the ward's or conservatee's spouse has or is declared to have legal capacity and joins in or consents to the transaction [Prob. Code §§ 3101(a), (b), (c), 3111(a)(2); see Prob. Code § 3004 (conservator defined)]. Generally, either spouse, whether or not he or she has legal capacity, or the guardian or conservator of either spouse, may file or join in the petition [Prob. Code § 3111(a)]. However, when seeking to authorize a transaction, at least one of the petitioners must be a guardian, a conservator, or a spouse having legal capacity for the transaction [Prob. Code §§ 3004, 3111(b)].

In the proceeding, the court may determine whether or not the property that is the subject of the proposed transaction is community property or is the separate property of either spouse. This determination may not be made, however, if the court finds that the interest of justice requires that the determination be made in a civil action [Prob. Code § 3101(d)].

Local rules may affect the transaction being authorized. The attorney should determine whether or not any such rules are applicable to the transaction being contemplated.

[3] Contents of Petition

The first alternative case title shown in the caption should be used if the petition is filed in the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending; otherwise, the second alternative should be used.

Transactions which may be proposed include those listed in Prob. Code § 3102 [see § 289.16[3]]. Several proposed transactions may be included in one petition and proceeding [Prob. Code § 3120(a)]. The petition may also contain inconsistent allegations and may request relief in the alternative [Prob. Code § 3120(b)].

A petition to authorize a proposed transaction when a spouse has legal capacity must state the following:

- The petitioner's status as the guardian or conservator, his or her name and address, the county in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending, and the court number of the proceeding (Paragraph 1) [Prob. Code §§ 3111, 3121(b), (c), 3122(a), (c)].

- The name, age, and residence of each spouse, and, if the ward or conservatee is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the name and address of the institution (Paragraphs 2, 3) [Prob. Code § 3121(a),(d)].

- The names and addresses of the adult relatives within the second degree of the ward or conservatee, if known to the petitioner (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 3121(e)].

- A sufficient description of the subject property and an allegation of its status (Paragraphs 5-6) [Prob. Code § 3121(f), (g)].

- The estimated value of the property (Paragraph 7) [Prob. Code § 3121(h)].

- The terms and conditions of and the names of all parties to the proposed transaction (Paragraph 8) [Prob. Code § 3121(i), (j)].

- An allegation that the ward's or conservatee's spouse has legal capacity for the proposed transaction, and that he or she joins in or consents to it (Paragraph 9) [Prob. Code §§ 3122(b), (c), 3123].

- Facts that may be relied on to show that the authorization sought is for one or more of the permitted purposes (Paragraph 10) [Prob. Code § 3122(d)].

See § 289.16[5] for a general discussion of content requirements.

[4] Justification and Venue

The petition must be filed in the superior court [Prob. Code § 3110(a)].

The proper county for commencement of the proceeding is the county in which a conservatorship proceeding of one of the spouses is pending. If a conservatorship proceeding is not pending, then the proper county is either the county in which one or both of the spouses resides or any other county that may be in the best interests of the spouses [Prob. Code § 3110(b)].

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 289.40[5]].

[6] Notice

At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition, the petitioner must cause a notice of the time and place of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served on any nonpetitioning spouse not alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction [Prob. Code § 3131(a)]. Service on any such spouse must be made in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. §§ 415.10 (personal service) or 415.30 (service by mail) or in such other manner as may be authorized by the court. If the person to be served is outside this state, service may also be made in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.40 [Prob. Code § 3131(b); for discussion of service, see Ch. 518, Service of Summons and Papers].

At least 15 days before the hearing on the petition, the petitioner must mail a notice of the time and place of the hearing to the adult relatives named in the petition at the addresses set forth in the petition [Prob. Code § 3131(c)].

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use with the petition in § 289.46[1]. In most counties the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Contents of Order

The court may authorize the proposed transaction if it determines all of the following:

- The subject property is community property of the spouses and, if the proposed transaction involves property in which a spouse also has a separate property interest, that there is good cause to include that separate property interest in the transaction (Finding 2) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(1)].

- One of the spouses has a guardian or conservator, as in this form, or otherwise lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction (Finding 3) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(2)].

- The other spouse either has legal capacity for the proposed transaction, as in this form, or has a guardian or conservator (Finding 4) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(3)].

- Each of the spouses either joins in or consents to the proposed transaction, or has a guardian or conservator (Findings 3, 5) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(4)].

- The proposed transaction is one that should be authorized (Finding 8) [Prob. Code §§ 3122(d), 3144(a)(5)].

If the proposed transaction is to provide gifts to likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses, the court may authorize the transaction if it would be authorized under the substituted judgment doctrine contained in Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586 (Finding 6) [Prob. Code §§ 2582, 3144(b); for discussion of doctrine, see Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment].

If the petition requests that the court make an order declaring a spouse to have legal capacity for the proposed transaction and the court determines that the spouse has capacity, the court must so order (Order 1) [Prob. Code § 3143(a)].

[4] Bond

Generally, the court requires the petitioner to give a bond, in the amount fixed by the court (Order 3) [Prob. Code § 3150(a)]. If given by an admitted surety insurer, the bond is usually in an amount not less than the value of the personal property (including cash and any notes) to be received by the petitioner, as determined by the court [Prob. Code § 3150(b)]. If the sureties on the bond are personal sureties, the bond must be approved by the court and must be for twice the amount required for a bond given by an admitted surety insurer [Prob. Code § 3150(c)].

The court for good cause shown may either dispense with the bond or, if given by an admitted surety insurer, fix the amount of the bond in a lesser amount [Prob. Code § 3150(a),(b)]. The bond may also be conditioned on the petitioner's duty to account for and apply the proceeds of the transaction to be received by the petitioner only as the court directs (Order 4) [Prob. Code § 3150(a)].

Prob. Code § 2328, regarding the exclusion of funds in a blocked account from the determination of the amount of the bond, is applicable to the bond [see Prob. Code § 3150(d)].

[Verification. See § 289.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator in obtaining an order authorizing a proposed transaction involving community property when the ward's or conservatee's spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity for the transaction [Prob. Code §§ 3101(a), 3111(a)(2); see Prob. Code § 3004 (conservator defined)]. Generally, either spouse, whether or not he or she has legal capacity, or the guardian or conservator of either spouse, may file or join in the petition [Prob. Code § 3111(a)]. However, when seeking to authorize a transaction, at least one of the petitioners must be a guardian, a conservator, or a spouse having legal capacity for the transaction [Prob. Code §§ 3004, 3111(b)].

Local court rules may affect the transaction being authorized. The attorney should determine whether or not any such rules are applicable to the transaction being contemplated.

See discussion of jurisdiction and venue requirements in Ch. 289.46[4].

[3] Contents of Petition

The first alternative case title shown in the caption should be used if the petition is filed in the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending; otherwise, the second alternative should be used.

Transactions which may be proposed include those listed in Prob. Code § 3102 and discussed in § 289.16[3]. Several proposed transactions may be included in one petition and proceeding [Prob. Code § 3120(a)]. The petition may also contain inconsistent allegations and may request relief in the alternative [Prob. Code § 3120(b)].

A petition to authorize a proposed transaction when a spouse is alleged to lack legal capacity must state the following:

- The petitioner's status as the guardian or conservator, his or her name and address, and the location and number of the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding (Paragraph 1) [Prob. Code §§ 3111, 3121(b), (c), 3122(a), (c)].

- The name, age, and residence of each spouse, and, if either one is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services, the name and address of the institution (Paragraphs 2, 3) [Prob. Code § 3121(a), (d)].

- The names and addresses of the adult relatives within the second degree of the spouse alleged to lack legal capacity, if known to petitioner (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 3121(e)].

- A sufficient description of the subject property and an allegation of its status (Paragraphs 5-6) [Prob. Code § 3121(f), (g)].

- The estimated value of the property (Paragraph 7) [Prob. Code § 3121(h)].

- The terms and conditions of the proposed transaction, including the names of all the parties to the transaction (Paragraph 8) [Prob. Code § 3121(i),(j)].

- A statement of the facts establishing the lack of legal capacity of the spouse (Paragraph 9) [Prob. Code §§ 3121(b), 3122(a)].

- An allegation that the ward's or conservatee's spouse is substantially unable to manage his or her financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence (Paragraph 9) [Prob. Code § 3122(c)].

- Facts that may be relied on to show that the authorization sought is for one or more of the permitted purposes (Paragraph 10) [Prob. Code § 3122(d)].

See § 289.16[5] for a general discussion of content requirements.

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 289.40[5]].

See discussion of notice requirements in § 289.46[6].

[2] Use of Form

The form of citation in [1], above, is for use with the petition in § 289.48 to notify the nonpetitioning spouse alleged to lack legal capacity of the hearing [Prob. Code § 3130].

[3] Issuance and Service

On the filing of the petition, the clerk must issue a citation to each nonpetitioning spouse alleged to lack capacity for the proposed transaction, setting forth the time and place of hearing. The citation and a copy of the petition must be served on the spouse at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3130(a)].

However, unless the court orders otherwise, if a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity for the proposed transaction has a guardian or conservator, no citation to the spouse need be issued, and the petitioner must cause a notice of the time and place of the hearing on the petition, accompanied by a copy of the petition, to be served on the guardian or conservator at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3130(b); see Prob. Code § 3004 (conservator includes guardian of estate of married minor); for form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

Service of the citation (or the alternative notice) must be made in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.10 (personal service) or 415.30 (service by mail) or in such other manner as may be authorized by the court. If the person to be served is outside this state, service may also be made in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.40 [Prob. Code § 3130(c); for discussion of service, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice and Ch. 518, Service of Summons and Papers].

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use with the petition in § 289.48. In most counties the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Contents of Order

The court may authorize the proposed transaction when one spouse lacks legal capacity if it determines all of the following:

- The subject property is community property of the spouses and, if the proposed transaction involves property in which a spouse also has a separate property interest, that there is good cause to include that separate property interest in the transaction (Finding 2) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(1)].

- One of the spouses lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction (Finding 4) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(2)].

- The other spouse (the petitioner in this form) has a guardian or conservator (Finding 3) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(3)].

- Each of the spouses has a guardian or conservator, or is substantially unable to manage his or her own financial resources or resist fraud or undue influence (Findings 3, 5) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(4)].

- The proposed transaction should be authorized (Finding 8) [Prob. Code § 3144(a)(5)].

If the petition alleges that a spouse having no conservator lacks legal capacity for the proposed transaction and the court determines that the spouse has capacity, the court must make an order so declaring [Prob. Code § 3143(b)].

If the proposed transaction is to provide gifts to likely beneficiaries of gifts from the spouses, the court may authorize the transaction if it would be authorized under the substituted judgment doctrine contained in Prob. Code §§ 2580-2586 (see § 289.47[1], Finding 6) [Prob. Code §§ 2582, 3144(b); for discussion of doctrine, see Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment].

[CONTINUE]

2. On _____[date], _____ [petitioner or name] was appointed _____ [guardian or conservator] of the _____ [person and estate or person or estate] of _____[name of ward or conservatee] and is now the duly appointed, qualified, and acting _____ [guardian or conservator].

3. _____[Name of ward or conservatee] and his/her spouse, _____[name], have community property consisting of the following: _____ [list community property assets, e.g., a residence located at _____ (address), the salary of _____ (name of spouse of ward or conservatee), and a savings account at _____ (name of financial institution)].

4. _____[Name of spouse of ward or conservatee] has the management or control of the spouses' community property.

5. In order to enforce the duty of support, this court should order that the _____ [income and/or principal] of the spouses' community property must be applied to the support of _____[name of ward or conservatee] because _____ [specify, e.g., _____ (name of spouse of ward or conservatee) has refused to contribute to the _____ (ward's or conservatee's) support].

[EITHER]

6. The court should order that _____[name of spouse of ward or conservatee] pay $_____ to _____ [the _____ (guardian or conservator) of _____ (name of ward or conservatee) or name of provider of necesities, care, or treatment] for _____[specify matters of support and maintenance for which payment is required].

[OR]

6. The court should order _____[name of spouse of ward or conservatee] to pay the support to _____ [the _____ (guardian or conservator) of _____ (name of ward or conservatee) or name of provider of necessities, care, or treatment] in periodic payments of $_____ per _____ [month or other period of time] [and to give reasonable security therefor].

[7. The court should order _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) to assign to _____ (name) that amount of his/her earnings equal to the required periodic payment because _____ (specify, e.g., his/her earnings are the only source of community property available for support without necessitating the sale of other community property assets and he/she has refused to contribute voluntarily any portion of his/her earnings for support).]

[8. This court should issue an order restraining _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life during the pendency of this proceeding because _____ (specify, e.g., he/she has attempted to transfer the spouses' community property to other members of his/her family as gifts).]

[9. This court should issue an order requiring _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) to notify petitioner of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all such extraordinary expenditures during the pendency of this proceeding because _____ (specify, e.g., on several occasions he/she has used large sums of community property funds for expenditures that he/she is unable to explain).]

[10. This court should order _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) to pay the amount of $_____ per _____ (month or other period of time) for the support and maintenance of _____ (name of ward or conservatee) pending the determination of this petition because _____ (specify, e.g., _____ (name of ward or conservatee) has no other source of support).]

11. A request for special notice has _____ [not been filed herein or been filed herein by _____ (name), and notice of the time and place of hearing on this petition will be given as required by law or been filed herein and waived by _____ (name)].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order and judgment as follows:

[1. Restraining _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life during the pendency of this proceeding;]

[2. Requiring _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) to notify petitioner of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all such extraordinary expenditures during the pendency of this proceeding;]

[3. Requiring _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) to pay the amount of $_____ per _____ (month or other period of time) for the support of _____ (name of ward or conservatee) pending the determination of this petition;]

4. Requiring _____[name of spouse having management or control of community property] to apply the _____ [income and principal or income or principal] of the community property to the support and maintenance of _____[name of ward or conservatee] _____ [in the amount of $_____ or in periodic payments in the amount of $_____ per _____ (month or other period of time) (and to give reasonable security therefor)]; [and]

[5. Compelling _____ (name of spouse having management or control of community property) to assign to _____ (name) that amount of his/her earnings equal to the required periodic payment; and]

6. For such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.

[Verification. See § 289.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in obtaining an order requiring the spouse of a conservatee to apply the income or principal of the spouses' community property to the support of the conservatee and an order, if desired, for the assignment of wages [see Prob. Code § 3080]. Because "conservator," "conservatorship estate," and "conservatorship proceeding" are defined to include the guardianship of a married minor, the form may also be used when one spouse is a minor for whom a guardian of the estate has been appointed [see Prob. Code §§ 3004-3008].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should be entitled: PETITION FOR ENFORCEMENT OF SUPPORT [AND ASSIGNMENT OF WAGES].

The petition should allege:

- That the petitioner has standing to file the petition as either conservator, conservatee, relative or friend of the conservatee, or interested person [see Prob. Code § 3080] (Paragraph 1).

- That one spouse has a conservator or, in the case of a married minor, a guardian of the estate, that the spouses have community property, and that the spouse who does not have a conservator or guardian has the management or control of the community property [see Prob. Code § 3080] (Paragraphs 2-4).

- An order enforcing the duty of support is necessary [see Prob. Code § 3088(a)] (Paragraph 5).

- The amount of support to be paid, including the frequency of payments if periodic support payments are sought, and since the court may order the payments to be made to the conservator of the person or to any other person, the name of the person to receive the payment should also be included [see Prob. Code § 3088(d)] (Paragraph 6).

- If periodic payments are sought, that the spouse required to make the payments should be required to give security for them [see Prob. Code § 3088(d)] (Optional Paragraph 6).

- If the court orders periodic payments for support, the necessity for a wage assignment and specifying the person to whom the wages are to be assigned [Prob. Code § 3088(e)] (Optional Paragraph 7).

- If such orders are deemed necessary, the necessity for ex parte orders to restrain the spouse who has the management or control of the community property from disposing of community property and to require notification of proposed extraordinary expenditures [see Prob. Code § 3085] (Optional Paragraphs 8, 9).

- The necessity for the payment of support during the pendency of the proceeding [see Prob. Code § 3083] (Optional Paragraph 10).

- Whether or not special notice is required, because special notice may be requested for a petition for the enforcement of support of a conservatee spouse [see Prob. Code § 2700(a)] (Paragraph 11).

[4] Jurisdiction and Venue

The petition must be filed in the court in which the conservatorship proceeding or, in the case of a married minor, the guardianship proceeding, is pending [Prob. Code § 3080].

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1450(a); see § 289.40[5]].

[6] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code § 3081(a); for a further discussion of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice]. If the spouse who has the management or control of the community property is not the conservator, the petitioner must also cause notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served on that spouse in accordance with Code Civ. Proc. §§ 410.10-418.10 [Prob. Code § 3081(b)].

[1] FORM Application for Division of Community and Quasi-Community Property

[Caption. See § 289.40[1].]

Applicant _____[name] respectfully represents:

[EITHER]

1. Applicant petitioned the court in this proceeding for an order to enforce support of the _____ [ward or conservatee] herein from community property.

[OR]

1. Applicant is a person interested in the _____ [ward or conservatee] herein.

2. Pursuant to an order of _____ [this court or specify other court entering support order] dated _____, _____[name of spouse who has management or control of community property], spouse of the _____ [ward or conservatee] herein, is required to provide for the support of _____[name of ward or conservatee] by _____ [specify, e.g., paying the amount of $_____ per month to _____ (name)]. A copy of the order is attached as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference.

3. _____[Name of spouse who has management or control of community property] has refused to comply with the order of _____[date], in that _____ [specify, e.g., he/she has not made any payments to _____ (name) for the support of _____ (name of ward or conservatee) in the past _____ months].

4. The community and quasi-community property of the spouses consist of _____[specify amount of money and type and value of real and personal property].

5. The court should divide the community and quasi-community property of the spouses in order to provide for the support of _____[name of ward or conservatee].

[6. A request for special notice has _____ (not been filed herein or been filed herein by _____ (name)) and notice of the time and place of hearing on this application _____ (will be given as required by law or has been filed herein and waived by _____ (name))].

WHEREFORE, applicant prays for an order dividing the community and quasi-community property of the spouses equally between them and for such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.
Dated: _____.

[Verification. See § 289.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in requesting the division between spouses of community and quasi-community property when the spouse who has the management or control of the community property has refused to comply with an order to provide support for the conservatee spouse [see Prob. Code § 3089; for further discussion, see § 289.17[8]]. The form should be entitled: APPLICATION FOR DIVISION OF COMMUNITY AND QUASI-COMMUNITY PROPERTY.

[3] Contents of Application

The application should allege the following:

- The capacity of the applicant as the petitioner in a proceeding for the enforcement of support of the conservatee spouse or as some other interested person [see Prob. Code § 3089] (Paragraph 1).

- Since the court may divide the community and quasi-community property if the spouse who has management or control to the community property refuses to comply with an order made under Prob. Code §§ 3080-3092 for the enforcement of support of the conservatee spouse or an order made in a separate action to provide support, that an order to provide support was made and should identify the proceeding in which it was made [see Prob. Code § 3089] (Paragraph 2).

- That the spouse having the management or control of the community property has refused to comply with the order to provide support [see Prob. Code § 3089] (Paragraph 3).

- Although not specifically required by statute, a description of the community and quasi-community property of the spouses (Paragraph 4) and that the property should be divided to provide support (Paragraph 5).

- Because special notice may be requested for a petition filed pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 3080-3092, whether or not a request of special notice has been filed or filed and waived, even though it is not technically a petition [see Prob. Code § 2700(a)] (Paragraph 6). Local practice should be consulted for the applicability of special notice to the application.

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1450(a); see § 289.40[5]].

[5] Notice

Prob. Code § 3089, which authorizes division of community property when a spouse with management or control of community property refuses to comply with an order to provide support for his or her conservatee spouse, does not expressly require notice of a request for division of community property, nor does it expressly authorize a proceeding without notice [see Prob. Code § 3089]. If counsel wishes to give notice of the application, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice , for a discussion of general notice requirements under Prob. Code § 1460 in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings and for a mandatory form of notice.

24-290 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290.11

§ 290.11 Definitions

The phrase "account in an insured savings and loan association" means a savings account or mutual capital certificate of either of the following [Prob. Code § 23(a)]:

- A federal association; or
- A savings association doing business in California that is an "insured institution" as defined in Title IV of the National Housing Act [see former 12 U.S.C. § 1724 (now see 12 U.S.C. §§ 1813-1815)].

As used in Prob. Code § 23, the following definitions apply [Prob. Code § 23(b)]:

- "Federal association" has the same meaning as defined in Fin. Code § 5102(b);
- "Mutual capital certificate" has the same meaning as defined in Fin. Code § 5111;
- "Savings account" has the same meaning as defined in Fin. Code § 5116; and
- "Savings association" has the same meaning as defined in Fin. Code § 5102(a).

"Account in an insured credit union" means a share account in a credit union, either federally chartered or state licensed, that is insured under Title II of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. § 1781 et seq.) [Prob. Code § 22].

The phrase "single-premium deferred annuity" means an annuity offered by an admitted life insurer for the payment of a one-time, lump-sum premium and for which the insurer neither assesses any initial charges or administrative fees against the premium paid nor exacts or assesses any penalty for withdrawal of any funds by the annuitant after a period of five years [Prob. Code § 1446; see Ins. Code §§ 23, 24].

Chapter 290 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: MAINTENANCE OF WARD OR CONSERVATEE
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290.12

§ 290.12 Payments for Support

[1] General Rules

Subject to the obligations of third parties to provide support [Prob. Code § 2422; see [2], below], the guardian or conservator must apply income from the estate, so far as necessary, to the comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee and of those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee. In applying the estate income, the guardian or conservator must take into account the value of the estate and the condition of life of the persons required to be furnished with support, maintenance, or education [Prob. Code § 2420(a)].

If the income from the estate is insufficient to provide comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, and education, the guardian or conservator may sell or give a security interest in or other lien on any personal property of the estate, or may sell, mortgage, or give a deed of trust on any real property of the estate [Prob. Code § 2420(b); see discussion and forms relating to sales and security interests in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment].

The guardian or conservator is not ordinarily required to obtain court authorization before making any support payments. Nevertheless, authorization must be obtained when otherwise required for a particular transaction [Prob. Code § 2420(d)]. For example, authorization is required for certain sales of estate property when the income is insufficient to provide support [see discussion in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment, § 290A.15] and when a third party is obligated to provide support [see [2], below]. Even when court authorization is not required, the guardian or conservator is not precluded from seeking court authorization, instructions, or approval and confirmation [Prob. Code § 2420(e); see §§ 290.50 (petition to support ward or conservatee), 290.51 (petition to support dependents)].

The guardian or conservator should keep proper vouchers or other proof of payments in order to be allowed credit when the accounts are settled [see Prob. Code § 2420(c); see also Ch. 290F, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Compensation of Guardian or Conservator].

[2] Third-Party Obligation

A husband and wife owe obligations of mutual support toward each other [see Civ. Code § 5100; see also Civ. Code § 242 (spousal, parental, and filial duties of support)]. While living together, each spouse must support the other spouse out of his or her separate property when there is no community or quasi-community property [Civ. Code § 5132; see Estate of Risse (1957) 156 Cal. App. 2d 412, 419-422, 319 P.2d 789 (under former Prob. Code § 1505, husband with ability to support may not resort to incompetent wife's estate)].

Every individual must also support his or her child [Civ. Code § 242; see Civ. Code §§ 196 (parental support obligation), 206 (duty to support indigent parent or child)]. However, a court may direct that an allowance be made to a parent from a child's property for the child's past or future support and education, on such conditions as may be proper, whenever it is for the child's benefit [Civ. Code § 201]. Thus, a parent unable to provide support may resort to a minor's estate [In re Carboni (1941) 46 Cal. App. 2d 605, 613, 116 P.2d 453] . A parent may also use the income from a minor's estate to supplement his or her contribution for support so that the minor enjoys a higher standard of living [Armstrong v. Armstrong (1976) 15 Cal. 3d 942, 947-949, 126 Cal. Rptr. 805, 544 P.2d 941 (parents invading testamentary trust)].

Finally, it is the duty of the father, the mother, and the child of any person in need who is unable to maintain himself or herself by work to maintain that person to the extent of their ability. The promise of an adult child to pay for necessaries previously furnished by a third person to an indigent parent is binding. A person who is receiving aid to the aged is deemed to be a person in need who is unable to maintain himself or herself by work [Civ. Code § 206].

Notwithstanding the existence of a third party legally obligated to provide support, maintenance, or education, the court may for good cause order a ward or conservatee to be supported, maintained, or educated, wholly or partially, out of the estate. The order may be obtained by petition of the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, or any other interested person. It may be made for a limited period of time, but, if not so limited, it continues in effect until modified or revoked [Prob. Code § 2422(a); see §§ 290.52 (petition to authorize support despite obligation of third party), 290.53 (order authorizing support payment despite obligation of third party)].

[3] Care Received in State or County Hospital

The duty of the guardian or conservator to apply the estate income for support includes providing for the care, treatment, and support of a ward or conservatee who is a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health [Prob. Code § 2420(a); Welf. & Inst. Code § 7279(a); see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 4025 (limits on charges for care and treatment), 7275-7277 (liability for care and determination and collection of charges), 7280-7283 (property and support of patients)] or the State Department of Developmental Services [Prob. Code § 2420(a); Welf. & Inst. Code § 7513; see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 4431 (limits on charges for care and treatment), 7513.1, 7513.2 (costs of care and treatment)], or who is a patient at a county mental hospital [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 7106].

If a ward or conservatee is committed to a state mental hospital and at any time his or her estate does not have sufficient money on hand to pay the claim of the hospital for his or her care, support, maintenance, and expenses while a patient, the court may, on petition of the guardian or conservator of the estate or, if the guardian or conservator fails, refuses, or neglects to apply, on the petition of the department with jurisdiction over the hospital, make an order directing the guardian or conservator to sell so much of the other personal or real property, or both, of the ward or conservatee as is necessary to pay for the care. From the proceeds of the sale, the guardian or conservator must pay the amount due for the care and also such other charges as are allowed by law [Welf. & Inst. Code § 7279(b)]. Payment for the care, support, maintenance, and expenses may not be extracted, however, from a person who has no more than $500 of assets [Welf. & Inst. Code 7279(c)].

[4] Enforcement of Support Obligations

If the guardian or conservator fails, neglects, or refuses to furnish comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, or education for the ward or conservatee as required, the court, on petition or on its own motion, must order the guardian or conservator to do so from the estate [Prob. Code § 2404(a)]. The petition may be filed by the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or any other interested person [Prob. Code § 2404(b); see §§ 290.54 (petition to direct guardian or conservator to furnish support), 290.55 (order directing guardian or conservator to furnish support)].

If a ward or conservatee is a patient in a state mental hospital, the guardian or conservator may be ordered by the judge of the superior court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceedings are pending, to pay, to the extent of the estate, for the ward's or conservatee's care, support, maintenance, and for necessary expenses at the hospital. The order may be obtained by petition of the department with jurisdiction over the hospital showing that the guardian or conservator has failed, refused, or neglected to pay for these costs. The order may be enforced in the same manner as are other court orders [Welf. & Inst. Code § 7279(a)].

The provisions of Welf. & Inst. Code § 7275 that hold a patient committed to a state hospital pursuant to Penal Code § 1026 (directing involuntary confinement in a treatment facility on a finding that a criminal defendant was insane at the time of committing an offense) responsible for the costs of his or her institutional care, support, and maintenance have successfully withstood attack on constitutional grounds [see Department of Developmental Services v. Ladd (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 128, 132-133, 273 Cal. Rptr. 485] . These provisions neither impermissibly tax one class of individuals with institutional costs associated with the protection of society nor violate the equal protection provisions of the federal and state constitutions [Department of Developmental Services v. Ladd (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 128, 139, 143, 273 Cal. Rptr. 485]. Although Ladd was not a guardianship or conservatorship case, its holding and rationale appear applicable to wards or conservatees in similar circumstances.

§ 290.13 Home Maintenance

The guardian or conservator may maintain in good condition and repair without court authorization the home or other dwelling of either or both of the following [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2457]:

- The ward or conservatee; or
- The persons legally entitled to the maintenance and repair of their home or other dwelling from the ward or conservatee.

This power of maintenance and repair, however, does not include the power to add improvements. The guardian or conservator, however, may petition the court for the additional power to alter, improve, and repair or to raze, replace, and rebuild property of the estate [Prob. Code §§ 2590, 2591(h)]. For discussion of additional powers, see Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers .

§ 290.14 Personal Allowance

The court may authorize the guardian or conservator to pay to the ward or conservatee out of the estate a reasonable allowance for the ward's or conservatee's personal use. The authorization may be obtained by petition of the guardian or conservator or the ward or conservatee. The allowance must be in such amount as the court may determine to be for the best interests of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2421(a); see §§ 290.56 (petition to authorize allowance), 290.57 (order authorizing allowance)].

The guardian or conservator is not required to account for the allowance other than to establish that it has been paid to the ward or conservatee. The funds so paid are subject to the sole control of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2421(c)]. However, the amount of any payments for the ward's or conservatee's debts incurred during the guardianship or conservatorship for necessaries of life may be deducted from the allowance [Prob. Code § 2430(a)(2); see also § 290.16].

Chapter 290 GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: MAINTENANCE OF WARD OR CONSERVATEE
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290.16

§ 290.16 Payment of Debts

The guardian or conservator must pay the debts incurred by the ward or conservatee before creation of the guardianship or conservatorship, from any principal and income of the estate, giving priority to wage claims to the extent required by Prob. Code § 2431, discussed in § 290.17 [Prob. Code § 2430(a)(1)].

The guardian or conservator must also pay from any principal and income of the estate the debts incurred during the guardianship or conservatorship by the ward or conservatee to provide the necessaries of life to the ward or conservatee and to the spouse and minor children of the ward or conservatee, to the extent the debts are reasonable. The conservator must also pay the debts reasonably incurred by the conservatee during the conservatorship to provide the basic living expenses, as defined in Fam. Code § 297, to the domestic partner of the conservatee. The guardian or conservator may deduct the amount of any payments for the debts from any allowance otherwise payable to the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2430(a)(2); see § 290.14].

A Domestic Partnership is formed when two persons who meet specific requirements complete and file a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the Secretary of State. In order to file a valid declaration, the two parties must meet the following requirements:

- Both must have a common residence;
- Both agree to be jointly responsible for each other's basic living expenses incurred during the domestic partnership;
- Neither is married or a part of another domestic partnership;
- Neither is related by blood in a way that would prevent them from being married in the state of California;
- Both are over 18;

- Both are either of the same sex or one or both meet the eligibility criteria under Title II of the Social Security Act for old-age insurance benefits [42 U.S.C. § 1381]. Persons of opposite sexes may not form a valid domestic partnership unless at least one is 62 years of age;

- Both are capable of consenting to a domestic partnership;

- Neither has previously filed a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the Secretary of State which has not been terminated; and

- Both must file the Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the Secretary of State [Family Code § 297].

In conservatorship proceedings, the conservator must pay from any principal and income of the estate any other debt incurred by the conservatee during the conservatorship only if the transaction resulting in the debt is one that the court would have authorized the conservatee to enter into pursuant to Prob. Code § 1873(a) [Prob. Code § 2430(a)(3); see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.18]. These payments are not required to be made to the extent that they would impair the ability to provide necessaries of life to the conservatee and his or her spouse and minor children, and to provide the basic living expenses, as defined in Fam. Code § 297, of the domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37, Family Code § 297] of the conservatee. [Prob. Code § 2430(b)].

Finally, the guardian or conservator must pay from any principal and income of the estate the reasonable expenses incurred in the collection, care, and administration of the estate. Nevertheless, court authorization is required for payments of compensation to the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both, to an attorney for the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both, to an attorney for the ward or conservatee, to an attorney for the estate, or to a public guardian for his or her costs or fees pursuant to Prob. Code § 2902 [Prob. Code § 2430(a)(4)]. For discussion and referral to forms for use in obtaining authorization, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[2].

When there is doubt as to whether any of the debts discussed above should be paid, the guardian or conservator can petition the court for instructions under Prob. Code § 2403 [Prob. Code § 2430(c)]. For discussion of petitions for instructions, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[2]. He or she should also consider the availability of procedures to submit a disputed claim to summary determination or arbitration, or to compromise a claim or to extend, renew, or modify an obligation [see Prob. Code §§ 2405 (summary determination), 2406 (arbitration), 2500 et seq. (compromise or extension); see also Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims, §§ 290C.11, 290C.12]. The possibility of obtaining the additional independent power to pay, collect, compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise to adjust claims, debts, or demands on the guardianship or conservatorship should also be considered [see Prob. Code § 2591(p), discussed in Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

§ 290.17 Wage Claims

The guardian or conservator must promptly pay wage claims for work done or services rendered for the ward or conservatee within 30 days prior to the date that the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator was filed. The payments may not exceed $900 to each claimant. If there is insufficient money to pay all the claims up to $900, the money available must be distributed among the claimants in proportion to the amount of their respective claims [Prob. Code § 2431(b)].

After payments of the 30-day claims have been made, the guardian or conservator must pay other wage claims for work done or services rendered for the ward or conservatee within 90 days prior to the date the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator was filed. The payments may not exceed $1100 to each claimant, and, if there is insufficient money to pay all the claims up to this amount, the money available must be distributed among the claimants in proportion to the amounts of their respective claims [Prob. Code § 2431(c)].

The guardian or conservator may require sworn claims to be presented. If there is reasonable cause to believe that the claim is not valid, the guardian or conservator may refuse to pay the claim in whole or in part, but must pay any part of it that is not disputed, without prejudice to the claimant's rights as to the balance of the claim. The guardian or conservator must withhold sufficient money to cover the disputed portion until the claimant has had a reasonable opportunity to establish the validity of the claim by bringing an action, either in the claimant's own name or through an assignee, against the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2431(d)].

Subject to the foregoing procedure on sworn claims, the guardian or conservator may petition the court for instructions when there is doubt as to whether a wage claim should be paid [Prob. Code § 2431(a)]. For discussion and forms, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers .

If the guardian or conservator neglects or refuses to pay all or any part of a claim that is not in dispute, the court must order payment on the informal application of any wage claimant or the assignee or representative of the claimant [Prob. Code § 2431(e)].

§ 290.18 Enforcement of Judgments

Property in a guardianship or conservatorship estate is not subject to enforcement of a money judgment by the normal procedures for enforcement of money judgments set out in Code Civ. Proc. § 695.010 et seq. Instead, the judgment creditor may apply to the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending under Prob. Code § 1400 et seq. for an order requiring payment of the judgment [Code Civ. Proc. § 709.030; see §§ 290.58 (petition to direct guardian or conservator to pay debt, expense, or charge), 290.59 (order directing payment of debt, expense, or charge)].

§ 290.19 Enforcement of Obligations

If the guardian or conservator fails, neglects, or refuses to pay a debt, expense, or charge lawfully due and payable by the ward or conservatee or by the estate, the court, on petition or on its own motion, must order the guardian or conservator to make payment from the estate [Prob. Code § 2404(a)]. Nevertheless, the court does not have the authority to adjudicate the validity of a disputed debt that has not been established to be due and payable in a prior independent action [Stevenson v. Superior Court (1970) 9 Cal. App. 3d 904, 907, 88 Cal. Rptr. 462] .

The petition may be filed by the ward or conservatee, the creditor, or any other interested person [Prob. Code § 2404(b); see §§ 290.58 (petition to direct guardian or conservator to pay debt, expense, or charge), 290.59 (order directing payment of debt, expense, or charge)].

§ 290.20 Taxes

The guardian or conservator may prepare, execute, and file tax returns for the ward or conservatee and for the estate. He or she may also exercise options and elections and claim exemptions for the ward or conservatee and for the estate under the applicable tax laws [Prob. Code § 2461(a)].

Additionally, the guardian or conservator may pay, contest, and compromise taxes, penalties, and assessments on the property of the estate and income and other taxes payable or claimed to be payable by the ward or conservatee or the estate. This power is not subject to Prob. Code § 2502, which requires court approval of compromises in excess of $25,000 [Prob. Code § 2461(b)].

The guardian or conservator can exercise these powers regarding taxes without court authorization or approval [Prob. Code § 2450(a)].

24-290 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290.21

§ 290.21 Collection of Debts and Benefits

[1] General Rules

The guardian or conservator, without court authorization, may collect debts and benefits due to the ward or conservatee and the estate [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2451]. For forms for use in collecting estate assets in probate, which are adaptable to guardianships or conservatorships, see Ch. 450, Probate: Collecting Assets . Whenever there is a question concerning the propriety of initiating a lawsuit to collect the debt, however, the guardian or conservator should obtain instructions from the court [see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[2]].

[2] Acceptance of Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure or Sale

If an obligation secured by a mortgage or deed of trust is an asset of the estate and becomes delinquent, the guardian or conservator may seek to collect the debt by foreclosing through judicial process or through a trustee's sale [see Prob. Code § 2451]. Nevertheless, if it is to the advantage of the estate to accept a deed to property that is subject to a mortgage or deed of trust in lieu of foreclosure of the mortgage or sale under the deed of trust, the guardian or conservator may accept a deed conveying the property to the ward or conservatee. The acceptance must be authorized by court order and be on such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the court [Prob. Code § 2464(a)]. To obtain the order, the guardian or conservator must file a petition showing the advantage to the estate of accepting the deed [Prob. Code § 2464(b); see §§ 290.60 (petition for authority to accept deed in lieu of foreclosure), 290.61 (order authorizing acceptance of dee in lieu of foreclosure)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290.22

§ 290.22 Deposits and Withdrawals

[1] Cash

The guardian or conservator may endorse and cash or deposit, without court authorization or approval, any checks, warrants, or drafts payable to the ward or conservatee that constitute property of the estate [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2452(a)]. Note that checks for allowances and wages are not property of the estate [Prob. Code §§ 2421 (allowances), 2601 (wages)].

If it appears likely that the estate will satisfy the conditions for dispensing with accounting for small estates under Prob. Code § 2628(b) (discussed in Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts), the court may order that the guardian or conservator be the designated payee for public assistance payments received pursuant to Welf. & Inst. Code § 11000 et seq. (aid and medical assistance) or 16000 et seq. (services for care of children) [Prob. Code § 2452(b)].

The guardian or conservator may deposit money belonging to the estate in an insured account in a financial institution in California without court authorization or approval [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2453; see Prob. Code § 46 ("insured account in financial institution" as including insured bank, credit union, and savings and loan association accounts, to extent insured)]. Unless otherwise provided by court order, money so deposited (pursuant to Prob. Code § 2453) may be withdrawn without a court order [Prob. Code § 2453; see Prob. Code §§ 22 ("account in insured credit union" defined), 23 ("account in insured savings and loan assocation" defined)].

Subject to Prob. Code § 2453.5(b), if a trust company is a guardian or conservator and, in the exercise of reasonable judgment, deposits money of the estate in an account in any department of the corporation or association of which it is a part, the trust company is chargeable with interest on the deposit at the rate of interest prevailing among banks of the locality on such deposits [Prob. Code § 2453.5(a)]. When it is to the advantage of the estate, the amount of cash that is reasonably necessary for the orderly administration of the estate may be deposited in a non-interest-bearing checking account maintained in a department of the corporation or association of which the trust company is a party [Prob. Code § 2453.5(b)].

[2] Personal Property

Court authorization or approval is not required for a guardian or conservator to deposit personal property of the estate with a trust company authorized to transact a trust business in this state as provided in Prob. Code § 2328 (procedure for deposits subject to court control) or in Fin. Code § 99 et seq. (applicability and definitions) [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2454; see Fin. Code §§ 600, 1500 et seq. (trust company authorization); see also Prob. Code § 83 ("trust company" defined)]. Unless otherwise provided by court order, the personal property may be withdrawn without order of the court [Prob. Code § 2454].

[3] Securities

A trust company serving as guardian or conservator may deposit securities that constitute all or part of the estate in a securities depository as provided in Fin. Code § 1592 [Prob. Code § 2455(a)]. If the securities have been deposited with a trust company pursuant to Prob. Code § 2328 (exclusion of funds in blocked account from determination of bond amount) or 2454 (deposit of estate personal property for safekeeping), the trust company may deposit the securities in a securities depository in the same manner [Prob. Code § 2455(b)]. The securities depository may hold securities deposited with it in the manner authorized by Fin. Code § 775 (authorizing manner of custody, name of holder, and merging of certificates) [Prob. Code § 2455(c)].

[4] Blocked Accounts

On application of the guardian or conservator, the court, with or without notice, may order that money or other personal property be deposited pursuant to Prob. Code § 2453 (deposit of estate funds in insured account in financial institution in California) or 2454 (deposit of estate personal property with trust company for safekeeping), and be subject to withdrawal only on court authorization [Prob. Code § 2456(a)]. The guardian or conservator must deliver a copy of the court order to the financial institution or trust company at the time the deposit is made [Prob. Code § 2456(b)]. No financial institution or trust company accepting a deposit pursuant to Prob. Code § 2453 or 2454 is on notice of the existence of an order that the money or other property is subject to withdrawal only on court authorization, unless it has actual notice of the order [Prob. Code § 2456(c)].

This application may be appropriate, for example, when the guardian or conservator seeks to dispose of the balance of money and other property received pursuant to a compromise or judgment for the ward or conservatee after payment of expenses [see Prob. Code § 3602(b); see also Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims, § 290C.13[3]]. The application may also be used to deposit property in a blocked account in a trust company or insured account in a financial institution in this state in order to exclude the property from the determination of the bond or to reduce the amount of the bond [see Prob. Code § 2328; Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds].

For forms for a petition and order to deposit money or personal property in blocked accounts that may be adapted for use in this context, see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds . For forms for a petition and order to withdraw assets from blocked accounts, see §§ 290.62, 290.63.

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290.23

§ 290.23 Maintenance of Insurance Policies, Plans, and Benefits

[1] Medical, Disability, and Property Insurance

The guardian or conservator may obtain, continue, renew, modify, terminate, or otherwise deal in any of the following, without court authorization or approval, for the purpose of providing protection to the ward or conservatee or to a person legally entitled to support from the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2459(a)]:

- Medical, hospital, and other health care policies, plans, or benefits.
- Disability policies, plans, or benefits.

The power to maintain policies, plans, and benefits does not limit the guardian's or conservator's power to make investments as otherwise authorized [Prob. Code § 2459(f)]. For discussion of investments, see Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment .

The guardian or conservator may also insure, without court authorization [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2460]:

- Property of the estate against loss or damage.
- The ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator, and all or any part of the estate against liability to third persons.

[2] Life Insurance, Annuities, and Other Plans Affecting Conservatee

The conservator may continue in force, without court authorization or approval, any of the following in which the conservatee, or a person legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the conservatee, has or will have an interest [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2459(b)]:

- Life insurance policies, plans, or benefits.

- Annuity policies, plans, or benefits.
- Mutual fund and other dividend reinvestment plans.
- Retirement, profit-sharing, and employee welfare plans or benefits.

The conservator's right to elect benefit or payment options, to terminate, to change beneficiaries or ownership, to assign rights, to borrow, or to receive cash value in return for a surrender of rights, or to take similar actions under any of the policies, plans, or benefits, generally may be exercised only after authorization or direction of the court [Prob. Code § 2459(c)]. However, the conservator may without court authorization borrow on the loan value of an insurance policy to pay the current premiums to keep the policy in force if the conservatee followed that prior before establishment of the conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2459(d)]. Similarly, the conservator may sell mutual funds held without designation of a beneficiary without authorization, confirmation, or direction of the court [Prob. Code § 2544.5].

[3] Minor's Contracts for Annuities and Insurance

A minor is not, by reason of minority alone, deemed incompetent to contract for and exercise contractual rights under certain annuity contracts and life and disability insurance policies. If the contract is made by a minor under 16 years of age, however, a parent or guardian must provide written consent to the contract and to the exercise of rights under it. Further, all such contracts made by a minor that may result in any personal liability for assessment must have the written assumption of any such liability by a parent or guardian in consideration of the issuance of the contract [Ins. Code § 10112]. The guardian may give the consent without authorization of the court, but he or she must obtain court authorization to be able to use estate funds to effect or maintain in force a contract entered into by the ward under Ins. Code § 10112. To obtain the order, the guardian, ward, or any other interested person must file a petition showing that it is in the best interest of the ward or of the guardianship estate to use estate funds for such an insurance policy. Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2459(e); see discussion in Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[2]].

With respect to any shares of stock of a domestic or foreign corporation held in the estate, any membership in a nonprofit corporation held by the estate, or any other property held in the estate, a guardian or conservator may do any or all of the following without court authorization [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2458; see Corp. Code §§ 702(a), 705(a) (powers to vote shares and give proxies)]:

- Vote in person, and give proxies to exercise, any voting rights with respect to the shares or memberships or property.

- Waive notice of any meeting or give consent to the holding of any meeting.

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the petitioner in the above-entitled proceeding. I have read the foregoing petition and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters which are therein represented on information and belief, and, as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____ [date]

_____ [signature]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator to obtain authorization, pursuant to Prob. Code § 2403(a), to expend a sum each month for the support, maintenance, or education of the ward or conservatee, when authorization has not been sought in the petition for appointment of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code §§ 2403, 2420(a)]. Alternatively, counsel may wish to obtain authorization in the petition for appointment since it is often advantageous to obtain the authorization at the commencement of the guardianship or conservatorship rather than to obtain approval of expenditures made in the annual accounting.

Although court authorization is not required by statute to expend funds for the support, maintenance, or education of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2420(d)], authorization may be mandated by local rule [see, e.g., Alameda Co. Unified Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 12.14.9 (court approval should be sought to spend more than $1,000 per month for conservatee's support, especially if there is a probablility that the estate will be entirely consumed by the payments)].

When local rule mandates court authorization, nothing in Prob. Code § 2420 dispenses with the need to obtain that authorization [Prob. Code § 2420(d)].

For a discussion of the payment of costs for the care, support, maintenance, and expenses of a ward or conservatee committed to a state mental hospital, see § 290.12[3].

For a form of order adaptable for use with this form, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.42.

[3] Contents of Petition

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition under Prob. Code §§ 2403 and 2420(e) should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2420(e)].
- The monthly expenses necessary for the comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, or education of the ward or conservatee (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2420(a)].
- The total value and annual income of the estate (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 2420(a)].
- That those expenditures should be authorized (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 2403, 2420(a)].
- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

Except as otherwise specifically provided, all petitions filed pursuant to the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see Prob. Code § 1430 (the term "petition" includes an application or a request in the nature of a petition)]. Verification enables a petition to be used as evidence in uncontested proceedings [Prob. Code § 1022].

The verification shown in this form complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[5] Notice

Notice must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 2403(b), 2420(e)], which generally requires that notice be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a),(b)]. Special notice must be given to those persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2701]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, authorizes the guardian or conservator to support, maintain, or educate the ward or conservatee, wholly or partially, out of the estate, notwithstanding the existence of a third party legally obligated to provide support, maintenance, or education. It is for use with the petition in § 290.52. The order should be entitled ORDER AUTHORIZING _____ [SUPPORT and/or MAINTENANCE and/or EDUCATION] DESPITE THIRD PARTY OBLIGATION. The order can be made for a limited period of time. If it is not so limited, it continues in effect until it is modified or revoked [Prob. Code § 2422(a)].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Appealability of Order

An order directing, authorizing, approving, or modifying payments for the support, maintenance, or education of a ward or conservatee is appealable [Prob. Code § 1301(c)]. For a discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 2422, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[3].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should be entitled PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO ACCEPT DEED IN LIEU OF _____ [FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE or SALE UNDER DEED OF TRUST].

The petitioner must show the advantage to the estate of accepting the deed in lieu of foreclosure or sale (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 2464(b)]. Although not expressly required by statute, the petition should also state the following:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2464(b)].

- The debt and the deed of trust or mortgage securing the debt and a legal description of the real property subject to the security device (Paragraphs 2, 3) [see Prob. Code § 2464(a)].

- The debtor's offer to deed the property to the ward or conservatee in lieu of foreclosure or sale (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 2464(a)].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 290.50[4]].

[5] Notice

Notice must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2464(b)], which generally requires that notice be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a),(b)]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

§ 290.61 Order Authorizing Acceptance of Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure of Mortgage or Sale Under Trust Deed [Prob. Code § 2464]

[1] FORM Order Authorizing Acceptance of Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure of Mortgage or Sale Under Trust Deed

[Caption. See § 290.50[1].]

The petition of _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], for an order authorizing petitioner to accept a deed conveying property to the _____ [ward or conservatee], in lieu of _____ [foreclosing on the mortgage on the property or selling the property under a deed of trust] came on regularly for hearing by the court on this date. Petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. [Specify other appearances, if any.]

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court as follows:

1. [Finding that notices have been duly given. See § 290.53, Finding 1.]

2. Among the assets of the estate is a secured indebtedness, secured by a _____ [deed of trust to or mortgage on] real property recorded in the Official Records of the County of _____, Book _____, page _____. The real property subject to the _____ [trust deed or mortgage] is described as follows: _____[give legal description]. It is advantageous to the estate for petitioner to accept a deed to that real property described as follows: _____[give legal description].

3. It is advantageous to the estate that _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate, accept a deed to the property in lieu of _____ [foreclosing the mortgage on the property or selling the property under the deed of trust], in that _____ [describe advantage, e.g., acceptance of the deed will save the expense of the foreclosure and will expedite the estate's receipt of the unencumbered property which then can be used as security for a further loan].

4. Petitioner has shown the advantage to the estate by clear and convincing evidence.

IT IS ORDERED that _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], is authorized to accept a deed of the property on the following terms and conditions: _____[Set forth conditions].

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], be authorized to do all acts and execute all documents necessary or convenient to consummate the the above-described transaction.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, authorizing the guardian or conservator to accept a deed to property in which the estate holds a security interest, in lieu of foreclosing on a mortgage on the property or selling the property under a deed of trust, is for use with the petition in § 290.60. The order should be entitled ORDER AUTHORIZING ACCEPTANCE OF DEED IN LIEU OF _____ [FORECLOSURE ON MORTGAGE or SALE UNDER TRUST DEED].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Appealability of Order

An order granting or denying a petition for authority to accept a deed to property in lieu of foreclosing on the mortgage on the property or selling the property under a deed of trust is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, such an order may be appealable as an order authorizing, instructing, or directing a fiduciary under Prob. Code § 1300(c). For a discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 2464, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[3].

[Caption. See § 290.50[1].]

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. [Allegation of petitioner's status. See § 290.50[1], Paragraph 1.]

2. Pursuant to order of this court dated _____[date], there was deposited with _____[name of depository] in account number _____ the _____ [sum of $_____ or the following personal property: _____ (describe)]. Withdrawals from this account can only be made on further order of the court.

3. It is necessary to withdraw the _____ [sum or personal property] described in Paragraph 2, above, from this account because _____ [specify reasons, e.g., the money is needed to pay for medical care for the _____ (ward or conservatee)].

[EITHER]

4. Petitioner has executed a bond for the amount of $_____, which has been given by _____ [personal sureties or an admitted surety insurer]. After withdrawal of the _____ [sum or personal property] described in Paragraph 2, above, the value of the personal property plus the value of the probable annual gross income of all of the property of the estate [plus the sum of the probable annual gross payments from any public entitlements of the _____ (ward or conservatee)] will be $_____. An additional bond is _____ [not required or required in the sum of $_____].

[OR]

4. Bond for petitioner has been _____ [waived pursuant to _____ (Probate Code Section 2321 or Probate Code Section 2324) or dispensed with pursuant to Probate Code Section 2323(a)].

[CONTINUE]

5. [Special notice allegation. See § 290.50[1], Paragraph 5.]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order that petitioner as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], be authorized to withdraw the _____ [money or personal property] described above from account number _____ in _____[name of depository], and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.
Dated: _____.

_____ [firm name, if any]

By: _____ [signature]

_____ [typed name]

Attorney for Petitioner _____ [name]

[Verification. See § 290.51[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator of the estate in obtaining authorization to withdraw estate assets deposited subject to withdrawal only on court order [see Prob. Code § 2403 (petition for authorization and instructions)]. The assets may have been deposited in a blocked account pursuant to an order determining the bond [see Prob. Code § 2328], an order determining the application of a guardian or conservator to deposit funds or personal property in a blocked account [see Prob. Code § 2456], or an order determining the disposition of property paid or delivered for the benefit of a minor or person with a disability pursuant to a compromise or judgment [see Prob. Code § 3602(b)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should be entitled PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO WITHDRAW ASSETS FROM BLOCKED ACCOUNT.

Although not expressly required by statute, a petition to authorize the withdrawal of assets from a blocked account should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code §§ 2403(a), 2456].
- The deposits previously made subject to withdrawal only on court order (Paragraph 2) [see Prob.

Code §§ 2328, 2456, 3602(b)].

- Reasons why it is necessary to withdraw the assets as an exercise of ordinary care and diligence in managing the estate (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code §§ 2401, 2403].

- The effect of withdrawing assets on the bond (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 2320, 2328].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 290.50[4]].

[5] Notice

Notice must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2403(b)], which generally requires that notice be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a),(b)]. Special notice must be given to those persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2701]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[6] Bond

If the withdrawal increases the amount of personal property held by the guardian or conservator so that the bond is insufficient, a larger bond must be procured [see Prob. Code § 2320]. For further discussion of bond requirements, see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds .

§ 290A.10 Governing Statutes

Provisions governing asset management and investment of the ward's or conservatee's estate are contained mainly in the following statutes:

- Prob. Code § 2420 et seq., governing support and maintenance of the ward or conservatee and dependents.
- Prob. Code § 850 et seq., governing conveyances or transfers of property claimed to belong to the ward or conservatee or another person.
- Prob. Code § 2540 et seq., governing sales.
- Prob. Code § 2550 et seq., governing notes, mortgages, leases, conveyances, and exchanges.
- Prob. Code § 2570 et seq., governing investments and purchases.
- Prob. Code § 2800 et seq., governing transfers of personal property out of the state.
- Prob. Code § 3800 et seq., governing removal of a nonresident's property from the state.

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290A California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290A.11

§ 290A.11 Asset Management Generally

[1] Effect of Independent Powers

The guardian or conservator may apply for a court order authorizing him or her to exercise management powers independently without notice or specific authorization or approval, as the ward or conservatee could do if possessed of legal capacity [Prob. Code § 2590; see Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers]. To the extent that the guardian or conservator has obtained this authority, he or she would not be required to use procedures discussed in this chapter for any of the following [see Prob. Code § 2591]:

- To grant and take options.
- To sell, at public or private sale, real or personal property other than the personal residence of the conservatee of the estate.
- To create, by grant or otherwise, easements and servitudes.
- To borrow money and to give security for repayment.
- To purchase real or personal property.
- To let or lease estate property for any purpose and period, including a term commencing at a future time.
- To exchange estate property.
- To sell estate property on credit (if the unpaid balance is adequately secured).
- To commence and maintain a partition action.

[2] Abandonment of Valueless Property

The guardian or conservator may dispose of or abandon valueless property without court authorization [Prob. Code §§ 2450(a), 2465].

[3] Limitations on Instrument Making Transfer to Conservator

Generally, no provision of any instrument is valid to make a donative transfer to any person who has a fiduciary relationship with the transferor, including a conservator, and who transcribes the instrument or causes it to be transcribed [Prob. Code § 21350(a)(4)].

This rule does not apply if the instrument is reviewed by an independent attorney who counsels the transferor about the nature and consequences of the intended transfer, attempts to determine if the intended consequence is the result of fraud, menace, duress, or undue influence, and signs and delivers a certificate of independent review as prescribed by statute [Prob. Code § 21351(b)]. The rule also does not apply if, after full disclosure of the relationships of the persons involved, the court approves the instrument by order under Prob. Code § 2580 et seq. [Prob. Code § 21351(c); see Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment].

For further discussion, see Ch. 444, Probate: Will Contests , and Ch. 560, Trusts: Express, Public, Charitable, and Totten Trusts .

[4] Prohibition Against Transactions Between Estate and Court Personnel

Every court official or employee who has duties or responsibilities related to the appointment of a guardian or conservator, or the processing of any document related to a guardian or conservator, and every person who is related by blood or marriage to a court official or employee who has these duties, is prohibited from purchasing, leasing, or renting any real or personal property from the estate of the ward or conservatee whom the guardian or conservator represents. "Persons related by blood or marriage" include (1) spouses or domestic partners [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], and (2) relatives within the second degree of lineal or collateral consanguinity of a person or a person's spouse [Prob. Code § 2111.5(a)]. Those persons are not prohibited, however, from purchasing real or personal property from the estate of the ward or conservatee if the purchase is made under terms and conditions of a public sale of the property [Prob. Code § 2111.5(b)].

A violation of the prohibition will result in the rescission of the purchase, lease, or rental of the property. Further, any losses incurred by the estate of the ward or conservatee because the property was sold or leased at lessthan fair market value will be deemed as charges against the guardian or conservator under the provisions of Prob. Code §§ 2401.3 and 2401.5 [Prob. Code § 2111.5(c)]. The court must also assess a civil penalty equal to three times the charges against the guardian, conservator, or other person in violation of the prohibition, and may assess punitive damages as it deems proper. If the estate does not incur losses as a result of the violation, the court instead must order the guardian, conservator, or other person in violation of the prohibition to pay a fine of up to $5,000 for each violation. These fines and penalties are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law [Prob. Code § 2111.5(c)].

§ 290A.12 Distributions of Property

[1] Distribution of Surplus Income in Conservatorships

The court may, by order, authorize or direct a conservator to pay and distribute surplus income of the estate or any part of the surplus income to the conservatee's spouse and to relatives within the second degree whom the conservatee would, in the court's judgment, have aided but for the existence of the conservatorship. Income is not considered to be surplus if it is needed for the support, maintenance, and education of the conservatee and of persons legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the conservatee. The order may be issued on the petition of the conservator, the conservatee, or the conservatee's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or relative within the second degree [Prob. Code § 2423(a); for form of petition, see § 290A.40].

An order granting or denying a petition for distribution of surplus income under Prob. Code § 2423 is appealable [Prob. Code § 1301(d)].

For a discussion of gifts to persons other than the conservatee's spouse and relatives and gifts of principal as well as income under the doctrine of substituted judgment, see Ch. 290B, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Substituted Judgment .

[2] Transfer by Conservator Under California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act

Under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act [see Prob. Code § 3900 et seq.; see generally Ch. 278, Gifts], a conservator may make an irrevocable transfer of a minor's property to another adult or to a trust company as custodian for the benefit of the minor [Prob. Code § 3906(b)]. The transfer may be made, however, only if all of the following requirements are met [Prob. Code § 3906(c)]:

- The conservator considers the transfer to be in the minor's best interests.

- The transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with provisions of the applicable will, trust agreement, or other governing instrument. For this purpose, a spendthrift provision [see Prob. Code § 15300] will not prohibit or be inconsistent with the transfer.

- The transfer is authorized by the court, if it exceeds $10,000 in value. Court authorization is not required when the transfer is to a trust company or to an individual designated as a trustee by a trust instrument that does not require a bond.

§ 290A.13 Partition Action

A guardian or conservator may bring an action for partition of any property in which the ward or conservatee has an undivided interest, if the court has first made an order authorizing him or her to do so [Prob. Code § 2463(a); see § 290A.42].

A guardian or conservator may consent and agree, without an action, to a partition of the property and to the part of the property to be set off to the estate, and may execute deeds or conveyances to the owners of the remaining interests of the parts to which they may be respectively entitled, if the court has made an order under Prob. Code § 2500 et seq. (compromise of claims) authorizing the transaction [Prob. Code § 2463(b); see generally Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims].

An order granting or denying a petition for authority to commence a partition action is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, such an order may be appealable as an order authorizing, instructing, or directing a fiduciary, under Prob. Code § 1300(c).

If the ward or conservatee, or the guardian or conservator in his or her official capacity, is made a defendant in a partition action, the guardian or conservator may defend the action without authorization of the court [Prob. Code § 2463(c)]. For a discussion of the requirements for a partition action, see Ch. 397, Partition .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290A California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290A.14

§ 290A.14 Conveyance or Transfer of Real or Personal Property Pursuant to Contract or Claim

[1] Grounds for Order

If the court is satisfied that a conveyance, transfer, or other order should be made, it may authorize and direct the guardian or conservator or other person having title to or possession of property to execute a conveyance or transfer to the person entitled to it, or may grant other appropriate relief, in any of the following circumstances [Prob. Code §§ 850(a), 856]:

- The conservatee is bound by a contract in writing to convey real property or to transfer personal property, executed by the conservateewhile competent or executed by the conservatee's predecessor in interest, and the contract is one that can be specifically enforced.

- The ward has succeeded to the interest of a person bound by a contract in writing to convey real property or to transfer personal property, and the contract is one that can be specifically enforced.

- The guardian or conservator or the minor or conservatee is in possession of, or holds title to, real or personal property, and the property or some interest in it is claimed to belong to another.

- The minor or conservatee has a claim to real or personal property, the title to or possession of which is held by another.

To obtain the order, the guardian or conservator or any claimant may file a petition requesting the conveyance or transfer [Prob. Code § 850(a); see §§ 290A.50, 290A.52]. The action may include claims, causes of action, or matters that are normally raised in a civil action to the extent the matters are related factually to the subject matter of the petition [Prob. Code § 855].

If the conservatee or minor on whose behalf the action is brought dies during the pendency of the proceeding, the personal representative of the conservatee or minor's estate, or other successor in interest, may proceed with the matter and the existing proceeding may not be dismissed by reason of the death of the conservatee or minor [Prob. Code § 858

].

The provisions of Civ. Code § 3384 et seq. governing actions for specific performance apply to proceedings on executory contracts. Thus, standards of inadequacy of legal remedies, fairness and certainty of terms, and all other equitable requirements must be satisfied [see generally Ch. 528, Specific Performance].

[2] Continuance of Hearing

Any interested person may request time for filing a response to the petition, for discovery proceedings, or for other preparation for the hearing, and the court must grant a continuance for a reasonable time for any of these purposes [Prob. Code § 852].

[3] Abatement of Proceeding

If a civil action is pending with respect to the petition's subject matter, and jurisdiction has been obtained in the court in which the civil action is pending, then on the request of any party to the civil action, the court must abate the probate proceeding until the conclusion of the civil action. The court need not abate the proceeding, however, if the court determines that the civil action was filed for the purpose of delay [Prob. Code § 854].

Even though the predecessor to Prob. Code § 854 required identity of subject matter as between the two actions, it does not require precise identities of parties and causes of action for abatement of a probate action pending resolution of a civil action concerning the same subject matter [Conservatorship of Pacheco (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 171, 176-177, 273 Cal. Rptr. 522 (requiring abatement of probate proceeding when sought by party to pending civil action concerning same subject matter as probate proceeding)].

Any person having or claiming title to or an interest in the subject property may, at or before the hearing, object to the hearing if the petition is not filed in the proper court under any provisions affecting civil actions for such relief [see generally Ch. 571, Venue]. The court may not grant the petition if the objection is established [Prob. Code § 853]. The court also may not grant the petition if it determines that the matter should be determined by a civil action [Prob. Code § 856.5].

[4] Effect of Order

The guardian or conservator or other person ordered to execute a conveyance or transfer under Prob. Code § 856 must execute the conveyance or transfer according to the terms of the order, and the court may enforce its order by process [Prob. Code §§ 857(a), 1049, 2111(b); see Code Civ. Proc. § 17(b)(6) (defining "process" in civil proceedings); see also Ch. 254, Executions and Enforcement of Judgments].

After entry of an order that the guardian or conservator or other person execute a conveyance or transfer, the person entitled under the order has the right to the possession of the property, and the right to hold the property, according to the terms of the order, as if the property had been conveyed or transferred in accordance with the terms of the order [Prob. Code § 857(b)].

A conveyance of real property must state that it is made by authority of the order and give the date of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(c)]. A conveyance or transfer of estate property carried out in accordance with the order has the same effect as if the ward or conservatee had carried it out while having legal capacity to do so [Prob. Code § 2111(d)].

An order authorizing or refusing to authorize a guardian or conservator to transfer property pursuant to a contract or claim is appealable [Prob. Code § 1300(k)].

[5] Appealability of Order

An order adjudicating or refusing to adjudicate the merits of a claim to property held or claimed by the ward or conservatee under Prob. Code § 850 et seq. is appealable [Prob. Code § 1301(f)].

24-290A California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290A.15

§ 290A.15 Sale of Real or Personal Property

[1] Purposes for Sale

A guardian or conservator may sell real or personal property of the estate in any of the following situations [Prob. Code § 2541]:

- The income of the estate is insufficient for the comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee (including care, treatment, and support of the ward or conservatee who is a patient in a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services) or of persons legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2420; see also Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee].

- The sale is necessary to pay the debts referred to in Prob. Code §§ 2430 and 2431 (debts payable from principal and income; wage claims) [see generally Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee].

- The sale is for the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the ward or conservatee, the estate, or the ward or conservatee and persons legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee.

The guardian or conservator must apply the proceeds of any sale to the purposes for which the sale was made, as far as necessary. The residue, if any, must be managed as other property of the estate [Prob. Code § 2547].

[2] When Court Authorization Is Required

[a] In General

Sales of real or personal property of the estate are subject to authorization, confirmation, or direction of the court except as otherwise provided for sales of listed securities or tangible personal property and except for the sale of a conservatee's residence, which is subject to specific authorization as set forth in Prob. Code § 2540(b) [Prob. Code § 2540].

Prob. Code § 2543, governing the conduct of a sale of estate property, does not apply to sales of securities under Prob. Code § 2544 [Prob. Code § 2544(b)].

The guardian or conservator may sell or exchange tangible personal property of the estate without authorization, confirmation, or direction of the court. This power, however, is subject to Prob. Code § 2541, discussed under [1], above [Prob. Code § 2545(a)]. Further, the aggregate of the sales or exchanges made without court authorization during any calendar year may not exceed $5,000 [Prob. Code § 2545(b)]. Finally, a sale or exchange of personal effects or of furniture or furnishings used for personal, family, or household purposes may be made without court authorization only in the following circumstances [Prob. Code § 2545(c)]:

- In the case of a guardianship, if the ward is under the age of 14 or consents to the sale or exchange.

- In the case of a conservatorship, if the conservatee either consents to the sale or exchange or does not have legal capacity to give the consent.

Failure to observe these limitations on the aggregate amount of sales or on sales of personal effects does not invalidate the title of, or impose any liability on, a third person who acts in good faith and without actual notice of the guardian's or conservator's lack of authority [Prob. Code § 2545(d)].

[b] Sale of Conservatee's Residence

Unless the conservator has been granted independent powers pursuant to Prob. Code § 2590 [see Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers], a conservator seeking authorization to sell a conservatee's present or former residence must notify the court that the residence is proposed to be sold and that the conservator has discussed the proposed sale with the conservatee. In addition, the conservator must inform the court whether the conservatee supports or opposes the proposed sale, and the conservator must describe the circumstances that necessitate the sale, including whether the conservatee has the ability to live in the residence. Furthermore, in seeking an order authorizing the sale of the conservatee's personal residence, the conservator must demonstrate to the court that the terms of the sale, including the price for which the property is to be sold and the commission to be paid from the estate, are in all respects in the best interests of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2591.5]. The court in its discretion may require the court investigator to discuss the proposed sale with the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2540(b)]. For a form for a petition for authorization for sale of the conservatee's residence, see § 290A.65.

[3] Procedure for Sale

[a] Application of Probate Procedural Rules

Generally, the following transactions and proceedings concerning a guardianship or conservatorship estate must conform, as nearly as may be, to Prob. Code § 10000 et seq. governing sales by personal representatives of property in decedents' estates (exclusive of sales under the Independent Administration of Estates Act contained in Prob. Code § 10400 et seq.) [Prob. Code § 2543(b)]:

- All proceedings concerning real property sales by guardians or conservators.

- Giving notice of sale.

- Reselling the same property.

- Return of sale and application for confirmation of the sale.
- Notice and hearing of the application.
- Making orders authorizing sales, or rejecting or confirming sales and reports of sales.
- Ordering and making conveyances of property sold.
- Allowance of commissions.

The sale of mining property is conducted under the provisions for sale of real property generally [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10300 et seq.].

Any person interested in the estate may file written objections to the confirmation of the sale of real property, may be heard at the hearing, and may produce witnesses in support of his or her objections [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10310(c)]. For a general form for an objection to a petition, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers .

For discussion and forms relating to real property sales by administrators of decedents' estates, see Ch. 455, Probate: Sale of Estate Property .

[b] Notice of Sale

Giving notice of the time and place of sale is governed by Prob. Code §§ 10250-10255 [Prob. Code § 2543(b)]. Any reference, however, to Prob. Code § 1220 concerning notice provisions applicable to personal representatives is deemed to be a reference to Prob. Code § 1460 et seq., the general notice provisions for guardianships and conservatorships [Prob. Code §§ 1469, 2543(b)]. For a form for a notice of sale, see Ch. 455, Probate: Sale of Estate Property .

[c] Conduct of Sale

If estate property is required or permitted to be sold, the guardian or conservator may use discretion on which property to sell first, sell the entire interest of the estate in the property or any lesser interest in it, and sell the property either at public auction or private sale [Prob. Code § 2543(a)].

A written offer to purchase the property may be made to the court at the hearing on the petition for confirmation of the sale. For a form for overbid at sale, see Ch. 455, Probate: Sale of Estate Property . If the new bid is at least 10 percent more than the amount stated in the report made to the court, the court in its discretion may accept the new bid and confirm the sale to the offeror, or may order a new sale, if all of the following conditions are satisfied [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10262(a)]:

- The original bid as stated in the report to the court is more than $100 or, if the original bid is less than $100, the new bid is at least $100 more than the original bid.
- The new bid is made by a responsible person.
- The new bid complies with all provisions of law.

If, however, there is more than one offer that satisfies the above requirements, the court must either accept the highest offer and confirm the sale to the offeror or order a new sale [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10262(b)]. These requirements do not apply to a sale of property described in Prob. Code § 10259 (perishable or depreciable personal property, personal propertywhose sale is necessary for payment of a family allowance, or personal property sold at public auction) [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10262(c)].

[d] Sale of Securities and Like Property

Except as specifically limited by order of the court, and subject to Prob. Code § 2541 [see [1], above], the guardian or conservator may sell the following securities without authorization, confirmation, or direction of the court [Prob. Code § 2544(a)]:

- Securities that are sold on an established stock or bond exchange.

- Any security designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system or subsystem by the National Association of Securities Dealers (Nasdaq) sold through a broker-dealer registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 during the regular course of business of the broker-dealer.

- Securities that are directly redeemed by the issuer.

Prob. Code § 2543, governing the conduct of sale of estate property, does not apply to a sale of securities that meets any of these conditions [Prob. Code § 2544(b)].

If the court authorizes a sale of securities, the order must fix the terms and conditions of sale [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10200(c); see § 290A.63]. No notice of a sale of securities need be given if the securities are to be sold on an established stock exchange or through Nasdaq, or if a minimum selling price is fixed by the court [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10200(e)].

Other special exemptions from notice may be applicable to dispositions of savings accounts, mutual capital certificates of savings or federal association, credit union share accounts and certificates, and subscription rights to purchase additional securities [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10201(b), (c), 10202].

[e] Sale of Tangible Personal Property

Generally, sales of personal property of the estate are subject to authorization, confirmation, or direction of the court [Prob. Code § 2540]. However, sales of tangible personal property not exceeding $5,000 a year may be made without court authorization [Prob. Code § 2545].

[f] Terms of Sale

All sales must be for cash or for a combination of cash and deferred payments. The terms of the sale are subject to court approval [Prob. Code § 2542(a)].

If real property is sold partly for deferred payments, the guardian or the conservator must take the note of the purchaser for the unpaid portion of the purchase money, with a mortgage or deed of trust on the propertyto secure payment of the note. The mortgage or deed of trust is subject only to encumbrances existing at the date of sale and such other encumbrances as the court may approve [Prob. Code § 2542(b)].

If real property sold partly for deferred payments consists of an undivided interest, a joint tenancy interest, or any other interest less than the entire ownership, and the owners of the remaining interests in the property join in the sale, the note and deed of trust or mortgage may be made to the ward or conservatee and the other owners [Prob. Code § 2542(c)].

[4] Confirmation Order for Real Property Sale

[a] Effect of Order

An order authorizing or directing the conveyance of real property must be carried out in accordance with the order's terms. Only then will the transaction have the same effect as if the ward or conservatee had carried it out while having capacity to do so [see Prob. Code § 2111(b), (d)].

A conveyance of real property executed by a guardian or conservator must set forth in the instrument that it is made by authority of the order authorizing or directing the transaction and must give the date of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

[b] Additional Bond

On confirmation of the sale of any real property of an estate, the guardian or conservator must furnish such additional bond as is required by the court in order to make the sum of the bonds equal to the amount determined pursuant to Prob. Code § 2320, taking into account the proceeds of the sale [Prob. Code § 2330]. If a bond or additional bond is required, the order confirming the sale of real property is not effective and may not be filed by the court until the additional bond is filed [Prob. Code § 2330]. For further discussion, see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds .

[5] Appealability of Order

An order directing, authorizing, or approving (or refusing to direct, authorize, or approve) the sale of property is appealable [Prob. Code § 1300(a)].

[6] Action for Recovery of Property Sold

No action for the recovery of any property sold by a guardian or conservator may be maintained by the ward or conservatee or by any person claiming under the ward or conservatee unless the action is commenced within either (whichever is later) three years after the termination of the guardianship of conservatorship or three years after the removal of any legal disability to sue by reason of minority or otherwise that exists at the time the cause of action accrues [Prob. Code § 2548].

For discussion of actions against guardians and conservators, see Ch. 290D, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions Against Guardian or Conservator .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290A California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290A.16

§ 290A.16 Encumbrances and Exchanges

[1] Borrowing Money and Giving Security

[a] Grounds for Order

The court may authorize a guardian or conservator to borrow money on a note, either unsecured or to be secured by a security interest or other lien on the personal property of the estate or any part of the personal property or to be secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on the real property of the estate or any part of the real property [Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2551(a)]. To obtain authority to borrow money or to give security, the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, or any other interested person must file a petition with the court [Prob. Code § 2551(b); see § 290A.80].

An application to authorize the guardian or conservator to borrow money and give security may be made when any of the following conditions exists [Prob. Code § 2551(a); see Prob. Code § 2541; see also § 290A.15]:

- The estate income is insufficient for the support of the ward or conservatee or his or her legal dependents.

- The personal property of the estate and the income from the real property of the estate is insufficient to pay debts.

- It is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee, the estate, and any legal dependents.

The court may require additional proof of the fairness and feasibility of the transaction [Prob. Code § 2551(c)].

An application to authorize a security interest or other lien on personal property or a mortgage or deed of trust on real property is also available for the following purposes [Prob. Code §§ 2551(a), 2552(a)]:

- To pay, reduce, extend, or renew a security interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust already existing on property of the estate.

- To improve, use, operate, or preserve the property proposed to be mortgaged or subjected to a deed of trust, or some part of that property.

If estate property consists of an undivided interest in real or personal property, or any other interest in it less than the entire ownership, then on a showing that it would be to the advantage of the estate to borrow money to improve, use, operate, or preserve the property jointly with the owners of the other interests in it, or to pay, reduce, extend, or renew asecurity interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust already existing on all of the property, the guardian or conservator may be authorized to join with the other owners in borrowing money and executing a joint and several note and any security interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust that may be required to secure the payment of the note. The note may be for whatever sum is required for the purpose [Prob. Code § 2552(b)].

[b] Effect of Order

The note or notes and the mortgage or deed of trust, if any, must be signed by the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2551(d)]. The borrowed money must be applied to the purposes specified in the order authorizing the loan [Prob. Code § 2551(a)].

The court's jurisdiction conclusively inures to the benefit of the owner of the security interest or lien, mortgagee named in the mortgage, or trustee and beneficiary named in the deed of trust, and their heirs and assigns. No omission, error, or irregularity in the proceedings impairs or invalidates the proceedings or the note, security interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust given pursuant to the order [Prob. Code § 2552(e)].

Whenever the court authorizes the creation of a mortgage, deed of trust, security interest, or other lien, the transaction must be carried out by the guardian or conservator in accordance with the terms of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(b)]. The creation of a security interest in personal property of the estate by a guardian or conservator in compliance with a court order has the same effect as if created by the ward or conservatee while having legal capacity to do so [Prob. Code § 2111(d)].

On authorization to borrow money secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property of the estate, the guardian or conservator must furnish such additional bond as is required by the court to make the sum of the bonds equal to the amount determined pursuant to Prob. Code § 2320, taking into account the proceeds of the mortgage or deed of trust [Prob. Code § 2330]. If a bond or additional bond is required, the order authorizing the borrowing of money secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on estate real property is not effective and may not be filed by the court until the additional bond is filed [Prob. Code § 2330]. For further discussion, see Ch. 283, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Bonds .

[c] No Deficiency Judgment

On any foreclosure or sale under a security interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust, if the proceeds of the sale of the encumbered property are insufficient to pay the note, the security interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust, and costs or expenses of sale, then no judgment or claim for any deficiency can be had or allowed against the ward or conservatee or the estate [Prob. Code § 2551(f)].

[d] Appealability of Order

An appeal make be taken from an order directing or authorizing (or refusing to direct or authorize) the guardian or conservator to encumber property [Prob. Code § 1300(a)].

[2] Lease of Real Property

[a] In General

A guardian or conservator may grant a lease on estate real property without authorization of the court when the rent does not exceed $1,500 a month and the term does not exceed two years or, regardless of the amount of the rent, when the lease is from month to month [Prob. Code § 2555]. Otherwise, leases of estate property can be executed by the guardian or conservator only after authorization by court order [Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2553(a)].

To obtain an order authorizing a lease under Prob. Code § 2553, the guardian or conservator or any interested person may file a petition with the court [Prob. Code § 2553(b); see § 290A.82]. At the hearing, the court must entertain and consider any other offer made in good faith at the hearing to lease the same property on more favorable terms [Prob. Code § 2553(c)].

A lease of real property executed by a guardian or conservator must set forth in the instrument that it is made by authority of the order authorizing the transaction and must give the date of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(c)]. For the purpose of Prob. Code § 2550 et seq., if a lease gives the lessee the right to extend the term of the lease, the length of the term must be considered as though the right to extend had been exercised [Prob. Code § 2552.5].

[b] Joint Ownership

If the lease covers additional property owned by other persons or an undivided or other interest of the ward or conservatee less than the entire ownership in the property, the lease may provide for division of rent and royalties in the proportion that the land or interest of each owner bears to the total area of the land or total interests covered by the lease [Prob. Code § 2554(c)].

[c] Effect of Lease

Whenever the court authorizes a lease of real property, the transaction must be carried out by the guardian or conservator of the estate in accordance with the terms of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(b)]. Such a lease carried out by a guardian or conservator in accordance with the order has the same effect as if the ward or conservatee had carried out the transaction while having legal capacity to do so [Prob. Code § 2111(d)].

[d] Appealability of Order

An appeal may be taken from an order directing or authorizing (or refusing to direct or authorize) the guardian or conservator to lease property [Prob. Code § 1300(a)].

[3] Dedication or Conveyance of Real Property

If it is for the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the estate and those interested in the estate, the guardian or conservator, after authorization by court order, may do any of the following, either with or without consideration [Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2556(a)]:

- Dedicate or convey real property of the estate for any purpose to the State of California, any public entity in California, the United States, or any agency or instrumentality of the United States.

- Dedicate or convey an easement over any real property of the estate to any person for any purpose.

- Convey, release, or relinquish to the State of California or to any public entity in California any access rights to any street, highway, or freeway from any real property of the estate.

- Consent as a lienholder to a dedication, conveyance, release, or relinquishment, as described above, by the owner of property subject to the lien.

To obtain the order, the guardian or conservator or any other interested person may file a petition with the court [Prob. Code § 2556(b); see § 290A.84].

Whenever the court authorizes a conveyance of real property, the transaction must be carried out by the guardian or conservator in accordance with the order's terms [Prob. Code § 2111(b)]. If it is, the transaction has the same effect as if the ward or conservatee had carried out the transaction while having legal capacity to do so [Prob. Code § 2111(d)]. A conveyance of real property executed by a guardian or conservator must set forth in the instrument that it is made by authority of the order authorizing the transaction and must give the date of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

An appeal may be taken from an order directing or authorizing (or refusing to direct or authorize) the guardian or conservator to sell, convey, or exchange property [Prob. Code § 1300(a)].

[4] Exchange of Real or Personal Property

Whenever it is for the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the ward or conservatee and those legally entitled to support, maintenance, or education from the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator, after authorization by order of the court, may exchange any property of the estate for other property on whatever terms and conditions are prescribed by the court. To obtain the order, the guardian or conservator or any interested person may file a petition with the court [Prob. Code § 2557(a); see § 290A.86]. The terms and conditions prescribed by the court may include the payment or receipt of part cash by the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2557(a)].

The guardian or conservator may exchange tangible personal property of the estate without court authorization, subject to an annual $5,000 maximum value and other limitations [Prob. Code § 2545].

After authorization by order of the court, the guardian or conservator may effect a conveyance or transfer to the person with whom the exchange is made [Prob. Code § 2557(e)]. No omission, error, or irregularity in the proceedings impairs or invalidates the proceedings or the exchange made pursuant to the order [Prob. Code § 2557(f)].

An appeal make be taken from an order directing or authorizing (or refusing to direct or authorize) the guardian or conservator to exchange property [Prob. Code § 1300(a)].

Chapter 290A GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: ASSET MANAGEMENT AND INVESTMENT
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290A California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290A.17

§ 290A.17 Investments and Purchases

[1] Proceeds of Sale and Other Money

The guardian or conservator, after authorization by order of the court, may invest the proceeds of sales and any other money of the estate as provided in the order [Prob. Code § 2570(a)]. To obtain an order of the court authorizing an investment, the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, or any other interested person may file a petition with the court [Prob. Code § 2570(b); see §§ 290A.100, 290A.103].

The court may require such proof of the fairness and feasibility of the transaction as the court determines is necessary [Prob. Code § 2570(d)]. If the required showing is made, the court may make an order authorizing the transaction and may prescribe in the order the terms and conditions on which the transaction must be made [Prob. Code § 2570(e)].

An order granting or denying a petition for authority to invest funds in specified real or personal property is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, such an order may be appealable as an order authorizing, instructing, or directing a fiduciary under Prob. Code § 1300(c).

For discussion of the guardian's or conservator's role in managing money that the ward or conservatee receives as the result of a judgment or court-approved settlement [see Prob. Code § 3600 et seq.], see Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims .

Except as otherwise provided by statute, a guardian or conservator may lend money of the estate only after authorization by order of the court [Prob.Code § 2550]. No statute specifically governs obtaining such an order. Since a loan would be an investment, the guardian or conservator, or an interested person, may adapt the prescribed procedure for obtaining authorization to invest in state and local bonds [see [4], below].

[2] Home for Ward, Conservatee, or Dependents

When authorized by court order, a guardian or conservator may purchase real property in California as a home for the ward or conservatee if the purchase is for the advantage, benefit, and best interest of the ward or conservatee [Prob.

Code § 2571(a)]. The guardian or conservator may also purchase real property as a home for persons legally entitled to support and maintenance from the ward or conservatee if the purchase is for the advantage, benefit, and best interest of the ward or conservatee and of those persons [Prob. Code § 2571(b)]. For a form of petition for authority to invest in real property, see § 290A.103.

[3] Joint Purchase of Real Property

An order authorizing the guardian or conservator to purchase real property may authorize the guardian or conservator to join with the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], of the conservatee or with any other person or persons in the purchase of the real property, or an interest, equity, or estate in the property, in severalty, in common, in community, or in joint tenancy, for cash or on credit or for part cash and part credit [Prob. Code § 2572]. For a form of petition for authority to invest in real property, see § 290A.103.

[4] State and Local Bonds

When authorized by court order, the guardian or conservator may invest in bonds issued by any state or by any city, county, city and county, political subdivision, public corporation, district, or special district of any state. In the order, the court may further authorize the guardian or conservator to select from among bonds issued by any such issuer, without specifying any particular issuer or issue of bonds, if the type of issuer is designated in general terms and the order specifies a minimum bond-quality rating as shown in a recognized investment service, a minimum interest coupon rate, a minimum yield to maturity, and the date of maturity within a five-year range [Prob. Code § 2573]. For a form of petition, see §§ 290A.100 and 290A.101.

[5] Securities

The guardian or conservator, without authorization of the court, may invest funds of the estate in any of the following [Prob. Code § 2574(a)]:

- Direct obligations of the United States or of the State of California maturing not later than five years from the date of making the investment.

- U.S. Treasury bonds redeemable at par value on the death of the holder for payment of federal estate taxes, regardless of maturity date.

- Securities listed on an established stock or bond exchange in the United States that are purchased on that exchange.

- Eligible securities for the investment of surplus state money as provided in Gov. Code § 16430.

- An interest in a money market mutual fund registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 [see 15 U.S.C. § 80a-1 et seq.] or an investment vehicle authorized for the collective investment of trust funds pursuant to 12 C.F.R. § 9.18 (describing collective investment funds in which a national bank may invest assets that it holds as fiduciary), the portfolios of which are limited to U.S. government obligations maturing not later than five years from the date of investment and to repurchase agreements fully collateralized by U.S. government obligations.

- Units of a common trust fund described in Fin. Code § 1564, provided that the common trust fund has the objective of investing in primarily short term fixed income obligations and is permitted to value investments at cost pursuant to regulations of the appropriate regulatory authority.

In making and retaining investments made under Prob. Code § 2574, the guardian or conservator must take into consideration the circumstances of the estate, indicated cash needs, and, if reasonably ascertainable, the date of the prospective termination of the guardianship or conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2574(b)]. Nothing in Prob. Code § 2574 limits the authority of the guardian or conservator to seek court authorization for any investment or to make other investments with court authorization, as provided in the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law [Prob. Code § 2574(c)]. Investments by guardians and conservators, as such, are not governed by the Uniform Prudent Investor Act [see Prob. Code § 16045 et seq.].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290A California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290A.18

§ 290A.18 Transfer of Assets Out of State

[1] When California Proceeding Is Pending

[a] Procedure to Obtain Order

The court in which a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending may order the transfer of some or all of the personal property of the estate to a foreign guardian or conservator in another jurisdiction where the ward or conservatee resides at the time the petition for the orderis filed [Prob. Code § 2801]. Before ordering the transfer, the court must determine each of the following [Prob. Code § 2806]:

- The transfer will promote the best interests of the ward or conservatee and the estate.

- The substantial rights of creditors or claimants in California will not be materially impaired by the transfer.

- The foreign guardian or conservator is qualified, willing, and able to administer the assets to be transferred.

The term "foreign guardian or conservator" means a guardian, conservator, committee, or comparable fiduciary in the other jurisdiction [Prob. Code § 2800]. The foreign guardian or conservator may, but need not be, the person appointed as guardian or conservator in California [Prob. Code § 2803(a)(1)].

To obtain an order authorizing a transfer, the guardian or conservator of the estate, the ward or conservatee, or the foreign guardian or conservator may file a petition [Prob. Code § 2802; see § 290A.110].

[b] Objections to Petition

Any of the following may appear and file written objections to the petition [Prob. Code § 2805]:

- Any person required to be listed in the petition, which includes the foreign or California guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297], of the conservatee, and relatives within the second degree [see Prob. Code § 2803(a), (b)].

- Any creditor of the ward or conservatee or of the estate.
- The spouse or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee.
- Any other interested person.

Grounds for objection are not expressly specified by statute; however, lack of evidentiary support for one or more of the findings that the court is required to make to grant the petition [see Prob. Code § 2806; see also [a], above] may be a ground for objection.

[c] Effect of Order

An order authorizing or refusing to authorize a guardian or conservator to transfer property belonging to a ward or conservatee to a fiduciary in another jurisdiction is appealable [Prob. Code § 1300(c), (h)].

If the court's order provides for the transfer of all of the property of the estate to the foreign guardian or conservator, the court, on settlement of the final account, must order the guardianship or conservatorship of the estate terminated on the filing with the court clerk of a receipt for the property executed by the foreign guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2808(a)]. For discussion of final accounts, see Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts .

Unless notice is waived, a copy of the final account of the guardian or conservator and of the petition for discharge, together with a notice of the hearing on it, must be mailed at least 30 days before the date set for hearing to all persons required to be listed in the petition for transfer [see § 290A.110], including the foreign guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2808(b)].

[2] When No California Proceeding Is Pending

If a nonresident individual has a duly appointed, qualified, and acting guardian, conservator, committee, or comparable fiduciary in his or her place of residence, and no proceeding for guardianship or conservatorship of the individual is pending or contemplated in California, then the non-California fiduciary may petition to have California property owned by the individual removed to the place of residence [Prob. Code § 3800(a); see § 290A.112].

The court must grant the petition if required certificates are filed and the court determines that the removal will not conflict with any restriction or limitation on the property or impair the right of the individual to the property or the rights of creditors or claimants in California, unless good cause to the contrary is shown [Prob. Code §§ 3802, 3803].

The order provides the fiduciary with authority to sue for and receive the property in his or her own name for the use and benefit of the nonresident [Prob. Code § 3803(b)]. Additionally, the order is a discharge of the person in whose possession the property may be at the time the order is made and of the person obligated to pay a debt, to perform an obligation, or to issue a security to the nonresident or the estate of the nonresident, on filing with the clerk of the court that heard the petition the receipt of the nonresident fiduciary for the property and transmitting a duplicate receipt, or a certified copy of the receipt, to the court, if any, from which the nonresident fiduciary received his or her appointment [Prob. Code § 3803(c)].

An order authorizing or refusing to authorize a guardian or conservator to transfer property of a ward or conservatee to another jurisdiction is appealable [Prob. Code § 1300(c), (h)].

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use in obtaining court authorization to distribute surplus income of a conservatorship estate to the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297] or to a relative within the second degree of the conservatee. The petition can be filed by the conservator, the conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner of the conservatee, or a relative within the second degree of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2423(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

A petition under Prob. Code § 2423 should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2423(a)].

- The value and annual income of the estate, the annual expenses of the conservatee and his or her legal dependents, and the surplus income to the estate per year (Paragraphs 2-4) [see Prob. Code § 2423(a), (b)(1)].

- The proposed recipient and his or her relationship to the conservatee, the circumstances and condition of life to which the conservatee and recipient have been accustomed, and the amount that the conservatee would have allowed but for the conservatorship (Paragraphs 5, 6) [see Prob. Code § 2423(a), (b)(2), (3)].

- Any desired conditions on the proposed distribution that the conservatee would have imposed if he or she had the capacity to act (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code § 2423(a)].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 8) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Notice must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2423(c)]. Generally notice must be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Special notice must be given to persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

§ 290A.41 Order Authorizing Distribution of Surplus Income in Conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2423]

[1] FORM Order Authorizing Distribution of Surplus Income in Conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2423]

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,

	)	NO. _____
Conservatorship of the [Person and] Estate of	)	ORDER

The petition of _____[name], as _____ [conservator or conservatee or spouse of the conservatee or specify relationship within second degree to conservatee] in the above-entitled proceeding, for an order _____ [authorizing or directing] the conservator to distribute surplus income of the estate to _____[name of spouse of conservatee or relative within second degree of conservatee] came on regularly for hearing by the court on this date. The petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearances, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. The annual income of the estate is as follows: _____[specify].

3. The annual expenses for _____ [support and/or maintenance and/or education] of the conservatee

[and persons legally entitled to _____ (support and/or maintenance and/or education) from the conservatee], including taxes and costs of management and administration of the estate, are as follows: _____[specify].

4. There is surplus income to the estate in the amount of $_____ per year, not used or required for the comfortable and proper _____ [support and/or maintenance and/or education] of the conservatee or his/her legal dependents.

5. The conservatee, but for the existence of the conservatorship, would have allowed _____[name] the amount of $_____ per _____[specify], considering his/her and the conservatee's circumstances and condition of life to which they have been accustomed.

6. If the conservatee had the capacity to act, he/she would impose the following conditions on the payment: _____ [specify, e.g., that the distribution described above constitutes an advancement against any inheritance that _____ (name) might receive on the conservatee's death].

IT IS ORDERED:

1. _____[name], as conservator of the estate of _____[name], conservatee, distribute to _____[name], from the income of the estate, the sum of $_____, to be paid on the first day of each month and continuing until further order of the court.

2. _____ [Specify any conditions, e.g., The distribution of income described above shall constitute an advancement against any inheritance that _____ (name) might receive on the conservatee's death].
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.40] to authorize or direct the conservator to distribute surplus income of the estate to the conservatee's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or relatives within the second degree whom the conservatee, in the court's judgment, would have aided but for the existence of the conservatorship [Prob. Code § 2423(a)]. In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Conditions and Considerations

The court may impose conditions that it determines the conservatee would impose if the conservatee had the capacity to act [Prob. Code § 2423(a)].

The granting of the petition and the amounts and proportions of the payments are discretionary with the court, but the court must consider all of the following [Prob. Code § 2423(b)]:

- The amount of surplus income available after adequate provision has been made for the comfortable and suitable support, maintenance, and education of the conservatee and of his or her dependents.

- The circumstances and condition of life to which the conservatee and the conservatee's spouse and relatives within the second degree have been accustomed.

- The amount that the conservatee would, in the court's judgment, have allowed the spouse and relatives but for the existence of the conservatorship.

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed, qualified, and acting _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee].

2. The inventory and appraisal filed _____[date] shows that one of the assets of the estate is an undivided _____ [specify, e.g., half] interest in real property in _____ County, California, the legal description of which is as follows: _____[set forth legal description].

3. The property should be partitioned because _____ [describe reasons for partition, e.g., the _____ (ward's or conservatee's) interest in the property could be sold to provide funds for his/her support and maintenance].

4. Petitioner has attempted but failed to reach an agreement with the co-owners of the property to partition the property.

Therefore, it is necessary to commence an action to partition the property.

5. A request for special notice has _____ [not been filed or been filed by _____ (name) or been filed and waived by _____ (name)].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order authorizing petitioner to commence a partition action and for such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.

ORDER

On _____[date], petitioner _____[name], the _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee] appeared ex parte and presented his/her petition foran order authorizing him/her to commence an action against _____[names] for partition of specified estate property.

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the Court:

1. A request for special notice has _____ [not been filed or been filed by _____ (name) or been filed and waived by _____ (name)].

2. One of the assets of the estate is an undivided _____ [specify, e.g., half] interest in real property in _____ County, California, the legal description of which is as follows: _____[specify].

3. Petitioner has attempted but failed to reach an agreement with the co-owners of the property to partition the property.

4. Commencement of a partition action as requested in the petition is proper.

IT IS ORDERED that petitioner may commence an action for partition of the property.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The petition and ex parte order in [1], above, are for use by the guardian or conservator in obtaining court authorization to commence and prosecute an action for partition of real or personal property, or both, of which the ward or conservatee is a co-owner [Prob. Code § 2463(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

A petition under Prob. Code § 2463(a) should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2463(a)].

- A description of the property and why the property should be partitioned (Paragraphs 2-4) [see Prob. Code §§ 2401(a), 2463(a)].

- Whether special notice has been requested and waived (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Prob. Code § 2463(a) authorizes the court to make the order ex parte. Local court rules should be consulted to determine whether notice is required in a particular county. Special notice may be required to be given to any person who has filed a request under Prob. Code § 2700; if it is required, the order must include a finding that it has been regularly given or waived [Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701]. _____ [typed name]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator or a claimant in obtaining an order authorizing and directing the guardian or conservator to execute a conveyance of real property or transfer of personal property pursuant to a written, specifically enforceable contract executed by the conservatee while competent or by the minor's predecessor in interest [Prob. Code §§ 850(a)(1), (2), 856].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must set forth the facts on which the claim is based [Prob. Code § 850(b)]. Because the contract must be one that can be specifically enforced [Prob. Code § 850(a)(1), (2)], the petition must allege a cause of action for specific performance (Paragraphs 3-6) [see Civ. Code § 3384 et seq.; see also Ch. 528, Specific Performance]. The petition should contain the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 850(a)].

- Whether the contract was recorded (Paragraph 4) [see Civ. Code §§ 18, 19 (actual or constructive notice)].

- Whether additional bond will be required on execution of the conveyance or transfer (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 2320, 2334].

- Whether special notice has been requested and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 8) [see Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700 et seq.].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 851(b)]. Generally notice by mail must be given to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Special notice must be given to any person who has filed a request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2701]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

At least 30 days before the date set for hearing, the petitioner must also cause notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served, in accordance with Code Civ. Proc. § 413.10 et seq. (service of summons in civil actions), on the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, and each person claiming an interest in, or having title to or possession of, the property [Prob. Code § 851(a)].

The court may not shorten the time for giving the notice of hearing [Prob. Code § 851(c)].

[5] Lis Pendens

In any proceeding under the Probate Code that affects the title to or the right of possession of real property, notice of the pendency of the proceeding may be filed, in accordance with Code Civ. Proc. §§ 405-405.61 [Prob. Code § 1004]. For discussion and forms, see Ch. 348, Lis Pendens .

	)	NO. _____
_____ [Guardianship or	)	ORDER
Conservatorship of the [Person and] Estate of	)
_____ [name],
_____ [Ward or Conservatee].

The petition of _____[name], as _____ [the guardian of or the conservator of or a claimant of property in] the above-entitled estate, for an order authorizing a _____ [conveyance or transfer] of specified estate property pursuant to a contract, came on regularly for hearing by the court on this date. The petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearances, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. The assets of the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] estate include the following _____ [real or personal] property: _____[describe sufficiently to distinguish property from all other property of estate, and for real property, set forth legal description].

3. Venue in this court would be proper for the trial of a civil action seeking the same relief as is sought in the petition in this matter.

4. _____ [Finding concerning status of pending civil action, e.g., No civil action was pending with respect to the subject matter of the petition in this matter before the date the petition was filed].

5. This matter should not be determined by a civil action.

[EITHER]

6. Before the conservatee was adjudged incompetent on _____[date], he/she executed and delivered, on or about _____[date], a contract in writing by which he/she agreed to sell to _____[name of purchaser or petitioner], and _____[name of purchaser or petitioner] agreed to purchase, the _____ [real or personal] property described above.

[OR]

6. On _____[date], the _____ [ward or conservatee] succeeded to the interest of _____[name], who had agreed to sell to _____[name of purchaser or petitioner], and _____[name of purchaser or petitioner] had agreed to buy, the _____ [real or personal] property described above.

[EITHER, if contract is for sale of real property or interest in real property or goods to be severed from real property]

7. The contract _____ [was recorded on _____ (date) in the official records of the County of _____, Book _____, page _____ or has not been recorded].

[OR, if contract is for sale of unique personal property]

7. The property is unique. If the contract were not performed, _____[name of purchaser or petitioner] would have no plain, speedy, or adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law, and damages could not be properly ascertained and would be inadequate to compensate _____[name of purchaser or petitioner] for the detriment suffered by him/her.

[CONTINUE]

8. _____[Name of purchaser or Petitioner] has duly performed all the conditions, covenants, duties, and obligations of the contract on his/her part to be performed[, except for _____ (specify uncompleted performance), which he/she is now, ready, willing, and able to do]. _____[Name of purchaser or Petitioner] has duly demanded performance from _____ [petitioner or the guardian or the conservator].

9. An additional bond is [not] required.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The _____ [guardian or conservator] immediately _____ [convey title or transfer title or deliver possession or convey title and deliver possession or transfer title and deliver possession] of the above property to _____ [petitioner or _____ (name), the purchaser named in the contract of sale].

2. The _____ [guardian or conservator] execute all documents that may be necessary to accomplish this _____ [conveyance or transfer].

[3. _____ (Specify any acts required of claimant to perform fully under contract or to complete transaction).]

[4. _____ (Petitioner or The guardian or The conservator) give an additional bond in the amount of $_____.]
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.50] to authorize the guardian or conservator to convey or transfer property in the estate to a claimant whose right to the property has been established and to deliver the property to the claimant [see Prob. Code §§ 850(a)(1)(A), (B), 856]. If the court is satisfied that a conveyance, transfer, or other order should be made, the court must make an order authorizing and directing the guardian or conservator or other person having title to or possession of the property to execute a conveyance or to transfer to the person entitled to the property or granting other appropriate relief [Prob. Code § 856].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Recordation of Order

A certified copy of an order authorizing the conveyance of real property must be recorded in the county recorder's office in each county in which any portion of the real property is located [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustrative, filled-in copy of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-060, for use in reporting and petitioning for confirmation of the sale of real property of the estate [Prob. Code §§ 2540, 2543(b), 10308]. The sale must be reported to and confirmed by the court before title to the property can pass [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10308].

Use of the Judicial Council form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

If a conservator is seeking to sell the conservatee's present or former residence, there are different requirements for authorization [see Prob. Code § 2540(b)]. For a form of petition to request authorization to sell the conservatee's residence, see § 290A.65.

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must contain the following:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2541].
- The legal description of the property (Paragraph 2).

- The appraisal or reappraisal value (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), c, 10309 (bid at private sale must be at least 90 percent of appraised value)].

- The manner and terms of sale (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code §§ 2542, 2543, 10305, 10306 (terms; manner; public auction; private sale); see also Prob. Code §§ 10302, 10304].

- Whether a commission contract was entered into with a broker (Paragraphs 1c and 5b) [see Prob. Code §§ 10150, 10161(a), 10164(c)].

- Whether an additional bond is required and whether the sale proceeds will be placed in a blocked account (Paragraphs 1d and 6c) [see Prob. Code §§ 2320, 2328, 2330].

- The manner of giving notice of sale (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 10300, 10301, 10304, 10305, 10312 (published notice of sale; posted notice of sale; contents of notice of sale; sale at public auction; proof of notice of sale)].

- The manner of giving notice of hearing, including special notice (Paragraph 8) [see Prob. Code §§ 1460 et seq., 2543(b), (d), 2700 et seq., 10308(c)].

- The purpose of the sale (Paragraph 9) [see Prob. Code § 2541].

- The required amount for an overbid (Paragraph 10) [see Prob. Code §§ 10161-10162, 10166, 10311, 10313 (agent or broker compensa tion in overbid situations; bid condition requiring payment of percentage of bid to agent or broker; overbid made at confirmation hearing; confirmation of sale to overbidder)].

- Marketing efforts (Paragraph 11) [see Prob. Code §§ 10310(b), 10313 (court inquiry into marketing efforts; court findings on confirmation)].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Time of Filing

The report and a petition for the confirmation of the sale must be made within 30 days after the sale. If the guardian or the conservator fails to file the report and a petition for confirmation of the sale within 30 days after the sale, the purchaser at the sale may file the report and petition for confirmation [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10308(b)].

[5] Notice

Any references to Prob. Code § 1220 (mailed notice of hearing by personal representatives) in the statutory provisions governing sales of property that are incorporated into the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law are deemed to be references to Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1469, 2543(b)]. Thus, the petitioner must provide mailed or personally delivered notice of hearing for the period and in the manner required by Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. Additionally, the clerk of the court must post notice of the time and place of hearing at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 10308(c) (notice requirements on petition to confirm sale of real property); see Prob. Code § 2543(c) (posted notice of hearing on confirmation petition); see also Prob. Code §§ 1220, 1230, 1460(c) (mailed notice of hearing; posted notice of hearing)]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator to obtain confirmation of a private or public sale of personal property [Prob. Code §§ 2540, 2543(b), 10250, 10251, 10253-10255, 10259, 10260]. Personal property that may be the subject of this petition includes tangible personal property sold during any calendar year that is valued in excess of $5,000 [see Prob. Code § 2545]; any other personal property, excluding securities [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 2544, 10200(a); see also § 290A.63 (petition to authorize securities sale)]; and perishable or depreciable personal property [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10252(c), 10259; see also § 290A.64 (petition to approve sale of perishable or depreciable personal property)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2543].

- The date of sale, a description of the property sold, and the notice and terms of sale (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code §§ 2542, 2543, 10250 et seq.].

- The purpose of the sale (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 2541; see also § 290A.15].

- The property's appraised value (Paragraph 4), which may be required by a local rule [see, e.g., Los Angeles Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.96].

- Conformance with required sale procedures (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10250-10255, 10259 (notice of sale; passage of title without court confirmation)].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700 et seq.].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Time of Filing

A verified report of sale and petition for confirmation of the sale must be made within 30 days after the sale. If the guardian or conservator fails to file the report and a petition for confirmation of the sale within 30 days after the sale, then the purchaser at the sale may file the report and petition for confirmation of the sale [see Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10260(b)].

[5] Notice

Notice of hearing must be given for the period and in the manner required by Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1469, 2543(b)]. The clerk of the court must cause notice to be posted pursuant to Prob. Code § 2543(b) only if posting of notice of hearing is required on a petition for the confirmation of a sale of real or personal property of the estate, or if posting of notice of a sale governed by Prob. Code § 10250 (sales of personal property of decedents' estates) is required or authorized, or in any case in which posting of notice is ordered by the court [Prob. Code § 2543(c)]. For further discussion and a form for this notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

Once authorization is obtained, the securities may be sold or may be surrendered for redemption or conversion, and title to them can pass without the necessity for confirmation [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10200(b)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must contain the following information:

- Petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code §§ 2541, 10200].
- The necessity for the sale (Paragraphs 2c and 2d) [see Prob. Code § 2541; see also § 290A.15.

- Whether special notice is required or has been waived (Paragraph 2e) [see Prob. Code §§ 1469, 2543, 2700, 2702].

- A description of the securities, recent bids and asking prices, and the minimum selling price (see "List of Securities" on the reverse side of form), which may be required by a local rule [see, e.g., Los Angeles Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.103(b) (recent bids and asking prices required only for unlisted securities)].

[4] Notice

The court may order that notice of the hearing be dispensed with [Prob. Code §§ 2543(b), 10200(d)]. If notice is not dispensed with, it must be given for the period and in the manner required by Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. or for a shorter period as ordered by the court [Prob. Code §§ 1469, 2543(b), 10200(d)]. Additionally, the clerk must post a notice of the time and place of hearing on a petition to sell stocks or bonds, at least 15 days before the date set for hearing, giving the name of the estate, the name of the petitioner and the nature of the application, referring to the petition for further particulars, and stating the time at which the application will be heard [see Prob. Code §§ 1230, 1460(c), 2543(d), 10200(d)]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Prob. Code §§ 10252, 10259, governing the sale of perishable and depreciable personal property, do not require notice of the sale or a noticed hearing on a petition to approve the sale, although notice of sale is permitted at the discretion of the personal guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 10252]. Local court rules may require that all applications for ex parte orders must contain an allegation that no special notice has been requested or that any such notice has been waived [see, e.g., Los Angeles Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.38(a)].

The court clerk must post a notice of hearing when ordered by the court [Prob. Code § 2543(d)(3)].

Conservatee.	)	PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO SELL RESIDENCE

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed, qualified, and acting conservator of the [person and] estate of _____[name], conservatee.

2. Petitioner proposes that the conservatee's _____ [present or former] residence at _____[street address], _____[city], the legal description of which is attached as Exhibit A, be sold for the following reasons: _____[set forth reasons].

3. The conservatee _____ [has or does not have] the ability to live in the residence. Other alternatives are not available because _____ [state why other alternatives, including but not limited to in-home care services, are not available].

4. Petitioner has discussed the proposed sale of the conservatee's residence with the conservatee. The conservatee _____ [supports or opposes] the proposed sale.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order authorizing petitioner to sell the residence of the conservatee, and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 290A.62.]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by a conservator in obtaining authorization to sell the present or former residence of the conservatee if the conservator has not been granted independent power to sell real property pursuant to Prob. Code § 2590 [see Prob. Code § 2540(b)]. A court hearing the petition, in its discretion, may require the court investigator to discuss the proposed sale with the conservatee [see Prob. Code § 2540(b)].

Prob. Code § 2540(b) requires the conservator to "notify" the court of specified facts, but does not prescribe a means of notification [see Prob.Code § 2540(b)]. Apparently, the required notification may be made by petition.

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must state the following [Prob. Code § 2540(b)]:

- That the conservator proposes to sell the conservatee's residence (Paragraph 2).
- The circumstances that necessitate the proposed sale, including whether the conservatee has the ability to live in the residence and why other alternatives, including, but not limited to, in-home care services, are not available. (Paragraphs 2 and 3).
- That the conservator has discussed the proposed sale with the conservatee (Paragraph 4).
- Whether the conservatee opposes or supports the proposed sale (Paragraph 4).

Local rules should be consulted for additional content requirements.

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Prob. Code § 2540(b) does not contain a notice requirement for seeking court authorization to sell the conservatee's residence. Therefore, petitioner could apparently proceed ex parte. Nevertheless, because of the seriousness of this type of sale, it is recommended that the petitioner proceed on notice, to give all interested persons a chance to object. Notice of the hearing on the petition may be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. Generally notice should be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. In any event, special notice must still be given to persons who have filed a written request for notice under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700]. For further discussion and a form for this notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator in obtaining authorization to borrow money on a note or notes secured by a security interest or other lien on all or part of the estate's personal property or by a mortgage or deed of trust on all or part of the estate's real property [Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2551(a), (b); see § 290A.16]. The form may be adapted for use in obtaining authorization for an unsecured loan [Prob. Code § 2551(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must state the following:

- A general description of the property proposed to be mortgaged or subjected to a deed of trust or other lien, including any co-owners or existing security interests (Paragraphs 2-4) [Prob. Code §§ 2551(b), 2552(b)].

- The purpose for which the order is sought and the advantage to accrue from the order (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code §§ 2541, 2551(a), (b), 2552].

- The amount of money proposed to be borrowed, the rate of interest to be paid, and the length of time the note is to run (Paragraph 6) [Prob. Code § 2551(b)].

The petition should include the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2551(b)].

- A description of the note and security instrument proposed, which are attached (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code § 2551(a)].

- Whether additional bond is required (Paragraph 8) [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.010; Prob. Code §§ 2320, 2330, 2334].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 9) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700 et seq.].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2551(b)]. Generally notice by mail must be given to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Special notice must also be given to any person who has filed a request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2702]. 5. _____ [Petitioner has or Petitioner and _____ (name of co-owner) have] arranged to borrow the sum of $_____ from _____[name of lender], with interest at the rate of _____ percent per annum, interest and principal payable over a period of _____[specify period].

6. _____ [Petitioner has or Petitioner and _____ (name of co-owner) have] further arranged to make a note to evidence the indebtedness and to execute a _____ [security agreement on the personal property or mortgage on the real property or deed of trust on the real property] to secure the note.

7. The purpose of the proposed loan is _____ [specify purpose authorized by Prob. Code § 2541 or 2552, e.g., to increase estate income to continue the _____ (ward's or conservatee's) education and care and to perform needed care and maintenance on the property or to improve the property or to pay off a deed of trust on the property].

8. The proposed loan and encumbrance are to the advantage of the estate in that _____ [describe advantage, e.g., borrowing the money is preferable to selling the property because the property is appreciating in value, the loan can be repaid from rental income, and the need for additional funds is temporary].

9. An additional bond is [not] required.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate, [along with _____ (name of co-owner),] borrow the sum of $_____ from _____ [name of lender], with interest at the _____[maximum] rate of _____ percent per annum, the interest and principal to be payable over a period of _____ [specify period].

2. _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the estate, [along with _____ (name of co-owner),] evidence and secure the loan by executing a note and _____ [security agreement or mortgage or deed of trust].

[3. Petitioner give an additional bond in the amount of $_____.]
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.80] to authorize the guardian or conservator to borrow money on the security of estate property and to execute an instrument encumbering the property for that purpose [Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2551].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

If the required showing is made, the court may make an order authorizing the transaction. The court in its order may do any of the following [Prob. Code § 2551(c)]:

- Order that the amount specified in the petition, or a lesser amount, be borrowed.
- Prescribe the maximum rate of interest and the period of the loan.
- Require that the interest and the whole or any part of the principal be paid from time to time out of the estate or any part of it.
- Require that the personal property used as security, or any buildings on real property to be mortgaged or subjected to the deed of trust, be insured for the further security of the lender, and that the premiums be paid out of the estate.
- Specify the purpose for which the money to be borrowed is to be applied.
- Prescribe such other terms and conditions concerning the transaction as the court determines to be to the advantage of the estate.

[3] Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction of the court to administer the estate of the ward or conservatee is effectual to vest the court with jurisdiction to make the order for the note or notes and for the security interest, lien, mortgage, or deed of trust [Prob. Code § 2551(e)].

[4] Recordation of Order

A certified copy of the order must be recorded in the office of the county recorder in each county in which any portion of the real property is located [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

_____ [Guardianship or Conservatorship of the [Person and] Estate of _____ [name], _____ [Ward or Conservatee].	)))))	NO. _____ [Hearing set for _____ (date), at _____ (time), in Dept. No. _____] PETITION FOR AUTHORITY TO EXECUTE LEASE

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. [Status of petitioner. See § 290A.80, Paragraph 1.]

2. The inventory and appraisal filed on _____[date] shows that the _____ [ward or conservatee] has real property in _____[city or county], the description of which is as follows: _____[general description].

3. It is to the advantage of the _____ [ward or conservatee] and his/her estate to lease the property in that _____ [specify reasons, e.g., the lease will provide income from the property sufficient to support the _____ (ward or conservatee)].

4. Petitioner proposes to lease the property to _____[name] for a term of _____[specify term], commencing _____[date] and ending _____[ date], at a rent of $_____ per _____ [specify, e.g., month], payable in advance on _____ [specify, e.g., the first of each month] and under the further terms and conditions set forth in the proposed lease, which is attached as Exhibit A.

[5. If proposed term of lease is longer than 10 years, add: A lease for a term of _____ years is necessary and advantageous to the estate because _____ (state additional facts showing need for longer term and its advantage to estate).]

6. [Bond allegation. See § 290A.80, Paragraph 8.]

7. [Special-notice allegation. See § 290A.80, Paragraph 9.]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order authorizing petitioner to execute a lease of the property in accordance with the terms and conditions of the proposed lease, and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 290A.80.]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator in obtaining authorization to lease real property of the estate [Prob. Code § 2553]. Since Prob. Code § 2553 is not limited to leases of real property, the form may be adapted for use to lease personal property of the estate.

Real property may be leased without court authorization when the rent does not exceed $5,000 per month and the term does not exceed two years or, regardless of the amount of the rent, when the lease is from month to month [Prob. Code § 2555].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must state the following:

- A general description of the property proposed to be leased (Paragraph 2) [Prob. Code § 2553(b)].
- The advantage to the estate to accrue from giving the lease (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code § 2553(b)].
- The term, rent, and general conditions of the proposed lease (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 2553(b)].
- If the lease is proposed to be for a term longer than 10 years, additional facts showing the need for the longer lease and its advantage to the estate (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 2553(b)].

The petition should include the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2553(b)].
- Whether additional bond will be required on execution of the lease (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code §§ 2321, 2323, 2324].
- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2553(b)]. Generally notice by mail must be given to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Special notice must also be given to any person who has filed a request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700(a)]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. The _____ [ward or conservatee] has real property in _____[city or county], California, the description of which is as follows: _____[general description].

3. Petitioner proposes to lease the property to _____[name] for a term of _____[specify term], commencing _____[date] and ending _____[date], at a rent of $_____ per _____ [specify, e.g., month], payable in advance on _____ [specify, e.g., the first of each month] and under the further terms and conditions set forth in the proposed lease.

[3. The rental income received under the lease be divided between the _____ [guardian or conservator] and _____ (name of other person holding interest in property) in the following proportions: _____ percent to the _____ [guardian or conservator] and _____ percent to _____ (name).]

[4. Petitioner give an additional bond in the amount of $_____.]
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.82] to authorize the guardian or conservator to execute a lease of real property of the estate [see Prob. Code §§ 2550, 2553].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

If the court is satisfied that it will be to the advantage of the estate, it must make an order authorizing the guardian or conservator to make the lease to the person and on the terms stated in the order. The court cannot authorize a lease to any person other than the lessee named in the petition unless an offer made at the hearing on the petition for authorization is acceptable to the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2553(c)].

[3] Subject-Matter Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction of the court to administer the estate of the ward or conservatee is effectual to vest the court with jurisdiction to make the order for the lease. The jurisdiction conclusively inures to the benefit of the lessee and the lessee's heirs and assignees. An omission, error, or irregularity in the proceedings will not impair or invalidate the proceedings or the lease made pursuant to an order made under this article of the Probate Code [Prob. Code § 2553(d)].

[4] Terms of Lease

An order authorizing the execution of a lease must set forth the minimum rent or royalty or both and the period of the lease, which must be for such time as the court may authorize [Prob. Code § 2554(a)]. The order may also authorize other terms and conditions [Prob. Code § 2554(b)].

An order authorizing the execution of a lease for the purpose of exploration for or production or removal of minerals, oil, gas, other hydrocarbon substances, or geothermal energy may authorize a provision for any of the following [Prob. Code § 2554(b)]:

- The payment of rent and royalties to a depositary.
- The appointment of a common agent to represent the interests of all lessors.
- The payment of a compensatory royalty in lieu of rent and in lieu of drilling and producing operations on the land covered by the lease.
- Empowering the lessee to enter into any agreement authorized by Pub. Res. Code § 3301 (agreements for cooperative development) with respect to the land covered by the lease.
- A community oil lease or pooling or unitization by the lessee.

The lease may also be for a fixed period and any of the following [Prob. Code § 2554(d)]:

- As long as minerals, oil, gas, other hydrocarbon substances, or geothermal energy are produced in paying quantities from the property leased, or mining or drilling operations are conducted on the property.
- If the lease provides for the payment of a compensatory royalty: as long as the compensatory royalty is paid.
- If the land covered by the lease is included in an agreement for cooperative development authorized by Pub. Res. Code § 3301: as long as oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances are produced in paying quantities from any of the lands included in any such agreement, or as long as drilling operations are conducted on the lands.

[5] Recordation of Order

A certified copy of an order authorizing the lease of real property must be recorded in the office of the county recorder in each county in which any portion of the property is located [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.86] to authorize the guardian or conservator to exchange real or personal property of the estate for other real or personal property [Prob. Code § 2557]. The court may prescribe any terms and conditions of the exchange it deems proper in the order, including the payment or receipt of part cash by the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2557(a)].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Recordation of Order

A certified copy of an order authorizing the conveyance of real property must be recorded in the county recorder's office in each county in which any portion of the real property is located [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by the guardian or conservator in obtaining authority to invest estate funds pursuant to Prob. Code § 2570 in personal property. Although court authorization is not required for investments in certain U.S.

government obligations and Treasury bonds, and in listed stocks, bonds, certain securities, interests in money market mutual funds, and units of a common trust fund, this form may be adapted for use by the guardian or conservator in making these investments if he or she desires authorization before acting [see Prob. Code § 2574(c)].

[3] Contents of Petition

A petition under Prob. Code § 2570 should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2570(b)].
- The amount of estate funds available for investment (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2570(a)].
- The personal property and the amount proposed to be invested (Paragraph 3).
- Why the petitioner believes it to be prudent to make the investments (Paragraph 4).
- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

If the court does not order that notice of the hearing be dispensed with, it must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2570(c)], which generally requires that notice be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a), (b)]. Special notice must be given to those persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700(a)]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use in obtaining an order authorizing the transfer of some or all of the personal property of the guardianship or conservatorship estate to a foreign guardian or conservator in another state or country where the ward or conservatee resides at the time the petition to transfer is filed [Prob. Code § 2801]. The phrase "foreign guardian or conservator" means a guardian, conservator, committee, or comparable fiduciary in another jurisdiction [Prob. Code § 2800].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must state all the following:

- The name and address of the foreign guardian or conservator (who may be, but need not be, the guardian or conservator appointed in California), the ward or conservatee, and the California guardian or conservator (Paragraph 3) [Prob. Code § 2803(a)].

- The names, ages, and addresses, as far as they are known to the petitioner, of the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], of the conservatee and the relatives of the ward or conservatee and of the relatives of the ward or conservatee within the second degree (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 2803(b).

- A brief description of the character, condition, value, and location of the personal property sought to be transferred (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 2803(c)].

- Whether the foreign guardian or conservator has agreed to accept the transfer of the personal property; if he or she has agreed, the acceptance must be attached as an exhibit to the petition or otherwise filed with the court (Paragraph 6) [Prob. Code § 2803(d)].

- The manner in which the foreign guardian or conservator was appointed, who appointed him or her, and a general statement of his or her qualifications (Paragraph 7) [Prob. Code § 2803(e), (f)].

- The general nature and value of the ward's or conservatee's assets already under the foreign guardian's or conservator's management or control (Paragraph 8) [Prob. Code § 2803(h)].

- The amount of bond, if any, of the foreign guardian or conservator (Paragraph 9) [Prob. Code § 2803(g)].

- The name of the court having jurisdiction of the foreign guardian or conservator or of his or her accounts or, if none, the court in which a proceeding may be had with respect to the guardianship or conservatorship if the personal property is transferred (Paragraph 10) [Prob. Code § 2803(i)].

- Whether any civil action is pending in California against the guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, or the estate (Paragraph 11) [Prob. Code § 2803(j)].

- The reasons for the transfer (Paragraph 14) [Prob. Code § 2803(k)].

The petition should include the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2802].

- A general description of the petition's purpose (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 2801].

- A general description of creditors and claimants of the estate (Paragraph 12) [see Prob. Code § 2806(b)].

- Whether any estate property will remain in California after the transfer (Paragraph 13) [see Prob. Code § 2808].

- Whether special notice has been requested (Paragraph 15).

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

At least 30 days before the hearing, the petitioner must mail a notice of the time and place of the hearing and a copy of the petition to each person required to be listed in the petition at the address stated in the petition [Prob. Code § 2804]. These persons include the foreign and California guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, and the the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], of the conservatee and the relatives of the ward or conservatee within the second degree [Prob. Code § 2803(a), (b)]. Special notice must be given to persons who have filed a written request under Prob. Code § 2700 et seq. [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700 et seq.]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[1] FORM Order Authorizing Transfer of Personal Property Out of State When California Proceeding Is Pending [Prob. Code § 2806]

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

_____ [Guardianship or Conservatorship of the [Person and] Estate of _____ [name], _____ [Ward or Conservatee].	))))	NO. _____ ORDER

The petition of _____[name], the _____ [guardian or conservator] of the above-entitled estate, for an order authorizing the transfer of personal property of the estate to _____[name of foreign guardian or conservator] as foreign _____ [guardian or conservator] in _____ [name of foreign jurisdiction or _____ County, State of _____], came on regularly for hearing by the court on this date. The petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearances, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. The property proposed to be transferred to the foreign _____ [guardian or conservator] is as follows: _____[specify character, condition, value, and location of property].

3. The proposed transfer of property will promote the best interests of the _____ [ward or conservatee] and the estate.

4. _____[Name of foreign guardian or conservator], as proposed transferee of the property, is qualified, willing, and able to administer the property.

5. The proposed transfer of property will not materially impair any substantial rights of California creditors of the _____ (ward or conservatee and/or estate) or claimants to the property.

IT IS ORDERED that _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator], transfer the above-described personal property to _____[name], as foreign _____ [guardian or conservator].
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.110] for authorization for the guardian or conservator to transfer some or all of the personal property of the ward or conservatee to a guardian or conservator in another state or country [see Prob. Code § 2806].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Required Findings

The court may grant the petition and order the transfer if it determines all of the following [Prob. Code § 2806]:

- The transfer will promote the best interests of the ward or conservatee and the estate.

- The substantial rights of creditors or claimants in California will not be materially impaired by the transfer.

- The foreign guardian or conservator is qualified, willing, and able to administer the assets to be transferred.

If a transfer is ordered, the court may direct the manner of transfer and impose such terms and conditions as may be just [Prob. Code § 2807].

[CONTINUE]

[8. Exhibit B is a final statement that accompanies the certificate described above and certifies the genuineness of the signature and official position of the _____ (court clerk making the original certificate or foreign official who has certified the signature and position of the _____ [court clerk or specify other appropriate foreign official involved in chain of certifications]).]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order granting him/her permission to remove the property of the _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation] described above and situated in California, to the place of residence of the _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation], and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 290A.110.]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by a duly appointed, qualified, and acting nonresident guardian, conservator, committee, or comparable fiduciary, in obtaining court authorization to remove property owned by a nonresident to the owner's place of residence [Prob. Code § 3800(a)].

[3] Jurisdiction and Venue

The petition must be filed in the superior court in the county in which the nonresident is or has been temporarily present or in which his or her property, or the principal part of it, is located [Prob. Code § 3800(b)].

[4] Contents of Petition

A petition under Prob. Code § 3800 should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 3800(a)].
- The residence of the fiduciary and owner (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 3800(a)].
- The county where the owner has been temporarily present or in which all or the principal part of his or her property is located (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 3800(b)].
- A general description of the property, including its approximate value if available or required or suggested by the court or local rules (Paragraph 4).
- That the removal will not conflict with restrictions on the property or impair the rights of the nonresident or of creditors in California (Paragraphs 5 and 6) [see Prob. Code §§ 3800(a), 3803(a)].
- That a certificate showing the petitioner's right to possess or have custody of the estate is attached, along with a final statement of certification if the owner's place of residence is in a foreign country (Paragraphs 7 and 8) [see Prob. Code § 3802].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[5] Accompanying Certificates

The nonresident fiduciary must produce and file a certificate that the fiduciary is entitled, by the laws of the place of appointment of the fiduciary, to the possession of the estate of the nonresident. The certificate must be under the hand of the clerk and the seal of the court from which the appointment of the fiduciary was derived and must show a transcript of the record of appointment and that the fiduciary has entered on the discharge of his or her duties [Prob. Code § 3802(a)].

Alternatively, the nonresident fiduciary may produce and file a certificate that the fiduciary is entitled, by the laws of the place of residence, to custody of the estate of the nonresident without the appointment of any court. The certificate must be under the hand of the clerk and the seal of either the highest court in the place of residence or the court in the place of residence having jurisdiction of estates of persons that have a guardian, conservator, committee, or comparable fiduciary [Prob. Code § 3802(a)].

If the place of residence is in a foreign country, the certificate must be accompanied by a final statement certifying the genuineness of the signature and official position of either the court clerk making the original certificate or any foreign official who has certified either the genuineness of the signature and official position of the court clerk making the original certificate, or the genuineness of the signature and official position of another foreign official who has executed a similar certificate in a chain of such certificates (beginning with a certificate of the genuineness of the signature and official position of the clerk making the original certificate). The final statement may be made only by a secretary of an embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or by a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States [Prob. Code § 3802(b)].

[6] Notice

The petition must be made on 15 days' notice, by mail or personal delivery, to the guardian or conservator or other person in whose possession the property may be and all persons in California, known to the petitioner, who are obligated to pay a debt, to perform an obligation, or to issue a security to the nonresident or his or her estate [Prob. Code § 3801(a)]. The court may order additional notice [Prob. Code § 3801(b)].

The petition of _____[name], as the nonresident _____ [guardian or conservator or committee or specify other fiduciary capacity] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], a nonresident _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation], for permission to remove property of the _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation] to the place of his/her residence, came on regularly for hearing by the court on this date. The petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearances, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. Petitioner is the duly appointed, qualified, and acting _____ [guardian or conservator or committee or specify other fiduciary capacity] in _____[name of state or foreign country] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], a nonresident _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation].

3. Petitioner has filed the certificate required by law to establish his/her fiduciary position and the fact that he/she is entitled to the _____ [possession or custody] of the estate. [He/She has also filed the final statement required by law that certifies the genuineness of the signature and official position of the original certifying officer.]

4. Petitioner resides at _____[address], _____[city], _____[state or foreign country], and the _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation] resides at _____[address], _____[city], _____[state or foreign country].

[EITHER]

5. The _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation] _____ [has been temporarily present in this county and/or owns property situated in this county, as described below].

6. The removal of the property described below from California to the owner's place of residence will not conflict with any restriction or limitation on the property or impair the right of the nonresident owner to the property or the rights of creditors or claimants in California.

7. No proceeding for guardianship or conservatorship of the nonresident property owner is pending in California.

IT IS ORDERED that _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator or specify other fiduciary capacity] in _____[name of state or foreign country] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], a _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation] residing in _____[name of state or foreign nation], may remove from California to the place of residence of the _____ [ward or conservatee or specify other designation] the following property: _____[give location and description].
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290A.112] for authorization to remove property of a nonresident who has a guardian, conservator, committee, or other comparable fiduciary in the nonresident's place of residence [see Prob. Code § 3803].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Required Findings

If the court determines that removal of the property will not conflict with any restriction or limitation on the property or impair the right of the nonresident to the property or the rights of creditors or claimants in California, the court must make an order granting to the nonresident fiduciary leave to remove the property of the nonresident to the place of residence unless good cause to the contrary is shown [Prob. Code § 3803(a)].

Chapter 290B GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: SUBSTITUTED JUDGMENT
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290B California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290B.11

§ 290B.11 Grounds for Substituted Judgment

A court is authorized to substitute its judgment for that of the conservatee under Prob. Code § 2580 et seq. [Conservatorship of McElroy (2002) 104 Cal. App. 4th 536, 552, 128 Cal. Rptr. 2d 485] . Accordingly, the court has the power and authority to determine whether to authorize transfers of the conservatee's property for the purpose of avoiding unnecessary estate or inheritance taxes or expenses of administration, and to authorize this action when it appears from all of the circumstances that the conservatee, if competent, as a reasonably prudent person, would so plan his or her estate, there being no substantial evidence of a contrary intent [Conservatorship of McElroy (2002) 104 Cal. App. 4th 536, 552, 128 Cal. Rptr. 2d 485] . The court need not find that the conservatee would have acted as proposed. Instead, an objective, prudent person standard applies, which contemplates substitution of the court's judgment for that of the conservatee [Conservatorship of McDowell (2004) 125 Cal. App. 4th 659, 665, 23 Cal. Rptr. 3d 10 ; Conservatorship of McElroy (2002) 104 Cal. App. 4th 536, 552, 128 Cal. Rptr. 2d 485] . The court may make an order authorizing or requiring the conservator to take the proposed action [see [2], below] for any one or more of the following purposes [Prob. Code § 2580(a)]:

- To benefit the conservatee or the estate.

- To minimize current or prospective taxes or expenses of administration of the conservatorship estate or of the estate on the death of the conservatee.

- To provide gifts for any purposes, and to any charities, relatives (including the conservatee's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297]), friends, or other objects of bounty, that would be likely beneficiaries of gifts from the conservatee.

The conservator or any other interested person may file a petition to obtain the order [Prob. Code § 2580(a); see § 290B.40]. The statutory provisions governing substituted judgment do not, however, impose any duty on the conservator to propose any action, and the conservator is not liable for failure to propose any action under these provisions [Prob. Code § 2585].

§ 290B.12 Proposed Actions

In the petition the conservator may propose any action; in particular, the conservator may propose to do any of the following [Prob. Code § 2580(b)]:

- Make gifts of principal or income, or both, of the estate, outright or in trust.
- Convey or release the conservatee's contingent and expectant interests in property, including marital property rights and any right of survivorship incident to joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety.
- Exercise or release the conservatee's powers as a donee of a power of appointment.
- Enter into contracts.
- Create, for the benefit of the conservatee or others, revocable or irrevocable trusts of the property of the estate, which trusts may extend beyond the conservatee's disability or life.
- Transfer to a trust created by the conservator or conservatee any property unintentionally omitted from the trust.
- Exercise the conservatee's options to purchase or exchange securities or other property.
- Exercise the conservatee's rights to elect benefit or payment options under:
    - Life insurance policies, plans, or benefits.
    - Annuity policies, plans, or benefits.
    - Mutual fund and other dividend investment plans.

- Retirement, profit sharing, and employee welfare plans and benefits.

- Exercise the conservatee's rights to terminate any such policy, plan, or benefit; to change beneficiaries or ownership; to assign rights; to borrow; or to receive cash value in return for a surrender of rights.

- Exercise the conservatee's right to elect to take under or against a will.

- Exercise the conservatee's right to disclaim any interest that may be disclaimed under Prob. Code § 260 et seq. (concerning the disclaimer of testamentary and other interests).

- Make an election referred to in Prob. Code § 13502 or an election and agreement referred to in Prob. Code § 13503 (concerning probate of certain property).

- Make a will [see Prob. Code §§ 6100(b), 6100.5(c)].

- Exercise the conservatee's right to revoke a revocable trust or to surrender the right to revoke a revocable trust.

The court may not authorize or require the conservator to revoke, or to surrender the right to revoke, a revocable trust if the instrument governing the trust evidences an intent to reserve the right exclusively to the conservatee, or provides expressly that a conservator may not revoke the trust, or otherwise evidences an intent that would be inconsistent with authorizing or requiring the conservator to exercise the right [Prob. Code § 2580(b)(11)].

If, after the conservatee's death, property is discovered that has been unintentionally omitted from a trust created by the conservator or the conservatee, the conservator has control of the property pending its disposition according to law [Prob. Code § 2580(b)(6); see Cal. Law Revision Comm'n Comment to Prob. Code § 2580; see also Prob. Code §§ 2467, 2630 (conservator's duty of custody and conservation of estate after conservatee's death; continuing jurisdiction of court)].

A special needs trust for money paid pursuant to a compromise or judgment for a conservatee can be established only under Prob. Code § 3600 et seq. [see Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims], not under Prob. Code § 2580 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2580(b)(5); see Cal. Law Revision Comm'n Comment to Prob. Code § 2580].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290B California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290B.13

§ 290B.13 Court's Determination

[1] Standards

In determining whether to authorize or require a proposed action under this article, the court must take into consideration all the relevant circumstances, which may include, but are not limited to, the following [Prob. Code § 2583]:

- Whether the conservatee has legal capacity for the proposed transaction and, if not, the probability of the conservatee's recovery of legal capacity.
- The past donative declarations, practices, and conduct of the conservatee.
- The traits of the conservatee.
- The relationship and intimacy of the prospective donees with the conservatee, their standards of living, and the extent to which they would be natural objects of the conservatee's bounty by any objective test based on such relationship, intimacy, and standards of living.
- The wishes of the conservatee.
- Any known estate plan of the conservatee, including, but not limited to:
    - The conservatee's will.
    - Any trust of which the conservatee is the settlor or beneficiary.
    - Any power of appointment created by or exercisable by the conservatee.
    - Any contract, transfer, or joint ownership arrangement with provisions for payment or transfer of benefits or interests at the conservatee's death to another or others which the conservatee may have originated.

- The manner in which the estate would devolve on the conservatee's death, giving consideration to the age and the mental and physical condition of the conservatee, the prospective devisees or heirs of the conservatee, and the prospective donees.

- The value, liquidity, and productiveness of the estate.

- The minimization of current or prospective income, estate, inheritance, or other taxes or expenses of administration.

- Changes of tax laws and other laws that would likely have motivated the conservatee to alter the conservatee's estate plan.

- The likelihood from all the circumstances that the conservatee as a reasonably prudent person would take the proposed action if the conservatee had the capacity to do so.

- Whether any beneficiary is a person described in Prob. Code § 21350(b)(1), that is, the conservatee's spouse.

- Whether a beneficiary has committed physical abuse, neglect, false imprisonment, or fiduciary abuse against the conservatee after the conservatee was substantially unable to manage his or her financial resources, or resist fraud or undue influence, and the conservatee's disability persisted throughout the time of the hearing on the proposed substituted judgment.

A matter not listed above may be significant in a particular case. For example, the conservatee may have received property from a parent with the understanding that the conservatee would leave the property to the descendants of that parent. That understanding would be a circumstance that the court should consider along with other relevant circumstances [see Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Comments to Prob. Code § 2583]. Another example is the ability of a court, under the substituted judgment doctrine, to establish a special needs trust, provided that the conservatee is not opposed to the order, or, if opposed, lacks legal capacity [see Conservatorship of Kane (2006) 137 Cal. App. 4th 400, 404, 40 Cal. Rptr. 3d 378] .

The court is not required to conduct an evidentiary hearing when the verified petition for substituted judgment makes a sufficient showing of the statutory circumstances to justify granting the petition [Conservatorship of McElroy (2002) 104 Cal. App. 4th 536, 555, 128 Cal. Rptr. 2d 485] . The court has the discretion to determine if the petition is sufficient or to decide that it needs further information in order to be in a position analogous to the conservatee or a reasonably prudent person [Conservatorship of McElroy (2002) 104 Cal. App. 4th 536, 555, 128 Cal. Rptr. 2d 485] .

[2] Effect of Order

A conveyance, lease, or mortgage of, or deed of trust on, real property executed by a conservator must state that it is made by authority of the court order authorizing the transaction and must give the date of the order [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

A conveyance or transfer of estate property authorized or directed by the court must be carried out by the conservator in accordance with the terms of the order. The transaction will have the same effect as if the conservatee had carried it out while having legal capacity to do so [Prob. Code § 2111(b), (d)].

[3] Appealability of Order

An order authorizing or refusing to authorize a conservator to take action under the substituted judgment doctrine of Prob. Code § 2580 et seq. is appealable [Prob. Code § 1301(d)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290B California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290B.14

§ 290B.14 Production of Estate Plan Documents

Notwithstanding the lawyer-client privilege [Evid. Code § 950 et seq.], the court, in its discretion, may order that any person having possession of any document constituting all or part of the estate plan of the conservatee must deliver the document to the court for examination by the court. The court, in the court's discretion, may permit examination by the attorneys for the persons who have appeared in the proceedings, in connection with the petition filed to authorize proposed actions [Prob. Code § 2586(b)]. The phrase "estate plan of the conservatee" includes but is not limited to [Prob. Code § 2586(a)]:

- The conservatee's will.
- Any trust of which the conservatee is the settlor or beneficiary.
- Any power of appointment created by or exercisable by the conservatee.
- Any contract, transfer, or joint ownership arrangement originated by the conservatee that contains provisions for payment or transfer of benefits or interests at the conservatee's death to another person.

Unless the court otherwise orders, no person who examines any document ordered to be produced pursuant Prob. Code § 2586 may disclose the contents of the document to any other person. If unauthorized disclosure is made, the court may adjudge the person making the disclosure to be in contempt of court [Prob. Code § 2586(c)]. For discussion of contempt proceedings, see Ch. 135, Contempt .

For good cause, the court may order that documents constituting all or part of the estate plan of the conservatee, whether or not produced pursuant to Prob. Code § 2586, be delivered for safekeeping to a custodian designated by the court [Prob. Code § 2586(d)]. The court may impose any conditions it determines appropriate for holding and safeguarding the documents [Prob. Code § 2586(d)]. It may authorize the conservator to take any action that a depositor of estate plan documents may take under Prob. Code § 700 et seq. (concerning deposit of estate planning documents with attorney) [Prob. Code § 2586(d)].

The procedure for obtaining a production order is not expressly set out, but one procedure that may be adopted by the courts is to make an ex parte application for a citation and order to show cause directing thecustodian to appear and show cause why he or she should not be ordered to produce the estate plan documents [see, e.g., Mastick v. Superior Court (1892) 94 Cal. 347, 348, 29 P. 869 ; Vigne v. Superior Court (1940) 37 Cal. App. 2d 346, 348, 99 P.2d 589 ; see also Ch. 372, Motions and Orders]. Local practice should be followed.

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by a conservator or any interested person in obtaining a court order authorizing or requiring the conservator to take a proposed action under the substituted judgment doctrine [Prob. Code § 2580]. For the related form of order, see § 290B.41

[3] Contents of Petition

A petition under Prob. Code § 2580 should state all relevant circumstances [see Prob. Code § 2583; see also § 290B.13]; in particular, the petition should state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2580(a)].

- The value of the estate, its annual income, and the expenses for the support and maintenance of the conservatee and for administration of the estate (Paragraphs 2, 3) [see Prob. Code § 2583(h)].

- The proposed action and its intended purpose (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 2580(a), (b)].

- Whether the conservatee is opposed to the proposed action and, if so, that the conservatee lacks legal capacity for the action (Paragraph 5) [see Prob. Code § 2582(a)].

- Either that the proposed action will have no adverse effect on the estate, or that the remaining estate will be adequate for the needs of the conservatee or his or her legal dependents (Paragraph 6) [see Prob. Code § 2582(b)].

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 8) [see Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2700, 2701].

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. to all the following [Prob. Code § 2581]:

- The persons required to be given notice under the general notice provisions of the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law [see Prob. Code §§ 1460(b), 1461, 1461.5].

- The persons required to be named in a petition for the appointment of a conservator [see Prob. Code § 1821(a), (b), (f), (g)].

- Beneficiaries under any document executed by the conservatee that may have testamentary effect, unless the court for good cause dispenses with notice to them.

- Persons who, if the conservatee were to die immediately, would be the conservatee's heirs under the laws of intestate succession, unless the court for good cause dispenses with notice to them.

- Such other persons as the court may order.

The petitioner must also comply with the requirements for notice to a person who has requested special notice [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 2701, 2702]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition [see § 290B.40] to authorize or require a conservator to take action under the substituted judgment doctrine. After hearing, the court in its discretion may approve, modify and approve, or disapprove the proposed action and may authorize or direct the conservator to transfer or dispose of assets or to take other action as provided in the court's order [Prob. Code § 2584].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be followed.

[3] Required Findings

The court may make an order authorizing or requiring the proposed action only if the court determines both of the following [Prob. Code § 2582]:

- The conservatee either is not opposed to the proposed action or, if opposed, lacks legal capacity for it.

- Either the proposed action will have no adverse effect on the estate or the estate remaining after the proposed action is taken will be adequate to provide for the needs of the conservatee and for the support of persons legally entitled to support, maintenance, and education from the conservatee, taking into account the age, physical condition, standards of living, and all other relevant circumstances of the conservatee and of the persons legally entitled to support, maintenance, and education from the conservatee.

[4] Recordation of Order

A certified copy of an order to convey or execute a lease on, a mortgage of, or a deed of trust on real property must be recorded in the county recorder's office in each county in which any portion of the property is located [Prob. Code § 2111(c)].

§ 290C.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses and contains forms relating to the powers of the guardian or conservator of the estate to represent the ward or conservatee in actions [see § 290C.11], to submit or compromise disputed claims [see §§ 290C.12, 290C.13], and to handle property received pursuant to a compromise of judgment [see § 290C.14].

Included are a research guide [see § 290C.20 et seq.] and the following forms:

- Petitions and orders to use in obtaining approval of compromises of claims by and against the estate [see §§ 290C.30 -290C.33].

- Petitions and orders to use in obtaining authority to exclude funds received pursuant to a compromise or judgment from the estate and to deposit them in blocked accounts or to direct payment to special needs trusts [see §§ 290C.34 -290C.37].

24-290C California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290C.11

§ 290C.11 Representation in Actions

Unless another person is appointed for that purpose, the guardian or conservator of the estate may do all of the following [Prob. Code § 2462]:

- Institute and maintain actions and proceedings for the benefit of the ward or conservatee or the estate.

- Defend actions and proceedings against the ward or conservatee or the estate.

- File a petition in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. (reorganization) on behalf of the ward or conservatee.

The power to represent the ward or conservatee in actions and proceedings may generally be exercised without court authorization or approval [see Prob. Code § 2450(a)]. Court authorization, however, is required to commence and prosecute actions for partition [Prob. Code § 2462, 2463(a); see discussion in Ch. 290A, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Asset Management and Investment, § 290A.13].

When a minor, an person with a disability, or a person for whom a conservator has been appointed is a party to an action, that person must appear either by a guardian or conservator of the estate or by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court in which the action is pending. A guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent the minor, person with a disability, or person for whom a conservator has been appointed in any case when it is deemed expedient by the court in which the action or proceeding is prosecuted, notwithstanding the fact that the person may have a guardian or conservator of the estate and may have appeared by the guardian or conservator of the estate [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a)]. For example, a guardian or conservator should not represent the ward or conservatee in an action in which he or she has an interest adverse to that of the ward orconservatee [In re Haas (1893) 97 Cal. 232, 234, 31 P. 893, 32 P. 327 ; see Ch. 291, Guardians Ad Litem].

The guardian or conservator of the estate or guardian ad litem so appearing has the power, with the approval of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, to compromise the action or proceeding, to agree to the order or judgment to be entered for or against the ward or conservatee, and to satisfy any judgment or order in favor of the ward or conservatee or to release or discharge any claim of the ward or conservatee pursuant to a compromise. Any money or other property to be paid or delivered pursuant to the order or judgment for the benefit of a minor, person with a disability, or person for whom a conservator has been appointed must be paid and delivered as provided in Prob. Code § 3600 et seq. [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a)]. For a discussion of payment and delivery of property in a guardianship or conservatorship, see § 290C.14.

A conservator of the person and estate of a mentally disabled person who is unable to communicate his or her wishes does not have the authority to bring a proceeding for the dissolution of the conservatee's marriage, but may bring a proceeding for legal separation if necessary to protect the assets of the estate and subject to the probate court's approval [Michael J. v. Superior Court (2004) 120 Cal. App. 4th 37, 41-44, 15 Cal. Rptr. 3d 196] . Although a conservator of the estate is authorized to act to the extent necessary to protect the conservatee's property interests, it is not necessary to sever the marital relationship between the conservatee and his or her spouse to accomplish this result. In an action for legal separation, the court may settle financial issues between the spouses, including a division of community property and community liabilities, as well as a determination of support [Michael J. v. Superior Court (2004) 120 Cal. App. 4th 37, 44, 15 Cal. Rptr. 3d 196] .

A conservator has the authority to bring an action for elder abuse committed against the conservatee by caregivers and others. In such an action, the conservator may recover damages for the conservatee's pain and suffering and punitive damages [Conservatorship of Kayle (2005) 134 Cal. App. 4th 1, 5-6, 35 Cal. Rptr. 3d 671] . When a conservator has been appointed, the probate court has jurisdiction over any claims made under the Elder Abuse and Dependent Adult Civil Protection Act (Welf. & Inst. Code § 15600 et seq.) [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.3(a); Conservatorship of Kayle (2005) 134 Cal. App. 4th 1, 6, 35 Cal. Rptr. 3d 671] . The probate court may transfer a case to the general civil calendar if it determines the case should be determined as a civil action [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.3(b)].

§ 290C.12 Submission of Disputed Claims

[1] Summary Determination

The guardian or conservator, or the limited conservator to the extent specifically and expressly provided in the order appointing the limited conservator, has two procedures available for summary determination if there is a dispute relating to the estate between the guardian or conservator and a third person [Prob. Code § 2405].

Under one method, the guardian, conservator, or limited conservator may enter into a written agreement to refer the dispute to a temporary judge designated in the agreement. The agreement must be filed with the clerk, who then must, with the approval of the court, enter an order referring the matter to the designated person. The temporary judge must proceed promptly to hear and determine the matter in controversy by summary procedure, without any pleadings, discovery, or jury trial. Thetemporary judge's decision is subject to Code Civ. Proc. § 632 (when statement of decision is required). Judgment must be entered on the decision and is as valid and effective as if rendered by a judge of the court in an action against the guardian, conservator, or third person commenced by ordinary process [Prob. Code § 2405(a)]. For further discussion of reference procedures, see Ch. 38, Reference .

Alternatively, the guardian, conservator, or limited conservator may enter into a written agreement with the third person that a judge of the court, pursuant to the agreement and with the judge's written consent (both filed with the clerk within the time for bringing an independent action on the matter in dispute; see Prob. Code §§ 9353, 9354), may hear and determine the dispute pursuant to the procedure set forth above in Prob. Code § 2405(a) [Prob. Code § 2405(b)].

The guardian or conservator may also petition for the additional power to compromise, arbitrate, or otherwise to adjust claims, debts, or demands on the guardianship or conservatorship without court authorization or approval [see Prob. Code §§ 2590, 2591(p), discussed in Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

[2] Arbitration

If there is a dispute relating to the estate between the guardian or conservator and a third person, the guardian or conservator may enter into an agreement in writing with the third person to submit the dispute to arbitration under Code Civ. Proc. § 1280 et seq. The agreement, however, is not effective unless it has first been approved by the court and a copy of the approved agreement is filed with the court [Prob. Code § 2406]. For further discussion of arbitration procedures and a form for an arbitration agreement, see Ch. 32, Contractual Arbitration: Agreement and Compelling Arbitration .

The guardian or conservator may also petition for the additional power to arbitrate or otherwise to adjust claims, debts, or demands on the guardianship or conservatorship without court authorization or approval [see Prob. Code §§ 2590, 2591(p), discussed in Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

24-290C California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290C.13

§ 290C.13 Compromise of Claims and Extension of Obligations

[1] General Rules

If it is to the advantage of the estate, the guardian or conservator generally may do any or all of the following [Prob. Code § 2500(a)]:

- Compromise or settle a claim, action, or proceeding by or for the benefit of, or against, the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator, or the estate, including the giving of a covenant not to sue.

- Extend, renew, or, in any manner, modify the terms of an obligation owing to or running in favor of the ward or conservatee or the estate.

Unless court approval is otherwise required by statute, the guardian or conservator may exercise or perform these powers without court authorization, instruction, approval, or confirmation. Nevertheless, nothing precludes the guardian or conservator from petitioning the court for authorization, instructions, approval, or confirmation under Prob. Code § 2403 [Prob. Code § 2500(b); see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[2]].

Even if court approval is required, the guardian or conservator may petition for the additional power to compromise or otherwise to adjust claims, debts, or demands on the guardianship or conservatorship without court authorization or approval [see Prob. Code §§ 2590, 2591(p), discussed in Ch. 288, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Independent Exercise of Powers].

On petition of the ward or conservatee, a creditor, or any interested person, or on the court's own motion, the court may limit the authority of the guardian or conservator to compromise claims or extend obligations. Notice of hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2500(c)].

[2] Court-Approved Compromises, Settlements, Extensions, Renewals, or Modifications

[a] When Required

Court approval is generally required for a compromise, settlement, extension, renewal, or modification that affects (1) title to real property, (2) an interest in real property or a lien or encumbrance on real property, or (3) an option to purchase real property or an interest in real property [Prob. Code § 2501(a)]. Court approval, however, is not required for an extension, renewal, or modification of a lease of real property having an unexpired term of two years or less when, under the lease as extended, renewed, and modified, (1) the rental does not exceed $5000 a month and the term does not exceed two years, or (2) regardless of the amount of the rental, the lease is from month to month [Prob. Code § 2501(b)].

A compromise or settlement of a matter involving a transaction that requires the transfer or encumbrance of property of the estate or the creation of an unsecured liability of the estate, or both, in an amount or value in excess of $25,000 must receive court approval [Prob. Code § 2502].

Because of the potential conflicts of interest, court approval is also required for [Prob. Code § 2503]:

- A compromise or settlement of a claim by the ward or conservatee against the guardian or conservator or against the attorney for the guardian or conservator, whether or not the claim arises out of the administration of the estate.

- An extension, renewal, or modification of the terms of a debt or similar obligation of the guardian or conservator, or of the attorney for the guardian or conservator, owing to or running in favor of the ward or conservatee or the estate.

Finally, court approval is required for the compromise or settlement of any of the following [Prob. Code § 2504]:

- A claim for the support, maintenance, or education of the ward or conservatee, or a person whom the ward or conservatee is legally obligated to support, maintain, or educate, against any other person (including, but not limited to, the spouse or parent of the ward or the spouse, or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297], parent, or adult child of the conservatee).

- A claim of the ward or conservatee for wrongful death.

- A claim of the ward or conservatee for physical or nonphysical harm to the person.

[b] Filing the Petition

When approval of the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending is required, the guardian or conservator must file a petition with the court showing the advantage of the compromise, settlement, extension, renewal, or modification to the ward or conservatee and the estate [Prob. Code § 2506; see §§ 290C.30, 290C.31 (petition and order for approval of compromise of claim by estate), 290C.32, 290C.33 (petition and order for approval of compromise of claim against estate)]. The probate court is only authorized to approve the compromise of valid claims and cannot approve a compromise based on an unenforceable agreement [Guardianship of Carlon (1941) 43 Cal. App. 2d 204, 207-208, 110 P.2d 488] .

Regardless of these statutory provisions requiring court approval, whenever another statute requires, provides a procedure for, or dispenses with court approval of a compromise, settlement, extension, renewal, or modification, the provisions of the other statute govern any case to which it applies [Prob. Code § 2507(a)]. For example, the guardian or conservator of the estate or guardian ad litem appearing for any minor, person with a disability, or person for whom a conservator has been appointed who is a party in an action or proceeding has the power, with the approval of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, to compromise the action or proceeding, to agree to the order or judgment to be entered in it for or against the ward or conservatee, and to satisfy any judgment or order in favor of the ward or conservatee or to release or discharge any claim of the ward or conservatee pursuant to the compromise [see Code Civ. Proc. § 372]. Parents also have the right to compromise a minor child'sdisputed claim when there is no guardian of the estate and no pending action [see Prob. Code § 3500; see also Ch. 364, Minors: Claims and Property of Minors].

Additionally, whenever another statute provides that a compromise or settlement of an administrative proceeding is not valid unless approved in that proceeding, the approval is governed by that statute, and approval in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is not required [Prob. Code § 2507; see, e.g., Lab. Code § 5001 (compromise of worker's compensation proceeding)].

Chapter 290C GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: ACTIONS AND DISPUTED CLAIMS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290C California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290C.14

§ 290C.14 Receipt of Property Pursuant to Compromise or Judgment

[1] Conditions Precedent

The procedures set forth in Prob. Code §§ 3601-3605 (discussed below) governing the receipt of property apply whenever both of the following conditions exist [Prob. Code § 3600]:

- A court (1) approves a compromise of, or the execution of a covenant not to sue on or of a covenant not to enforce judgment on, a minor's disputed claim; (2) approves a compromise of a pending action or proceeding to which a minor or person with a disability is a party; or (3) gives judgment for a minor or person with a disability.

- The compromise, covenant, or judgment provides for the payment or delivery of money or other property for the benefit of the minor or person with a disability.

A "person with a disability" is a person for whom a conservator may be appointed [Prob. Code § 3603(a)]. The term also includes a person who meets the definition of disability under various provisions of the federal law, and a person with a developmental disability under Welf. & Inst. Code § 4512; however, a court may not make an order or give a judgment under Prob. Code §§ 3600-3602 with respect to an adult who has the legal capacity under Prob. Code § 812 to consent to the order and who has no conservator of the estate with authority to make that decision, without that person's express consent [Prob. Code §§ 3603(b), 3613].

[2] Payment of Expenses, Costs, and Fees

The court approving a compromise or giving the judgment under Prob. Code § 3600, as a part of the order or judgment, must make a further order authorizing and directing that such reasonable expenses (medical or otherwise and including reimbursement to a parent, guardian, or conservator), costs, and attorney's fees as the court approves and allows must be paid from the money or other property to be paid or delivered for the benefit of the minor or person with a disability [Prob. Code § 3601(a)]. This further order may be directed to [Prob. Code § 3601(b)]:

- A parent of the minor, the guardian ad litem, or the guardian of the estate of minor or the conservator of the estate of the person with a disability.

- Anyone who pays money pursuant to the compromise, covenant, or judgment for the benefit of the minor or person with a disability.

[3] Disposition of Remaining Balance

If there is a guardianship of the estate of the minor or a conservatorship of the estate of the person with a disability, the remaining balance of the money and other property received pursuant to a compromise or judgment (after payment of expenses, costs, and fees) must be paid or delivered to the guardian or conservator of the estate. On application of the guardian or conservator, the court that approves the compromise or gives judgment or the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending may, with or without notice, make an order that all or part of the money paid or remaining to be paid to the guardian or conservator be deposited or invested, pursuant to Prob. Code § 2456, in an insured account in a California financial institution or in a trust company, subject to withdrawal only on court authorization [Prob. Code § 3602(b); see Prob. Code §§ 46, 83 ("insured account in financial institution" and "trust company" defined, respectively); see also discussion of deposit in withdrawal from these accounts, in the Ch. 290, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Maintenance of Ward or Conservatee, § 290.20[4]].

Despite the requirement that the remaining balance of money and other property received pursuant to a compromise or judgment be paid or delivered to the guardian or conservator of the estate, the court, on a showing of good cause, may order any or all of the following [Prob. Code § 3602(c)]:

- First, the court may order that all or part of the remaining balance of money not become a part of the guardianship or conservatorship estate, but that it be deposited in an insured account in a California financial institution or in a single-premium deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only on court authorization [Prob. Code § 3602(c)(1); see Prob. Code §§ 46, 1446 ("insured account in financial institution" and "single-premium deferred annuity" defined, respectively)].

- Second, the court may order that all or any part of the money be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act (Prob. Code § 3900 et seq.) [Prob. Code § 3602(c)(2)].

- Third, the court may order that all or part of the money be transferred to the trustee of a trust created by or approved in the court's judgment [Prob. Code § 3602(c)(3); see Prob. Code § 3600 (judgment described)]. The trust must be revocable by the minor upon reaching the age of 18 years, and the governing instrument must contain termsand conditions necessary to protect the minor's interests, including terms and conditions concerning trustee's accounts and the trustee's bond [Prob. Code § 3602(c)(3)]. Unless the court orders otherwise for good cause shown, the trust instrument must:

  (1) Not contain no-contest provisions;

  (2) Prohibit modification or revocation without court approval;

  (3) Clearly identify the trustee and any other person with authority to direct the trustee to make disbursements;

  (4) Prohibit investments by the trustee other than those permitted under Prob. Code § 2574;

  (5) Require the trustee and any other person with authority to direct the trustee to make disbursements to post bond in the amount required under Prob. Code § 2320 et seq.;

(6) Require the trustee to file accounts and reports for court approval;

(7) Require court approval of changes in trustees and a court order appointing any successor trustee; and

(8) Require compensation of the trustee or the trustee's attorney to be in just and reasonable amounts fixed and allowed by the court [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.903(c)].

The requirements of items (5)-(8) do not apply to trusts that will have total assets of $20,000 or less unless the court orders otherwise for good cause shown [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.903(d)]. The order creating or approving the funding of the trust must provide that it is subject to the court's continuing jurisdiction over trust proceedings under Prob. Code § 15000 et seq. [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.903(a)(2), (b)]. The order may also provide that the trust is subject to court supervision under the Probate Code, i.e., the court may require prior court approval or subsequent confirmation of the trustee's actions [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.903(a)(3), (b)].

The good-cause showing discussed above can be made on the ex parte petition of the guardian or conservator or on the noticed petition of any person interested in the guardianship or conservatorship estate [Prob. Code § 3602(c); see §§ 290C.34, 290C.35 (petition and order to exclude funds from estate and to deposit funds into blocked account)]. These procedures eliminate the need to increase the guardian's or conservator's bond [see Prob. Code § 2328]. These procedures also may help to keep the value of a minor's estate below a specified minimum so that the estate may be transferred to a parent [see Prob. Code §§ 3400(b)(2), 3401(b)] or terminated if the sole asset is money [see Prob. Code §§ 3410(b)(2), 3412; see also Ch. 364, Minors: Claims and Property of Minors].

[4] Enforcement of Judgment Against Conservatee

Property in a guardianship or conservatorship estate is not subject to enforcement of a money judgment by the enforcement procedures set forth in the Code of Civil Procedure; instead, the judgment creditor must apply to the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending for an order requiring payment of the judgment [Code Civ. Proc. § 709.030]. This must be done even when the judgment was obtained before the commencement of the guardianship or conservatorship proceedings. For purposes of this rule, property is deemed to be in a guardianship or conservatorship estate as soon as the court appoints the guardian or conservator, and it is not necessary to wait until letters are issued [Neiman Marcus v. Tait (1995) 33 Cal. App.4th 271, 274, 39 Cal. Rptr.2d 143] .

[5] Special Needs Trust

[a] Definition

On the noticed petition of the guardian, conservator, or any person interested in the guardianship or conservatorship estate, the court that approves a compromise or covenant or gives judgment may order that all or part of the remaining balance of money received pursuant to the compromise, covenant, or judgment not be made part of the guardianship or conservatorship estate but instead be paid to a "special needs trust" established under Prob. Code § 3604 for the benefit of a disabled minor ward or person with a disability [Prob. Code § 3602(d), (f); see §§ 290C.36, 290C.37 (petition and order to exclude funds from estate and to direct payment to special needs trust)].

A special needs trust is a form of discretionary spendthrift trust designed to preserve public assistance benefits for a disabled beneficiary. The trust instrument typically provides that the trust is an emergency backup fund secondary to public resources, and directs the trustee to seek out and obtain available public benefits, particularly social security benefits and Medi-Cal. If these benefits are unavailable or insufficient, the trust instrument authorizes the trustee to supplement the benefits for the beneficiary's health, safety, and welfare. Examples of special needs not normally provided by social security or Medi-Cal that the trust may provide include dental care; special equipment such as a wheelchair, ramp access, vehicle modification for the disabled; and programs for the handicapped such as independence training and recreational programs. If the trust is properly drawn, the existence of trust assets generally should not disqualify the beneficiary from receiving public benefits [Special Needs Trust for Disabled Minor or Incompetent Person, 22 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 989, 993 (1992)].

[b] Requirements for Payment to the Trust

If the court orders that money of a minor or person with a disability be paid to a special needs trust, the trust is subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the court and also to supervision by the court to the extent the court deems necessary [Prob. Code § 3604(a); see Prob. Code § 17005 (transfer of proceedings)]. The terms of the trust must satisfy the requirements set forth in Prob. Code § 3604, and the court must review and approve the terms [Prob. Code § 3604(a)]. A court may order the establishment or permit the continuation of a special needs trust only if it determines all of the following:

- That the minor or person with a disability has a disability that substantially impairs the individual's ability to provide for the individual's own care or custody and constitutes a substantial handicap [Prob. Code § 3604(b)(1)];

- That the minor or person with a disability is likely to have special needs that will not be met without the trust [Prob. Code § 3604(b)(2)]; and

- That the money to be paid to the trust does not exceed the amount that appears reasonably necessary to meet the special needs of the minor or person with a disability [Prob. Code § 3604(b)(3)].

An order for the payment of a money to a special needs trust must include a provision that all statutory liens in favor of the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the State Department of Developmental Services, a county, or a city and county within California first be satisfied [Prob. Code § 3604(d)].

[c] Termination of Trust

The State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the State Department of Developmental Services, or a county or a city and county within California may petition the court for an order terminating the trust if it appears at any time that (1) any one of the above three requirements is not satisfied or the trustee refuses without good cause to make payments from the trust for the special needs of the beneficiary, and (2) the department, county, or city and county has a claim against trust property [Prob. Code § 3604(c)].

The existence of a special needs trust established on or after January 1, 1993, tolls the statute of limitations otherwise applicable to claims of the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the State Department of Developmental Services, or a county or a city and county within California. Nevertheless, the trust property is subject to those claims to the extent authorized by law on the death of the special needs beneficiary or on termination of the trust, regardless of any provision in the trust to the contrary [Prob. Code § 3605(a), (b)]. The trustee must give notice in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1215 of the death of the special needs beneficiary or of the termination of the special needs trust to the directors of the State Department of Health Services, the State Department of Mental Health, the State Department of Developmental Services, and to any county or city and county within California that has made a written request for notice [Prob. Code § 3605(c)]. Failure to give notice in the prescribed manner prevents the running of the statute of limitations against the claim [Prob. Code § 3605(d)].

The State Department of Health Services, State Department of Mental Health, State Department of Developmental Services, or a county or city and county within California must make a claim with the trustee within four months after notice of death of the special needs beneficiary or termination of the trust [Prob. Code § 3605(e)]. If the trustee refuses the claim, that department, county, or city and county may petiton the court for an order under Prob. Code § 17200 et seq. directing the trustee to pay the claim, and it must be paid prior to any other distribution [Prob. Code § 3605(e)]. If there is insufficient trust property to pay all of the claims arising under Prob. Code § 3605(e), the trustee must petition the court for instructions and the court will, in its discretion, determine the payment of the claims from the trust property [Prob. Code § 3605(e)].

If the special needs trust property is distributed before the expiration of the four-month period without payment of a claim to the State Department of Health Services, State Department of Mental Health, State Department of Developmental Services, or a county or a city and county within California, that department, county, or city and county has a claim against the distributees either (1) to the full extent of the claim that was filed with the trustee or (2) in the amount of each distributee's share or trust property, whichever is less. The claim against the distributees includes interest from the date of distribution or the date of filing the claim with the trustee, whichever is later [see Gov. Code § 16480 et seq. for computation of interest], plus other accruing costs as in the case of enforcement of a money judgment [Prob. Code § 3605(f)].

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the petitioner in the above-entitled proceeding. I have read the foregoing petition and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters which are therein represented on information and belief, and, as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____[date]

_____ [signature]

[2] Use of Form

The form of petition in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator in obtaining approval of a compromise and settlement of a ward's orconservatee's claim when approval of the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending is required [Prob. Code § 2506]. For a discussion of when court approval is required to compromise claims, to settle actions, or to extend, renew, or modify obligations, see § 290C.13[2].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petitioner must show that the compromise or settlement is to the advantage of the ward or conservatee and the estate (Paragraph 6) [Prob. Code § 2506]. Although there are no other express content requirements for a petition under Prob. Code § 2506, the petition should also state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2506].

- A description of the ward's or conservatee's claim for which court approval of the compromise is sought (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code §§ 2501-2504].

- The assertions of the opposing party that form the basis of the dispute (Paragraph 3).

- If the claim is the subject of a pending action or proceeding that is not brought in a court of this state, the present status of the action (Paragraph 4) [see Prob. Code § 2505(c)].

- A description of the written compromise agreement, a copy of which should be attached and incorporated by reference (Paragraph 5).

- How the petitioner proposes to pay any expenses, costs, and attorney's fees from the moneys received if seeking court approval of a compromise of a ward's disputed claim or of a pending action or proceeding to which the ward or the conservatee is a party and if the compromise provides for the payment or delivery of money or other property for the benefit of the ward or the conservatee (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 3600, 3601(a); see also § 290C.14[2]].

- Whether or not a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given (Paragraph 8) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

Except as otherwise specifically provided, all petitions filed pursuant to the Guardianship-Conservatorship Law must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see Prob. Code § 1430 (the term "petition" includes an application or a request in the nature of a petition)]. Verification enables a petition to be used as evidence in uncontested proceedings [Prob. Code § 1022].

The form of verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[5] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2506], which generally requires that notice by mail be given to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 1460(a),(b)]. The petitioner must also comply with the requirements for notice to a person who has requested special notice [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 1260(a), 2700, 2701]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[6] Venue

When the claim or matter is the subject of a pending action or proceeding brought in a court of this state, any required court approval must be obtained from the court in which the action or proceeding is pending [Prob. Code § 2505(a)].

When the claim or matter is not the subject of a pending action or proceeding, any required court approval must be obtained from the following [Prob. Code § 2505(b)]:

- The court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending;
- The superior court of the county where the ward or conservatee or guardian or conservator resides at the time the petition for approval is filed; or
- The superior court of any county where a suit on the claim or matter could be properly brought.

When the claim or matter is the subject of a pending action or proceeding that is not brought in a court of this state, any required court approval must be obtained from either (1) the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or (2) the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending [Prob. Code § 2505(c)]. Courts not of this state include federal courts, sister-state courts, and courts outside the United States [Guardianship-Conservatorship Law, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 451, 741-742 (1980)].

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, approving the compromise of a claim by the guardianship or conservatorship estate is for use with the petition in § 290C.30 [see Prob. Code §§ 2501-2505]. It should be entitled ORDER APPROVING COMPROMISE OF CLAIM BY ESTATE. If the order approves a compromise of the ward's disputed claim or of a pending action or proceeding to which the ward or conservatee is a party and the compromise provides for payment or delivery of money or other property for the benefit of the ward or the conservatee, the court must make a further order authorizing and directing payment of specified expenses, costs, and attorney's fees (optional Finding 5 and Order 3) [Prob. Code § 3601(a); see Prob. Code § 3600]. For further discussion of these payments, see § 290C.14[2].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted. In certain counties, the order should set out the terms of the compromise rather than refer to a separate document [see, e.g., Los Angeles Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.37(d)].

[3] Appealability of Order

The grant or refusal to grant an order adjudicating the merits of a claim under Prob. Code § 2500 et seq. is appealable [Prob. Code § 1301(f)]. For a discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 1873, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[3].

§ 290C.32 Petition for Approval of Compromise of Claim Against Estate [Prob. Code § 2506]

[1] FORM Petition for Approval of Compromise of Claim Against Estate

[Caption. See § 290C.30[1].]

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. [Status of petitioner. See § 290C.30[1], Paragraph 1.]

2. A claim is being asserted against the _____ [ward or conservatee] and the estate by _____[name] for _____ [specify, e.g., the value of services in completing the construction of a house for the _____ (ward or conservatee), for which claimant asserts $40,000 is due and owing as of _____ (date)].

[3. If suit has been filed against the ward or conservatee to collect the claim in a federal court, sister-state court, or court outside the United States, add: On _____ (date), _____ (name of claimant) filed an action on the claim against the _____ (ward or conservatee) in _____ (name of court), entitled _____ (specify) and numbered _____ (specify), for $_____. Petitioner answered the complaint on behalf of the _____ (ward or conservatee) and alleged that the amount claimed is not due and owing because of claimant's breach in failing to repair and reroof the house according to the parties' prior agreement.]

4. Petitioner and _____[name of claimant] propose to dispose of the claim by compromise and settlement, subject to approval of the court, for the amount of $_____. A copy of the agreement of compromise and settlement is attached as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference.

5. As appears from the inventory and appraisal filed herein on _____[date], the _____ [ward or conservatee] has funds and other property in the estate appraised at a total of

$_____, and it is feasible to consummate the proposed compromise and settlement.

6. It is to the advantage of the _____ [ward or conservatee] and the estate to compromise the claim in that _____ [specify, e.g., petitioner has investigated and considered the merits of the claim and has concluded that the claimant's services were rendered to the _____ (ward or conservatee) and compensation should be paid, but that claimant did not complete the house construction according to the plans and specifications, thereby reducing the value of services to $_____. A settlement of $_____ would thus be fair and would avoid the time, expense, and uncertainties of litigation].

7. [Special notice allegation. See § 290C.30[1], Paragraph 8.]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that the court approve the compromise and settlement of the claim by _____[name of claimant] and authorize petitioner to do all acts and to execute all documents necessary or convenient to consummate the same, and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.
Dated: _____.

_____ [typed name]

Attorney for Petitioner _____ [name]

[Verification. See § 290C.30[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or conservator in obtaining approval of a compromise of a claim against a ward or conservatee when approval of the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending is required [see Prob. Code § 2506; but see Guardianship of Carlon (1941) 43 Cal. App. 2d 204, 207-208, 110 P.2d 488 (court as having no jurisdiction to approve compromise of claim based on unenforceable agreement)]. The petition should be entitled PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF COMPROMISE OF CLAIM AGAINST ESTATE.

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must show that the compromise or settlement is to the advantage of the ward or conservatee and the estate (Paragraph 6) [Prob. Code § 2506]. Although there are no other express content requirements for a petition under Prob. Code § 2506, the petition should also state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 2506].

- A description of the claim against the estate which requires court approval to be compromised (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code §§ 2501, 2502].

- If the claim is the subject of a pending action or proceeding that is not brought in a court of this state, the present status of the action (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 2505(c)].

- That the disputing parties have entered into a written compromise agreement, a copy of which is attached and incorporated by reference (Paragraph 4).

- That the estate has sufficient funds to consummate the proposed compromise (Paragraph 5).

- Whether a request for special notice has been filed and, if so, that proper notice will be given or has been waived (Paragraph 7) [see Prob. Code §§ 1260(a), 2700, 2701].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 290C.30[4]].

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, approving the compromise of a claim against the guardianship or conservatorship estate is for use with the petition in § 290C.32 [see Prob. Code §§ 2501-2505]. This form should be entitled ORDER APPROVING COMPROMISE OF CLAIM AGAINST ESTATE.

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. In certain counties, the order should set out the terms of the compromise rather thanrefer to a separate document therefor [see, e.g., Los Angeles Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.37(d)]. Local court rules and practice should be consulted.

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

[EITHER]

1. Petitioner is the duly appointed, qualified, and acting _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee].

[OR]

1. Petitioner is a person interested in the estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], in that _____[describe nature of interest]. _____[name] is the _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate, and was appointed by the court on

_____[date].

2. On _____[date], this court _____ [approved a compromise of this _____ (action or proceeding) or gave judgment for the _____ (ward or conservatee)]. The _____ [compromise or judgment] provides for the payment of $_____ to the _____ [ward or conservatee], from which amount this court has authorized and directed that the sum of $_____ be deducted and paid for reasonable expenses, costs, and attorney's fees. This leaves a balance of $_____.

3. Petitioner proposes that the sum of $_____[specify all or part of the remaining balance from Paragraph 2] not become part of the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] estate but instead be deposited in _____[name of authorized depository] under the name of _____[name of account holder], subject to withdrawal only on authorization of the court.

4. Good cause exists for depositing the money as described in Paragraph 3, in that _____ [set forth relevant circumstances that justify request,e.g., deposit of the money will keep the value of the minor's total estate at $_____ (specify sum less than $5,000), thus permitting the transfer of the assets of the guardianship estate to _____ (name of parent entitled to custody of minor) under Probate Code Sections 3400(b)(2) and 3401(c) and preventing further reduction of the estate by administrative costs and fees of the guardian].

5. [Special notice allegation. See § 290C.30[1], Paragraph 8.]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order that $_____ not become part of the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] estate but instead be deposited in _____[name of authorized depository] under the name of _____[name], subject to withdrawal only on authorization of the court and for such other and further orders as the court may deem proper.

_____ [typed name]

Attorney for Petitioner _____ [name]

[Verification. See § 290C.30[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, may be used to request a court order requiring that all or part of the money received pursuant to a compromise or judgment in favor of the ward or conservatee that is remaining after payment of expenses not become a part of the guardianship or conservatorship estate but instead be deposited in a blocked account [see Prob. Code § 3602(c)(1)]. For good cause shown, the court, upon ex parte petition of the guardian or conservator or upon petition of any person interested in the guardianship or conservatorship estate, may order that all or part of the remaining balance of money not become a part of the guardianship or conservatorship estate but instead be deposited in or transferred to one or more of the following [Prob. Code § 3602(c)]:

- An insured account in a financial institution in this state, or a single-premium deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only upon authorization of the court.

- A custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act [Prob. Code § 3900 et seq.], if there is a guardianship of the minor's estate.

- The trustee of a trust which is either created by or approved of in the court's order or judgment. This trust must be revocable by the minor on attaining the age of 18 years and must contain other terms and conditions (including, but not limited to, terms and conditions concerning the trustee's accounts and bond) that the court determines to be necessary to protect the minor's interest.

For discussion of what constitutes an authorized depository, see § 290C.14[3].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petitioner must show good cause for an order requiring that the money received pursuant to the compromise or judgment be deposited in a blocked account (Paragraph 4) [Prob. Code § 3602(c)]. Although there are no other express content requirements for a petition under Prob. Code § 3602(c), the petition should also state the following to assist the court in its determination:

- The petitioner's standing to file the petition (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 3602(c)].

- A description of the compromise or judgment that provides for the payment of money for the benefit of the minor or person with a disability (Paragraph 2) [see Prob. Code § 3600].

- A description of the proposed exclusion and deposit into a blocked account (Paragraph 3) [see Prob. Code § 3602(c)].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 290C.30[4]].

[5] Notice

[a] Ex Parte Petition by Guardian or Conservator

The guardian or conservator may file the petition ex parte [Prob. Code § 3602(c)]. The petitioner, however, must still comply with the requirements for giving notice to a person who has requested special notice [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 1260(a), 2700 et seq.]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

Even though the petition is filed ex parte, local rule may require that notice be given under certain circumstances apart from special notice considerations. Local court rules may require that all applications for ex parte orders must contain an allegation that no special notice has been requested or that any such notice has been waived [see, e.g., Los Angeles Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.38(a)].

[b] Noticed Petition by Interested Person

If the petitioner is an interested person, the petition must be filed with notice given in accordance with Prob. Code §

1460 et seq., which generally requires that notice be mailed to specified persons at least 15 days before the day of the hearing [Prob. Code § 3602(e)]. For further discussion and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, excluding funds from the estate and directing their deposit in a blocked account is for use with the petition in § 290C.34 [see Prob. Code § 3602(c)].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court if the petition is made on notice. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Appealability of Order

An order excluding funds from the estate and directing their deposit in a blocked account is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, such an order may be appealable as an order authorizing, instructing, or directing a fiduciary under Prob. Code § 1300(c). For a discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 1873, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[3].

[Verification. See § 290C.30[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The petition in [1], above, is for use by a guardian or a conservator or by a person interested in the guardianship or conservatorship estate to obtain an order that all or part of the money received under a compromise or judgment in favor of a disabled minor or person with a disability that is remaining after payment of expenses be excluded from the guardianship estate of the minor or the conservatorship estate of the person with a disability and paid to a special needs trust for the benefit of the minor or person with a disability [Prob. Code § 3602(d)]. A special needs trust is a form of discretionary spendthrift trust designed to preserve public assistance benefits for a disabled beneficiary [Special Needs Trust for Disabled Minor or Incompetent Person, 22 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 989, 993 (1992)]. For further discussion of this type of trust, see § 290C.14[5]; see also California Wills & Trusts, Ch. 118, Special Needs Trusts (Matthew Bender).

[3] Contents of Petition

Although there are no express statutory content requirements for the petition, the petition should state all of the following, since a court may not order the establishment or permit the continuation of a special needs trust unless it determines all of these circumstances apply [Prob. Code § 3604(b)]:

- The minor or person with a disability has a disability that substantially impairs the individual's ability to provide for the individual's own care or custody and constitutes a substantial handicap (Paragraph 4a);

- The minor or person with a disability is likely to have special needs that will not be met without the trust (Paragraph 4b);

- The money to be paid to the trust does not exceed the amount that appears reasonably necessary to meet the special needs of the minor or person with a disability (Paragraph 4c).

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021; see § 290C.30[4]].

[5] Notice of Hearing

Notice of the time and place of hearing on the petition and a copy of the petition must be mailed to the State Director of Health Services, the Director of Mental Health, and the Director of Developmental Services at the office of each director in Sacramento, at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 3602(f)]. The petitioner must also comply with the requirements for giving notice to any person who has requested special notice [Prob. Code §§ 1460(d), 1260(a), 2700 et seq.]. For further discussion and a form for giving notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[2] Use of Form

The order in [1], above, excluding funds from the estate and directing payment to a special needs trust is for use with the petition in § 290C.36 [see Prob. Code §§ 3602(d), 3604(b)]. If the court orders that money of a minor or person with a disability be paid to a special needs trust, the trust is subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the court and also to supervision by the court to the extent the court deems necessary [Prob. Code § 3604(a); see Prob. Code § 17005 for transfer of proceedings]. The terms of the trust must satisfy the requirements set forth in Prob. Code § 3604, and the court must review and approve the terms [Prob. Code § 3604(a)].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court if the petition is made on notice. Local practice should be consulted.

[3] Appealability of Order

An order excluding funds from the estate and directing payment to a special needs trust is not one of the orders listed in Prob. Code § 1301 as appealable orders in guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. However, such an order may be appealable as an order authorizing, instructing, or directing a fiduciary under Prob. Code § 1300(c). For discussion of the effect of a final order under Prob. Code § 1873, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, § 287.12[3].

§ 290D.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses circumstances under which a guardian or conservator may incur liability for the acts of a ward or conservatee [see § 290D.11] and in the management of the ward's estate [see § 290D.12]. It discusses actions against the guardian or conservator and his or her sureties after the termination of the relationship of guardian and ward or conservator and conservatee [see §§ 290D.12- 290D.17].

This chapter contains a Research Guide [see § 290D.30 et seq.] and the following forms:

- A complaint for use in an action against a former guardian or conservator and his or her surety to recover money surcharged on the final account [see § 290D.40].

- A complaint for use in an action for conversion of estate assets after settlement of the final account [see § 290D.41].

- A complaint for damages for fraudulent concealment of assets on the final account [see § 290D.42].

- A demurrer based on the failure of a complaint to allege that there is a judicial decree that the guardian or conservator is liable to the ward or conservatee [see § 290D.43].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290D California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290D.11

§ 290D.11 Liability of Guardian or Conservator of the Person for Acts of Ward or Conservatee

A guardian or conservator has the care, custody, and control of, and has charge of the education of, his or her ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2351(a)]. A guardian who has the custody and control of a minor may be liable for civil damages for any act or willful misconduct of the minor that results in injury or death to another person or injury to the property of another [Civ. Code § 1714.1]. However, the amount of this liability for a minor's willful misconduct is limited by law, and the dollar amount of liability is adjusted every two years in odd-numbered years by the Judicial Council to reflect any increases in the cost of living in California [see Civ. Code § 1714.1(c)]. As of January 1, 2007, the joint and several liability of the parent or guardian having custody and control of a minor may not exceed $34,735 for each tort of the minor, and in the case of injury to a person, imputed liability is further limited to medical, dental and hospital expenses incurred by the injured person, not to exceed $34,735 [Civ. Code § 1714.1(a),(b); California Rules of Court, Appendix B (adjustment formula and computation of most recent adjustment)]. This liability is in addition to any liability otherwise imposed by law [Civ. Code § 1714.1(a)]. Similarly, any act of willful misconduct of a minor that results in the defacement of someone else's property with paint or a similar substance (e.g., graffiti) is imputed to the custodial parent or guardian for all purposes of civil damages, including court costs, and attorney's fees, to the prevailing party, and the custodial parent or guardian is jointly and severally liable with the minor for any damages resulting from the willful misconduct, not to exceed $34,735 for each tort of the minor [Civ. Code § 1714.1(a),(b); California Rules of Court, Appendix B (adjustment formula and computation of most recent adjustment)]. The maximum liability imposed by Civ. Code § 1714.1 is the maximum liability authorized under that section at the time that the act of willful misconduct was committed [Civ. Code § 1714.1(d)].

A guardian having the custody and control of a minor also may be liable for any injury to the person or property of another proximately caused by the discharge of a firearm by the minor, if the guardian either permitted the minor to have the firearm or left the firearm in a place accessible to the minor. This additional liability is limited to $30,000 for the injury or death of one person as a result of any one occurrence or, subject to the limit as to one person, to $60,000 for injury or death of all persons as a result of any one such occurrence [Civ. Code § 1714.3; for further discussion, see Ch. 394, Parent and Child].

Furthermore, a guardian or conservator of the person may be liable for the actions of the ward or conservatee according to basic tort principles under which one who takes charge of a person whom he or she knows or should know to be likely to cause bodily harm to others if not controlled is under a duty to exercise reasonable care to control the person to prevent him or her from doing harm to others [see Poncher v. Brackett (1966) 246 Cal. App. 2d 769, 772-773, 55 Cal. Rptr. 59 ; Restatement (Second) of Torts § 319].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290D California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290D.12

§ 290D.12 Liability of Guardian or Conservator in Management of Estate

[1] Fiduciary Relationship

[a] Obligations

The relationship of guardian and ward and of conservator and conservatee is a fiduciary relationship that is governed by the law of trusts, except as provided in Prob. Code §§ 1400-3925 [Prob. Code § 2101]. The trustee has a duty to administer the trust solely in the interest of the beneficiaries [Prob. Code § 16002(a)]. A violation by the trustee of any duty that the trustee owes the beneficiary is a breach of trust [Prob. Code § 16400]. Moreover, the trustee has a duty to keep the trust property separate from other property not subject to the trust and to see that the trust property is designated as property of the trust [Prob. Code § 16009; see also Prob. Code § 16440 (measure of liability for breach of trust)]. Liability may be incurred for commingling real property as well as money, such as when a guardian or conservator willfully and unnecessarily takes title to real property belonging to the estate in his or her individual name, or when the guardian or conservator takes a note with a mortgage as security for money belonging to the estate [see In re Guardianship of Bane (1898) 120 Cal. 533, 537, 52 P. 852] .

[b] Breach of Duty

A guardian or conservator who breaches a fiduciary duty is chargeable with any of the following that is appropriate under the circumstances [Prob. Code § 2401.3(a)]:

- Any loss or depreciation in value of the estate resulting from the breach of duty, with interest.
- Any profit made by the guardian or conservator through the breach of duty, with interest.
- Any profit that would have accrued to the estate if the loss of profit is the result of the breach of duty.

The amount of interest for which a guardian or conservator may be liable is the greater of (1) the amount of interest that accrues at the legal rate on judgments, or (2) the amount of interest actually received [Prob. Code § 2401.5(a)]. Any surcharge so incurred may not be paid by or offset against future fees or wages to be provided by the estate to the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2401.6].

If the guardian or conservator has acted reasonably and in good faith under the circumstances as known to the guardian or conservator, the court, in its discretion, may excuse the guardian or conservator in whole or in part from liability for losses or for interest if it would be equitable to do so [Prob. Code §§ 2401.3(b), 2401.5(b)]. Furthermore, unless otherwise provided in the instrument or in the guardianship and conservatorship law (Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.), a guardian or conservator generally is not personally liable on a note, mortgage, deed of trust, or other contract properly entered into in the guardian's or conservator's fiduciary capacity in the course of the guardianship or conservatorship unless the guardian or conservator fails to reveal his or her representative capacity or identify the guardianship or conservatorship estate in the instrument [Prob. Code § 2110].

The Probate Code provisions governing liability of a guardian or conservator for breach of a fiduciary duty do not prevent resort to any other remedy available against the guardian or conservator under the statutory or common law [Prob. Code § 2401.7].

[2] Standard of Care in Management of Estate

The guardian or conservator of the estate must use ordinary care and diligence in the management and control of the estate [Prob. Code § 2401]. Failure to use ordinary care and diligence may not only render the guardian or conservator liable for loss that results to the estate because of the failure, but may also be cause for removal of the guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 2650; for discussion of removal of a guardian or conservator, see Ch. 290G, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Removal or Resignation of Guardian or Conservator].

What constitutes use of ordinary care and diligence is determined by all the circumstances of the particular estate [Prob. Code § 2401]. If there is no showing of bad faith, carelessness, negligence, or imprudence, a guardian or conservator who has acted in good faith with ordinary care and diligence incurs no liability for a mistake in judgment [see Estate of Schandoney (1901) 133 Cal. 387, 394, 65 P. 877 ; Guardianship of Blair (1956) 139 Cal. App. 2d 832, 835-836, 294 P.2d 521] . A professional fiduciary, such as a bank, is held to a more stringent standard in the management of an estate than a nonprofessional and must exercise the skill and knowledge ordinarily possessed by professional fiduciaries [Estate of Beach (1975) 15 Cal. 3d 623, 631, 635, 125 Cal. Rptr. 570, 542 P.2d 994 (executor)].

[3] Acts Authorized by Court

When a judgment or order becomes final, it releases the guardian or conservator and the sureties from all claims of the ward or conservatee and of any persons affected thereby based on any act or omission directly authorized, approved, or confirmed in the judgment or order [Prob. Code § 2103(a); but see Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421 (Prob. Code § 2103 not applicable when judgment, order, or decree obtained by fraud, conspiracy, or misrepresentation)]. Thus, for example, in a case in which a conservator obtained an order from the probate court authorizing her to advance necessary travel expenses to her attorney for a trip to Scotland in order to locate relatives of the conservatee, the conservator was released from liability for the expenses incurred, and the administrator of the conservatee's estate could not have the order set aside when the conservator's final account was settled [Conservatorship of Harvey (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 646, 651, 91 Cal. Rptr. 510, 477 P.2d 742] .

[4] Failure to File Timely Inventory

If a guardian or conservator fails to file any inventory within the time prescribed by law or by court order, the guardian or conservator is liable for damages for any injury to the estate, or to any interested person, directly resulting from the failure to file the inventory on time [Prob. Code § 2615; see Ch. 286, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Inventory and Appraisement]. Any damages awarded are a personal liability of the guardian or conservator and a liability on the bond, if any [Prob. Code § 2615]. Failure to file an inventory may also be cause for removal of a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2650; see Ch. 290G, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Removal or Resignation of Guardian or Conservator].

[5] Surcharge on Account

A guardian or conservator is required to present accounts periodically to the court for settlement and allowance [Prob. Code § 2620; see Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts]. The termination of the relationship of guardian and ward or of conservator and conservatee by the death of either, by the ward attaining majority, by the determination of the court that the guardianship or conservatorship is no longer necessary, by the removal or resignation of the guardian or conservator, or for any other reason does not cause the court to lose jurisdiction of the proceeding for the purpose of settling the accounts of the guardian or conservator or for any other purpose incident to the enforcement of the judgments and order of the court on the account or on the termination of the relationship [Prob. Code § 2630]. The province of the probate court in settling a guardian's or conservator's account includes the power to surcharge the guardian or conservator and to determine all necessarily incidental issues [see Guardianship of Wood (1961) 193 Cal. App. 2d 260, 267, 14 Cal. Rptr. 147 ; for a complaint to recover money surcharged to guardian or conservator on final account, see § 290D.40].

[6] Fraudulent Concealment of Assets on Final Account

When a judgment or order made pursuant to the guardianship and conservatorship law (Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.) becomes final, it releases the guardian or conservator and the sureties from all claims of the ward or conservatee and of any persons affected thereby based on any act or omission directly authorized, approved, or confirmed in the judgment or order. "Order" includes an order settling an account of the guardian or conservator, whether an intermediate or final account [Prob. Code § 2103(a); Conservatorship of Harvey (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 646, 651, 652, 91 Cal. Rptr. 510, 477 P.2d 742 ; but see Conservatorship of Tobias (1989) 208 Cal. App. 3d 1031, 1034-1036, 256 Cal. Rptr. 525] .

Prob. Code § 2103 does not apply, however, if the judgment or order is obtained by fraud or conspiracy or by misrepresentation contained in the petition or account or in the judgment or order as to any material fact. Misrepresentation includes, but is not limited to, the omission of a material fact [Prob. Code § 2103(b); Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421 ; see Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 715, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685] . Intrinsic fraud, such as perjury, does not constitute a sufficient basis for equitable relief against a judgment settling a final account of a guardian or conservator [see Adams v. Martin (1935) 3 Cal. 2d 246, 248-249, 44 P.2d 572] .

A guardian or conservator will be liable, however, despite the prior settlement of an account, when relief is sought on the basis of extrinsic fraud, such as concealing and failing to account for property of the ward or conservatee [see Lataillade v. Orena (1891) 91 Cal. 565, 576, 27 P. 924 ; for complaints to recover damages on the basis of fraud, see §§ 290D.41 (conversion of estate assets), 290D.42 (concealment of assets)].

The "fraud" specified in Prob. Code § 2103(b) is fraud in the obtaining of a court order that is otherwise subject to the effect of res judicata. Thus, if the fraud does not prevent the ward or conservatee from attending the hearing to settle the account and to litigate any claims of wrongdoing against the guardian or conservator, the fraud is not considered extrinsic [see Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 714-715, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685 (no extrinsic fraud established)]. A former conservator's failure to inform the probate court of the lapse of a life insurance policy constituted omission of a material fact under Prob. Code § 2103(b) [see Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421] .

An action for relief on the ground of fraud must be brought within three years of the discovery of the facts constituting the fraud [Code Civ. Proc. § 338(d); see Miller v. Ash (1909) 156 Cal. 544, 562-564, 105 P. 600] .

In any case, and notwithstanding Prob. Code § 2103(b), no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless the action commences within six years from the date the judgment under Prob. Code § 2103, or the later of the orders under Prob. Code § 2333(b), becomes final [Prob. Code § 2333(c)].

[7] Fiduciary Abuse of Elderly or Dependent Adult Conservatee

[a] In General

A person or entity that takes, secretes, appropriates, or retains, or assists in taking, secreting, appropriating, or retaining real or personal property of an elder or dependent adult to a wrongful use or with intent to defraud, or both, or by undue influence, may be held liable for "fiduciary abuse" [Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 15657, 15610.30(a)]. A person or entity is deemed to have taken, secreted, appropriated, or retained property for a wrongful use if, among other things, the person or entity takes, secretes, appropriates, or retains possession when the person or entity knew or should have known that this conduct was likely to be harmful to the elder or dependent adult's [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15610.30(b)]. A person or entity takes, secretes, appropriates, obtains, or retains real or personal property when an elder or dependent adult is deprived of any property right, including by means of an agreement, donative transfer, or testamentary bequest, regardless of whether the property is held directly or by a representative of an elder or dependent adult [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15610.30(c)]. For purposes of these provisions, a "representative" is a person or entity that is either a conservator, trustee, or other representative of the estate of an elder or dependent adult, or an attorney-in-fact of an elder or dependent adult who acts within the authority of the power of attorney [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15610.30(d)].

[b] Attorney's Fees and Costs

When it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that a conservator (or other responsible person) is liable for physical abuse or neglect and that he or she has been guilty of recklessness, oppression, fraud, or malice in the commission of that abuse, the court must award the plaintiff reasonable attorney's fees and costs [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657(a)]. For this purpose, "costs" includes, but is not limited to, reasonable fees for the services of a conservator, if any, devoted to the litigation of the claim for fiduciary abuse [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657(a)]. If, however, the liability of the conservator (or other responsible person) is based on the acts of an employee, the requirements of Civ. Code § 3294(b) must be satisfied before any damages or attorney's fees may be awarded [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657(c)]. Civ. Code § 3294(b) generally provides that an employer cannot be held liable for punitive or exemplary damages unless the employer (1) had advance knowledge of the unfitness of the employee and employed him or her with a conscious disregard of the rights or safety of others, (2) authorized or ratified the wrongful conduct for which the damages are awarded, or (3) was personally guilty of oppression, fraud, or malice [Civ. Code § 3294(b)].

When it is proven by a preponderance of the evidence that a conservator (or other responsible person) is liable for financial abuse, in addition to all other remedies provided by law, the court must award the plaintiff reasonable attorney's fees and costs; the term "costs" includes, but is not limited to, reasonable fees for the services of a conservator, if any, devoted to the litigation of the claim for financial abuse [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.5(a)]. When it is proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant is liable for financial abuse, and it is also proven by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant has been guilty of recklessness, oppression, fraud, or malice in the commission of the abuse, the limitations imposed by Code Civ. Proc. § 377.34 on the recoverable damages do not apply [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.5(b)]. The standards in Civ. Code § 3294(b) regarding the imposition of punitive damages on an employer based upon the acts of an employee must be satisfied before any punitive damages may be imposed against an employer found liable for financial abuse [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.5 (c)]. These provisions do not affect any award of punitive damages under Civ. Code § 3294 [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.5(d)].

The award of attorney's fees is based on all factors relevant to the value of the services rendered, including, but not limited to, the factors set forth in Cal. Rules Prof. Conduct, Rule 4-200, and all of the following [Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.1]:

- The value of the abuse-related litigation in terms of the quality of life of the elder or dependent adult, and the results obtained.

- Whether the defendant took reasonable and timely steps to determine the likelihood and extent of liability.

- The reasonableness and timeliness of any written offer in compromise made by a party to the action.

The value of the estate is also an appropriate factor to consider in setting fees [Conservatorship of Levitt (2001) 93 Cal. App. 4th 544, 550, 113 Cal. Rptr. 2d 294] .

[c] Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction over the action for fiduciary abuse lies with the department of the superior court having jurisdiction over probate conservatorships if (1) a conservator has been appointed for the plaintiff before initiation of the action, and (2) the court decides that the matter should not be determined in a civil action [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.3(a), (b)]. If the court decides that the matter should be determined in a civil action, the matter must be transferred to the general civil calendar of the superior court. However, the court need not abate any proceeding for relief if it determines that the civil action was filed for the purpose of delay [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.3(b)].

The death of the conservatee will not deprive the court of jurisdiction of a claim for fiduciary abuse [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.3(c)]. On petition after the conservatee's death, the right to maintain an action will be transferred either to the decedent's personal representative or to the person or persons entitled to succeed to the decedent's estate [see Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.3(d)]. Further, when it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the conservator (or other responsible person) was guilty of recklessness, oppression, fraud, or malice in the commission of the fiduciary abuse, the conservatee's personal representative or successor in interest will probably be able to claim damages for pain or suffering sustained by the conservatee, notwithstanding the provisions of Code Civ. Proc. § 377.34. That section generally provides that, in an action prosecuted by a deceased person's personal representative or successor in interest, there can be no recovery for pain, suffering, or disfigurement. However, Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 15657(b) and 15657.5(b)(1), which apply to actions for fiduciary abuse, provides that the limitations imposed by Code Civ. Proc. § 337.34 "on the damages recoverable shall not apply" when the defendant has been guilty of recklessness, oppression, fraud, or malice.

[d] Conduct Actionable Under Statutory Provisions

Actionable conduct under Welf. & Inst. Code § 15610.30 (financial abuse) generally is also actionable conduct under Prob. Code §§ 2101 and 16000 et seq. (fiduciary duties of conservators) and other appropriate statutory provisions [see, e.g., Civ. Code § 3336 (conversion)] as a breach of the conservator's fiduciary duty. It appears that the only advantage to proceeding under Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.5 is that attorney's fees are recoverable thereunder.

[8] Acts of Agent

When a guardian or conservator delegates the administration of the estate to another, the guardian or conservator becomes liable for the actions of the person to whom the duties were delegated [see Gaver v. Early (1923) 191 Cal. 123, 127, 215 P. 394] . Although a guardian or conservator may employ attorneys or agents, according to the usual course of business, the guardian's or conservator's personal duties of disposition and management are not to be delegated [see Gaver v. Early (1923) 191 Cal. 123, 127, 215 P. 394] .

[9] Acts of Joint Guardian or Conservator

A guardian or conservator is not strictly liable for the acts or omissions of a coguardian or coconservator that occurred prior to July 1, 1987, to which he or she consented, or that, by his or her negligence, he or she enabled the coguardian or coconservator to commit [see Prob. Code § 2101; Prob. Code § 16402; see also Blackmon v. Hale (1970) 1 Cal. 3d 548, 559, 83 Cal. Rptr. 194, 463 P.2d 418 (trust case)].

A guardian or conservator is not liable to the ward or conservatee for a breach of duty occurring on or after July 1, 1987, that is committed by a coguardian or coconservator, except in circumstances in which [Prob. Code § 16402]:

- The guardian or conservator participates in a breach of duty committed by the coguardian or coconservator;

- The guardian or conservator improperly delegates the administration of the estate to the coguardian or coconservator;

- The guardian or conservator approves, knowingly acquiesces in, or conceals a breach of duty committed by the coguardian or coconservator;

- The guardian or conservator negligently enables the coguardian or coconservator to commit a breach of duty; or

- The guardian or conservator neglects to take reasonable steps to compel the coguardian or coconservator to redress a breach of duty in a case in which the guardian or conservator reasonably should have known of the breach.

Chapter 290D GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: ACTIONS AGAINST GUARDIANS, CONSERVATORS, AND SURETIES
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290D California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290D.13

§ 290D.13 Liability of Surety

[1] Nature and Extent

The bond of a guardian or conservator is conditioned on the faithful execution of the duties of the office according to law [Prob. Code § 2320]. If there is a breach of a condition of the bond of a guardian or conservator, an action may be brought against the sureties on the bond for the use and benefit of the ward or conservatee or of any person interested in the estate [Prob. Code § 2333(a)].

The surety is liable only for injury done to the estate by the guardian or conservator while performing an act in his or her official capacity; the surety is not liable for the guardian's or conservator's personal acts or schemes [see Hornaday v. Hornaday (1949) 95 Cal. App. 2d 384, 396-397, 213 P.2d 91] .

[2] Statute of Limitations

Even though Code Civ. Proc. § 337, which applies to actions based on written contracts, is broad enough to encompass an action on a surety bond, Prob. Code § 2333 is the statute of limitations applicable to an action against the surety on the bond for injury done to the estate by a guardian or conservator in the performance of acts in his or her official capacity, because Prob. Code § 2333 is more specifically applicable to the claim than is Code Civ. Proc. § 337 [see Estate of Mason (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 634, 638, 274 Cal. Rptr. 61 (Prob. Code § 2333 expressly applicable to claim against guardian brought by former ward on surety bond for guardian's performance)]. Under Prob. Code § 2333, no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless commenced within four years from the discharge or removal of the guardian or conservator or within four years from the date the order surcharging the guardian or conservator becomes final, whichever is later [Prob. Code § 2333(b)].

When a judgment or order in a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding becomes final, it releases the sureties from all claims of the ward or conservatee based on an act or omission directly authorized, approved, or confirmed in the judgment or order [Prob. Code § 2103(a)]. This rule does not apply when the judgment or order is obtained by fraud, conspiracy, or misrepresentation [Prob. Code § 2103(b)]. However, in any case, and notwithstanding Prob. Code § 2103(b), no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless the action commences within six years from the date the judgment under Prob. Code § 2103 or the later of the orders under Prob. Code § 2333(b) becomes final [Prob. Code § 2333(c)].

When Prob. Code § 2333 applies, it is arguable that in the situation in which discharge or removal does not or cannot occur, a former ward or conservatee could indefinitely delay obtaining a surcharge order, thereby providing no outside limit on the liability of the surety on the bond. The doctrine of laches, however, could be invoked to ensure that wards and conservatees exercise reasonable diligence in procuring settlement of their guardians' or conservators' accounts [see Estate of Mason (1990) 224 Cal. App. 3d 634, 640, 274 Cal. Rptr. 61] .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290D California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290D.14

§ 290D.14 Extent of Liability

The liability of the guardian or conservator is not limited to the penal amount of the bond [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.470(a)]. A guardian or conservator who uses or disposes of estate property in an unauthorized manner is chargeable with any of the following that are appropriate under the circumstances [see Prob. Code §§ 2101 (relationship subject to law relating to trusts), 16440 (measure of liability for trustees), 16441 (interest)]:

- Any loss or depreciation in the value of the estate resulting from the breach of duty, with interest.
- Any profit made by the guardian or conservator through the breach of duty, with interest.
- Any profit that would have accrued to the estate if the loss of profit is the result of the breach of duty.

If a guardian or conservator has been negligent, but has not willfully or intentionally breached his or her duty, he or she is liable only for simple, rather than compound, interest on the amount due [see Estate of Cousins (1896) 111 Cal. 441, 452, 44 P. 182] . If, however, the guardian or conservator has willfully misappropriated assets from the estate or commingled the funds of the estate with his or her own, the guardian or conservator is liable for the principal sum plus compound interest on the amount due, unless it is shown that a larger sum was realized from the unauthorized use of the estate property [see Gaver v. Early (1923) 191 Cal. 123, 125-126, 215 P. 394 ; Glassell v. Glassell (1905) 147 Cal. 510, 512-513, 82 P. 42] .

Notwithstanding Civ. Code § 2845, a judgment of liability on a bond must be in favor of the beneficiary and against the guardian or conservator and the sureties. The judgment will obligate the guardian or conservator and the sureties jointly and severally [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.460(a)]. The aggregate liability of a surety to all persons for breach of the condition of the bond is limited to the amount of the bond [see Code Civ. Proc. § 996.470(a)]. If, however, the beneficiary makes a claim for payment on the bond after the liability of the guardian or conservator has been established and the surety fails to make payment, the surety is liable for costs incurred in obtaining a judgment against him or her, including reasonable attorney's fees, and interest on the judgment from the date of the claim [see Code Civ. Proc. §

996.480(a)(2); see also Burns v. Massachusetts Bonding etc. Ins. Co. (1944) 62 Cal. App. 2d 972, 975-976, 146 P.2d 29 (decided under former Prob. Code § 554)].

A judgment that does not exhaust the full amount of the bond decreases the amount of the bond, but does not discharge the bond. The liability on the bond may be enforced thereafter from time to time until the amount of the bond is exhausted [Code Civ. Proc. § 996.460(c)]. For further discussion of the liability of principals and sureties on a bond, see Ch. 538, Suretyship, Bonds, and Undertakings .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290D California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290D.15

§ 290D.15 Accounting by Probate Court as Prerequisite to Action Against Guardian, Conservator, or Surety

An action, except an action based on fraud, will not lie against a guardian or conservator or against his or her sureties until after an accounting has been had between the guardian and the ward or the conservator and conservatee [see Richardson v. Royal Indemnity Co. (1943) 21 Cal. 2d 557, 560, 134 P.2d 1 ; Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 51, 19 P.2d 1018] . The probate court has exclusive jurisdiction of the accounting, and the accounting is a prerequisite to the maintenance of an action on the bond [Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 51-52, 19 P.2d 1018 ; see Price v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Companies (1987) 193 Cal. App. 3d 1536, 1541, 239 Cal. Rptr. 158 (action for conversion)]. When an action based on fraud is brought after the final accounting in the probate proceeding, it is not necessary to obtain a court order determining liability of the principal before an action on the bond can be brought against the surety; the liability of both the principal and the surety can be adjudicated in one proceeding [see Alexandrou v. Alexander (1974) 37 Cal. App. 3d 306, 311-313, 112 Cal. Rptr. 307 (estate administration case)].

§ 290D.16 Jurisdiction

The superior court has jurisdiction of an action against a guardian or conservator as an unlimited civil case or as a limited civil case [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 85, 86(a)(1)]. An action is a limited civil case if the amount in controversy, exclusive of interest, is $25,000 or less, and the relief sought is exclusively of a type that described in one or more statutes that classify an action or proceeding as a limited civil case [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 85(b),(c), 86(a)(1)]. For further discussion of subject matter jurisdiction, see Ch. 324, Jurisdiction: Subject Matter .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290D California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290D.17

§ 290D.17 Venue

When a defendant is sued in an official capacity as guardian or conservator on a claim for the payment of money or for the recovery of personal property, the county which has jurisdiction of the estate which the defendant represents is the proper county for the trial of the action, except as otherwise provided in Prob. Code § 17005 pertaining to trustees [Code Civ. Proc. § 395.1; see Prob. Code § 17005 (proceeding under Prob. Code § 15000 et seq. generally (Trust Law)); see also Prob. Code §§ 82 (definition of trust), 17300-17302 (testamentary trust subject to continuing court jurisdiction)]. Thus, for example, an action by a third party against a ward and his or her guardian to recover personal property after termination of the guardianship, but prior to the delivery of the estate to the ward and the discharge of the guardian, is properly brought in the county having jurisdiction of the estate [Haines v. Lamb (1962) 24 Cal. Rptr. 146 ; see also Abbey v. Schaefer (1952) 108 Cal. App. 2d 554, 556, 239 P.2d 44 (action against executrix for recovery of funds held by her and claimed as part of decedent's estate, and not alleging misappropriation by her or conversion to her own use, as properly brought in county having jurisdicition of the estate)].

However, it would appear that the general venue provisions for civil actions apply for an action against a former guardian or conservator and his or her surety by the former ward or conservatee after removal of the guardian or conservator or termination of the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding and settlement of the account by the probate court [see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 395, 395.5]. Except as otherwise provided by law and subject to the power of the court to transfer actions, the county in which the defendants, or some of them, reside at the commencement of the action is the proper county for the trial of the action [Code Civ. Proc. § 395(a)]. Subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial as in other cases, a corporation may be sued in the county where [Code Civ. Proc. § 395.5]:

- The contract is made or is to be performed;
- The obligation or liability arises or the breach occurs; or
- The principal place of business of the corporation is situated.

§ 290D.32 Decisions

[1] Liability of Guardian or Conservator in Management of Estate

[a] In General

"Trust property" as used in former Civ. Code § 2236 (now see Prob. Code § 16009) includes real property as well as money, so that willfully and unnecessarily taking title to real property belonging to trust in individual name of trustee or taking note with mortgage as security for money belonging to trust constitutes commingling trust property with trustee's own. In re Guardianship of Bane (1898) 120 Cal. 533, 537, 52 P. 852

Guardian's liability for loss to estate depends on circumstances under which loss occurred. In re Guardianship of Curtis (1898) 121 Cal. 468, 472, 53 P. 936

Guardian is liable for loss on investments made on inadequate security without advice and consent of court. In re Guardianship of Carver (1897) 118 Cal. 73, 74, 50 P. 22

Trust beneficiary's civil actions against conservators of trustor's person and estate did not violate no-contest clause in trust because actions made no claim against assets of trust or trustor's testamentary or conservatorship estate and sought damages from conservators personally rather than from conservatorship estate. Poag v. Winston (1987) 195 Cal. App. 3d 1161, 1176-1179, 241 Cal. Rptr. 330

Conservator, as fiduciary, is subject to rules governing trustees and owes duty of loyalty requiring that he or she act in highest good faith; conservator is liable for any breach of fiduciary duty. Poag v. Winston (1987) 195 Cal. App. 3d 1161, 1176-1177, 1180, 241 Cal. Rptr. 330

Under former Civ. Code § 2261(c) (now see Prob. Code § 16225, operative July 1, 1987), conservator bank was permitted to deposit trust funds with itself at interest; however, since bank has duty to maximize trust assets consistent with safety and other relevant considerations, bank bore burden of proving that circumstances justified investment in low-interest passbook account, rather than higher interest 30-day account. Conservatorship of Pelton (1982) 132 Cal. App. 3d 496, 501-503, 183 Cal. Rptr. 188

Province of probate court in settling guardian's account includes power to surcharge guardian and determine all necessarily incidental issues. Guardianship of Wood (1961) 193 Cal. App. 2d 260, 267, 14 Cal. Rptr. 147

[b] Acts of Agent

Guardians who delegated duties of administration of guardianship estate to attorney were liable for loss due to attorney's misappropriation of estate assets. Gaver v. Early (1923) 191 Cal. 123, 126-127, 215 P. 394

[c] No Liability Incurred

Conservator is released from liability for actions authorized or approved by court unless order obtained by fraud, conspiracy, or misrepresentation of material fact. Conservatorship of Harvey (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 646, 651, 91 Cal. Rptr. 510, 477 P.2d 742

Guardian who invested money of ward in mortgage of real property pursuant to court order was not liable for loss; failure to foreclose mortgage was error in judgment, but not negligence constituting liability. Estate of Schandoney (1901) 133 Cal. 387, 390, 394, 65 P. 877

Guardian of estate of incompetent widow who acts in good faith with ordinary diligence and prudence in maintaining ward from her own estate and not seeking widow's allowance was not liable for mistake in judgment. Guardianship of Blair (1956) 139 Cal. App. 2d 832, 835-836, 294 P.2d 521

[d] Amount of Liability

Limit of liability of guardian is return of principal sum with legal interest compounded annually when misappropriation of funds was willful, rather than careless, and it is not shown that a larger sum was realized from the misappropriation. Gaver v. Early (1923) 191 Cal. 123, 125-126, 215 P. 394 ; Guardianship of O'Connor (1938) 28 Cal. App. 2d 527, 529-530, 83 P.2d 65

Guardian is liable for compound interest for commingling funds of ward with own. Glassell v. Glassell (1905) 147 Cal. 510, 512-513, 82 P. 42

Guardian is liable only for simple, rather than compound, interest when there has been no willful breach of duty or any intentional violation of obligations of trust. Estate of Cousins (1896) 111 Cal. 441, 452, 44 P. 182

[e] Fraudulent Concealment of Assets

Perjury, being intrinsic fraud, does not constitute sufficient basis for equitable relief against judgment settling final account of guardian. Adams v. Martin (1935) 3 Cal. 2d 246, 248-249, 44 P.2d 572

Guardian is liable for fraudulent concealment of assets of state despite prior final settlement of account. Lataillade v. Orena (1891) 91 Cal. 565, 576, 27 P. 924

Prob. Code § 2103(b)'s "fraud" exception as referring to extrinsic fraud and does not include claim that guardian fraudulently misrepresented its skill and improperly invested guardianship funds when investment losses were disclosed in accounting and alleged fraud had no effect on ward's ability to attend accounting hearing or to litigate claim. Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 714-715, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685

[f] Attorney's Fees and Costs

Value of estate is appropriate factor to consider in setting attorney's fees under Welf. & Inst. Code § 15657.1. Conservatorship of Levitt (2001) 93 Cal. App. 4th 544, 550, 113 Cal. Rptr. 2d 294

[2] Liability of Surety

Statute of limitations for bringing action against guardians does not begin to run on death of guardian. Maloney v. Mass. Bonding & Ins. Co. (1942) 20 Cal. 2d 1, 10, 123 P.2d 449

Action for fraudulent concealment of assets after final settlement of account is timely when brought within statutory period after discovery of fraud. Miller v. Ash (1909) 156 Cal. 544, 562-564, 105 P. 600

Action for accounting and surcharge order against guardian is prerequisite to action against surety on guardian's bond in absence of any recognized exception to this requirement. Price v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Companies (1987) 193 Cal. App. 3d 1536, 1541, 239 Cal. Rptr. 158

Guardian's failure to appear and avoidance of service of process in action for conversion of estate assets does not relieve ward of necessity of obtaining accounting and surcharge order against guardian before suing surety on guardian's bond. Price v. Fireman's Fund Ins. Companies (1987) 193 Cal. App. 3d 1536, 1541, 239 Cal. Rptr. 158

Surety is not liable for personal acts or schemes of guardian. Hornaday v. Hornaday (1949) 95 Cal. App. 2d 384, 396-397, 213 P.2d 91

Surety is liable for interest up to face amount of bond; surety is liable for interest beyond face amount only for its own default in failure to make payment when due. Burns v. Massachusetts Bonding etc. Ins. Co. (1944) 62 Cal. App. 2d 972, 975-976, 146 P.2d 29

Settlement of guardian's account is conclusive against guardian's sureties. Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 52, 55, 19 P.2d 1018

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the plaintiff in the above-entitled action. I have read the foregoing complaint and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters which are therein alleged on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

_____[date]

_____ [signature]

[2] Use of Form

The complaint in [1], above, is for use by a former ward or conservatee to recover from the former guardian or conservator and surety money surcharged to the guardian or conservator on the final account.

[3] Contents of Complaint

No action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless commenced within four years from the discharge or removal of the guardian or conservator or within four years from the date the order surcharging the guardian or conservator becomes final, whichever is later [Prob. Code § 2333(b)].

In the case of a judgment or order based on fraud, conspiracy, or misrepresentation, no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless it is commenced within six years from the date that the judgment under Prob. Code § 2103 or the later of the orders under Prob. Code § 2333(b) becomes final [Prob. Code § 2333(c)]. Accordingly, the complaint should state in order to establish that the action is being brought within the statute of limitations:

- When the guardian or conservator was removed or when the guardianship or conservatorship was terminated (Paragraph 1).

- When the final judgment or order, or order surcharging the guardian or conservator was rendered (Paragraph 5).

The complaint should also allege:

- The defendant's status as surety on the bond (Paragraphs 3, 4).
- That the guardian or conservator has been surcharged on the final account (Paragraph 5).
- That the surcharged amount has not been paid and is due and owing (Paragraph 6) [see Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 51-52, 19 P.2d 1018 (accounting as condition precedent to maintenance of action on bond; probate court as having exclusive jurisdiction of accounting)].

[4] Jurisdiction

The superior court has jurisdiction of the action, which will be classified as an unlimited civil case unless the amount in controversy, exclusive of interest, is $25,000 or less, in which case it will be classified as a limited civil case [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 85, 86(a)(1)].

In limited civil cases, the caption must identify the case as a limited civil case and must state whether the demand exceeds or does not exceed $10,000 [Code Civ. Proc. § 422.30(b); Gov. Code § 70613(b); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 2.111(9), (10)].

[5] Venue

Venue is governed by the general venue provisions for civil actions [see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 395 (venue in county of defendant's residence), 395.5 (venue for corporations or associations); see also § 290D.17].

[6] Verification

Although verification of this complaint is not required [see Code Civ. Proc. § 128.7(a)], verification will require any answer to be verified in an unlimited civil case [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 92(b), 446]. Verification will also preclude the defendant from using a general denial in an unlimited civil case, and will preclude a general denial in a limited civil case if the action is a claim assigned to a third party for collection [Code Civ. Proc. § 431.30(d)]. For further discussion, see Ch. 26, Answers .

The verification shown here complies with the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. §§ 446 and 2015.5.

[Verification. See § 290D.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The complaint in [1], above, is for use by a former ward or conservatee to recover damages for the conversion of estate assets by the former guardian or conservator.

[3] Contents of Complaint

The complaint should include the following allegations:

- The defendants' status as the former guardian or conservator and the surety on the bond (Paragraphs 1-4) [see § 290D.40[3]].

- The plaintiff's right to possession of certain identifiable assets (Paragraph 5).

- The value of the assets, plaintiff's demand for delivery, defendant's conversion of the assets (Paragraph 6).

- Damages (Paragraph 7).

For further discussion and forms, see Ch. 150, Conversion .

[4] Measure of Damages

The measure of damages for conversion is [Civ. Code § 3336]:

- The value of the property at the time of the conversion, with the interest from that time, or an amount sufficient to indemnify the party injured for the loss which is the natural, reasonable, and proximate result of the wrongful act complained of and which a proper degree of prudence on his or her part would not have averted.

- A fair compensation for the time and money properly expended in pursuit of the property. Although the scope of proper expenditures is not defined by statute or case law, it has been held that Civ. Code § 3336 does not allow for the recovery of attorney's fees [see Viner v. Untrecht (1945) 26 Cal. 2d 261, 272, 158 P.2d 3] .

Exemplary damages may also be available in an action for conversion [see Civ. Code § 3294]. For discussion and a form for an allegation, see Ch. 150, Conversion .

	)	LENT CONCEALMENT OF ASSETS

Plaintiff alleges:

1. _____[Defendant's status as former guardian or conservator. See § 290D.40[1], Paragraph 1.]

2. _____[Defendant's residence and status as nonprofit corporation. See § 290D.40[1], Paragraph 2.]

3. _____[Defendant's status as surety. See § 290D.40[1], Paragraph 3.]

4. _____[Allegations regarding existence of bond. See § 290D.40[1], Paragraph 4.]

5. On _____[date], defendant _____[name] filed a final account in the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] proceeding, and the account was settled on _____[date]. Defendant _____[name] paid the assets of the estate listed in the final account to plaintiff, and defendant _____[name] was discharged as _____ [guardian or conservator] on _____[date]. Copies of the orders settling the final account and discharging defendant _____[name] are attached as Exhibits B and C, respectively, and incorporated by reference.

6. At the time the final account was settled, defendant _____[name] represented that the final account included all of the assets of the estate which he/she was required to account for and to deliver to plaintiff.

7. On or about _____[date], plaintiff first learned that defendant _____[name] had concealed the following assets of the _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] estate and failed to include them in the final account: _____[specify]. Prior to that time, plaintiff was not aware of the omission of the assets from the final account because _____ [specify, e.g., defendant _____ (name) concealed the existence of the assets from plaintiff when they were acquired by the estateand failed to include them in the _____ [inventory or inventories] and accounts rendered in the _____ (guardianship or conservatorship) proceeding]. [If assets are property other than money, add: The reasonable value of the assets is $_____.]

8. The actions of defendant _____[name] regarding the assets were fraudulent in that _____ [specify, e.g., defendant _____ (name) knew that the assets belonged to the estate, failed to include them in the final account as he/she was required to do, represented that all of the estate assets were included in the final account, and concealed their existence from plaintiff, the court, and plaintiff's relatives].

9. Because of the actions of defendant _____[name] regarding the assets, plaintiff justifiably thought that all of the estate assets had been accounted for and delivered to him/her and did not object to the settlement of the final account and the discharge of defendant _____[name].

10. As a proximate result of the fraudulent actions of defendant _____[name], plaintiff _____ [allege facts showing allowable damages, e.g., has been deprived of $_____ belonging to the estate and interest on that amount for _____ months], by reason of which plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of $_____.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment against defendants, and each of them, as follows:

1. For the value of the assets fraudulently concealed in the sum of $_____;

2. For damages for _____ [specify, e.g., interest] in the sum of $_____;

3. For costs of suit herein incurred; and

4. For such other and further relief as the court may deem proper.

_____ [firm name, if any]
By: _____ [signature]
_____ [typed name]
Attorney for Plaintiff

[Verification. See § 290D.40[1].]

[2] Use of Form

The complaint in [1], above, is for use by a former ward or conservatee to recover damages for assets fraudulently concealed by the former guardian or conservator and omitted from the final account. It should be noted that the facts involved in a case of fraudulent concealment may also constitute the basis for other causes of action, such as conversion. For allegations regarding conversion of assets, see § 290D.41[1].

[3] Contents of Complaint

The complaint in [1], above, alleges:

- The defendants' status as former guardian or conservator and surety (Paragraphs 1-3).
- The existence of the bond (Paragraph 4).
- Defendant's failure to disclose the existence of assets which he or she was required to include in the final account (Paragraphs 6, 7).
- Defendant's fraudulent intent (Paragraph 8).
- Plaintiff's justifiable reliance and damages (Paragraphs 9, 10).

The suppression of a fact by one who is bound to disclose it may constitute a deceit which is the basis for a cause of action for damages [see Civ. Code §§ 1709, 1710; for further discussion, see Ch. 269, Fraud and Deceit]. Because an action for relief on the ground of fraud must be brought within three years of the discovery of the facts constituting fraud [see Code Civ. Proc. § 338(d)]. In addition, and in any case, no action may be maintained against the sureties on the bond unless the action commences within six years from the date that the judgment or order under Prob. Code § 2103 or the later of the orders under Prob. Code § 2333(b) (orders for discharge or removal or surcharge of guardian or conservator) becomes final [Prob. Code § 2333(c)]. Therefore, the complaint should state the date on which the fraudulent concealment was discovered (Paragraph 7).

[4] Measure of Damages

The measure of damages in an action for fraudulent concealment of assets is governed by the statutory provisions for compensatory damages for deceit [see Civ. Code §§ 1709, 3333]. One who willfully deceives another with intent to induce that person to alter his or her position to his or her injury or risk is liable for any damages which the injured party suffers [Civ. Code § 1709]. The measure of damages for the breach of an obligation not arising from contract, except when otherwise provided by the Civil Code, is the amount which will compensate for all the detriment proximately caused by the breach, whether it could have been anticipated or not [Civ. Code § 3333]. Exemplary damages may also be available in an action based on fraud and deceit [see Civ. Code § 3294]. For further discussion of damages and forms for allegations, see Ch. 269, Fraud and Deceit .

[2] Use of Form

The demurrer in [1], above, is for use when the plaintiff fails to allege in a cause of action against a former guardian or conservator or his or her surety on the bond that there has been a prior judicial decree that theguardian or conservator is liable to the ward or conservatee and the extent of that liability [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 430.10, 430.60; see Richardson v. Royal Indemnity Co. (1943) 21 Cal. 2d 557, 560, 134 P.2d 1 ; see also § 290D.15].

Chapter 290E GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: ACCOUNTS
PART I. SCOPE

24-290E California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290E.01

§ 290E.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses the accounts filed by guardians or conservators of the estate. This chapter contains the following forms:

- A citation to appear and show cause why a guardian or conservator should not be punished for contempt for failing to file an account or to set it for a hearing [Prob. Code §§ 1240-1242, 2620.2(b), 2620.2(c)(2)] [see § 290E.70].

- A form for a first or current account and a petition for fees [Prob. Code § 2640] [see § 290E.71].

- Judicial Council forms for the summary of account [see § 290E.71A], schedules of charges and credits for use with either a simplified account [see § 290E.71B] or a standard account [see § 290E.71C], and a worksheet for use calculating credits and disbursements for a standard account [see § 290E.71D].

- An objection to an account [Prob. Code § 2622] [see § 290E.72].

- An order settling an account [Prob. Code §§ 2620, 2640] [see § 290E.73].

- A petition by a successor guardian or conservator for an order compelling an absconding, deceased, or incapacitated guardian's or conservator's attorney to render a final account, and an order compelling the attorney to render such an account [Prob. Code § 2632(c)] [see §§ 290E.74, 290E.75].

- A final account and petition for discharge and an order settling the final account and discharging the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code §§ 1060-1064, 2620, 2640] [see §§ 290E.76, 290E.77].

- A declaration and order for the final discharge of a guardian or conservator [see § 290E.78].

§ 290E.10 Governing Statutes

Prob. Code §§ 1060-1064 prescribe rules that must be met whenever an account is filed with the court in any proceeding subject to the Probate Code [Prob. Code § 1060].

The laws governing the interim accounts of guardians or conservators of the estate are set forth in Prob. Code §§ 2620-2628, and the law governing accounts of temporary guardians or conservators is set forth in Prob. Code § 2256.

Prob. Code §§ 2630-2633 contain the law governing accounts on the termination of the relationship between guardian and ward or between conservator and conservatee.

As used in this chapter, the term "guardian" refers to guardian of the estate and the term "conservator" refers to conservator of the estate. Conservator also includes limited conservators of the estate to the extent that the limited conservator's powers and duties are specifically and expressly provided by the order appointing him or her [see Prob. Code § 2600(a) (definition of "conservator" as used in Prob. Code §§ 2600-2633)].

24-290E California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290E.20

§ 290E.20 When Account Must Be Presented

The guardian or conservator of the estate must present an account to the court for settlement and allowance at the expiration of one year from the time of appointment and thereafter not less frequently than biennially, unless ordered otherwise by the court [Prob. Code § 2620(a); for a form of account, see § 290E.71]. Although two years is generally the longest period allowable between accounts, accounts should be presented more frequently when the guardianship or conservatorship has been active, or when the guardian or conservatorship has independent powers and the court is not required to authorize specific acts. Frequent accounting will help to limit the guardian's or conservator's liability by submitting his or her acts to the court for review and approval without undue delay [see Prob. Code § 2103].

A guardian or conservator does not comply with the account requirement by presenting an account that is so inaccurate that investigation by a referee becomes necessary [Clark v. State Bar (1952) 39 Cal. 2d 161, 173, 246 P.2d 1 (guardianship)].

A temporary guardian or conservator of the estate who is not subsequently appointed guardian or conservator of the estate must present his or her account to the court for settlement and allowance within 90 days of the appointment of the guardian or conservator or within such other time as the court may fix [Prob. Code § 2256(a)]. If the temporary guardian or conservator of the estate is appointed guardian or conservator of the estate, the guardian or conservator may account for his or her administration as temporary guardian or conservator in his or her first regular account [Prob. Code § 2256(b)].

§ 290E.22 Dispensing With Accounting for Small Estates

[1] Order Dispensing With Accounts

The court may make an order that the guardian or conservator need not present the accounts otherwise required if all of the following conditions are satisfied [Prob. Code § 2628(a)]:

- At the beginning and end of a period for which an account is otherwise required the estate consisted of property, exclusive of the residence of the ward or conservatee, of a total net value of less than $15,000.

- The income of the estate for each month of the accounting period, exclusive of public benefit payments, was less than $2,000.

- All income of the estate during the accounting period, if not retained, was spent for the benefit of the ward or conservatee.

For any accounting period during which all of these conditions are not satisfied, the guardian or conservator must present the account as otherwise required [Prob. Code § 2628(c)].

[2] Petition to Require Accounting

Even if a court has made an order dispensing with accounting, the ward or conservatee or any interested person may petition the court for an order requiring the guardian or conservator to present an account as otherwise required, or the court on its own motion may make such an order. This order may be made ex parte or on such notice of hearing as the court in its discretion requires [Prob. Code § 2628(b)].

24-290E California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290E.23

§ 290E.23 Failure to File Account or Set for Hearing Within Time Required

[1] Notice to Guardian or Conservator

Whenever a guardian or conservator has failed to file a required account, the court must require that written notice be given to the guardian or conservator and the attorney of record for the guardianship or conservatorship directing the guardian or conservator to file an account and to set the account for hearing before the court within 30 days of the date of the notice or, if the guardian or conservator is a public agency, within 45 days of the date of notice [Prob. Code § 2620.2(a)]. The court, upon cause shown, may grant an additional 30 days to file the accounting [Prob. Code § 2620.2(a)].

[2] Procedure on Failure to File After Notice

[a] Actions Available to Court

Failure to file the account within the time specified in the notice and any additional time allowed by the court under Prob. Code § 2620.2(a), or within 45 days of actual receipt of the notice, whichever is later, constitutes a contempt of the authority of the court under Code Civ. Pro. § 1209 [Prob. Code § 2620.2(b)].

If the conservator or guardian does not file an account and set the account for hearing as required by Prob. Code § 2620 the court is required to take one or more of the actions specified below in § 290E.23[2][b] -[f], and must report that action to the Professional Fiduciaries Bureau [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c); see Bus. & Prof. Code § 6510 (creation of Bureau)].

[b] Removal

If the conservator or guardian does not file an account and set the account for hearing as required by Prob. Code § 2620 the court may remove the conservator or guardian as provided under Prob. Code § 2650 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c)(1)].

[c] Citation

If the conservator or guardian does not file an account and set the account for hearing as required by Prob. Code § 2620 the court may issue and serve a citation requiring the guardian or conservator to appear and show cause why he or she should not be punished for contempt. If the guardian or conservator purposely evades personal service of the citation, the guardian or conservator must be removed from office [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c)(2)].

[d] Appointment of Temporary Conservator or Guardian

If the conservator or guardian does not file an account and set the account for hearing as required by Prob. Code § 2620, the court may suspend the powers of the conservator or guardian and appoint a temporary conservator or guardian, who must take possession of the conservatorship or guardianship assets, investigate the actions of the conservator or guardian, and petition for surcharge if in the best interest of the ward or conservatee. Compensation for the temporary conservator or guardian, and counsel for the temporary conservator or guardian, is treated as a surcharge against the conservator or guardian, and if unpaid is a breach of condition of the bond, unless for good cause shown the court finds that the temporary conservator or guardian, and counsel for the temporary conservator or guardian, are to be compensated from the estate [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c)(3)].

[e] Appointment of Legal Counsel

If the conservator or guardian does not file an account and set the account for hearing as required by Prob. Code § 2620 the court may appoint legal counsel to represent the ward or conservatee if the court has not suspended the powers of the conservator or guardian and appoint a temporary conservator or guardian. Compensation for the appointed counsel is treated as a surcharge against the conservator, and if unpaid is considered a breach of a condition on the bond, unless for good cause shown the court finds that counsel for the ward or conservatee is to be compensated according to Prob. Code § 1470. The court must order the legal counsel to do one or more of the following:

- Investigate the actions of the conservator or guardian, and petition for surcharge if it is in the best interest of the ward or conservatee.

- Recommend to the court whether the conservator or guardian should be removed.

- Recommend to the court whether money or other property in the estate should be deposited pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 2453, 2453.5, 2454, or 2455 to be subject to withdrawal only upon authorization of the court [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c)(4)(A)].

After resolution of the matters for which legal counsel was appointed, the court must terminate the appointment of legal counsel, unless it determines that continued representation of the ward or conservatee and the estate is necessary and reasonable [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c)(4)(B)].

[f] Extension of Time to File Account

If the conservator or guardian does not file an account and set the account for hearing as required by Prob. Code § 2620 the court may grant, upon ex parte application or such notice as it may require, time to file the account, not to exceed an additional 30 days after the expiration of the original deadline, if the court finds there is good cause and the estate is adequately bonded. After expiration of anysuch extensions, if the account has not been filed, the court must take other action [Prob. Code § 2620.2(c)(5)].

§ 290E.24 Items for Which Guardian or Conservator Is Not Accountable

The court may authorize the guardian or conservator to pay the ward or conservatee a reasonable allowance for his or her personal use. The allowance will be in an amount that the court determines to be in the best interest of the ward or conservatee, and it will be paid out of the estate [Prob. Code § 2421(a)]. Once paid, the allowance is subject to the sole control of the ward or conservatee. The guardian or conservator is not required to account for any such allowance, other than to establish that it has been paid to the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2421(c)].

§ 290E.30 Financial Statement and Report

[1] General Requirement

The account must include a financial statement and a report of administration as provided in Prob. Code §§ 1060-1064 [see Prob. Code § 2620(a)]. Prob. Code §§ 1060-1064 govern all accounts to be filed with the court and, except as specifically provided elsewhere in the Probate Code, or unless good cause is shown, no information in addition to that required in Prob. Code §§ 1060-1064 need be in an account [Prob. Code § 1060].

As part of the first accounting required to be filed after appointment, the guardian or conservator must submit both of the following to the court [Prob. Code § 2620(c)(2)-(5)]:

- All account statements showing the account balance as of the closing date of the accounting period of the court accounting.

- If the court accounting is the first court accounting, all account statements showing the account balance immediately preceding the date of appointment and all account statements showing the account balance as of the closing date of the first court accounting.

- If the guardian or conservator is a private professional or licensed guardian or conservator, all original account statements, showing the balance as of all periods covered by the accounting.

- The original, closing escrow statement received showing the charges and credits for any sale of real property of the estate.

- If the ward or conservatee is in a residential care facility or a long-term care facility, the original bill statements for the facility.

The preceding requirements do not apply to the public guardian if the money belonging to the estate is pooled with money belonging to other estates under Prob. Code §§ 2940, 7640 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2620(c)(6)].

If any document to be filed with the court contains the ward or conservatee's social security number, or any other personal information regarding the ward or conservatee that ordinarily would not be disclosed in a court accounting, inventory and appraisal, or other nonconfidential pleadings, the statement must be attached to a separate affidavit describing the character of the document in proper form for filing, captioned "CONFIDENTIAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT" in capital letters. Except as otherwise ordered by the court, the clerk of the court is required to keep the document confidential except to the court and subject to disclosure only upon court order [Prob. Code § 2620(c)(7)].

Courts may provide by local rule that the court will retain all documents lodged with it until the court's determination of the account has become final, at which time all supporting documents must be returned to the depositing guardian or conservator or delivered to any successor appointed by the court [Prob. Code § 2620(c)(8)].

However, the court is not precluded from taking any other appropriate action in response to a failure to file a proper accounting in a timely manner [Prob. Code § 2620.2(d)].

Any account may be filed as a standard account. If specified criteria are met, an option exists to file a simplified account instead of a standard account [see Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575; see also [2] and [3], below]. All accounts, whether standard or simplified, must provide all information in account schedules and a summary of account as required by Prob. Code §§ 1060-1063, and must provide all information required by Prob. Code § 1064 in the petition for approval of their account or the report accompanying their account [see Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575(f), see also §§ 290E.71A -290E.71C].

As of January 1, 2008, all accounts must be submitted on Judicial Council forms [Prob. Code § 2620(a); see Prob. Code §§ 1060-1064; see also forms in §§ 290E.71A -290E.71D]. In practice, this means that all accounts must use the standard Judicial Council Summary of Account form [Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-400(SUM)/GC-405(SUM); see § 290E.71A], and simplified accounts also must use the Judicial Council forms for Schedules A and C (receipts and disbursement) as well [see Cal. Judicial Council Forms GC-405(A) and GC-405(C), reproduced in § 290E.71B]. However, in the case of standard accounts, use of the Judicial Council schedules (as opposed to the summary) is optional [see § 290E.71C (schedules for standard account)]. For more detailed discussion of the use of the summary and schedules, see discussion in §§ 290E.31, 20.32.

[2] Standard Account

A standard account lists receipts and disbursements in subject matter categories, with each receipt and disbursement category subtotaled [Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575(a)]. A conservator or guardian may file any account required or authorized by Prob. Code § 2620 as a standard account, and must file a standard account in any of the following circumstances [Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575(b)]:

- The estate contains income real property.

- The estate contains a whole or partial interest in a trade or business.

- The appraised value of the estate is $500,000 or more, exclusive of the conservatee's or ward's personal residence.

- Schedule A (receipts) or Schedule C (disbursements) prepared in a simplified account format exceeds five pages in length [subject to Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575(c)].

- The court directs that a standard account be filed.

[3] Simplified Account

A simplified account lists receipts and disbursements chronologically, by receipt or payment date, without subject matter categories [Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575(a)]. A conservator or guardian may file a simplified account in all cases not specified in [2], above [Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575(c)].

[1] Content of Summary

[a] In General

Every account must state the period that it covers and contain a summary showing all of the following, to the extent applicable [Prob. Code § 1061(a)]:

- Property on hand at the beginning of the account period.
- The value of any assets received during the account period that are not assets on hand as of the commencement of that period.
- The amount of any receipts of income or principal, excluding items listed under the first two categories above, or receipts from a trade or business.
- Net income from a trade or business.
- Gains on sales.
- The amount of disbursements, excluding disbursements for a trade or business or distributions.
- Losses on sales.
- Net loss from a trade or business.
- Distributions to the ward or conservatee.
- Property on hand at the end of the account period, stated at its carry value.

[b] When Guardianship or Conservatorship Terminates Before Filing of Inventory

When the guardianship or conservatorship terminates before an inventory of theestate has been filed, the court may relieve the guardian or conservator of the duty to file an inventory and appraisal, and permit the guardian or conservator to file an account covering only those assets of the estate of which the guardian or conservator has possession or control [Prob. Code § 2633].

[2] Format of Summary

As of January 1, 2008, all summaries of account (both standard and simplified accounts) must be submitted on the official Judicial Council Summary of Account form [Prob. Code § 2620(a); Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-400(SUM)/GC-405(SUM); see § 290E.71A]. The summary must show all of the charges and credits to which the guardian or conservator is entitled for the account period, and the charges and credits must be supported by detailed schedules [Prob. Code § 1061(b)].

Specified categories of items must be included, unless they are inapplicable [Prob. Code § 1061(b)]:

- CHARGES:
  - Property on hand at the beginning of the account period (or inventories).
  - Additional property received (or supplemental inventories).
  - Receipts.
  - Gains on sales or other dispositions.
  - Net income from a trade or business.
  - Total charges.
- CREDITS:
  - Disbursements.
  - Losses on sales or other dispositions.
  - Net loss from a trade or business.
  - Distributions.
  - Property on hand at the close of the account.
  - Total Credits.

Amounts must be shown for each of the categories in dollars [Prob. Code § 1061(b)]. "Net income" and "net loss" must be determined in accordance with general accounting principles and need not be the same as the "net income" and "net loss" reported on the tax returns for the account period [Prob. Code § 1061(d)]. The total charges must equal the total credits [Prob. Code § 1061(c)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND
C. Contents of Account

24-290E California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290E.32

§ 290E.32 Schedules

The summary of account must be supported by detailed schedules [Prob. Code § 1062].

For a simplified account, Schedule A (Receipts) (Judicial Council Form GC-405(A)) and Schedule C (Disbursements) (Judicial Council Form GC-405(C)) must be completed [see § 290E.71B (forms)]. Schedule A must contain noncapital items by the estate of the conservatee or ward, and Schedule C must contain payments from the estate of the conservatee or ward. When a simplified account is made, use of the California Judicial Council forms for Schedules A and C is mandatory as of January 1, 2008 [see Prob. Code § 2620(a); Cal. Judicial Council Forms GC-405(A) and GC-405(C), reproduced in § 290E.71B]. Some of the optional schedules used for standard accounts also may be used for simplified accounts in appropriate cases, as discussed below.

For a standard account, the Judicial Council has prescribed a series of detailed schedules, which are listed below [see § 290E.71C for forms]. While Prob. Code § 2620(a) requires that as of January 1, 2008, all accounts must be submitted on Judicial Council forms [Prob. Code § 2620(a)], use of the Judicial Council schedules (as opposed to the summary of account) is nevertheless optional in the case of standard accounts. This means, for example, that software-generated forms for the various schedules may be used for a standard account, as long as they conform to the numbering scheme and content that must appear on the Judicial Council's mandatory summary of account form [see § 290E.31].

When a zero has been included on the summary of account form for a particular category, the corresponding schedule for that category need not be included. However, the remaining schedules should not be relabeled or redesignated.

The following schedules and Judicial Council forms are prescribed for standard accounts (and, as noted, may also be used for simplified accounts):

- Schedule A is for standard accounts for receipts for dividends, interest, pensions, annuities and other periodic payments, rent, social security, veterans, or other public benefits, and other receipts. Schedule A is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(1) is used for receipts from dividends.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(2) is used for receipts from interest.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(3) is used for receipts from pensions, annuities, and other regular periodic payments.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(4) is used for receipts from rent.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(5) is used for receipts from social security, veterans' benefits, and other public benefits.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(6) is used for other receipts.

- Schedule B (Judicial Council Form GC-400(B)/GC-405(B)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for gains on sales.

- Schedule C is for standard accounts for disbursements for conservatee's caregiver expenses, residential or long-term care facility expenses, ward's educational expenses, fiduciary and attorney fees, general administration expenses, investment expenses, living expenses, medical expenses, property sale expenses, rental property expenses, and other expenses. Schedule C is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(1) is used for disbursements for caregiver expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(2) is used for disbursements for the conservatee's residential or long-term care facility expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(3) is used for disbursements for a ward's education expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(4) is used for disbursements for fiduciary and attorney's fees.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(5) is used for disbursements for general administration expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(6) is used for disbursements for investment expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(7) is used for disbursements for living expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(8) is used for disbursements for medical expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(9) is used for disbursements for property sale expenses.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(10) is used for disbursements for rental property expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(11) is used for disbursements for other expenses.

- Schedule D (Judicial Council Form GC-400(D)/GC-405(D)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for losses on sale.

- Schedule E is for both standard and simplified accounts for cash and non-cash assets on hand at end of account period. Schedule E is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(E)(1)/GC-405(E)(1) is used for cash assets on hand at the end of the account period.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(E)(1)/GC-405(E)(2) is used for non-cash assets on hand at the end of the account period.

- Schedule F (Judicial Council Form GC-400(F)/GC-405(F)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for changes in form of assets.

- Schedule G (Judicial Council Form GC-400(G)/GC-405(G)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for liabilities at end of account period.

- Additional schedules for standard accounts:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(NI) is used to report net income from a trade or business.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(NL) is used to report net loss from a trade or business.

- Additional schedules for both standard and simplified accounts:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(OCH)/GC-405(OCH) is used to report other charges.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(OCR)/GC-405(OCR) is used to report other credits.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(PH)(1)/GC-405(PH)(1) is used to report cash assets on hand at the beginning of the account period.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(PH)(2)/GC-405(PH)(2) is used to report non-cash assets on hand at the beginning of the account period.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(AP)/GC-405(AP) is used to report additional property received during the period of account.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(DIST)/GC-405(DIST) is used to report Distributions to the conservatee or ward.

Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(C) [see § 290E.71D] is a worksheet that can be used to help organize and calculate receipts and disbursements and assist in determining which of the sub-schedules listed above need to be filed in a given case.

Notice of the hearing on the account of the guardian or conservator must begiven for the period and in the manner provided in the general notice provisions set forth in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code § 2621; see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

If notice is required to be given to the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services pursuant to *Prob. The statute of limitations does not run against any claim of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services against the estate of the ward or conservatee for board, care, maintenance, or transportation with respect to an account that is settled without giving the notice required by *Prob. § 290E.41 Objections to Account Written objections to the account may be filed by the ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner (as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297) of the conservatee, or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any creditor or other interested person [Prob. Code § 2622; see Conservatorship of Key (2005) 134 Cal. App. 4th 254, 256-258, 35 Cal. Rptr. 3d 859 (objections to final account and report of public guardian with respect to conservatorship estate filed by executor of conservatee's estate)].

An objection must state the item of the account to which objection is made and the basis for the objection [Prob. Code § 2622].

If the court determines that the objections were without reasonable cause and in bad faith, it may order the objector to pay the compensation and costs of the conservator or guardian and other expenses and costs of litigation, including attorney's fees, incurred to defend the account. The objector will be personally liable to the guardianship or conservatorship estate for the amount ordered [Prob. Code § 2622.5(a); see Guardianship of K.S. (2009) 177 Cal. App. 4th 1525, 1535, 100 Cal. Rptr. 3d 78 (trial court did not abuse its discretion in awarding compensatory costs to guardian of trust beneficiaries based on findings of bad faith and objective unreasonableness)].

If the court determines that opposition to the objections was without reasonable cause and in bad faith, it may award the objector costs and other expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred to contest the account. The amount awarded is a charge against the compensation of the guardian or conservator, and the guardian or conservator is liable personally and on the bond, if any, for any amount that remains unsatisfied [Prob. Code § 2622.5(b)].

§ 290E.42 Review of Transactions Not Previously Authorized

Any sale or purchase of property or other transaction not previously authorized, approved, or confirmed by the court is subject to review by the court on the next succeeding accounting of the guardian or conservator occurring after the transaction [Prob. Code § 2625]. The court may approve or confirm a transaction either at the time of a subsequent accounting or on a petition for confirmation and approval pursuant to Prob. Code § 2403 (petition for confirmation of acts), even though the particular transaction required prior court authorization that the guardian or conservator had not obtained [Guardianship-Conservatorship Law, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 451, 796-797 (1980) (comment to Prob. Code § 2625); see Place v. Trent (1972) 27 Cal. App. 3d 526, 530, 103 Cal. Rptr. 841 , disapproved on other grounds, Board of Regents v. Davis (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 33, 120 Cal. Rptr. 407, 533 P.2d 1047 (conservator may sue to cancel conveyance by conservatee although conservator did not obtain prior court authorization to do so)]. However if he or she does not obtain prior authorization, the guardian or conservator risks the possibility that the court may not approve and confirm the transaction at the time of the accounting [see Guardianship-Conservatorship Law, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 451, 796-797 (1980) (comment to Prob. Code § 2625)].

On such an account and review, the court may hold the guardian or conservator liable for any violation of duties in connection with the sale, purchase, or other transaction, although the validity of the sale, purchase, or transaction is not affected. Nothing in Prob. Code § 2625 affects the validity of any sale or purchase or other transaction [Prob. Code § 2625]. The court may surcharge the guardian or conservator for money owed to the estate by the guardian or conservator or for other pecuniary harm caused to the estate [Guardianship of Vucinich (1935) 3 Cal. 2d 235, 243, 44 P.2d 567 ; Guardianship of Wood (1961) 193 Cal. App. 2d 260, 267, 14 Cal. Rptr. 147 (surcharge may be made at final account); Estate of Joslin (1958) 165 Cal. App. 2d 330, 347, 332 P.2d 151 (surcharge may be made at intermediate account)]. The probate court has the power to surcharge a conservator for the benefit of a third party, such as the beneficiary of a conservatee's life insurance policy, if the conservator breaches his or her duty and allows the policy to lapse [see Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421] .

§ 290E.52 Guardian or Conservator Dies, Becomes Incapacitated, or Absconds

[1] Legal Representative Is Appointed for Guardian or Conservator

If a guardian or conservator dies or becomes incapacitated and a legal representative is appointed for the deceased or incapacitated guardian or conservator, the legal representative must, not later than 60 days after appointment unless the court extends the time, file an account of the administration of the deceased or incapacitated guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2632(b)]. "Incapacitated" means lack of capacity to serve as guardian or conservator. "Legal representative" means the personal representative of a deceased guardian or conservator or the conservator of the estate of an incapacitated guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2632(a)].

[2] Legal Representative Is Not Appointed for Guardian or Conservator

If a guardian or conservator dies or becomes incapacitated and no legal representative is appointed for the deceased or incapacitated guardian or conservator, or if the guardian or conservator absconds, the court may compel the attorney for the deceased, incapacitated, or absconding guardian or conservator or the attorney of record in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding to file an account of the administration of the deceased, incapacitated, or absconding guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2632(c); for forms for a petition and an order, see §§ 290E.74, 290E.75].

[3] Preparation of Final Account by Legal Representative or Attorney

The legal representative or attorney must exercise reasonable diligence in preparing the account. Verification of the account may be made on information and belief. The court must settle the account as in other cases. The court must allow reasonable compensation to the legal representative or the attorney for preparing the account. The amount allowed is a charge against the estate that was being administered by the deceased, incapacitated, or absconding guardian or conservator. Legal services for which compensation must be allowed to the attorney include those services rendered by any paralegal performing the services under the direction and supervision of an attorney. The petition or application for compensation must set forth the hours spent and services performed by the paralegal [Prob. Code § 2632(d); see Prob. Code § 2642; for a form for a petition, see § 290E.74].

§ 290E.53 Death of Ward or Conservatee

[1] Expenses of Last Illness and Disposition of Remains

On the death of the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator may contract for and pay a reasonable sum for the expenses of the last illness and the disposition of the remains of the deceased ward or conservatee and for unpaid court-approved attorney's fees, and may pay the unpaid expenses of the guardianship or conservatorship accruing before or after the death of the ward or conservatee, in full or in part, to the extent reasonable, from any personal property of the deceased ward or conservatee that is under the control of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2631(a)]. If, after payment of these expenses, the total market value of the remaining estate of the decedent does not exceed $100,000 [see Prob. Code § 13100], the guardian or conservator may petition the court for an order permitting the guardian or conservator to liquidate the decedent's estate. The guardian or conservator may petition even though there is a will of the decedent in existence if the will does not appoint an executor or if the named executor refuses to act. No notice of the petition need be given. If the order is granted, the guardian or conservator may sell personal property of the decedent, withdraw money of the decedent in an account in a financial institution, and collect a debt, claim, or insurance proceeds owed to the decedent or the decedent's estate, and a person having possession or control must pay or deliver the money or property to the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2631(b)].

[2] Transfer of Assets

If, after payment of expenses, the value of the remaining property of the ward or conservatee in California does not exceed $100,000 [see Prob. Code § 13100], it may be transferred to the persons who would be entitled to it under the Probate Code provisions for the transfer of small estates without administration [Prob. Code § 2631(c); see Prob. Code § 13000 et seq. (collection or transfer of small estate without administration)]. To determine whether the value of the remaining property qualifies for transfer under these provisions, it is necessary to exclude all of the property described in Prob. Code § 13050. For discussion of the transfer of small estates without administration, see Ch. 441, Probate: Disposition Without Administration.

[1] Release of Claims

When a judgment or order made pursuant to the guardianship and conservatorship provisions of the Probate Code [see Prob. Code § 1400 et seq.] becomes final, it releases the guardian or conservator and the sureties from all claims of the ward or conservatee and of any persons affected thereby based on any act or omission directly authorized, approved, or confirmed in the judgment or order. "Order" includes an order settling an account of the guardian or conservator, whether an intermediate or final account [Prob. Code § 2103(a); Conservatorship of Harvey (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 646, 651-652, 91 Cal. Rptr. 510, 477 P.2d 742 (protection given to conservator's attorney); but see Conservatorship of Tobias (1989) 208 Cal. App. 3d 1031, 1034-1036, 256 Cal. Rptr. 525 (conservator was not released from liability when trial court vacated language in final accounting approving conservator's acts and transactions)].

Prob. Code § 2103 does not apply if the judgment or order is obtained by fraud or conspiracy or by misrepresentation contained in the petition or account or in the judgment or order as to any material fact. Misrepresentation includes, but is not limited to, the omission of a material fact [Prob. Code § 2103(b); Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1437-1438, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421 (omission of material fact); see Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 715, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685] . Moreover, the rule of finality does not apply when the order is issued by a commissioner who has failed to comply with the jurisdictional notice and hearing requirements [Guardianship of Slakmon (1978) 83 Cal. App. 3d 224, 232-235, 147 Cal. Rptr. 777] .

[2] Res Judicata Effect

A probate court's order approving a final accounting of a guardianship, when not attacked by appeal or any other proper proceeding, is res judicataand conclusive even against the ward [E. & J. Gallo Winery v. Gallo Cattle Co. (9th Cir. 1992) 967 F. 2d 1280, 1287 ; Adams v. Martin (1935) 3 Cal. 2d 246, 44 P. 2d 572] . However, extrinsic fraud is an exception to the res judicata effect of a final accounting [E. & J. Gallo Winery v. Gallo Cattle Co. (9th Cir. 1992) 967 F. 2d 1280, 1287 ; Barker v. Carver (1956) 144 Cal. App. 2d 487, 301 P. 2d 307] .

24-290E California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290E.63

§ 290E.63 Decisions

[1] Accounts Generally

Burden is on guardian to justify items in account. Guardianship of Cookingham (1955) 45 Cal. 2d 367, 375, 289 P.2d 16

Jurisdiction to determine accounts of guardians is exclusively in probate court. Adams v. Martin (1935) 3 Cal. 2d 246, 248, 44 P.2d 572

Court has power and duty to scrutinize account, to correct all errors therein, to reject all items of credit appearing to be illegal or excessive, and generally to inquire into truthfulness and accuracy of charges and credits and of facts set forth in accompanying report. In re Guardianship of Boyes (1907) 151 Cal. 143, 148, 90 P. 454

Trial court had discretion in awarding compensatory costs to guardian of trust beneficiaries under Prob. Code § 2622.5 based on its findings of bad faith and objective unreasonableness, when trustee day traded with trust funds and paid himself for services. Guardianship of K.S. (2009) 177 Cal. App. 4th 1525, 1535, 100 Cal. Rptr. 3d 78

Prob. Code § 2630 jurisdiction to enforce orders on conservatorship accounts implies power to rule on conservator's authority to take specific actions that affect account, and to set aside grant deed after conservatee's death. Conservatorship of Starr (1989) 215 Cal. App. 3d 1390, 1394-1395, 264 Cal. Rptr. 80

Former conservator has no right to jury trial in proceeding to reopen final account and to surcharge for losses resulting from breach of duty, and doctrine of comparative fault is not applicable to proceeding. Conservatorship of Coffey (1986) 186 Cal. App. 3d 1431, 1438-1443, 231 Cal. Rptr. 421 (applying Prob. Code §§ 2103, 2625)

Settlement of guardian's account is proceeding in rem. Guardianship of Levi (1943) 61 Cal. App. 2d 644, 646, 143 P.2d 719

Accounts may be rendered and settled without personal presence of representative. In re Guardianship of Price

(1934) 136 Cal. App. 257, 260, 28 P.2d 717

[2] Expenses and Disbursements

Household and living expenses are not chargeable against estate when liberal monthly allowance to guardian was made expressly for those purposes. Guardianship of Hall (1947) 31 Cal. 2d 157, 166, 187 P.2d 396

Court did not abuse discretion by disallowing claimed credits by guardian for sums spent for support of ward's mother when account was not itemized and not supplemented by other evidence, no attempt was made to show nature of expenditures, no vouchers were furnished, and proof generally was not such as court was entitled to have presented and should require in matters of accounting. Estate of Jacobson (1942) 56 Cal. App. 2d 255, 260-261, 132 P.2d 229

Professional fees paid to guardian's sister were accounted for and not concealed when court found that fees were set forth in either lumber company's statement of income and expense or its profit and loss statements and expert witnesses testified that good accounting practice does not require indication that fees were paid to guardian's sister. Guardianship of Hexberg (1968) 268 Cal. App. 2d 590, 594-595, 74 Cal. Rptr. 218

[3] Objections to Account

Exceptions to account, as used in former Prob. Code § 927 [now see Prob. Code §§ 11001-11003; see also Prob. Code § 2622 (objections to guardian's or conservator's accounts)], include exceptions not only to what is affirmatively stated in account but also to what is omitted. Estate of McMillin (1956) 46 Cal. 2d 121, 128, 292 P.2d 881

Heirs of deceased incompetent may contest account as owners of deceased ward's estate since they were real parties in interest and their interest was opposed to guardian's claims. In re Guardianship of Clanton (1915) 171 Cal. 381, 383, 153 P. 459

Court denied objections to final account and report of public guardian with respect to conservatorship estate filed by executor of conservatee's estate, finding that Prob. Code § 7642(b), which provides that excess income from pooled accounts managed by the public guardian must be deposited in the county general fund, is not unconstitutional; conservatorship estates do not have a property interest in the "excess interest" either under the takings clause of the Fifth Amendment or by statute and, therefore, due process does not require that estates receive notice and an opportunity to be heard before the interest earned on a pooled trust account is allocated. Conservatorship of Key (2005) 134 Cal. App. 4th 254, 258-260, 35 Cal. Rptr. 3d 859

Creditors of ward may take exception to guardian's account when no provision has been made for payment of their claims. Hartford Acci. & Indem. Co. v. Crawford (1962) 204 Cal. App. 2d 557, 560, 22 Cal. Rptr. 424

Court's failure to recite in order that it had considered objections was not fatal when record reflected that person had filed written objections, had appeared at hearing, and had made objections known, court took matter under submission, and had obviously considered objections since certain items claimed by conservators were disallowed. Conservatorship of Oliver (1962) 203 Cal. App. 2d 678, 684, 22 Cal. Rptr. 111

[4] Settlement of Account

Probate court's decree settling account and discharging guardian from his trust was not final and conclusive if guardian intentionally and fraudulently concealed from court and ward the fact that ward had interest in certain property. Lataillade v. Orena (1891) 91 Cal. 565, 576, 27 P. 924

Guardian has duty of presenting final account of guardianship, making settlement, and delivering all property in his or her possession to ward when ward reaches majority. In re Allgier (1884) 65 Cal. 228, 229, 3 P. 849

Conservator is not released from liability under Prob. Code § 2103 when, pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. § 473 (clerical error), trial court vacates language in final accounting approving conservator's acts and transactions. Conservatorship of Tobias (1989) 208 Cal. App. 3d 1031, 1036-1037, 256 Cal. Rptr. 525

"Fraud" exception to res judicata effect of order settling account pursuant to Prob. Code § 2103(b) does not include claim that guardian fraudulently misrepresented skill and improperly invested guardianship funds when investment losses were disclosed in accounting and alleged fraud had no effect on ward's ability to attend accounting hearing or to litigate claim. Bank of America v. Superior Court (1986) 181 Cal. App. 3d 705, 714-715, 226 Cal. Rptr. 685

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is a report and current account of the guardian or conservator of the estate [Prob. Code § 2620] and a petition to obtain fees for the guardian or conservator and the attorney [Prob. Code § 2640]. The filing of an account is deemed to include a petition requesting its approval [Prob. Code § 1064(b)].

[3] Fees of Guardian or Attorney

The form may be adapted for use as a petition for fees by a guardian or conservator of the person, who may file a petition for fees separate from the account of the guardian or conservator of the estate [see Prob. Code § 2641]. For the court to allow compensation for the guardian or conservator or the attorney, it must be shown that the inventory and appraisal have been filed and, unless good cause is shown for a different period of time, that at least 90 days have expired since the issuance of letters [Prob. Code § 2640(a)]. If the petition is filed before 90 days have elapsed since letters were issued, the form should be modified to state facts showing good cause for petitioning for compensation at this time. For further discussion of compensation, see Ch. 290F, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Compensation .

[4] Contents of Petition for Approval of Account

The petition for approval of the account must include all of the following [Prob. Code § 1064(a)]:

- A description of all sales, purchases, changes in the form of assets, or other transactions occurring during the period of the account that are not otherwise readily understandable from the schedules.

- An explanation of any unusual items appearing in the account.

- A statement of all compensation paid from the assets subject to the account to the guardian or conservator or the attorney, other than pursuant to a prior court order (Paragraphs 6 and 7).

- A statement disclosing any family or affiliate relationship between the guardian or conservator and any agent hired by the guardian or conservator during the account period (Paragraph 5); and for this purpose, "family" means a relationship created by blood or marriage, and "affiliate" means an entity that, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the guardian or conservator.

- An allegation disclosing whether all of the cash has been invested and maintained in interest-bearing accounts or in investments authorized by law or the governing instrument, except for an amount of cash that is reasonably necessary for the orderly administration of the estate (Paragraph 4).

The petition may include additional petitions for authorization, instruction or confirmation authorized by the Probate Code, including, but not limited to, a request for an order for compensation of the fiduciary and the attorney for the fiduciary [Prob. Code § 1064(b)].

Paragraph 8 of this form contains a statement as to the amount and sufficiency of the guardian's or conservator's bond. Most California courts, by local court rule, require that such a statement be included in the report [see, e.g., Marin Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 5.43; San Diego Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rules 4.18.17 (conservatorships), 4.19.6 (guardianships); San Francisco Uniform Local Ct. Rules, Rule 14.75]. Counsel should consult local rules before filing this form to determine this and any other applicable local requirements.

[5] Summary and Schedules

Every account must contain a summary showing all of the items prescribed by statute [Prob. Code § 1061(a)]. For further discussion of the contents of the summary, see § 290E.31. The summary of account must be supported by detailed schedules [Prob. Code § 1062]. For further discussion of the required schedules, see § 290E.32.

As of January 1, 2008, all accounts must be submitted on the Judicial Council form [Prob. Code § 2620(a)]. This means that all accounts, both standard and simplified accounts, must be submitted using the standard Judicial Council summary of account form, which is illustrated in § 290E.71A. The summary is referenced in Paragraph 3 of this form.

For a simplified account, use of the California Judicial Council forms for Schedules A and C is mandatory as of January 1, 2008 [see Prob. Code § 2620(a); Cal. Judicial Council Forms GC-405(A) and GC-405(C), reproduced in § 290E.71B]. For discussion and illustrations of the schedules for a simplified account, see § 290E.71B.

For a standard account, the Judicial Council has prescribed a series of detailed schedules, which are discussed and illustrated in § 290E.71C. Use of the Judicial Council schedules (as opposed to the summary of account) is optional in the case of standard accounts.

[6] Verification

The petition must be verified by the petitioner or, if there are two or more petitioners, by any one of them [Prob. Code § 1021(a)(1), (b)(1), (2)]. A verified petition must be received as evidence when offered in an uncontested proceeding [Prob. Code § 1022].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1] above, is a reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-400(SUM)/GC-405(SUM). This form contains a summary of the charges and credits that are itemized in greater detail in the various schedules that must be attached to the form [see §§ 290E.71B (schedules for simplified account), 290E.71C (schedules for standard account)]. This form must be used for both standard and simplified accounts. An account may be filed as a standard account or a simplified account, depending on the assets involved [see Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 7.575; for discussion, see § 290E.31].

As of January 1, 2008, all summaries of account (both standard and simplified accounts) must be submitted on the official Judicial Council Summary of Account form [Prob. Code § 2620(a); Cal. Judicial Council Form GC-400(SUM)/GC-405(SUM); see § 290E.71A]. Use of this form is mandatory [see Cal. Rules of Ct. Rules 1.31, 7.101]. This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Counsel Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

[2] Use of Form

The forms in [1] above, are a reproduction of Cal. Judicial Council Form(s) GC-405(A) and GC-405(C), used in filing Schedules A and C, respectively, of a simplified account. Schedule A must list receipts of noncapital items by the estate of the conservatee or ward, and Schedule C must list payments from the estate of the conservatee or ward. As of January 1, 2008, use of these Judicial Council forms is mandatory [see Prob. Code § 2196(a); Cal. Rules of Ct. Rules 1.31, 7.101]. These forms are available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Counsel Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

Additional pages may be used if necessary, but if either Schedule A or Schedule C exceeds five pages, that schedule must be prepared in standard account format; for the sub-schedules used for Schedules A and C in standard account format, see § 290E.71C.

[3] Additional Schedules for Simplified Accounts

In addition to Schedules A and C illustrated in this form, a number of other schedules may be necessary for simplified accounts in appropriate cases:

- Schedule B (Judicial Council Form GC-400(B)/GC-405(B)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for gains on sales.

- Schedule D (Judicial Council Form GC-400(D)/GC-405(D)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for losses on sale.

- Schedule E is for both standard and simplified accounts for cash and non-cash assets on hand at end of account period. Schedule E is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(E)(1)/GC-405(E)(1) is used for cash assets on hand at the end of the account period.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(E)(1)/GC-405(E)(2) is used for non-cash assets on hand at the end of the account period.

- Schedule F (Judicial Council Form GC-400(F)/GC-405(F)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for changes in form of assets.

- Schedule G (Judicial Council Form GC-400(G)/GC-405(G)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for liabilities at end of account period.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(OCH)/GC-405(OCH) is used to report other charges.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(OCR)/GC-405(OCR) is used to report other credits.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(PH)(1)/GC-405(PH)(1) is used to report cash assets on hand at the beginning of the account period.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(PH)(2)/GC-405(PH)(2) is used to report non-cash assets on hand at the beginning of the account period.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(AP)/GC-405(AP) is used to report additional property received during the period of account.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(DIST)/GC-405(DIST) is used to report Distributions to the conservatee or ward.

The above forms are illustrated in the standard account schedules illustrated in § 290E.71C, and are discussed there. Note that unlike the forms illustrated in [1], above, those Judicial Council forms have been designated as optional rather than mandatory.

[2] Use of Form

The forms in [1] above, are a reproduction of the California Judicial Council schedules for used in filing a standard account. For a complete list of these forms, see [2], below. Some of these individual forms also may be used, if appropriate, when filing a simplified account [see [2], below; see also § 290E.71B[3] for a separate list of the forms that may be used in filing a simplified account]. For alternative forms for Schedules A and C for use with a simplified account; see § 290E.71B.

While Prob. Code § 2620(a) requires that as of January 1, 2008, all accounts must be submitted on Judicial Council forms [Prob. Code § 2620(a)], use of the Judicial Council schedules (as opposed to the summary of account) is nevertheless optional in the case of standard accounts. This means, for example, that software-generated forms for the various schedules may be used for a standard account in place of the Judicial Council forms, as long as they conform to the numbering scheme and content that must appear on the Judicial Council's mandatory summary of account form [see § 290E.71A].

These forms are available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Counsel Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

When a zero has been entered in a category of charge or credit on the summary of account form, the corresponding schedule form should not be included. In other words, schedules should be included only for those categories of charges or credits that actually exist. However, the schedules that are included should not be relabeled or relettered.

Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(C) [see § 290E.71D] is an optional worksheet that can be used to help organize and calculate receipts and disbursements and assist in determining which of the sub-schedules to Schedules A and C listed in [3], below, need to be filed in a given case.

[3] Schedules for Standard Accounts

The Judicial Council has issued the following schedules for a standard account, all of which are reproduced above in the order listed:

- Schedule A is for standard accounts for receipts for dividends, interest, pensions, annuities and other periodic payments, rent, social security, veterans, or other public benefits, and other receipts. Schedule A is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(1) is used for receipts from dividends.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(2) is used for receipts from interest.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(3) is used for receipts from pensions, annuities, and other regular periodic payments.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(4) is used for receipts from rent.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(5) is used for receipts from social security, veterans' benefits, and other public benefits.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(A)(6) is used for other receipts.
- Schedule B (Judicial Council Form GC-400(B)/GC-405(B)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for gains on sales.
- Schedule C is for standard accounts for disbursements for conservatee's caregiver expenses, residential or long-term care facility expenses, ward's educational expenses, fiduciary and attorney fees, general administration expenses, investment expenses, living expenses, medical expenses, property sale expenses, rental property expenses, and other expenses. Schedule C is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(1) is used for disbursements for caregiver expenses.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(2) is used for disbursements for the conservatee's residential or long-term care facility expenses.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(3) is used for disbursements for a ward's education expenses.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(4) is used for disbursements for fiduciary and attorney's fees.
  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(5) is used for disbursements for general administration expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(6) is used for disbursements for investment expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(7) is used for disbursements for living expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(8) is used for disbursements for medical expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(9) is used for disbursements for property sale expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(10) is used for disbursements for rental property expenses.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(C)(11) is used for disbursements for other expenses.

- Schedule D (Judicial Council Form GC-400(D)/GC-405(D)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for losses on sale.

- Schedule E is for both standard and simplified accounts for cash and non-cash assets on hand at end of account period. Schedule E is subdivided into the following sub-schedules, each with its own form:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(E)(1)/GC-405(E)(1) is used for cash assets on hand at the end of the account period.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(E)(1)/GC-405(E)(2) is used for non-cash assets on hand at the end of the account period.

- Schedule F (Judicial Council Form GC-400(F)/GC-405(F)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for changes in form of assets.

- Schedule G (Judicial Council Form GC-400(G)/GC-405(G)) is for both standard and simplified accounts for liabilities at end of account period.

- Additional schedules for standard accounts:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(NI) is used to report net income from a trade or business.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(NL) is used to report net loss from a trade or business.

- Additional schedules for both standard and simplified accounts:

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(OCH)/GC-405(OCH) is used to report other charges.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(OCR)/GC-405(OCR) is used to report other credits.

  - Judicial Council Form GC-400(PH)(1)/GC-405(PH)(1) is used to report cash assets on hand at the beginning of the account period.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(PH)(2)/GC-405(PH)(2) is used to report non-cash assets on hand at the beginning of the account period.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(AP)/GC-405(AP) is used to report additional property received during the period of account.

- Judicial Council Form GC-400(DIST)/GC-405(DIST) is used to report Distributions to the conservatee or ward.

_____[name], as _____ [specify capacity of objector, e.g., a relative within the second degree of the ward], objects to the account of the _____ [guardian or conservator] and would show:

1. Objector _____[name] is a person interested in the estate in that he/she is a _____ [specify basis for interest entitling objector to contest account, e.g., relative of the ward].

2. The account was filed on _____[date], and covers the period from _____[date], to _____[date], inclusive.

3. [In separately numbered paragraphs, set out exceptions to account, e.g., The total amount of interest collected on Inventory Item No. _____, as set forth in Schedule A of the guardian's account, fails to reflect the actual amount of interest paid].

WHEREFORE, objector prays:

1. That the account not be settled and allowed as filed;

2. That the exceptions stated above be sustained;

3. That the _____ [guardian or conservator] forthwith render a true, correct, and legally sufficient verified account; and

4. For such other orders as the court deems proper.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by the ward or conservatee, or the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297] of the conservatee, or any relative, or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any creditor or other interested person, in objecting to an account filed by a guardian or conservator.

An objection must state the item of the account to which is objection is made and the basis for the objection [Prob. Code § 2622]. If the court determines that the objections were without reasonable cause and in bad faith, it may order the objector to pay the compensation and costs of the conservator or guardian and other expenses and costs of litigation, including attorney's fees, incurred to defend the account [Prob. Code § 2622.5(a)]. If the court determines that the opposition to the objections was without reasonable cause and in bad faith, it may award the objector costs and other expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred to contest the account [Prob. Code § 2622.5(b)]. For further discussion, see § 290E.41.

[3] Verification

An objection filed pursuant to the Probate Code must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a)(2)].

§ 290E.75 Order Compelling Attorney to Render Account

[1] FORM Order Compelling Attorney to Render Account

[Caption. See § 290E.73 .]

The petition of _____[name], as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name], _____ [ward or conservatee], to compel _____[name of attorney], _____ [attorney for the _____ (guardian or conservator) or attorney of record in the _____ (guardianship or conservatorship) proceeding] to render a final account of _____[name of former guardian or conservator] of his/her administration of the estate of _____ [ward or conservatee] was presented to the court on this date.

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. The allegations of the petition are true.

IT IS ORDERED that _____[name of attorney], _____ [attorney for the _____ (guardian or conservator) or attorney of record in the _____ (guardianship or conservatorship) proceeding] render a final account of _____[name of former guardian or conservator] as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the [person and] estate of _____[name of ward or conservatee].
Dated: _____

_____ [signature]
Judge of the Superior Court

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition to compel the attorney for the former guardian or conservator or the attorney of record in the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding to render a final account on behalf of a guardian or conservator who has absconded, died, or become incapacitated [see Prob. Code § 2632(c),(d); see also § 290E.52].

In most counties the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

The court must allow reasonable compensation to the attorney and his or her paralegal for preparing the account [see Prob. Code § 2632(c)]. The attorney may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing for compensation of services rendered to that time [see Prob. Code § 2642; see also Ch. 290F, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Compensation].

[CONTINUE]

9. [Special notice allegation. See § 290E.71, Paragraph 8.]

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays for an order as follows:

1. For settlement and allowance of this account and report and approval and confirmation of the acts of petitioner as _____ [guardian or conservator].

2. For $_____ as compensation to [name of attorney] for legal services rendered to the _____ [guardian or conservator] and estate during the period of this account.

[3. For $_____ as compensation to the _____ (guardian or conservator) of the person for his/her services to the _____ (ward or conservatee) during the period of this account.]

4. To be discharged as _____ [guardian or conservator] and authorized to turn over all of the assets of the estate remaining in his/her hands to _____ [specify person to whom assets are to be turned over, e.g., the ward or the personal representative of the estate of the conservatee].

5. For such other orders as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 290E.71.]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in filing the final account of a guardian or conservator, obtaining fees for the guardian or conservator and the attorney, and petitioning for discharge [Prob. Code §§ 2620, 2623, 2640].

The requirements for a final account are the same as those for a current account, except that a final account should contain a statement giving the reason that the final account is being filed (Paragraph 8). For a discussion of the contents of an account, see §§ 290E.30 -290E.32.

A petition for compensation must be filed after the filing of the inventory and appraisal, but not before the expiration of 90 days from the issuance of letters unless good cause is shown [Prob. Code § 2640(a)].

Every account must contain a summary showing all of the items prescribed by statute [Prob. Code § 1061(a)]. For further discussion of the contents of the summary, see § 290E.31. The summary of account must be supported by detailed schedules [Prob. Code § 1062]. For further discussion of the required schedules, see § 290E.32. For an illustration of the mandatory Judicial Council form for a summary of account, see § 290E.71A. The Judicial Council forms for a simplified account are discussed and illustrated in § 290E.71B. The Judicial Council forms for a standard account are discussed and illustrated in § 290E.71C. For additional discussion of these forms, see § 290E.71[5].

[3] Waiver of Account

An accounting in a guardianship or conservatorship proceeding may be waived only by court order on a showing that the conditions for waiver specified in Prob. Code § 2628 (relating to small estates) have been satisfied [Prob. Code § 2628(a)]. For further discussion of the waiver of an accounting for a small estate, see § 290E.22.

§ 290F.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses the compensation of guardians, conservators, and attorneys for services rendered, when that compensation is sought without the filing of an account. This chapter contains the following forms:

- A petition for periodic payments to the conservator, guardian, or attorney [see Prob. Code § 2643] and an order authorizing those payments [see §§ 290F.60, 290F.61].

- A petition for attorney's fees for services to a guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 2642] and an order allowing attorney's fees [see §§ 290F.62, 290F.63].

- A petition for compensation for a person who petitioned for appointment as conservator but was not appointed, and for that person's attorney's fees [see Prob. Code § 2640.1] and an order authorizing the compensation and fees [see §§ 290F.64, 290F.65].

B. Allowance of Expenses and Compensation

24-290F California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290F.20

§ 290F.20 Allowance for Expenses of Guardian or Conservator

[1] Expenses Allowed

[a] Reasonable Expenses

The guardian or conservator must be allowed the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in the exercise of powers and the performance of duties. These expenses include, but are not limited to, the cost of any surety bond furnished, reasonable attorney's fees, and compensation for services rendered by the guardian or conservator of the person as the court determines is just and reasonable [Prob. Code § 2623(a)(1), (2)].

The guardian or conservator will not be compensated for any costs or fees incurred in unsuccessfully opposing a petition, or other request or action, made by or on behalf of the ward or conservatee, unless the court determines that the opposition was made in good faith, based on the best interests of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2623(b)].

[b] Accountant's Fees

A guardian or conservator may employ an accountant to perform acts involving professional skills not possessed by the guardian or conservator, whose fees may properly be paid out of the estate [Guardianship of Hexberg (1968) 268 Cal. App. 2d 590, 596, 74 Cal. Rptr. 218] . The guardian or conservator may not, however, delegate all responsibility to the accountant, and must reasonably check the entries in the account as prepared by the accountant [Clark v. State Bar (1952) 39 Cal. 2d 161, 173, 246 P.2d 1 (guardianship case)]. The expense of auditing an accounting will not be allowed as a proper charge if the audit is made necessary by the guardian's or conservator's carelessness and neglect [Guardianship of Stallings (1948) 85 Cal. App. 2d 443, 447, 193 P.2d 114 , disapproved on other grounds, Guardianship of Cookingham (1955) 45 Cal. 2d 367, 373, 289 P.2d 16] .

[2] Disbursements Made Before Appointment

The guardian or conservator must be allowed all reasonable disbursements made before appointment as guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2623(a)(3)].

[3] Disbursements Made After Termination but Before Discharge

If the conservatorship or guardianship terminates for reasons other than the death of the ward or conservatee, the guardian or conservator will be allowed all reasonable disbursements made after the termination of the guardianship or conservatorship but before the discharge of the guardian or conservator by the court [Prob. Code § 2623(a)(4)]. If the guardianship or conservatorship terminates because of the death of the ward or conservatee, all reasonable expenses incurred by the guardian or conservator before being discharged by the court, for the custody and conservation of the estate of the deceased ward or conservatee, and its delivery to the personal representative of the estate, or in making other disposition of the estate as provided for by law, will be allowed [Prob. Code § 2623(a)(5)].

24-290F California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290F.21

§ 290F.21 Compensation for Services Rendered by Guardian or Conservator

[1] Just and Reasonable Requirement

The guardian or conservator will be allowed compensation for services rendered, as the court determines to be just and reasonable [Prob. Code § 2623(a)(2); see also Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.756]. The right of the guardian or conservator to compensation for services rendered is subject to the same considerations as the right of a trustee to compensation for services rendered. Thus, the guardian or conservator is entitled to compensation only for services that he or she believed in good faith were necessary or appropriate to carry out the purpose of the guardianship or conservatorship, and only if the guardian's or conservator's belief in that regard was reasonable [Conservatorship of Lefkowitz (1996) 50 Cal. App. 4th 1310, 1314, 58 Cal. Rptr. 2d 299] . For example, a conservator is entitled to compensation for his or her time in unsuccessfully opposing a petition for his or her removal as conservator only if his or her decision to oppose the petition was motivated by a good faith belief that it would be in the best interests of the conservatee if the petition were defeated, and only if that belief was objectively reasonable [Conservatorship of Lefkowitz (1996) 50 Cal. App. 4th 1310, 1315, 58 Cal. Rptr. 2d 299] .

[2] Size of Estate as Affecting Compensation

[a] Guardian or Conservator Other Than Nonprofit Corporation

The size of the estate may be a factor in the court's determination of compensation [see Prob. Code § 2104(c)(2); see [b], below]. For example, in San Francisco, an annual fee for a guardian or a conservator ordinarily is not to exceed 1 percent of the value of the assets at the end of the accounting period. Alternatively, a fee of 6 percent of income may be allowed in the court's discretion. The court will accept an allegation in the verified petition for fees as to market values of the assets of the guardianship or conservatorship to support the fees requested according to these guidelines. These market values, however, must be those as of the end of the accounting period [San Francisco Uniform Local Ct. Rules, Rule 14.111].

[b] Compensation for Nonprofit Corporation and Its Attorney

The compensation of a nonprofit corporation as guardian or conservator is allowed only for services actually rendered [Prob. Code § 2104(c)(1)]. Any fee allowed for an attorney for a nonprofit corporation must also be for services actually rendered [Prob. Code § 2104(c)(2)].

§ 290F.22 Compensation for Unsuccessful Conservatorship--Petitioner and Attorney

[1] Compensation Authorized

A person who petitions for appointment of a conservator may obtain compensation for services rendered and costs incurred in connection with the petition if the petition is not granted but, while it is still pending, the court appoints another person to act as conservator, provided that the court determines the petition was filed in the best interests of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2640.1]. The person's attorney may also obtain compensation and reimbursement of costs under these circumstances [Prob. Code § 2640.1]. For a form for a petition, see § 290F.64.

This procedure is available only for conservatorships; no similar procedure is available for guardianships [see Prob. Code § 2640.1].

[2] Filing of Petition for Compensation

The petition cannot be filed before the expiration of 90 days from the appointment of the conservator [Prob. Code § 2640.1(a)]. Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given 15 days before hearing in the manner provided by Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code §§ 1460(a), 2640.1(b); see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[3] Compensation Must Be Just and Reasonable

The compensation and costs allowed must be determined to be just and reasonable by the court [Prob. Code § 2640.1(c)].

[4] Compensation and Costs Charged to Estate

The compensation and costs allowed are charged to the estate of the conservatee. If a conservator of the estate is not appointed, but a conservator of the person is appointed, the compensation and costs allowed are paid from property belonging to the conservatee, whether held outright, in trust, or otherwise [Prob. Code § 2640.1(c)].

24-290F California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290F.23

§ 290F.23 Attorney's Fees

[1] Fees Incurred by Guardian or Conservator

A guardian or conservator is allowed reasonable attorney's fees incurred in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2623(a)(1)]. Attorney's fees also may be awarded to the attorney of a person who petitions in good faith to be appointed conservator, even if someone else is appointed [Prob. Code § 2640.1; see § 290F.22].

[2] Fees for Services Outside Routine Administration

Attorney's fees may be allowed for services other than routine advice to the guardian or conservator concerning administration of the estate. For example, attorney's fees have been awarded for services on appeal from an order settling an account [Riley v. Superior Court (1957) 49 Cal. 2d 305, 311-312, 316 P.2d 956 (guardianship case)]. Attorney's fees also have been awarded to an attorney for services rendered in an unsuccessful opposition to a ward's petition for restoration to capacity when that opposition was conducted in good faith [Guardianship of Cookingham (1955) 45 Cal. 2d 367, 375-376, 289 P.2d 16] .

[3] Fees for Rendering of Final Account

The attorney for the guardian or conservator is entitled to fees when he or she renders the final account because the guardian or conservator dies, absconds, or becomes incompetent [Prob. Code § 2632(d); see Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts]. The amount allowed is charged against the estate that was being administered by the deceased, incapacitated, or absconding guardian or conservator. Attorney's fees for rendering the final account include fees of a paralegal who performs services under the direction and supervision of an attorney, and the petition for compensation must set forth the hours spent and services performed by the paralegal [Prob. Code § 2632(d)].

[4] Fees for Services to Ward or Conservatee

Attorney's fees may be awarded from the estate only for services rendered to the guardian or conservator and not for services rendered directly to the ward or conservatee, except when the proceeding involved is one that may be begun by the ward or conservatee, such as termination of conservatorship proceedings [see Prob. Code § 1861(a)(2); Guardianship of Boxley (1953) 115 Cal. App. 2d 483, 486, 252 P.2d 348 ; see also Ch. 290H, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Termination of Guardianships and Conservatorships].

[5] No Attorney's Fees Paid Without Prior Court Order

No attorney's fees may be paid from the estate of the ward or conservatee without prior court order [Prob. Code § 2647]. The estate of the ward or conservatee is not obligated to pay attorney's fees established by any engagement agreement or other contract until it has been approved by the court [Prob. Code § 2647]. However, this rule does not preclude an award of fees by the court pursuant to Prob. Code §§ 2640-2646 even if the contractual obligations would be unenforceable under Prob. Code § 2647 [see Prob. Code § 2647].

24-290F California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290F.24

§ 290F.24 Compensation for Attorney Related to Guardian or Conservator

[1] Court Approval Required

No parent, child, sibling, or spouse of a person who is a guardian or conservator, and no law partnership or corporation whose partner, shareholder, or employee is serving as a guardian or conservator, may receive any compensation for legal services performed for the guardian or conservator unless the court specifically approves the right to compensation and finds that it is to the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2645(b)].

No attorney who is a guardian or conservator can receive any compensation from the guardianship or conservatorship estate for legal services performed for the guardian or conservator unless the court specifically approves the right to the compensation and finds that it is to the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2645(a)].

The Court of Appeal for the Fourth District has held that this language requires a showing that representation provided by the attorney seeking compensation, as opposed to representation otherwise available from other attorneys, benefitted the conservatorship estate [Brown v. Brown (In re Estate of Bryant) (1996) 45 Cal. App. 4th 117, 122-123]. It is not sufficient merely to show that the guardianship or conservatorship estate (or the ward or conservatee) derived some benefit from the representation [Brown v. Brown (In re Estate of Bryant) (1996) 45 Cal. App. 4th 117, 120]. Rather, the services rendered by the attorney in question must provide some benefit that would not otherwise be available to the conservatorship estate [Brown v. Brown (In re Estate of Bryant) (1996) 45 Cal. App. 4th 117, 122, 52 Cal. Rptr. 2d 755] .

The provisions of Prob. Code § 2645 do not apply if the guardian or conservator is related by blood or marriage, or is a cohabitant with the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2645(c)].

[2] Disclosure of Relationship Required

The court, in its discretion, may approve the right to compensation, after fulldisclosure of the relationships of all persons to receive compensation [Prob. Code 2645(d)].

[3] When Compensation May Be Ordered

The court may order compensation at any time, including during the pendency of an order appointing the guardian or conservator, settling any account, or approving a separate petition [Prob. Code 2645(d)].

§ 290F.25 Contingent Fee Contract for Attorney's Services

[1] Contingent Fee May Be Permitted

When it is to the ward's, conservatee's or estate's advantage, benefit, and best interest, the guardian or conservator of the estate may contract with an attorney for a contingent fee for the attorney's services in representing the ward or conservatee or the estate in connection with a matter that is of a type that is customarily the subject of a contingent fee contract. The contract is valid, however, only if the contract is made pursuant to a court order authorizing the guardian or conservator to execute the contract, or if the contract is approved by court order [Prob. Code § 2644(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 7.753, 7.703(d)(1) (agreement must be in writing and must comply with Bus. & Prof. Code § 6147)].

[2] Petition for Approval of Contingent Fee Contract

To obtain the court order, the guardian or conservator must file a petition with the court showing the advantage, benefit, and best interest to the ward or conservatee or to the estate of the contingent fee contract. A copy of the contract must be attached to the petition [Prob. Code § 2644(b)]. Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given 15 days before hearing, in the manner provided by Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code §§ 1460(a), 2644(c); see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[3] Court That May Authorize Contract

The court that authorizes the contract must be either the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending or, when the contract is in connection with a matter in litigation, the court in which the litigation is pending [Prob. Code § 2644(d)].

§ 290F.40 Court Authorization Required

Court authorization is required for payment of compensation to the guardian or conservator, an attorney for the guardian or conservator, an attorney for the ward or conservatee, or a public guardian, for costs or fees pursuant to Prob. Code § 2902 [Prob. Code § 2430(a)(4)].

All petitions for orders fixing and allowing compensation must comply with the requirements of Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.702 concerning petitions for extraordinary compensation in decedents' estates, to the extent applicable to guardianships and conservatorships, except that the best interest of the ward or conservatee is to be considered rather than the interest of the beneficiaries of the estate [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.751(b)]. Thus, the petition must include, or be accompanied by, a statement of the facts on which the petition is based showing the nature and difficulty of the tasks performed, the results achieved, and the benefit of the services to the ward or conservatee, and the amount requested for each category of service performed, the hourly rate of each person who performed the services and the hours spent by each of them, and a description of the services rendered [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.702].

The court may order the guardian or conservator to file an accounting before or at the time the petition is filed or heard [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.752].

§ 290F.41 Petition by Guardian or Conservator

[1] Guardian or Conservator of the Estate

At any time after filing the inventory and appraisal, but not before the expiration of 90 days from the issuance of letters or any other period of time as the court for good cause orders, the guardian or conservator of the estate may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing his or her compensation, or compensation to the guardian or conservator of the person, or compensation to an attorney for services rendered up to the time of filing the petition for compensation [Prob. Code § 2640(a); for form, see § 290F.60], including compensation for services rendered before the date of the order of appointment as guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 2640(c); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.751(a) (petition must show facts demonstrating necessity for preappointment services)]. Allowable legal services include services rendered by any paralegal performing legal services under the direction and supervision of an attorney, and the petition or application for compensation must set forth the hours spent and services performed by the paralegal [Prob. Code § 2640(c); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 7.754, 7.703(e)].

The guardian or conservator will not be compensated for any costs or fees incurred in unsuccessfully opposing a petition, or other request or action, made by or on behalf of the ward or conservatee, unless the court determines that the opposition was made in good faith, based on the best interests of the ward or conservatee [Prob. Code § 2640(d)].

[2] Guardian or Conservator of the Person

The guardian or conservator of the person may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing compensation for services rendered up to the time of the petition [*Prob. [1] Compensation for Attorney's Services

An attorney who has rendered legal services to the guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both, including services rendered under Prob. Code § 2632 (rendering the account of a dead, incapacitated, or absconding guardian or conservator), may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing compensation for services rendered up to the time of the petition [*Prob. [2] Paralegal Services

Legal services for which the attorney may apply to the court for compensation include services rendered by any paralegal performing legal services under the direction and supervision of the attorney. The petition or application for compensation must set forth the hours spent and services performed by the paralegal [Prob. Code § 2642(a); for form, see § 290F.62]. It must also describe the paralegal's qualifications (including education, certification, continuing education, and experience), state why it was appropriate to use the paralegal's services in the particular case, state the hourly rate requested for the paralegal's services, and demonstrate that the total amount requested for the services of the attorney and the paralegal does not exceed the amount appropriate if the attorney had performed the services without the paralegal's assistance [*Cal. § 290F.44 Periodic Payments on Account

[1] Advantages of Periodic Payments

An order authorizing periodic payments on account pursuant to Prob. Code § 2643 may be useful when the estate is large and there are tax advantages from making periodic payments of compensation. Periodic payments also may be needed when the guardian or conservator of the person is compensated and devotes substantial time to the care of the ward or conservatee. Periodic payments also avoid problems that may arise if payment is delayed. Periodic payments provide funds to cover out-of-pocket expenses in connection with services, avoid the need to determine questions that depend on the value of the loss of use of money caused by delay in payment, and protect against the effects of variations in the value of money. When services are rendered on a periodic basis, periodic payments provide a means of avoiding frequent accountings or petitions merely to permit payment of compensation to the guardian, conservator, or attorney [Guardianship-Conservatorship Law, 15 Cal. L. Revision Comm'n Reports 451, 807-808 (1980) (comment to Prob. Code § 2643)].

[2] Petition for Periodic Payments

On petition by the guardian or conservator of the person or estate, or both, the court, by order, may authorize periodic payments on account to the guardian or conservator of the person, the guardian or conservator of the estate, and the attorney for a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2643(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.755(b) (petition must show ongoing need for legal services); for form, see § 290F.60]. The petition must describe the services to be rendered on a periodic basis and state why authority to make periodic payments is requested [Prob. Code § 2643(c)].

[3] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given 15 days before the hearing, in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469 [Prob. Code §§ 1460(a), 2643(b); see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[4] Order for Periodic Payments

The court, in fixing the amount of the periodic payment, must take into account the services to be rendered on a periodic basis and the reasonable value of theservices. The guardian or conservator of the estate may make the periodic payments authorized by the order only if the services described in the petition are actually rendered. The payments made pursuant to the order are subject to review by the court on the next succeeding account of the guardian or conservator of the estate, to determine that the services were actually rendered and that the amount paid on account was not unreasonable [see Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts]. The court must make an appropriate order if it determines that the amount paid on account was either excessive or inadequate in view of the services actually rendered [Prob. Code § 2643(c)].

Rules of Ct., Rule 7.755(a)*]. If an advance payment is made or received, the court may surcharge the guardian or conservator, in addition to removing the guardian or conservator or imposing any other sanction authorized by law on the guardian or conservator or on the attorney [*Cal. PART III. RESEARCH GUIDE

§ 290F.54 Decisions

[1] Attorney Fees

Provision of Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 3.1702 (formerly Rule 870.2) that in civil cases a notice of motion for attorney's fees must be filed and served within 60 days of entry of judgment, does not apply to probate court proceedings. Hollaway v. Edwards (1998) 68 Cal. App. 4th 94, 80 Cal. Rptr. 2d 166

Court order awarding public conservator's costs and attorney's fees from estates consisting solely of social security income was not in conflict with federal anti-attachment statute [42 U.S.C. § 407, which immunizes social security income from attachment or other legal process. Conservatorship of Lambert (1983) 143 Cal. App. 3d 239, 242, 191 Cal. Rptr. 725

Attorney who sought order confirming fees nunc pro tunc became party to proceedings leading to orders fixing and allowing compensation to attorney for services rendered to guardian although guardian brought original petition for fees so that attorney could be ordered to return excess funds awarded. Guardianship of Slakmon (1978) 83 Cal. App. 3d 224, 236-237, 147 Cal. Rptr. 777

Award of $6,000 fee to conservatorship attorney was within court's discretion when attorney spent 250 to 300 hours working on estate's affairs and estate had value in excess of $1 million. Conservatorship of Wemyss (1971) 20 Cal. App. 3d 877, 883, 98 Cal. Rptr. 85

Since attorney's fees for services rendered to guardian on ward's and estate's behalf are proper expenses of guardian to be paid out of guardianship assets, filing claim for fees in deceased ward's estate in order to protect right to enforce claim for services in guardianship proceedings was unnecessary. Estate of Ehle (1968) 267 Cal. App. 2d 24, 29, 72 Cal. Rptr. 474

When ward had died and assets of ward's estate had been transferred to administrator of estate or to executor of ward's will, court was permitted to impose lien on assets in hands of administrator or executor in order to secure payment for attorney's services. Estate of Ehle (1968) 267 Cal. App. 2d 24, 28, 72 Cal. Rptr. 474

Premature filing of petition for attorney's fees does not preclude award of fees when no plea in abatement was filed in trial court. Conservatorship of Oliver (1962) 203 Cal. App. 2d 678, 22 Cal. Rptr. 111

Guardian was not permitted to recover attorney's fees incurred in attempt to remove him or her as guardian. Hornaday v. Hornaday (1949) 95 Cal. App. 2d 384, 396, 213 P.2d 91

[2] Compensation

Conservator is entitled to compensation for time in unsuccessfully opposing petition for removal only if (1) decision to oppose petition was motivated by good faith belief that it would be in best interests of conservatee if petition were defeated and (2) belief was objectively reasonable. Conservatorship of Lefkowitz (1996) 50 Cal. App. 4th 1310, 1315, 58 Cal. Rptr. 2d 299 .

Court did not err in denying compensation to guardian when guardian converted wards' money to his own use and intermingled it with his own. Glassell v. Glassell (1905) 147 Cal. 510, 512-513, 82 P. 42

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition for an order authorizing periodic payments on account to a guardian, conservator, or the attorney for a guardian or conservator.

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed at some time before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that compensation be allowed and fixed for legal services rendered by him/her to the _____ [guardian or conservator] from _____[date], to _____[date], inclusive, and for such other orders as the court may deem proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 290F.60.]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by an attorney in petitioning for fees for services to a guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2642]. Although such a petition is permitted by statute, some local court rules express reluctance to allow attorney's fees before the first account [see, e.g., Alameda Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rules 12.14.10, 12.15.10]. In such counties, the petition should state why fees should be allowed before the first account, such as expensive litigation at the commencement of the guardianship or conservatorship.

A petition for compensation must be filed after the filing of the inventory and appraisal, but not before the expiration of 90 days from the issuance of letters unless good cause is shown [Prob. Code § 2640(a)]. If the petition is filed before 90 have elapsed since letters were issued, this form should be modified to state facts showing good cause for petitioning for compensation at this time [see Prob. Code § 2640(a)].

[3] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.103(b), (c)].

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA,
COUNTY OF _____

_____ [Guardianship or Limited Conservatorship] of the _____ [Person or Estate or Person and Estate] of _____ [name], Conservatee.	)))))))	NO. _____ [Hearing set for _____ (date), at _____ (time), in Dept. No. _____] PETITION FOR COMPENSATION

Petitioner _____[name] respectfully represents:

1. On _____[date], petitioner filed a petition in this court requesting appointment as conservator of the _____ [person and/or estate] of the above-named conservatee.

2. On _____[date], and while the petition described in Paragraph 1 was pending, this court made and entered its order appointing _____[name] as conservator of the _____ [person and/or estate] of the conservatee. Letters of conservatorship were issued to _____[name] on _____[date, which may not be more than 90 days before filing date of this petition].

3. Petitioner has rendered services in connection with the petition described in Paragraph 1 and to facilitate the appointment of a conservator of the _____ [person and/or estate] of the conservatee, for which no compensation has been received. Those services included the following: _____ [describe services, e.g., investigating the needs of the conservatee for care, assistance, and protection, and the most suitable legal procedures available to meet those needs; obtaining the services of an attorney to represent the petitioner in preparing and filing the petition described in Paragraph 1; consulting with and arranging for the attendance of witnesses at the hearing of the petition; making arrangements for necessary medical care to be rendered to the conservatee; making arrangements for the proper care and conservation of the estate of the conservatee].

4. The reasonable value of the services described in Paragraph 3 is $_____.

5. Petitioner has incurred costs in the amount of $_____ in connection with the petition described in Paragraph 1 and the services described in Paragraph 3, as follows: _____[describe costs].

6. _____[name of attorney] has rendered legal services in connection with the petition described in Paragraph 1 and to facilitate the appointment of a conservator of the _____ [person and/or estate] of the conservatee, for which no compensation has been received. Those services included the following: _____[describe services].

7. The reasonable value of the services described in Paragraph 6 is $_____.

8. _____[name of attorney] incurred costs in the amount of $_____ in connection with the petition described in Paragraph 1 and the legal services described in Paragraph 6, as follows: _____[describe costs].

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays:

1. For an order fixing and allowing compensation in the amount of $_____ and costs in the amount of $_____ to petitioner;

2. For an order fixing and allowing compensation in the amount of $_____ and costs in the amount of $_____ to _____[name of attorney].

3. For an order that the compensation and costs be _____ [charged against the estate of the conservatee or paid from property belonging to the conservatee, whether held outright, in trust, or otherwise].

4. For such other orders as the court deems just and proper.

[Signature and verification. See § 290F.60.]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use by a person who filed a petition for appointment as conservator, when the petition was not granted and another person was appointed as conservator while the original petition was pending [Prob. Code § 2640.1(a); for the related form of order, see § 290F.65]. In such a case, the person who petitioned for the appointment of a conservator but was not appointed and that person's attorney may petition the court for an order fixing and allowing compensation and reimbursement of costs. The petition must be filed within 90 days after the issuance of letters [Prob. Code § 2640.1(a)].

This procedure is available for a person who unsuccessfully filed a petition for appointment as conservator. The Probate

Code does not authorize a similar procedure for a person who unsuccessfully filed a petition for appointment as guardian [Prob. Code § 2640.1].

[3] Notice

Notice of the hearing must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460-1469. For a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[4] Just and Reasonable Compensation

Upon the hearing, the court must make an order allowing the petitioner such compensation for services rendered in connection with the petition and to facilitate the appointment of a conservator as the court determines to be just and reasonable [Prob. Code § 2640.1(c)]. The court must also allow the petitioner's attorney just and reasonable compensation for services rendered by the attorney in connection with and to facilitate the appointment of a conservator, and costs incurred in connection with those services [Prob. Code § 2640.1(c)].

[5] Payment

The compensation and costs normally must be charged to the estate of the conservatee. However, if the court has appointed a conservator of the person but not a conservator of the estate, the court must order that the compensation and costs be paid from property belonging to the conservatee, whether held outright, in trust, or otherwise [Prob. Code § 2640.1(c)].

[6] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.103(b), (c)].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290G California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290G.11

§ 290G.11 Removal

[1] Grounds

A guardian or conservator may be removed for any of the following reasons [Prob. Code § 2650]:

- Failure to use ordinary care and diligence in the management of the estate [see Guardianship of Russell (1943) 21 Cal. 2d 767, 772, 135 P.2d 369 ; see also Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers].

- Failure to file an inventory or an account [see Ch. 286, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Inventory and Appraisal ; Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts] within the time allowed by law or by court order [see Guardianship of Whittaker (1937) 19 Cal. App. 2d 373, 375, 65 P.2d 373 ; see also Prob. Code § 2614.5 (removal pursuant to petition to compel filing of inventory and appraisal or account)].

- Continued failure to perform duties or incapacity to perform duties suitably [see Guardianship of Howard (1933) 218 Cal. 607, 610, 24 P.2d 486] .

- Conviction of a felony, whether before or after appointment as guardian or conservator.

- Gross immorality.

- Having such an interest adverse to the faithful performance of duties that there is an unreasonable risk that the guardian or conservator will fail to perform duties faithfully [see Estate of Howard (1955) 133 Cal. App. 2d 535, 540-541, 284 P.2d 966 ; Guardianship of Leach (1947) 30 Cal. 2d 297, 305, 182 P.2d 529] .

- In the case of a guardian of the person or a conservator of the person: acting in violation of any provision of Prob. Code § 2356, regarding placement of the ward or conservatee in a mental health facility, prohibited drugs, and treatment.

- In the case of a guardian of the estate or a conservator of the estate: insolvency or bankruptcy of the guardian or conservator.

In all cases the court has discretion to determine, on some other ground, that removal is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee; but in considering the best interests of the ward, if the guardian was nominated under Prob. Code §§ 1500 or 1501 the court must take that fact into consideration [Prob. Code § 2650(i)].

[2] Right to Jury Trial

There is no right to trial by jury in proceedings for the removal of a guardian or conservator [see Prob. Code § 1452].

[3] Petition

[a] Who May File

The ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward, the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297] of the conservatee, any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person may apply by petition to the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending, to have the guardian or conservator removed [Prob. Code § 2651; see § 290G.30].

It may be necessary for the court to appoint a guardian ad litem in order for the ward or conservatee to petition for removal. A guardian ad litem may be appointed for a minor, an incompetent person, or a person for whom a conservator has been appointed when the court deems it expedient to make the appointment [see Code Civ. Proc. § 372]. Under prior guardianship law, an appellate court, noting that there was no statutory provision authorizing the ward to start a removal proceeding, held that a guardian ad litem was required to petition for removal on behalf of the ward [Guardianship of Boxley (1953) 115 Cal. App. 2d 483, 486, 252 P.2d 348] .

[b] Petition After Court Investigation of Conservatorship

The court must notify the attorney of record for the conservatee, if any, or appoint the public defender or private counsel, to file a petition for removal and to represent the conservatee at the trial or hearing if, after the court investigator's six-month, annual, or biennial review of a conservatorship [see generally Prob. Code §§ 1850-1853; see also Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators], any of the following conditions exists [Prob. Code § 1852]:

- The conservatee wishes to petition the court for termination of the conservatorship or for removal of the conservator.

- The conservatee wishes to petition the court for the making, modification, or revocation of a court order under Prob. Code §§ 1870-1901 regarding the legal capacity of the conservatee.

- The conservatee wishes to petition the court for restoration of the right to register to vote.

- Based on information contained in the court investigator's report or obtained from any other source, the court determines that a trial or hearing for termination of the conservatorship or removal of the existing conservator is in the best interests of the conservatee.

[4] Notice and Hearing

[a] Notice Requirements

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2652; see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

[b] Who May Appear

The guardian or conservator, the ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297] of the conservatee, or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, and any interested person may appear at the hearing and support or oppose the petition [Prob. Code § 2653(a)].

[5] Suspension Pending Hearing

Whenever it appears that the ward or conservatee or the estate may suffer loss or injury during the time required for notice and hearing, the court, on its own motion or on petition, may do either or both of the following [Prob. Code § 2654]:

- Suspend the powers of the guardian or conservator pending notice and hearing to whatever extent the court deems necessary.

- Compel the guardian or conservator to surrender the estate to a custodian designated by the court.

For a form for an order, see § 290G.38.

[6] Order

If the court determines that cause exists for removal of the guardian or conservator, the court may remove the guardian or conservator, revoke the letters of guardianship or conservatorship, and enter judgment accordingly [Prob. Code § 2653(b)].

In the case of a guardianship or conservatorship of the estate, the court may also order the guardian or conservator to file an account [see Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts] and to surrender the estate to the person legally entitled to it [Prob. Code § 2653(b)]. If the guardian or conservator fails to file the account as ordered, the court may compel the accounting pursuant to Prob. Code § 2620.2 [Prob. Code § 2653(b)].

If the court removes the guardian or conservator for cause [Prob. Code § 2653(c)]:

- The court must award the petitioner the costs of the petition and other expenses and costs of litigation, unless the court determines that the guardian or conservator acted in good faith, based on the best interests of the ward or conservatee; and

- The guardian or conservator may not deduct the costs of litigation from the estate, or charge them to the estate, and is personally liable for those costs and expenses.

For a form for an order, see § 290G.39.

§ 290G.12 Resignation

A guardian or conservator may file a petition tendering his or her resignation at any time [Prob. Code § 2660; for form, see § 290G.34].

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2660; see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

If the resignation appears proper, the court must allow it to take effect at the time fixed by the court [Prob. Code § 2660; see Guardianship of Vierra (1953) 115 Cal. App. 2d 869, 872, 253 P.2d 55] . The court may make any order necessary to deal with the guardianship or conservatorship during the period before the appointment of a new guardian or conservator and the settlement of the accounts of the resigning guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2660; see Estate of Mims (1962) 202 Cal. App. 2d 332, 337-342, 20 Cal. Rptr. 667] .

If one of two or more joint guardians or conservators dies, is removed, or resigns, the powers and duties continue in the remaining joint guardians or conservators until further appointment is made by the court [Prob. Code § 2105(c)]. If joint guardians or conservators have been appointed, and one or more be absent from the state and unable to act, otherwise unable to act, or legally disqualified from serving, the court, by order made with or without notice, may authorize the remaining joint guardians or conservators to act as to all matters embraced within its order [*Prob. PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

§ 290G.14 Appointment of Successor

[1] Guardian

When for any reason a vacancy occurs in the office of a guardian, the court may appoint a successor after notice and hearing, as in the case of an original appointment [Prob. Code § 2670; see Guardianship of Kimball (1947) 80 Cal. App. 2d 884, 887, 182 P.2d 612] . For a discussion of and forms for appointment, see Ch. 280, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Guardians .

[2] Conservator

[a] Standing to File Petition

When for any reason a vacancy occurs in the office of a conservator, the court may appoint a successor conservator in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 2680 et seq., discussed below [Prob. Code § 2680]. For a discussion of and forms for an original appointment, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators . A petition for the appointment of a successor conservator may be filed by any of the following [Prob. Code § 2681]:

- The conservatee.
- The conservatee's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297].
- A relative of the conservatee.
- Any interested state or local entity or agency of California or any of its officers or employees.
- Any other interested person or friend of the conservatee.

For a form of petition for the appointment of a conservator that may be adapted for use in petitioning for the appointment of a successor conservator, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators

. In adapting the form, counsel should specify that the petition is for the appointment of a successor, rather than for an original appointment [see Prob. Code § 2682(a)].

[b] Contents of Petition

The petition must request that a successor conservator be appointed for the person, the estate, or both, and must specify the names and addresses of the proposed successor conservator and the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2682(a)]. The petition must set forth, as far as they are known to the petitioner, the names and addresses of the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], and the relatives of the conservatee within the second degree [Prob. Code § 2682(b)]. If the petition is filed by someone other than the conservatee, the petition must state whether the petitioner is a creditor or debtor of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2682(c)]. The petition must state whether the conservatee will be present at the hearing [Prob. Code § 2682(f)].

If the conservatee is a patient in or on leave of absence from a state institution under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services and that fact is known to the petitioner, the petition must state that fact and the name of the institution [Prob. Code § 2682(d)]. The petition must also state, as far as is known to the petitioner, whether the conservatee is receiving or is entitled to receive benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs and, if so, the estimated amount of the monthly benefits payable by the Department of Veterans Affairs for the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2682(e)].

If the conservatee is an absentee [see Prob. Code § 1403], the petition must set forth the last known military rank or grade and the social security number of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 2689(a); see Prob. Code § 1841(a)]. A petition for the appointment of a successor conservator for an absentee must also state whether the absentee's spouse has commenced any action or proceeding against the absentee for judicial or legal separation, dissolution of marriage, annulment, or adjudication of nullity of marriage [Prob. Code § 2689(a); see Prob. Code § 1841(b)]. For discussion of conservatorships for absentees generally, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

Although Prob. Code § 2680 et seq. do not require that the petition contain allegations of the powers to be granted to the conservator, the value of the estate, and the amount of the bond to be required, which are included in the petition for an original appointment, it would appear that those allegations should be included in addition to the allegations required by Prob. Code § 2682, since letters of conservatorship, which must state the powers granted and a bond, will be issued to the successor on the basis of the order appointing the successor.

[c] Notice of Hearing

Notice of the time and place of the hearing on a petition for the appointment of a successor conservator, accompanied by a copy of the petition, must be given at least 15 days before the hearing [Prob. Code § 2683(a)]. Notice must be mailed to the persons designated in Prob. Code § 1460 and to the relatives named in the petition [Prob. Code § 2683(b)]. For discussion of notice under Prob. Code § 1460 and a form of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

Notice must also be mailed to the Director of Mental Health or the Director of Developmental Services if required by Prob. Code § 1461 [Prob. Code § 2683(c)]. Notice also must be given to the Department of Veterans Affairs if required by Prob. Code § 1461.5 [Prob. Code § 2683(d)]. For a discussion of the requirements of Prob. Code §§ 1461 and 1461.5, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

Special notice must be given to any person who has filed a written request for special notice [see Prob. Code § 2700(a); Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice].

If the conservatee is an absentee [see Prob. Code § 1403], notice need not be given to the conservatee, but a copy of the petition and notice of the time and place of the hearing must be mailed at least 15 days before the hearing to the appropriate uniformed-service secretary or to the head of the federal department or agency concerned. Notice also must be published pursuant to Gov. Code § 6061 in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the hearing will be held [Prob. Code § 2689(b); see Prob. Code § 1842].

[d] Investigation and Report

Unless the petition states that the conservatee will be present at the hearing, the court investigator must do all of the following [Prob. Code § 2684]:

- Interview the conservatee personally.

- Inform the conservatee of the nature of the proceeding to appoint a successor conservator, and of the conservatee's right to appear personally at the hearing, to object to the person proposed as successor conservator, to nominate a person to be appointed successor conservator, to be represented by legal counsel if he or she so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by the court if he or she is unable to retain legal counsel.

- Determine whether the conservatee objects to the person proposed as successor conservator or prefers another person to be appointed.

- If the conservatee is not represented by legal counsel: determine whether the conservatee wishes to be represented by legal counsel and, if so, whether the conservatee wishes to retain a particular attorney or to have legal counsel appointed by the court.

- If the conservatee does not plan to retain legal counsel and has not requested the appointment of legal counsel by the court, determine whether the appointment of legal counsel would be helpful to the resolution of the matter or is necessary to protect the interests of the conservatee.

- Report to the court in writing, at least five days before the hearing, concerning the investigation, including the conservatee's express communications concerning representation by legal counsel and whether he or she objects to the person proposed as successor conservator or prefers that some other person be appointed.

- Mail, at least five days before the hearing, a copy of the report of the investigation to the attorney, if any, for the petitioner, the attorney, if any, for the conservatee, and any persons as ordered by the court.

For a form of order appointing a court investigator, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

If the conservatee is an absentee [see Prob. Code § 1403], an interview and report by the court investigator is not required [Prob. Code § 2689(c)].

[e] Who May Appear at Hearing

The conservatee, the conservatee's spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], any relative or friend of the conservatee, or any other interested person may appear at the hearing to support or oppose the petition [Prob. Code § 2687].

[f] Duty to Inform and Consult Conservatee

If the conservatee is present at the hearing, before making an order appointing a successor conservator, the court must do all of the following [Prob. Code § 2685]:

- Inform the conservatee of the nature and purpose of the proceeding.

- Inform the conservatee that he or she has the right to object to the person proposed as successor conservator, to nominate a person to be appointed successor conservator, and, if not represented by legal counsel, to be represented by legal counsel if he or she so chooses, and to have legal counsel appointed by the court if he or she is unable to retain legal counsel.

- After so informing the conservatee, consult him or her to determine his or her opinion of who should be appointed successor conservator.

If the petition states that the conservatee will be present at the hearing and the conservatee fails to appear, the court must continue the hearing and direct the court investigator to conduct an investigation and render a report as specified in Prob. Code § 2684 [Prob. Code § 2686; see [d], above].

[g] Selection of Successor

The court must determine who should be appointed successor conservator in accordance with the provisions of Prob. Code § 1810 et seq., regarding the order of preference in selecting a conservator [Prob. Code § 2688(a); see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

[h] Contents of Order

The order appointing a successor conservator must contain the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the successor conservator, the conservatee's attorney, if any, and the court investigator, if any [Prob. Code § 2688(b)]. For a form of order appointing a conservator that may be adapted for the appointment of a successor conservator, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

[i] Letters of Conservatorship

The appointment of a conservator must be evidenced by letters of conservatorship that include the conservator's oath (or affirmation [Code Civ. Proc. § 2015.6]) to perform the duties of the office according to law [Prob. Code § 2310]. The appointment of a successor conservator therefore requires the issuance of new letters of conservatorship. For a discussion of and a form for letters of conservatorship, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators .

Guardian's acquisition of corporation owned by wards constituted adverse interest and ground for removal. Guardianship of Leach (1947) 30 Cal. 2d 297, 305, 182 P.2d 529

Failure to cancel trust deed that encumbered ward's property, to include certain personal property in inventory, and to promptly lease ward's property constituted grounds for removal of guardian on basis of mismanagement and continued failure to perform duties. Guardianship of Russell (1943) 21 Cal. 2d 767, 772, 135 P.2d 369

Guardian's seven-month stay abroad, while ward was without care and attention of anyone legally authorized to supervise him, constituted continued failure to perform duties and grounds for removal. Guardianship of Howard (1933) 218 Cal. 607, 610-611, 24 P.2d 486

In conservatorship proceeding in which court denied petition by conservatee's wife for removal of conservator, court violated wife's right to due process by reading and considering report prepared by conservatee's appointed counsel, but refusing to allow wife or her attorney to review report. Convervatorship of Schaeffer (2002) 98 Cal. App. 4th 159, 165, 119 Cal. Rptr. 2d 547

Appointment of mother as guardian ad litem for children in litigation involving trust was improper because of adverse interest since mother was income beneficiary and children were remainder beneficiaries. Estate of Lacy (1975) 54 Cal. App. 3d 172, 185, 126 Cal. Rptr. 432

Fact that one has preferred right to be appointed as guardian does not constitute cause for removal of another who has been duly appointed. Guardianship of Brock (1957) 154 Cal. App. 2d 431, 433, 316 P.2d 3 ; Estate of Walsh (1952) 114 Cal. App. 2d 82, 84, 249 P.2d 578

Purchase of jewelry belonging to ward's estate by guardian through third party constituted adverse interest and ground for removal. Estate of Howard (1955) 133 Cal. App. 2d 535, 540-541, 284 P.2d 966

Resignation of guardian is subject to court approval. Guardianship of Vierra (1953) 115 Cal. App. 2d 869, 872, 253 P.2d 55

Removal of guardian is prerequisite to appointment of successor. Guardianship of Kimball (1947) 80 Cal. App. 2d 884, 887, 182 P.2d 612

Wealth or poverty of guardian cannot be determinative of competency. Guardianship of Sturges (1939) 30 Cal. App. 2d 477, 489, 86 P.2d 905

Physical weakness, lack of mental capacity or training, or moral deficiency would constitute incapacity of guardian. In re Guardianship of Sturges (1939) 30 Cal. App. 2d 477, 502, 86 P.2d 905

Failure of guardian to file inventory and appraisal or any account for more than five years after appointment constitutes ground for removal. Guardianship of Whittaker (1937) 19 Cal. App. 2d 373, 374, 65 P.2d 373

VERIFICATION

I, _____[name], am the petitioner in this proceeding. I have read the foregoing petition and know the contents thereof. The same is true of my own knowledge, except as to those matters that are therein alleged on information and belief, and as to those matters, I believe it to be true.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
Dated: _____.

_____ [signature]
_____ [typed name]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning for removal of a guardian or conservator for failure to use ordinary care and diligence in the management of the estate, and for suspension of the guardian's or conservator's powers pending hearing.

For a form of temporary order for suspension of powers pending hearing on the petition to remove the guardian or conservator, see § 290G.38.

For a form of order removing guardian or conservator, see § 290G.33.

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should indicate that the petitioner has standing to file a petition for removal of the guardian or conservator (Paragraph 1). The ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297] of the conservatee, or or a relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person may petition the court for removal of the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2651; see Prob. Code § 1852].

The petition should allege the cause for removal [see Prob. Code § 2650] and state facts showing the cause for removal (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 2651]. For discussion of the grounds for removal, see § 290G.11. For forms of allegations of additional grounds for removal, see §§ 290G.31 -290G.37.

In most situations, the petition for removal should also request the appointment of a new guardian or conservator (Paragraph 7). When, for any reason, a vacancy occurs in the office of guardian or conservator, the court may appoint a successor, after notice and hearing [see Prob. Code § 2670 et seq.; see also § 290G.14].

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2652]. For a general discussion of notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[5] Verification

The petition must be verified [Prob. Code § 1021]. A verified petition must be received as evidence when offered in any uncontested probate proceeding [Prob. Code § 1022].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an allegation that the guardian or conservator of the estate failed to file an inventory or to render an account, or both, which are causes for removal [see Prob. Code § 2650(b)]. It can be used in place of Paragraph 4 in the petition in § 290G.30.

[3] Ground for Removal

If the guardian or conservator fails to file an inventory and appraisal within the time allowed by law or by court order, the ward or conservatee, the spouse of the ward or the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297] of the conservatee, or any relative or friend of the ward or conservatee, or any interested person may petition the court to order the guardian or conservator to file the inventory and appraisal or to show cause why the guardian or conservator should not be removed [Prob. Code § 2614.5(a)]. If the guardian or conservator thereafter fails to file the inventory and appraisal, the court may remove the guardian or conservator [Prob. Code § 2614.5(b)]. This procedure is optional and does not preclude the use of any other remedy or sanction when an inventory and appraisal is not timely filed [Prob. Code § 2614.5(c)]. For further discussion, see Ch. 286, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Inventory and Appraisal , and Ch. 290E, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Accounts .

§ 290G.37 Allegations of Grounds for Removal--Removal Is in Best Interest of Ward or Conservatee [Prob. Code § 2650(i)]

[1] FORM Allegations of Grounds for Removal--Removal Is in Best Interest of Ward or Conservatee [Prob. Code § 2650(i)]

It is in the best interest of the _____ [ward or conservatee] that the _____ [guardian or conservator] be removed in that _____ [specify, e.g., the _____ (guardian and ward or conservator and conservatee) have developed a mutual dislike and distrust, which is detrimental to the health of the _____ (ward or conservatee) and makes the _____ (guardian's or conservator's) duties impossible to perform properly].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an allegation that removal of the guardian or conservator is in the best interest of the ward or conservatee, which is cause for removal [see Prob. Code § 2650(i)]. It can be used in place of Paragraph 4 in the petition in § 290G.30. If the guardian was nominated under Prob. Code § 1500 (nomination by parent) or Prob. Code § 1501 (nomination by person from whom minor receives property), the court, in considering the best interests of the ward, must take that fact into consideration.

§ 290G.37A Allegations of Grounds for Removal--Failure to Qualify As Licensed Fiduciary

[1] FORM Allegations of Grounds for Removal--Failure to Qualify As Licensed Fiduciary

The _____ [guardian or conservator] has failed to _____ [obtain or renew] a professional fiduciary's license issued by the Professional Fiduciaries Bureau as required by the Professional Fiduciaries Act and is not licensed under that Act as required by law.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an allegation that a guardian or conservator has failed to obtain or renew a professional fiduciary's license as required by the Professional Fiduciaries Act [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6500 et seq.]. It can be used in place of Paragraph 4 in the petition in § 290G.30.

[3] Licensing of Professional Fiduciaries

Effective January 1, 2009, no person may act or hold himself or herself out to the public as a professional fiduciary unless he or she is licensed as a professional fiduciary under the Act [Prob. Code § 60.1(b)]. Additionally, as of July 1, 2008, no court may appoint a person to carry out the duties of a professional fiduciary unless he or she holds a valid, unexpired, unsuspended professional fiduciary license [Prob. Code § 2340]. (In other words, after July 1, 2008, professional fiduciaries may not be appointed in any new conservatorship or guardianship matters until they obtain a license under the Professional Fiduciaries Act. However, professional fiduciaries already appointed in specific matters prior to July 1, 2008, may continue to act in those matters until January 1, 2009, by which time they are required to be licensed under the Professional Fiduciaries Act [see also Bus. & Prof. Code § 6502].) Furthermore, a professional fiduciary is not permitted to operate with an expired, suspended, or revoked license [Bus. & Prof. Code § 6531], and therefore cannot lawfully continue to perform the duties of a guardian or conservator. Continued failure to perform duties, or incapacity to perform duties suitably, is grounds for removal under Prob. Code § 2650(c).

For detailed discussion of the definition of "professional fiduciary" and the licensing and regulation of professional fiduciaries under the Professional Fiduciaries Act, see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of

[1] FORM Order Removing Guardian or Conservator [Prob. Code § 2653]

[Caption. See § 290G.38.]

The petition of _____ [name of petitioner] for removal of _____ [name of guardian or conservator] as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the _____ [person and estate or person or estate] of _____[name of ward or conservatee] came on regularly for hearing this date. Petitioner appeared by counsel _____[name]. _____[Specify other appearance, if any].

The court finds from proof made to the satisfaction of the court:

1. All notices of the hearing have been _____ [duly given as required by law or waived] _____[, including special notice to _____ (name)].

2. _____ [s ubstantive findings, e.g., The _____ (guardian or conservator) has failed to file an inventory and appraisal, which should have been filed on or before _____ (date), and an account, which should have been filed on or before _____ (date). This failure has seriously prejudiced the interests of the _____ (ward or conservatee) and the estate, and the _____ (guardian or conservator) should be removed].

IT IS ORDERED:

1. _____[name] be removed forthwith as _____ [guardian or conservator] of the _____ [person and estate or person or estate] of _____[name of ward or conservatee], and the letters of _____ [guardianship or conservatorship] be revoked.

2. _____[name of guardian or conservator] file a final account of the estate on or before _____[date], and on settlement of the account, surrender the assets of the estate to _____[name].

3. Petitioner may recover his/her costs from _____[name].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use when the court grants a petition for removal of a guardian or conservator [for the form of petition, see § 290G.30].

In most counties, the proposed order must be filed before the hearing for review by the court or probate commissioner. Local practice should be consulted.

If the guardian or conservator fails to file the account as ordered, the court may compel the account pursuant to Prob. Code § 2620.2(c) [Prob. Code § 2653(b)].

Attorney for Petitioner

[Verification. See § 290G.30.]

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in obtaining leave of court to resign as guardian or conservator [for discussion, see § 290G.12; for the related form of order, see § 290G.41].

[3] Contents of Petition

Although there are no express statutory requirements regarding the contents of the petition, the petition should state facts showing that it would be proper for the court to grant the guardian or conservator leave to resign (Paragraph 3) [ see Prob. Code § 2660], and the need for continuing the guardianship or conservatorship (Paragraph 4). It is also good practice for the guardian or conservator to give notice of the necessity for resignation to the relatives of the ward or conservatee (Paragraph 4), so that a successor can be appointed.

[4] Notice

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 2660]. Special notice must be given in accordance with Prob. Code § 2702 to anyone who has requested it [see Prob. Code § 2700(a)]. For further discussion and forms relating to notice, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[5] Appointment of Successor Guardian or Conservator

When for any reason a vacancy occurs in the office of guardian or conservator, the court may appoint a successor, after notice and hearing [see Prob. Code § 2670 et seq. For discussion, see § 290G.14.

[6] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021].

Chapter 290H GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290H California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290H.11

§ 290H.11 Termination of Guardianship

[1] Majority, Death, or Marriage of Ward

A guardianship of the person or estate, or both, terminates when the ward attains majority, is adopted, or dies [Prob. Code § 1600(a)]. A guardianship of the person terminates on the adoption of the ward or the emancipation of the ward under Fam. Code § 7002 [Prob. Code § 1600(b)]. A person under the age of 18 years is emancipated under Fam. Code § 7002 if any of the following is true [Fam. Code § 7002]:

- He or she has entered into a valid marriage (whether or not the marriage has been dissolved).
- He or she is on active duty with the armed forces of the United States.
- He or she has received a judicial declaration of emancipation, which requires that he or she must be [Fam. Code §§ 7120, 7122].
    - At least 14 years of age;
    - Willingly living separate and apart from his or her parents or guardian with the consent or acquiescence of the parents or guardian;
    - Managing his or her own financial affairs; and
    - Not deriving any of his or her income from criminal activity.

The termination of the guardianship of the person on any of these grounds occurs by operation of law, and the guardian need not file a petition for termination [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1004(b)]. A guardian of the estate must file and obtain the court's approval of a final account or report of administration [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1004(c)]. The guardian must serve a copy of the final account and petition for its settlement on the minor, unless the court dispenses with service [

Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(a)]. If the minor is deceased, the guardian must serve a notice of hearing and a copy of the final account and petition for its settlement on the personal representative of the deceased minor's estate, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(b)]. If there is no personal representative, service must be made on the persons entitled to succeed to the estate, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(c)].

After a ward has reached majority, the ward may settle accounts with the guardian and give the guardian a release [Prob. Code § 2627(a); Cal.Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1007; for a form, see § 290H.30]. The release is valid if obtained fairly and without undue influence [Prob. Code § 2627(a); see Smith v. Fidelity & Deposit Co. (1933) 130 Cal. App. 45, 56-57, 19 P.2d 1018] . Except as otherwise provided by the Probate Code, a guardian is not entitled to a discharge until one year after the ward has attained majority [Prob. Code § 2627(b)].

[2] Court Order

On petition of the guardian, a parent, or the ward, the court may make an order terminating the guardianship if the court determines that it is in the ward's best interest to terminate the guardianship [Prob. Code § 1601; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1004(a); see Guardianship of L.V. (2006) 136 Cal App. 4th 481, 491, 38 Cal. Rptr. 3d 894 , Guardianship of Romine (1949) 91 Cal. App. 2d 389, 392-393, 205 P.2d 733 ; Guardianship of Case (1943) 57 Cal. App. 2d 844, 847-848, 135 P.2d 681 ; for form, see § 290H.37].

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1601; see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice]. The person seeking termination has the burden of showing that the guardianship is no longer necessary [Guardianship of Davis (1967) 253 Cal. App. 2d 754, 761, 61 Cal. Rptr. 297 ; Guardianship of Furr (1959) 167 Cal. App. 2d 604, 605, 334 P.2d 936] .

In the case of a guardianship of the estate, if the sole asset of the estate is money, either the guardian or a parent entitled to custody of the ward may file a petition requesting the court to order that the guardianship be terminated and the estate be deposited in a blocked account in accordance with Prob. Code § 3412 [Prob. Code §§ 3410, 3411; for form, see § 290H.38]. The court may order that the guardianship be terminated and, in its discretion, may also order any one or more of the following [Prob. Code § 3412]:

- That the money be deposited in an insured account in a financial institution in California, or in a single premium, deferred annuity, subject to withdrawal only with court authorization.

- If the estate does not exceed $20,000, that the money be held on any other conditions the court in its discretion determines to be in the best interests of the ward.

- If the estate does not exceed $5,000, that all or any part of the money be paid to a parent of the ward, without bond, on the terms and under the conditions specified in Prob. Code §§ 3400-3402 (delivery of estate less than $5,000 to parent of minor), discussed in Ch. 366, Minors: Claims and Property of Minors .

- That all or any part of the money be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act [see Prob. Code § 3900 et seq.; see also Ch. 278, Gifts].

- That the remaining balance of any money paid or to be paid be deposited with the county treasurer under the terms and conditions set forth in Prob. Code § 3412(e).

A guardian of the estate must file and obtain the court's approval of a final account or report of administration [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1004(c)]. The guardian must serve a copy of the final account and petition for its settlement on the minor, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(a)]. If the minor is deceased, the guardian must serve a notice of hearing and a copy of the final account and petition for its settlement on the personal representative of the deceased minor's estate, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(b)]. If there is no personal representative, service must be made on the persons entitled to succeed to the estate, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(c)].

[3] Estate Exhausted

If it appears on the settlement of any account that the guardianship estate has been exhausted through expenditures or disbursements approved by the court, the court, on settlement of the account, must order the guardianship of the estate terminated and the guardian of the estate discharged unless the court determines that there is reason to continue the guardianship [Prob. Code § 2626].

[4] All Assets Transferred

If the court orders the transfer of all of the property of the estate to a foreign guardian, the court, on settlement of the final account, must order the guardianship of the estate terminated on the filing with the clerk of the court of a receipt for the property executed by the foreign guardian [Prob. Code § 2808(a)]. Unless notice is waived, a copy of the final account of the guardian and of the petition for discharge, together with a notice of the hearing on the petition, must be mailed at least 30 days before the date of the hearing to all persons required to be listed in the petition for transfer, including the foreign guardian [Prob. Code § 2808(b)].

[5] Juvenile Court Dependency Proceeding Filed

The juvenile court may terminate a guardianship of the person of a minor previously established under the Probate Code if the minor is the subject of dependency proceedings under Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 300, 601, or 602 [Welf. & Inst. Code § 728(a)]. The juvenile court must inform the probate court of the pending termination of the guardianship [Welf. & Inst. Code § 728(b)]. It has the authority to terminate the guardianship at any stage of the dependency proceedings, including at the detention hearing or the jurisdictional hearing [In re Merrick V. (2004) 122 Cal. App. 4th 235, 248, 19 Cal. Rptr. 3d 490] . Reunification services need not be offered to theguardian in the juvenile court proceedings before that court may terminate the guardianship [In re Merrick V. (2004) 122 Cal. App. 4th 235, 243, 249, 19 Cal. Rptr. 3d 490] .

[6] Visitation Rights of Guardian

A court may grant reasonable visitation rights to a person who previously served as the legal guardian of a child if the court determines that such visitation is in the child's best interest [Fam. Code § 3105(b)]. A guardian may request the court to order visitation at the time of termination of the guardianship, either in the guardian's petition for termination or in the guardian's objections or other pleading filed in response to the petition of another party for termination [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1008(a)].

In the absence of a court order granting or denying visitation between a former legal guardian and his or her former minor ward, and if a dependency proceeding is not pending, the former guardian may maintain an independent action under the Family Code for visitation with the former ward [Fam. Code § 3105(c); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1008(b)(1)]. If the child does not have a least one living parent, visitation may not be determined in a proceeding under the Family Code, but must instead be determined in a guardianship proceeding under the Probate Code that may be initiated for that purpose [Fam. Code § 3105(c); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1008(b)(2)].

A guardian or former guardian who is requesting visitation must file Judicial Council Form FL-105/GC-120, Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA), with his or her request for visitation [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1008(c)].

Chapter 290H GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290H California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290H.12

§ 290H.12 Termination of Limited Conservatorship

[1] Grounds

A limited conservatorship continues until the authority of the conservator is terminated by one of the following:

- Death of the conservator or conservatee.
- An order appointing a fully empowered conservator.
- An order stating that the limited conservatorship is no longer necessary and terminating the limited conservatorship [Prob. Code § 1860.5(a)].

[2] Petition for Termination

[a] Who May Petition

The conservator or conservatee, or any relative or friend of the conservatee, may file a petition for the termination of the limited conservatorship [Prob. Code § 1860.5(b)].

[b] Contents

The petition must state the facts showing that the limited conservatorship is no longer required [Prob. Code § 1860.5(c)].

[c] Notice

The petition must be set for hearing, and notice must be given to the persons in the same manner as provided for a petition for the appointment of a limited conservator [Prob. Code § 1860.5(d); see Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Appointment of Conservators].

The conservator, if he or she is not the petitioner or has not joined in the petition, must be served with a notice of the time and place of the hearing, accompanied by a copy of the petition, at least five days before the hearing. Service must be made in the same manner provided for in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.10 for personal service, in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.30 for service by mail, or in any other manner authorized by the court. If the conservator, with reasonable diligence, cannot be served with notice, the court may dispense with notice [Prob. Code § 1860.5(d)].

[d] Hearing

The court must hear and determine the matter according to the laws and procedures relating to the trial of civil actions, including trial by jury if demanded [Prob. Code § 1860.5(e)]. The conservator or any relative or friend of the conservatee may appear and oppose the petition [Prob. Code § 1860.5(e)].

If it is determined that the limited conservatorship is no longer required, the conservatorship must cease. If the petition alleges and the court determines that the conservatee is able to care properly for himself or herself and for his or her property, the court must make that finding and enter judgment accordingly. The conservator, at the hearing or thereafter on further notice and hearing, may be discharged, and his or her bond will be exonerated, on the settlement and approval of the final account by the court [Prob. Code § 1860.5(e)].

Volume 24: Guardianship and Conservatorship thru Guardians ad Litem-Chs. 280-291
Chapter 290H GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP: TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-290H California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 290H.13

§ 290H.13 Termination of Conservatorship

[1] Grounds

[a] Death or Court Order

A conservatorship continues until terminated by the death of the conservatee or by order of the court if the court determines that a conservatorship is no longer required [Prob. Code § 1860(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1052(a)]. A conservatorship of the person terminates by operation of law when the conservatee dies, and the conservator need not file a petition for termination [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1052(b)]. If a conservatorship of the person is established for a married minor, the conservatorship does not terminate if the marriage is dissolved or adjudged a nullity [Prob. Code § 1860(b)].

[b] Periodic Review and Court Investigation

Each conservatorship must be reviewed six months after the appointment of the conservator, again one year after appointment of the conservator, and biennially thereafter [see Ch. 6, Appointment of Conservators]. When review is required, the court investigator must visit the conservatee, and the findings of the investigator must be certified in writing to the court [Prob. Code § 1851]. The court investigator also may personally visit the conservator and other persons as necessary to determine whether the conservator is acting in the best interests of the conservatee [Prob. Code § 1851(d)].

If the court investigator is unable to locate the conservatee, the court must order the court investigator to serve notice on the conservator of the person, or on the conservator of the estate if there is no conservator of the person, in the manner provided in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.10 for personal service, in Code Civ. Proc. § 415.30 for service by mail, or in any other manner ordered by the court, to make the conservatee available for the purposes of periodic review to the court investigator within 15 days of the receipt of the notice or to show cause why the conservatorship should not be terminated [Prob. Code § 1853(a)].

If the conservatee is not made available within the time prescribed, unless good cause is shown for not doing so, the court must make a finding and enter judgment terminating the conservatorship and, in case of a conservatorship of the estate, must order the conservator to file an account and surrender the estate to the person legally entitled to it. At the hearing, or thereafter on further notice and hearing, the conservator may be discharged, and the bond given by the conservator may be exonerated, on the settlement and approval of the conservator's final account by the court [Prob. Code § 1853(b)].

Termination of the conservatorship does not preclude new proceedings for the appointment of a conservator [Prob. Code § 1853(c)]. Nothing in Prob. Code § 1853 limits the power of a court to appoint a temporary conservator [Prob. Code § 1853(c)].

[c] Removal of Conservator

The court must notify the attorney of record for the conservatee, if any, or appoint the public defender or private counsel, to file a petition for removal and to represent the conservatee at the trial or hearing if, after the court investigator's annual or biennial review of a conservatorship, any of the following conditions exists [Prob. Code § 1852]:

- The conservatee wishes to petition the court for termination of the conservatorship or for removal of the conservator.

- The conservatee wishes to petition the court for the making, modification, or revocation of a court order under Prob. Code §§ 1870-1901 regarding the legal capacity of the conservatee.

- The conservatee wishes to petition the court for restoration of the right to register to vote.

- Based on information contained in the court investigator's report or obtained from any other source, the court determines that a trial or hearing for termination of the conservatorship or removal of the existing conservator is in the best interests of the conservatee.

[d] Estate Exhausted or All Assets Transferred

A conservatorship of the estate, like a guardianship of the estate, may be terminated when the estate has been exhausted [Prob. Code § 2626] or the court has ordered all of the estate assets transferred to a foreign conservator [Prob. Code § 2808; see § 290H.11[3], [4].

[2] Conservatorship of Absentee

In a conservatorship of an absentee, if the petition states and the court determines that the absentee has returned to the controllable jurisdiction of the military department or civilian department or agency concerned, or is deceased, the court must order the conservatorship terminated. An official written report or record of the military or civilian department or agency that the absentee has returned to its controllable jurisdiction or is deceased must be received as evidence of that fact [Prob. Code § 1864(b)].

[3] Who May Petition

A petition for the termination of the conservatorship may be filed by any of the following [Prob. Code § 1861(a); for form, see § 290H.40]:

- The conservator.

- The conservatee.

- The spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Fam. Code § 297] of the conservatee.

- Any interested person, relative, or friend of the conservatee.

In the case of the conservatorship of an absentee [see [2], above], the petition to terminate the conservatorship may also be filed by any officer or agency of the State of California or of the United States or by an authorized delegate [Prob. Code § 1864(a)].

[4] Procedure

The petition must state facts showing that the conservatorship is no longer required [Prob. Code § 1861(b); for form, see § 290H.40].

The court must hear and determine the matter according to the law and procedure relating to the trial of civil actions, including trial by jury if demanded by the conservatee. The conservator, the conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], or any relative or friend of the conservatee may appear and support or oppose the petition [Prob. Code § 1863(a)].

If the court determines that the conservatorship is no longer required or that grounds for establishment of the conservatorship of the person or estate, or both, no longer exist, the court must make that finding and enter judgment terminating the conservatorship accordingly [Prob. Code § 1863(b)].

At the hearing, or thereafter on further notice and hearing, the conservator may be discharged, and the bond given by the conservator may be exonerated, on the settlement and approval of the conservator's final account by the court [Prob. Code § 1863(c)].

A conservator of the estate whose administration is terminated by operation of law or by court order must file and obtain the court's approval of a final account [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1052(c)]. After termination of the conservatorship, the conservator must serve copies of the final account and petition for its settlement with the notices of hearing that must be served on the former conservatee and on the spouse or domestic partner of the former conservatee under Prob. Code § 1460(b)(2) and (3) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1054].

Termination of the conservatorship does not preclude new proceedings for appointment of a conservator on the same or other grounds [Prob. Code § 1863(d)].

If the conservatee has been disqualified from voting pursuant to Elec. Code §§ 2208 or 2209, on termination of the conservatorship the court is required to notify the county elections official of the county of residence of the conservatee that the conservatee's right to register to vote is restored [Prob. Code § 1865].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in guardianship proceedings as a receipt and release by a ward when the ward reaches the age of majority. After a ward has reached majority, the ward may settle accounts with the guardian and give the guardian a release, which is valid if obtained fairly and without undue influence [Prob. Code § 2627(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1007(a)].

[3] Discharge of Guardian

The receipt and release does not operate as a discharge of the guardian, which is done by court order and cannot be made until one year after the ward has reached majority [Prob. Code § 2727(b)]. The court may require the ward's personal appearance at the hearing on the final account or report [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1007(b)].

On petition by the guardian, a parent, or the ward, a court may order termination of a guardianship if the court determines that it is in the ward's best interest to terminate the guardianship [Prob. Code § 1601].

For the related form for an order, see § 290H.32.

[3] Termination of Guardianship by Event

[a] Ward Dies or Reaches Majority

A guardianship of the person or estate terminates automatically when the ward reaches the age of majority (18 years) or dies [Prob. Code § 1600(a)]. When a guardianship is terminated by one of these events, no petition or court order is necessary, and this form does not have to be filed [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1004(b)]. However, in the case of a guardianship of the estate, termination of the guardianship does not eliminate the requirement that an account be filed [ see Prob. Code §§ 1600, 2627, 2630; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 7.1004(c), 7.1006].

[b] Ward Is Adopted or Becomes Emancipated

A guardianship of the person terminates on the adoption or emancipation of the ward [Prob. Code § 1600(b)]. A minor is emancipated if the minor enters into a valid marriage, is on active duty with the U.S. armed forces, or has received a judicial declaration of emancipation [see Fam. Code §§ 7002, 7122; see also Fam. Code § 7050 (emancipated minor is considered adult for all purposes)]. Neither the statute nor the Judicial Council's form expressly states whether a petition to terminate a guardianship of the person must be filed in this situation. However, because Prob. Code § 1600(b) simply provides that the guardianship terminates on occurrence of the specified event and does not mention any need for judicial action to terminate the guardianship, presumably termination is automatic, and it is unnecessary to file a petition to terminate the guardianship.

A guardianship of the estate, on the other hand, does not terminate automatically on the adoption or emancipation of the ward [see Prob. Code § 1600(b) (specifically limiting termination on occurrence of these events to guardianships of person)].

[4] Notice Requirements

[a] In General

Notice of the hearing on the petition must be given in the time and manner provided in Prob. Code § 1460 et seq. Notice of the time and place of the hearing must be given at least 15 days before the hearing date. The petitioner is required to mail notice of the hearing to each of the following persons [Prob. Code § 1460(b)]:

- The guardian (Paragraph 9(a)).
- The ward (Paragraph 9(b)).
- The spouse of the ward, if the ward has a spouse, or the domestic partner of the ward, if the ward has a domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297].
- Any person who has requested special notice of the matter, as provided in Prob. Code § 2700 (Paragraph 6) [see [b], below].
- The parents of the ward (Paragraphs 9(c) and (d)) [Prob. Code §§ 1460(b)(5), 1510(c)(1)].
- The person having legal custody of the ward and, if that person does not have the care of the ward, the person having the care of the ward [Prob. Code §§ 1460(b)(5), 1510(c)(2)].
- The relatives of the proposed ward within the second degree (Paragraphs 9(e)-(k)) [Prob. Code §§ 1460(b)(5), 1510(c)(3)].
- Any person nominated as guardian for the ward under Prob. Code §§ 1500 or 1501 [Prob. Code §§ 1460(b)(5), 1510(c)(5)].
- In the case of a guardianship of the person involving an Indian child, any Indian custodian and the Indian child's tribe [Prob. Code § 1510(c)(6)].

For good cause, the court may dispense with the notice otherwise required to be given to a person listed above (Paragraph 7) [Prob. Code § 1460(e)]. In any event, notice is not required to any child under 12 years old if the court determines that notice was properly given to a parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody of the minor, with whom the minor resides, or the petition is brought by a parent, guardian, or other person having legal custody of the minor, with whom the minor resides [Prob. Code § 1460.1].

Additional notice requirements apply if the ward, during the guardianship proceeding, has been a patient in, or on leave from, a state hospital under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Mental Health or the State Department of Developmental Services [see Prob. Code § 1461]. For additional discussion and forms, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice .

[b] Special Notice

Notice of the hearing to terminate a guardianship must be given to any person who has requested special notice under Prob. Code § 2700 [Prob. Code § 1460(b)(4)]. Any interested person, in person or by attorney mayfile with the court clerk a written request for special notice [Prob. Code § 2700(a)].

If a request for special notice has been made, the person filing a petition, account, or other paper must give written notice of the filing, together with a copy of the petition, account, or other paper, and the time and place set for the hearing by mail to the person named in the request at the address set forth in the request, at least 15 days before the time set for the hearing. However, the court has the power to make an order dispensing with the notice [Prob. Code § 2702(a)].

[c] Service of Final Account

A guardian of the estate must file and obtain the court's approval of a final account or report of administration [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1004(c)]. The guardian must serve a copy of the final account and petition for its settlement on the minor, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(a)]. If the minor is deceased, the guardian must serve a notice of hearing and a copy of the final account and petition for its settlement on the personal representative of the deceased minor's estate, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(b)]. If there is no personal representative, service must be made on the persons entitled to succeed to the estate, unless the court dispenses with service [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1006(c)].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning to have a guardianship of the estate terminated when its sole asset is money [see Prob. Code § 3412(a)].

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition should indicate that the petitioner has standing to petition for the termination of the guardianship by deposit of the estate in that he or she is either a parent of the ward entitled to custody of the ward or the guardian of the estate (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 3411]. The petition should also state the amount of money in the estate (Paragraph 3).

The court may order that the guardianship be terminated and the money be deposited in an insured account in a financial institution in California, or single-premium deferred annuity subject to withdrawal only on court order [Prob. Code § 3412(a)]. The court may order that all or any part of the money be transferred to a custodian for the benefit of the minor under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act [Prob. Code § 3412(b)]. If the estate does not exceed $20,000, the court may order that the money be held on other conditions that are in the best interests of the ward [Prob. Code § 3412(c)]. If the estate does not exceed $5,000, the court may order that the money be paid to a parent of the ward pursuant to Prob. Code § 3401 (delivery of minor's money to parent) [Prob. Code § 3412(d)]. The court may also order that the remaining balance of any money paid or to be paid be deposited with the county treasurer under specified terms and conditions [Prob. Code § 3412(e)]. For further discussion, see § 290H.11[2].

[4] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021].

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is for use in petitioning for the termination of a conservatorship. For the related form of order, see § 290H.41.

[3] Contents of Petition

The petition must state facts showing that the conservatorship is no longer required (Paragraph 5) [Prob. Code § 1861(b)]. The petition should also indicate that the petitioner has standing to petition for termination of the conservatorship in that he or she is the conservator, the conservatee, the spouse or domestic partner [as defined by Prob. Code § 37; Family Code § 297], a relative or friend of the conservatee, or a person interested in the conservatorship (Paragraph 1) [see Prob. Code § 1861(a)].

[4] Notice of Hearing

Notice of hearing on the petition must be given for the period and in the manner provided in Prob. Code §§ 1460 et seq. [Prob. Code § 1862]. For a discussion of these requirements, see Ch. 284, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Notice . Special notice must be given in accordance with Prob. Code § 2702 to anyone who has requested it [see Prob. Code § 2700(a)].

[5] Court Approval of Final Account

A conservator of the estate whose administration is terminated by operation of law or by court order must file and obtain the court's approval of a final account [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1052(c)]. After termination of the conservatorship, the conservator must serve copies of the final account and petition for its settlement with the notices of hearing that must be served on the former conservatee and on the spouse or domestic partner of the former conservatee under Prob. Code § 1460(b)(2) and (3) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 7.1054].

[6] Verification

The petition must be verified [see Prob. Code § 1021].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-291 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 291.11

§ 291.11 When Appointment of Guardian ad Litem Is Required

[1] Required for Minors and Incompetent Persons

When a minor, an incompetent person, or a person for whom a conservator has been appointed is a party to a civil action, he or she must appear either by a guardian or conservator of his or her estate, or by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court in which the action is pending [Code Civ. Proc. § 372; see In re Josiah Z. (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 664, 678, 31 Cal. Rptr. 3d 472, 115 P.3d 1133 (Code Civ. Proc. § 372 represents recognition by legislature that when minor is involved in litigation, minor's rights cannot be protected unless guardian ad litem or similar representative acts for minor); Poaster v. Superior Court (1993) 20 Cal. App. 4th 948, 950, 24 Cal. Rptr. 2d 582 (minor defendant cannot appear in civil action except by guardian of estate or guardian ad litem); see also Transamerica Homefirst, Inc. v. Superior Court (1999) 69 Cal. App. 4th 577, 580, 81 Cal. Rptr. 2d 705 (appearance of incompetent through conservator)]. This requirement is subject to the exceptions for minors noted in [3], below.

A guardian ad litem may be appointed in any case when the court in which the action or proceeding is prosecuted deems it expedient to appoint a guardian ad litem, notwithstanding the fact that the minor, incompetent person, or conservatee may have a guardian or conservator of the estate and may have appeared by him or her [Code Civ. Proc. § 372].

The essential difference between a general guardian and a guardian ad litem is that a general guardian is usually appointed to take care of the person or property of a minor, not for the purpose of prosecuting a lawsuit, while a guardian ad litem is appointed specifically to prosecute or defend a suit, and may be appointed even if the minor has a general guardian [J.W. v. Superior Court (1993) 17 Cal. App. 4th 958, 964, 22 Cal. Rptr. 2d 527] .

The court does not have a duty to appoint a guardian ad litem for a person who is not a party to the action [In re Emily R. (2000) 80 Cal. App. 4th 1344, 1356, 96 Cal. Rptr. 2d 285 (no duty to appoint guardian ad litem for minor alleged father who had not appeared in dependency proceedings)].

[2] "Incompetent Person" Defined

The term "incompetent person" includes a person for whom a conservator may be appointed [Code Civ. Proc. § 372; see Prob. Code § 1801 (when conservator may be appointed), discussed in Ch. 281, Guardianship and Conservatorship:

Appointment of Conservators]. A guardian ad litem can also be appointed for an incompetent person without any prior finding of incompetency in an independent proceeding [Sarracino v. Superior Court (1974) 13 Cal. 3d 1, 11-13, 118 Cal. Rptr. 21, 529 P.2d 53 (court may determine individual's incompetency based on application for appointment and supporting declarations)].

Regarding the appointment of a guardian ad litem for an adult parent in the context of a dependency proceeding, the basis for appointment is incompetence of the parent for whose benefit it is to be made; the test for incompetence in this context is whether the party has the capacity to understand the nature or consequences of the proceeding, and is able to assist counsel in preparation of the case [In re Daniel S. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 903, 913, 9 Cal. Rptr. 3d 646 ; In re Jessica G. (2001) 93 Cal. App. 4th 1180, 1186, 113 Cal. Rptr. 2d 714 , relying on In re Sara D. (2001) 87 Cal. App. 4th 661, 667, 104 Cal. Rptr. 2d 909] . For example, a court need not appoint a guardian ad litem for a mentally disabled adult when the evidence shows that the adult understands the nature of the proceedings and is able to cooperate with his or her attorney in representing his or her interests [In re R.S. (1985) 167 Cal. App. 3d 946, 978-980, 213 Cal. Rptr. 690 ; see In re C.G. (2005) 129 Cal. App. 4th 27, 33, 27 Cal. Rptr. 3d 872 (incompetency was not shown by evidence that individual suffered from cerebral palsy, had developmental disabilities, and was seeing psychiatrist); In re Daniel S. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 903, 913, 9 Cal. Rptr. 3d 646 (incompetency was shown by evidence that individual was a chronic paranoid schizophrenic who was unable to "process anything," and who was agitated, angry, aggressive, and unstable, despite being on medication)].

[3] When Guardian ad Litem Is Not Required

[a] Guardian or Conservator of Estate May Appear

A guardian or conservator of the estate also has the power to appear in an action or proceeding to which the minor or conservatee is a party, but such power does not preclude appointment of a guardian ad litem [Code Civ. Proc. § 372].

[b] Settlement When No Action Is Pending

If a minor who has a disputed claim for damages, money, or other property does not have a guardian of the estate, either parent, if the parents are not living separate and apart, or the parent having the care, custody, or control of the minor, has the right to compromise the claim, or to execute a convenant not to sue or not to enforce judgment on the claim, unless the claim is against that parent. Such a compromise or convenant requires court approval, but appointment of a guardian ad litem is not necessary if no action is pending on the claim [Prob. Code § 3500; see "Guardianship-Conservatorship Law," 15 Cal. L. Rev. Comm. Reports 451, 884 (1980)].

For further discussion and forms relating to the compromise of a minor's claims by his or her parents, see Ch. 366, Minors: Claims and Property of Minors .

The guardian of the estate of a minor or the conservator of the estate of an adult has powers to compromise the claims of a ward of conservatee under the general provisions pertaining to guardianship and conservatorship [Prob. Code §§ 2500-2507].

[c] Protective Orders

A minor 12 years of age or older may appear in court without a guardian, counsel, or a guardian ad litem, to request or oppose a request for any of the following [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(b)]:

- An injunction or temporary restraining order or both to prohibit harassment pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. § 527.6].

- An injunction or temporary restraining order or both against violence or a credible threat of violence in the workplace pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. § 527.8].

- A protective order pursuant to Fam. Code § 6200 et seq.].
- A protective order pursuant to Fam. Code §§ 7710 and 7720].

In these proceedings the court may appoint a guardian ad litem, subject to special guidelines stated in Code Civ. Proc. § 372(b)(1) [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(b)(1)].

A minor under 12 years of age must appear though a guardian ad litem in these types of case, but the minor and guardian ad litem may appear without counsel [Code Civ. Proc. § 374].

For further discussion, see Ch. 293, Harassment and Domestic Violence .

[d] Submission of Dispute Between Guardian or Conservator and Third Person to Alternative Dispute Resolution

Disputes relating to the estate between the guardian or conservator of an estate and a third person may be resolved by submission to a temporary or permanent judge pursuant to written agreement [see Prob. Code § 2405]. Similarly, such disputes may be submitted to arbitration pursuant to a written agreement, provided that the agreement has been approved by the court [Prob. Code § 2406].

For a discussion and forms relating to powers of guardians and conservators of estates, see Ch. 287, Guardianship and Conservatorship: General Management Powers, through Ch. 290C, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Actions and Disputed Claims.

[e] Minor Is Parent to Child Subject to Certain Proceedings

Notwithstanding Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a), a minor may appear in court without a guardian ad litem in the following proceedings if the minor is a parent of the child who is the subject of the proceedings:

- Family Court proceedings pursuant to Fam. Code § 7600 et seq. [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(c)(1)(a)];
- Dependency proceedings pursuant to Welf. & Inst. Code § 200 et seq. [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(c)(1)(b)];
- Guardianship proceedings for a minor child pursuant to Prob. Code § 1500 et seq. [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(c)(1)(c)];
- Any other proceedings concerning child custody, visitation, or support [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(c)(1)(d)].

If the court finds that the minor parent is unable to understand the nature of the proceedings or to assist counsel in preparing the case, the court must, upon its own motion or upon a motion by the minor parent or the minor parent's counsel, appoint a guardian ad litem [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(c)(2)].

Chapter 291 GUARDIANS AD LITEM
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-291 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 291.12

§ 291.12 Effect of Failure to Appoint

The court must appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor or insane or incompetent person, and the action cannot proceed without an appointment [In re Josiah Z. (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 664, 678, 31 Cal. Rptr. 3d 472, 115 P.3d 1133 (minor); In re Daniel S. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 903, 912, 9 Cal. Rptr. 3d 646 (incompetent)]. For forms of demurrer and affirmative defense based on failure to appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor plaintiff, see Ch. 3, Abatement of Actions, § 3.30 et seq.

A judgment taken against a minor or an insane or incompetent person who is not represented by a guardian or guardian ad litem can be disaffirmed and vacated [In re Charles T. (2002) 102 Cal. App. 4th 869, 876, 125 Cal. Rptr. 2d 868 ; Briggs v. Briggs (1958) 160 Cal. App. 2d 312, 318-319, 325 P.2d 219 ; Keane v. Penha (1946) 76 Cal. App. 2d 693, 696, 173 P.2d 835] . However, failure to appoint a guardian ad litem is not jurisdictional and the court may decline to set aside a judgment if the minor's interests were not substantially prejudiced and there is no claim that there was a defense to the action [Pacific Coast etc. v. Clausen (1937) 8 Cal. 2d 364, 366, 65 P.2d 352] . Because the failure to appoint a guardian ad litem is not jurisdictional, when the minor is the plaintiff, a guardian ad litem can be appointed at any time during the proceedings and, if one is not appointed and the minor has not reached majority and affirmed the proceedings prior to judgment, a defendant may attack the judgment as erroneous, but not void [In re Charles T. (2002) 102 Cal. App. 4th 869, 876, 125 Cal. Rptr. 2d 868] .

Tolling will be allowed under Gov. Code 911.4(c)(3) if the minor is adjudged to be a dependent child of the juvenile court under the Arnold-Kennick Juvenile Court Law [Welf. & Inst. Code § 200 et seq.], if the minor is without a guardian ad litem or conservator for purposes of filing civil actions [see County of Los Angeles v. Superior Court (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 1303, 1313, 111 Cal. Rptr. 2d 471] .

For further discussion and forms relating to vacating a judgment against a minor who was not represented by a guardian ad litem, see Ch. 367A, Minors: Disaffirmation of Judgments .

Chapter 291 GUARDIANS AD LITEM
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-291 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 291.13

§ 291.13 Conflict of Interest

In determining whether to appoint a particular guardian ad litem, the court must consider whether the guardian and the minor or incompetent have divergent interests [Code Civ. Proc. §§ 372(b)(1), 374]. It is improper to appoint a guardian ad litem who, however well intentioned, inevitably is in an adverse position to the ward for whom he or she purports to act. An adverse interest is grounds for removal of a guardian ad litem [Estate of Lacy (1975) 54 Cal. App. 3d 172, 185, 126 Cal. Rptr. 432 (improper appointment of income beneficiary as guardian ad litem for remaindermen in litigation involving trust)].

The selection of the guardian ad litem is within the court's discretion, and (with respect to a minor) is not subject to any parental or other preference [D.G. v. Superior Court (1979) 100 Cal. App. 3d 535, 545-546, 161 Cal. Rptr. 117 ; Estate of Trego (1978) 81 Cal. App. 3d 530, 535-536, 146 Cal. Rptr. 664] . If there is no other responsible guardian, the court may appoint the public guardian of the county to be the guardian ad litem for a minor defendant [Poaster v. Superior Court (1993) 20 Cal. App. 4th 948, 952-954, 24 Cal. Rptr. 2d 582] .

Chapter 291 GUARDIANS AD LITEM
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-291 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 291.14

§ 291.14 Procedure for Appointment of Guardian ad Litem

[1] Ex Parte Application

A guardian ad litem can be appointed on an ex parte application [Sarracino v. Superior Court (1974) 13 Cal. 3d 1, 12-13, 118 Cal. Rptr. 21, 529 P.2d 53] . An application for appointment of a guardian ad litem may also be made orally in open court, but it is better practice to apply by written petition [Emeric v. Alvarado (1884) 64 Cal. 529, 594, 2 P. 418] .

[2] For Minor

[a] As Plaintiff

The appointment of a guardian ad litem for a plaintiff who is a minor must be made before the summons is issued, on the application of the minor, if the minor is 14 years of age or older, or if under that age, on the application of a relative or friend of the minor [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(a)].

The appointment of a guardian ad litem should be obtained before the complaint is filed so that the complaint can allege the appointment of the guardian ad litem [see City of Los Angeles v. Superior Court (1968) 264 Cal. App. 2d 766, 772, 70 Cal. Rptr. 826] .

Appointment of independent counsel (IC) for dependent minors does not take the place of the appointment of an actual guardian ad litem to oversee the work of the IC [County of Los Angeles v. Superior Court (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 1303, 1312, 111 Cal. Rptr. 2d 471] .

[b] As Defendant

The appointment of a guardian ad litem for a defendant who is a minor is made in the following manner [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(b)]:

- On the application of the minor, if the minor is 14 years of age or older and the minor applies within 10 days after service of the summons, or,

- If under that age or if the minor neglects to apply, then on the application of one of the following:
  - A relative or friend of the minor.
  - Any other party to the action.
  - The court on its own motion.

[3] For Incompetent Person

The appointment of a guardian ad litem for an insane or incompetent person who is a party to an action or proceeding is made on the application of one of the following [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(c)]:

- A relative or friend of the insane or incompetent person.
- Any other party to the action or proceeding.
- The court on its own motion.

In the case of an insane or incompetent person, the court is required to appoint a guardian ad litem whenever the need for one is brought to the court's attention [In re Marriage of Caballero (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1139, 1149, 33 Cal. Rptr. 2d 46] . However, a guardian ad litem may not be appointed for a party until that party has been properly served [In re Daniel S. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 903, 912, 9 Cal. Rptr. 3d 646] .

In a dependency court proceeding, if the adult parent's counsel believes that a guardian ad litem should be appointed for the parent, that attorney has two alternative courses to follow [In re Jessica G. (2001) 93 Cal. App. 4th 1180, 1187, 113 Cal. Rptr. 2d 714 , relying on In re Sara D. (2001) 87 Cal. App. 4th 661, 668, 104 Cal. Rptr. 2d 909] :

- Approach the client and ask for consent, and if consent is given, due process is served since the parent will have participated in the decision; or
- If the client does not consent, or is not consulted, the attorney should approach the court directly.

This second option requires notice and a hearing, although a formal noticed motion with attendant briefing is not required. What is required is that the court or counsel explain to the parent/client the purpose of the guardian ad litem appointment, the authority the guardian will have (and the authority the parent will not have) in the litigation, and why the attorney believes the appointment should be made. At the hearing, the parent should be given the opportunity to respond. At a minimum, the court should make an inquiry sufficient to satisfy it that the parent is, or is not, competent, and the court's decision on this issue should be stated on the record [In re Jessica G. (2001) 93 Cal. App. 4th 1180, 1187-1188, 113 Cal. Rptr. 2d 714 , relying on In re Sara D. (2001) 87 Cal. App. 4th 661, 672, 104 Cal. Rptr. 2d 909] .

Chapter 291 GUARDIANS AD LITEM
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

24-291 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 291.15

§ 291.15 Powers of Guardian ad Litem

[1] Status as Representative

A guardian ad litem is not a party to an action but merely a party's representative [Sarracino v. Superior Court (1974) 13 Cal. 3d 1, 13, 118 Cal. Rptr. 21, 529 P.2d 53 ; Regency Health Services, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 64 Cal. App. 4th 1496, 1499, 76 Cal. Rptr. 2d 95 ; In re Christina B. (1993) 19 Cal. App. 4th 1441, 1453, 23 Cal. Rptr. 2d 918 ; Estate of Cochems (1952) 110 Cal. App. 2d 27, 29-30, 242 P.2d 56] . For that reason, a judgment may not be rendered for or against a guardian ad litem, but only for or against the party he or she represents [First Security Bank v. Paquet (2002) 98 Cal. App. 4th 468, 474, 119 Cal. Rptr. 2d 787 ; Estate of Cochems (1952) 110 Cal. App. 2d 27, 242 P.2d 56] .

[2] Scope and Nature of Powers and Duties

The guardian ad litem has the right to control the litigation on the minor's (or incompetent's) behalf, subject to the court's approval. This includes the right to compromise or settle the action, to control the procedural steps incident to conducting the litigation, and, with the court's approval, to make stipulations or concessions that bind the minor (or incompetent), as long as they are not prejudicial to the minor's (or incompetent's) interests. The guardian ad litem may make tactical and even fundamental decisions affecting the litigation, but always with the interests of the minor (or incompetent) in mind [In re Josiah Z. (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 664, 678, 31 Cal. Rptr. 3d 472, 115 P.3d 1133 ; In re Daniel S. (2004) 115 Cal. App. 4th 903, 914, 9 Cal. Rptr. 3d 646 (guardian ad litem may not compromise incompetent's fundamental rights, such as right to trial, unless there is some benefit to incompetent)]. The guardian ad litem has the power to assent to procedural steps that will facilitate a determination of the minor's (or incompetent's) case, subject to fiduciary duties owed to the minor (or incompetent) and the requirement that court approval be obtained for certain acts [J.W. v. Superior Court (1993) 17 Cal. App. 4th 958, 965, 22 Cal. Rptr. 2d 527] . A guardian ad litem must have court approval to waive a minor's (or incompetent's) fundamental rights [Estate of Cibulk (1998) 67 Cal. App. 4th 690, 692, 79 Cal. Rptr. 2d 168] .

A guardian ad litem may voluntarily dismiss the minor's (or incompetent's) action without prejudice without first obtaining a court order authorizing the dismissal [Zapanta v. Universal Care, Inc. (2003) 107 Cal. App. 4th 1167, 1174-1175, 132 Cal. Rptr. 2d 842] . The guardian ad litem, not the minor's (or incompetent's) attorney, has the authority to seek dismissal of the minor's (or incompetent's) appeal after evaluating the minor's (or incompetent's) interests [In re Josiah Z. (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 664, 678, 31 Cal. Rptr. 3d 472, 115 P.3d 1133] .

Although an attorney hired by the guardian ad litem has the primary responsibility for pursuing the minor's (or incompetent's) claim, hiring the attorney does not relieve the guardian of all responsibility for pursuing the claim. The guardian owes the minor (or incompetent) a duty to take an active role in pursuing the claim and in overseeing the attorney to ensure that all appropriate actions are being taken [Brandon G. v. Gray (2003) 111 Cal. App. 4th 29, 41-42, 3 Cal. Rptr. 3d 330] .

[3] Admissions and Stipulations

A guardian ad litem may bind the ward in regard to procedural steps not affecting the ward's substantial rights, such as waiver of jury trial [Cloud v. Market S. R. Co. (1946) 74 Cal. App. 2d 92, 101-103, 168 P.2d 191 ; see De Los Santos v. Superior Court (1980) 27 Cal. 3d 677, 684, 166 Cal. Rptr. 172, 613 P.2d 233 (dicta)].

A guardian ad litem may, with the court's approval, make stipulations or concessions that are binding on the minor or incompetent, provided thay are not prejudicial to the latter's interests [In re Christina B. (1993) 19 Cal. App. 4th 1441, 1453-1454, 23 Cal. Rptr. 2d 918 (waiver of trial and privilege against self-incrimination exceeded scope of powers); see De Santos v. Superior Court (1980) 27 Cal. 3d 677, 684, 166 Cal. Rptr. 172, 613 P.2d 233 (dicta)]. A minor is not, however, bound by the actions or admissions of a guardian ad litem which mean the sacrifice or giving away of the ward's property or rights, such as the right to a trial, and the court may set aside or disregard concessions which were improvidently made by the guardian and which have not already been judicially approved [In re Christina B. (1993) 19 Cal. App. 4th 1441, 1453-1454, 23 Cal. Rptr. 2d 918 ; Estate of Armstrong (1966) 241 Cal. App. 2d 1, 8, 50 Cal. Rptr. 339 ; Berry v. Chaplin (1946) 74 Cal. App. 2d 652, 657-658, 169 P.2d 442] . However, a stipulation by a guardian ad litem that was approved by the court after an inquiry into its fairness and that might have been beneficial as well as detrimental to the interests of the minor has been held binding [Robinson v. Wilson (1974) 44 Cal. App. 3d 92, 99-105, 118 Cal. Rptr. 569] .

[3A] Discovery

Every litigant has a legal obligation to comply with the Civil Discovery Act [Code Civ. Proc. § 2016 et seq.]. No exemption is provided for litigants represented by guardians [Regency Health Services, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 64 Cal. App. 4th 1496, 1498, 1504-1505, 76 Cal. Rptr. 2d 95] . Thus, a ward has no general right to evade discovery [Regency Health Services, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 64 Cal. App. 4th 1496, 1504, 76 Cal. Rptr. 2d 95] . Accordingly, a ward has a legal obligation to respond to interrogatories. Ensuring that interrogatories are properly answered is one of the duties of a guardian ad litem [Regency Health Services, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 64 Cal. App. 4th 1496, 1498, 76 Cal. Rptr. 2d 95] . A guardian ad litem has the authority, subject to the court's ultimate supervision, to verify proper responses to interrogatories on behalf of the ward [Regency Health Services, Inc. v. Superior Court (1998) 64 Cal. App. 4th 1496, 1504-1505, 76 Cal. Rptr. 2d 95] .

[4] Compromise and Settlement

A guardian ad litem appearing for a minor, incompetent person, or conservatee in any action or proceeding has the power, with the approval of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, to compromise it, to agree to the order or judgment to be entered for or against the ward, and to satisfy any judgment or order in favor of the ward or conservatee or to release or discharge any claim of the ward or conservatee pursuant to the compromise [Code Civ. Proc. § 372].

A guardian ad litem's settlement of the minor's (or incompetent's) claims is not final or binding until the settlement agreement is approved by the court in which the claims were brought. The settlement agreement is voidable at the election of the minor (or incompetent) through the guardian ad litem unless and until the court approves the agreement [Scruton v. Korean Air Lines Co. (1995) 39 Cal. App. 4th 1596, 1602-1603, 1605-1606, 46 Cal. Rptr. 2d 638] . If the guardian ad litem repudiates the settlement agreement, the court may not enforce it unilaterally without first determining whether, in rejecting the agreement, the guardian ad litem acted contrary to the minor's (or incompetent's) best interests [Scruton v. Korean Air Lines Co. (1995) 39 Cal. App. 4th 1596, 1608, 46 Cal. Rptr. 2d 638] .

Any money or other property to be paid or delivered for the benefit of a minor, incompetent person, or conservatee pursuant to the order or judgment must be paid and delivered in the manner and on the terms and conditions specified in Prob. Code § 3600 et seq. [Code Civ. Proc. § 372; for discussion, see § 291.16].

[4A] Dismissal

A guardian ad litem may voluntarily dismiss a minor's action without prejudice without first obtaining a court order authorizing the dismissal; although the court retains the power to rescind or modify an action taken on behalf of a ward by a guardian ad litem that is inimical to the interests of the ward, nothing in Code Civ. Proc. § 372 expressly precludes dismissal of an action without prejudice by a guardian ad litem [Zapanta v. Universal Care, Inc. (2003) 107 Cal. App. 4th 1167, 1174-1175, 132 Cal. Rptr. 2d 842] .

[5] Employment of Attorney

[a] Non-Attorney Cannot Appear in Propria Persona

A guardian ad litem who is not an attorney may not act in propria persona to represent the minor or incompetent in legal proceedings, as this would constitute a violation of the prohibition against the unauthorized practice of law [see J.W. v. Superior Court (1993) 17 Cal. App. 4th 958, 969, 22 Cal. Rptr. 2d 527 (in Uniform Parentage Act proceeding, although minor was a necessary party, indigent mother appointed guardian ad litem could not represent minor in pro per); see also Mossanen v. Monfared (2000) 77 Cal. App. 4th 1402, 1409, 92 Cal. Rptr. 2d 459 (guardian ad litem was powerless to oppose motion for summary judgment without counsel)].

[b] Hiring of Attorney Limited When Guardian ad Litem Is Attorney

If the guardian ad litem is an attorney, the estate of the minor or incompetent cannot be charged with the expense of employing an attorney without proof that there was need for assistance [In re Price (1923) 61 Cal. App. 592, 600, 215 P. 710] .

[c] Court Approval of Contract for Attorney's Fees

[i] Minors

A contract for attorney's fees for services in litigation, made by or on behalf of a minor, is void unless the contract is approved by the court in which the litigation is pending or the court having jurisdiction of the guardianship estate of the minor. Any interested person may petition for approval. If no contract has been approved and a judgment is recovered by or on behalf of a minor, the court rendering the judgment must fix the attorney's fees chargeable against the minor [Fam. Code § 6602; Prob. Code § 3601].

For a form for a petition, see § 291.52.

[ii] Incompetent Persons

Although Fam. Code § 6602 [see [i], above] expressly authorizes approval of contracts for attorney's fees only in cases involving minors, the California Supreme Court indicated in Stafford v. Superior Court that its antecedent, former Prob.

Code § 1509, applied to guardians ad litem of incompetents as well as to general guardians [Stafford v. Superior Court (1934) 1 Cal. 2d 321, 324, 325, 34 P.2d 998] . In Stafford, however, part of the court's rationale was that former Prob. Code § 1509 was codified with the general guardianship provisions in the Probate Code, which is no longer true since former Prob. Code § 1509 was recodified, in a chapter of the Probate Code that deals only with minors, as former Prob. Code § 3302 (which has now been reenacted without substantive change as Fam. Code § 6602).

Counsel should, nonetheless, consider submitting the contract for attorney's fees to the court for approval in light of Stafford and of the similarity between cases involving appointment of a guardian ad litem for minors and for incompetents.

§ 291.33 Decisions

[1] Appointment of Guardian ad Litem

In probate proceedings, a guardian ad litem may be appointed by the court at any stage of a proceeding to represent the interest of a minor, if the court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate. The guardian or guardian ad litem is not a party to the action; instead, he or she is a representative of record of a party who lacks capacity to sue. The guardian ad litem's powers include the right to compromise or settle the action, to control the procedural steps incident to the conduct of the litigation, and, with the approval of the court, to make stipulations or concessions that are binding on the minor, provided they are not prejudicial to the latter's interests. Safai v. Safai (2008) 164 Cal. App. 4th 233, 244, 78 Cal. Rptr. 3d. 759 In a parental rights termination case, a juvenile court's failure to appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor mother was not harmless error where the mother's rights were compromised at key hearings as a result of the failure to appoint a guardian ad litem. In re M.F. (2008) 161 Cal. App. 4th 673, 678, 74 Cal. Rptr. 3d 383 A judgment against a minor for whom the court failed to appoint a guardian ad litem is voidable by the minor on reaching majority. In re Charles T. (2002) 102 Cal. App. 4th 869, 876, 125 Cal. Rptr. 2d 868

In a dependency court proceeding, if the adult parent's counsel believes that a guardian ad litem should be appointed for the parent, that attorney has two alternative courses to follow: (1) approach the client and ask for consent, and if consent is given, due process is served since the parent will have participated in the decision; or (2) if the client does not consent, or is not consulted, the attorney should approach the court directly; second option requires notice and a hearing, although a formal noticed motion with attendant briefing is not required; court or counsel must explain to the parent/client the purpose of the guardian ad litem appointment, the authority the guardian will have (and the authority the parent will not have) in the litigation, and why the attorney believes the appointment should be made; at the hearing, the parent should be given the opportunity to respond, and at a minimum, the court should make an inquiry sufficient to satisfy it that the parent is, or is not, competent, and the court's decision on this issue should be stated on the record. In re Jessica G. (2001) 93 Cal. App. 4th 1180, 1187-1188, 113 Cal. Rptr. 2d 714 , relying on In re Sara D. (2001) 87 Cal. App. 4th 661, 672, 104 Cal. Rptr. 2d 909

To become a party within meaning of Code Civ. Proc. § 372, alleged father in dependency proceeding must enter appearance; court has no duty to appoint guardian ad litem for alleged father who has not appeared in dependency proceeding. In re Emily R. (2000) 80 Cal. App. 4th 1344, 1356, 1358, 96 Cal. Rptr. 2d 285 , 96 Cal. Rptr. 2d 285

Person who is attorney in fact and nominee for appointment as conservator is presumptively entitled to appointment as guardian ad litem. In re Marriage of Caballero (1994) 27 Cal. App. 4th 1139, 1152, 33 Cal. Rptr. 2d 46

Court is authorized Prob. Code § 2920 to appoint public guardian as guardian ad litem under appropriate circumstances. Poaster v. Superior Court (1993)20 Cal. App. 4th 948, 953, 24 Cal. Rptr. 2d 582 (but see subsequently enacted Prob. Code § 1003.5)

Failure to appoint guardian ad litem is not jurisdictional defect. Medical Legal Consulting Services, Inc. v. Covarrubias (1991) 234 Cal. App. 3d 80, 87-89, 285 Cal. Rptr. 559 ; Briggs v. Briggs (1958) 160 Cal. App. 2d 312, 319, 325 P.2d 219

Guardian ad litem is not required to swear oath, post bond, or receive letters. Estate of Trego (1978) 81 Cal. App. 3d 530, 535, 146 Cal. Rptr. 664

Probate court has power to appoint guardian ad litem pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. §§ 372-373.5. Estate of Corotto (1954) 125 Cal. App. 2d 314, 321-323, 270 P.2d 498

[2] Appeal of Order Appointing or Terminating Guardian ad Litem

Order appointing guardian ad litem is not subject to appeal. Estate of Corotto (1954) 125 Cal. App. 2d 314, 324, 270 P.2d 498

Order terminating authority and capacity of guardian ad litem, standing alone, is not subject to appeal. Estate of Emery (1962) 199 Cal. App. 2d 22, 26, 18 Cal. Rptr. 86

[3] Power and Duties of Guardian ad Litem

A guardian ad litem may voluntarily dismiss a minor's action without prejudice without first obtaining a court order authorizing the dismissal; although the court retains the power to rescind or modify an action taken on behalf of a ward by a guardian ad litem that is inimical to the interests of the ward, nothing in Code Civ. Proc. § 372 expressly precludes dismissal of an action without prejudice by a guardian ad litem. Zapanta v. Universal Care, Inc. (2003) 107 Cal. App. 4th 1167, 1174-1175, 132 Cal. Rptr. 2d 842

The guardian ad litem has the right to control the litigation on behalf of the minor, subject to the court's approval, and the guardian ad litem's powers include the right to compromise or settle the action, to control the procedural steps incident to the conduct of the litigation, and, with the approval of the court, to make stipulations or concessions that are binding on the minor, provided they are not prejudicial to the latter's interests--guardian ad litem's role is more than an attorney's but less than a party's, in that the guardian oversees any attorney representing a minor's litigation-related interests and may make tactical and even fundamental decisions affecting the litigation, but always with the interest of the child in mind. County of Los Angeles v. Superior Court (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 1303, 1312, 111 Cal. Rptr. 2d 471

Guardian ad litem has power to bring action for dissolution on behalf of spouse who has conservator if spouse is found to have capacity to consent to dissolution. In re Marriage of Higgason (1973) 10 Cal. 3d 476, 483-485, 110 Cal. Rptr. 897, 516 P.2d 289 , overruled on other grounds in In re Marriage of Dawley (1976) 17 Cal. 3d 342, 349-352, 131 Cal. Rptr. 3, 551 P.2d 323

Minor's mother who sued in her individual capacity and as guardian ad litem for her son in medical malpractice action could not represent minor's interest without counsel and thus was powerless to oppose motion for summary judgment; court erred in allowing minor's counsel to withdraw when it was known that defendant was about to file summary judgment motion. Mossanen v. Monfared (2000) 77 Cal. App. 4th 1402, 1409-1410, 92 Cal. Rptr. 2d 459

Authority of guardian ad litem continues through appeal, even though judgment appealed from includes order removing the guardian ad litem. Estate of Emery (1962) 199 Cal. App. 2d 22, 26, 18 Cal. Rptr. 86

[4] Attorney-Client Relationship

Attorney representing minor through guardian ad litem in tort action may not withdraw as counsel of record without prior court approval. Torres v. Friedman (1985) 169 Cal. App. 3d 880, 884-888, 215 Cal. Rptr. 604

Lawyer-client privilege protects minor's statements to guardian ad litem for transmission to attorney. De Los Santos v. Superior Court (1980) 27 Cal. 3d 677, 682-685, 166 Cal. Rptr. 172, 613 P.2d 233

PART IV. PROCEDURAL CHECKLIST

24-291 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 291.40

§ 291.40 Appointment of Guardian ad Litem

☐ Determine the following facts regarding the necessity for appointment of guardian ad litem [for discussion, see § 291.11].

☐ Service of summons on minor or incompetent person or person for whom a conservator has been appointed.

☐ Existence of a cause of action on which suit should be filed on behalf of minor or incompetent person or person for whom a conservator has been appointed.

☐ Whether minor or incompetent person already has a guardian or conservator of the estate.

☐ If minor or incompetent person has a guardian or conservator of the estate, whether that guardian may have a conflict of interest with respect to the litigation.

☐ Assess limitations on timing for filing petition.

☐ If the plaintiff is a minor, the appointment must be made before summons is issued [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(a)] and should be made before the complaint is filed so that the complaint can allege the appointment of the guardian ad litem.

☐ If the minor, incompetent person, or person for whom a conservator has been appointed is a defendant, the appointment should be made promptly so that a default will not be taken.

☐ Determine remaining facts necessary for drafting petition.

☐ Name and address of minor, incompetent person, or person for whom a conservator has been appointed.

☐ If minor, age of minor.

☐ Names and addresses of:

☐ Parents or general guardians of minor, or

☐ Conservator, if any, of incompetent person.

☐ Name, address, qualifications, and relationship of person proposed to be guardian ad litem.

☐ Determine who will petition to have guardian ad litem appointed, including their name, address, and relationship [for discussion, see § 291.14]:

☐ The minor.

☐ A relative or friend.

☐ Another party to the action.

☐ Prepare petition for appointment of guardian ad litem on either:

☐ Cal. Judicial Council Form CIV-010 Application and Order for Appointment of Guardian ad Litem--Civil [for form see § 291.50].

☐ Cal. Judicial Council Form DE-350, GC-100 Petition for Appointment of Guardian ad Litem Under the Probate Code [for form, see § 291.52] and Cal. Judicial Council Form DE-351, GC-101, order appointing guardian ad litem [for form, see § 291.51A].

NOTE:

Approval of Contract for Attorney's Fees. Consider whether to petition simultaneously for approval of contract with attorney [Fam. Code § 6602; for discussion, see § 291.15[5]; for form, see 291.52].

☐ Determine method for filing petition [for discussion, see § 291.14].

☐ Ex parte application.

☐ Written notice followed by hearing is required in the case of an incompetent person who refuses to consent to appointment of guardian ad litem.

☐ Oral motion in open court, if circumstances compel it.

☐ File petition, have order executed by judge, file order, and obtain conformed copies of petition and order.

☐ If the minor or incompetent person or person for whom a conservator has been appointed is a defendant, serve copy of petition and order on plaintiff's attorney.

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustration of the mandatory Judicial Council form for use in petitioning to have a guardian ad litem appointed in a civil action [Cal. Judicial Council Form CIV-010].

The form must be used in cases in which a minor [see 4, below] or an incompetent person or person for whom a conservator has been appointed [see 5, below] is a party.

This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format is also available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

A supporting memorandum is not required with the application, but an applicant may submit one or the court may order one if it would further the interests of justice [Cal Rules Ct, Rule 3.1114].

[3] Caption

The title of the case should be the same as that of the proposed or pending action. Therefore, if a minor, incompetent, or conservatee is a plaintiff, the caption should include the statement that he or she is a plaintiff represented by his or her guardian ad litem. This should be omitted if the minor is a defendant in the action. For alternative forms of caption, see Ch. 108, Captions and Introductions .

[4] Minor

[a] Use of Form When Minor Is Party

This form is used to appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor who has either [see Code Civ. Proc. §§ 372, 373; Fam. Code § 6601]:

- A cause of action which should be brought on his or her behalf, or
- Been served with a summons in a suit which should be defended.

[b] Contents of Application

In Paragraph 1, the applicant's name must be entered and the appropriate box checked to state the relationship of the applicant to the minor to show that the applicant is a proper person to apply for appointment of a guardian ad litem for the minor [see Code Civ. Proc. § 373(a), (b)].

If the minor has a cause of action to assert as plaintiff and is 14 years of age or older, the minor must apply for the appointment of a guardian ad litem before any summons is issued. If the minor is under 14, a relative or friend must make the application [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(a)].

If the minor has been served with a summons and is 14 years of age or older, the minor may apply for appointment of a guardian ad litem within 10 days after the service. If the minor neglects to do so, or if the minor is under 14, a relative or friend of the minor or any other party to the action may make the application. or the court may make the appointment on its own motion [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(b)].

Appointment of guardian ad litem for a defendant minor is void if made prior to service of process [Weisfeld v. Superior Court (1952) 110 Cal. App. 2d 148, 152, 242 P.2d 29] .

In Paragraph 2, the applicant must identify the proposed guardian ad litem.

In Paragraph 3, the minor is to be identified, with his or her date of birth entered in Paragraph 4.a.

Paragraph 5 states the grounds for appointing a guardian ad litem. If the minor has a cause of action that should be pursued, check box a. and describe the action. If the minor needs to defend an action, check box b. Check box c unless the minor has a guardian of the estate. If the minor has a guardian of the estate, that guardian would have the power to prosecute or defend a civil action for the minor's benefit [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a); Prob. Code § 2462]. Thus, if box c is not checked, check box d and explain why it is necessary to appoint a guardian ad litem. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem whenever it is expedient, even if there is a guardian of the estate [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a)].

Paragraph 6 must explain the relationship of the proposed guardian ad litem to the minor.

Paragraph 7 contains a representation that the proposed guardian is competent to serve as guardian ad litem and has no interests adverse to the minor's interests) [see Estate of Lacy (1975) 54 Cal. App. 3d 172, 185, 126 Cal. Rptr. 432 (improper to appoint as guardian ad litem a person who has a conflict of interest with the minor)].

In Sacramento County, if the nominee for appointment is a plaintiff in the same action with the minor or was a participant in the transaction or occurrence giving rise to the injury, the petition must be accompanied by a declaration under penalty of perjury setting forth facts establishing that no other parent, relative, or friend can or will accept the appointment of guardian ad litem for the minor in the action; and a declaration under penalty of perjury by the attorney for the nominee stating that the attorney, having investigated the circumstances, has represented to the nominee and represents to the court that there is no conflict of interest between the nominee and the minor if the nominee is appointed the guardian ad litem [see Sacramento Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.00].

[5] Incompetent Person or Conservatee

[a] Use of Form When Incompetent Person or Conservatee Is Party

This form is used to appoint a guardian ad litem to prosecute a cause of action for an incompetent person or a person for whom a conservator has been appointed. The appointment should be made before the complaint is filed, and the complaint should contain an allegation that the guardian ad litem has been appointed.

[b] Contents of Application

In Paragraph 1, the applicant's name must be entered and the appropriate box checked to state the relationship of the applicant to the incompetent person or conservatee to show that the applicant is a proper person to apply for appointment of a guardian ad litem for the minor [see Code Civ. Proc. § 373(c); see Olivera v. Grace (1942) 19 Cal. 2d 570, 577, 122 P.2d 564 (duty of plaintiff who knows defendant is incompetent to so inform court)].

In Paragraph 2, the applicant must identify the proposed guardian ad litem.

In Paragraph 3, the incompetent person or conservatee is to be identified, with his or her status as an incompetent person or conservatee entered in Paragraph 4.b or 4.c.

Paragraph 5 states the grounds for appointing a guardian ad litem. If the incompetent person or conservatee has a cause of action that should be pursued, check box a and describe the action. If the incompetent person or conservatee needs to defend an action, check box b. Check box c if the incompetent person or conservatee does not have a conservator of the estate. If the conservatee has a conservator of the estate (as opposed to a conservator of the person), that guardian would have the power to prosecute or defend a civil action for the conservatee's benefit [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a); Prob. Code § 2462]. Thus, if box c is not checked, check box d and explain why it is necessary to appoint a guardian ad litem. The court may appoint a guardian ad litem whenever it is expedient, even if there is a guardian of the estate [Code Civ. Proc. § 372(a)]. For example, if the conservator of the estate has a conflict of interest with the conservatee, it would be expedient to appoint a guardian ad litem.

Paragraph 6 must explain the relationship of the proposed guardian ad litem to the incompetent person or conservatee.

Paragraph 7 contains a representation that the proposed guardian is competent to serve as guardian ad litem and has no interests adverse to the interests of the incompetent person or conservatee.

[c] Time of Petition

The petition for appointment of a guardian ad litem for an incompetent orconservatee may be filed at any time prior to the initiation of the action or proceeding or while it is pending [Code Civ. Proc. § 373(c)].

[6] Consent of Nominee

The person nominated as guardian ad litem in the application signs the Consent to Act as Guardian ad Litem on page two.

[7] Notice

[a] Appointment by Ex Parte Order

Appointment of a guardian ad litem may be by ex parte order [Sarracino v. Superior Court (1974) 13 Cal. 3d 1, 12-13, 118 Cal. Rptr. 21, 529 P.2d 53 (incompetent person); Scott v. Family Ministries (1976) 65 Cal. App. 3d 492, 509, 135 Cal. Rptr. 430 (minor)].

Notice to the incompetent person on whose behalf the application for appointment of guardian ad litem is being made is not necessary [Briggs v. Briggs (1958) 160 Cal. App. 2d 312, 318, 325 P.2d 219] .

[b] Declaration Regarding Notice

Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 3.1200 et seq. requires, as a prerequisite to granting an ex parte application, that it be accompanied by an affidavit or declaration that notice of the application has been given to the other party, that notice could not be given to the other party, or that notice should not be required. For a form of declaration, see Ch. 372, Motions and Orders .

[2] Use of Form

The form in [1], above, is an illustration of the mandatory Judicial Council form for use in petitioning to have a guardian ad litem appointed for a minor or incapacitated person under the Probate Code [Cal. Judicial Council Form CIV-010; see Code Civ. Proc. § 372; Prob. Code § 1003].

The form must be used in cases in which a minor or an incapacitated person requires a guardian ad litem in proceedings under the Probate Code, except for compromise of an action to which a minor or incapacitated person is a party.

This form is available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format is also available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

A supporting memorandum is not required with the application, but an applicant may submit one or the court may order one if it would further the interests of justice [Cal Rules Ct, Rule 3.1114].

[3] Contents of Petition

In Paragraph 1, the petitioner's name must be entered and the appropriate box checked to state the relationship of the applicant to the person for whom the guardian ad litem is to be appointed to show that the petitioner is a proper person to apply for the appointment [see Code Civ. Proc. § 1003(a)].

In Paragraph 2, the petitioner must identify the proposed guardian ad litem.

In Paragraph 3, the person whose interests the guardian ad litem is to represent is to be identified, with his or her status checked off in Paragraph 4.

Paragraph 5 states that the grounds for appointing a guardian ad litem relate to [Prob. Code § 1003(a)]:

- Execution of a disclaimer under Prob. Code § 277 [for discussion and forms, see Ch. 458D, Probate: Accounts, Final Distribution, and Compensation].

- Representation of the interests of a spouse alleged to lack legal capacity [see Prob. Code § 3112, 3140; for discussion and forms, see Ch. 289, Guardianship and Conservatorship: Management of Community Property].

- Consent to modification or termination of a trust [see Prob. Code § 15405; for discussion and forms, see Ch. 560, Trusts: Express, Public, Charitable, and Totten Trusts].

- Approval and settlement of claims against a deceased settlor [see Prob. Code § 19029; for discussion and forms, see Ch. 454, Probate: Claims Against the Estate].

- Representation in a proceeding under the Probate Code of any of theinterest of any of following if the court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate:

  - A minor.

  - An incapacitated person.

  - An unborn person.

  - An unascertained person.

  - A person whose identity or address is unknown.

  - A designated class of persons who are not ascertained or are not in being.

- Other reasons the petitioner may present.

[4] Signing and Verification

The petitioner must sign and verify the petition [Prob. Code § 1021(a); see Prob. Code § 1021(a) (limited circumstances in which petitioner's attorney may sign or verify petition)]. A verified petition must be received as evidence when offered in any uncontested probate proceeding [see Prob. Code § 1022].

[2] Use of Form

The form of petition in [1], above, is for use in petitioning for approval of a contract for attorney's fees when the contract was made by or on behalf of a minor for litigation services [see Fam. Code § 6602].

The petition may be made by any interested person [see Fam. Code § 6602].

The petition is directed to the court in which the litigation is pending or to the court having jurisdiction of the guardianship of the minor's estate [see Fam. Code § 6602].

The contract is void unless the court approves it. If the contract is not approved, and judgment is recovered on the minor's behalf, the court rendering the judgment will set the attorney's fees chargeable against the minor [see Fam. Code § 6602].

Local court rules are likely to provide guidelines for the amount that will be approved [see, e.g., Orange Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 368; Sacramento Co. Super. Ct. Rules, Rule 10.02].

Chapter 292 HABEAS CORPUS
PART I. SCOPE

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.01

§ 292.01 Scope of Chapter

This chapter discusses and contains forms for use in civil proceedings on the writ of habeas corpus. It includes forms of petition and allegations for the writ of habeas corpus and appropriate captions for use in the court of appeal and Supreme Court [see §§ 292.80-292.86], an order granting the writ of habeas corpus [see § 292.87], a form of writ of habeas corpus [see § 292.88], an order to show cause why the writ of habeas corpus should not issue [see § 292.89], forms for proceedings for a warrant in lieu of the writ of habeas corpus [see §§ 292.90-292.92], a form and allegations for the return to the writ of habeas corpus [see §§ 292.93, 292.94], a form of traverse to the return [see § 292.95], forms for proceedings on disobedience of the writ of habeas corpus [see §§ 292.96-292.98], and a complaint for damages for disobedience of the writ of habeas corpus [see § 292.99].

This chapter discusses and contains forms relating only to the civil uses of the writ of habeas corpus such as use of the writ to regain custody of a child or to test a civil commitment. It does not cover the ways in which the writ may be used in connection with criminal proceedings and with custody in prisons and jails. For a discussion of uses of the writ of habeas corpus by criminal defendants, see Erwin, Millman, Monroe, Sevilla & Tarlow, California Criminal Defense Practice, Ch. 102 (Matthew Bender).

This chapter also does not discuss the use of habeas corpus to review contempt proceedings. For a discussion and forms pertaining to that use of habeas corpus, see Ch. 135, Contempt .

The Judicial Council has approved a general petition for writ of habeas corpus, Cal. Judicial Council Form MC-275, Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, which is set out and discussed in § 292.81. The Judicial Council has also approved two additional forms of petition for writ of habeas corpus for use in proceedings relating to mental health commitments: Cal. Judicial Council Form MC-265, Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus--LPS Act (Mental Health), and Cal. Judicial Council Form MC-270, Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus--Penal Commitment (Mental Health) [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 1.35; see also Cal. Rules of Ct., Appen. A]. For further discussion and an illustrative copy of Cal. Judicial Council Form MC-265, See Ch. 304, Insane and Other Incompetent Persons . This form and other California Judicial Council Forms are available in an interactive, electronic format in LexisNexis(R) Automated California Judicial Council Forms, which may be accessed at www.lexisone.com for an individual or monthly charge. A noninteractive version in PDF format also is available at www.lexisone.com at no charge.

§ 292.10 Governing Law

The writ of habeas corpus generally is governed by Cal. Const., art. I, § 11, art. VI, § 10 and by Penal Code §§ 1473-1508. Certain acts in disobedience of the writ are misdemeanors under Penal Code §§ 362-364. Procedural rules governing habeas corpus proceedings are set forth in Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 4.550-4.552.

Use of the writ by persons being held in mental hospitals is governed by Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 5275-5277, and use of the writ by persons committed to institutions as developmentally disabled (mentally retarded) persons is governed by Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 4800-4804.

§ 292.11 Availability of Writ

Every person unlawfully imprisoned or restrained of his or her liberty may seek a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of the imprisonment or restraint [Penal Code § 1473(a)]. The function of the writ is to provide a speedy method of inquiring into the legality of an alleged unlawful restraint, but its availability does not depend on actual physical detention of the petitioner [In re Petersen (1958) 51 Cal. 2d 177, 181, 331 P.2d 24] . The writ is available to test the constitutionality of the legislation under which the petitioner is confined [In re Harris (1968) 69 Cal. 2d 486, 488 72 Cal. Rptr. 340, 446 P.2d 148] . Additionally, a person lawfully in custody is entitled to a writ of habeas corpus to vindicate the rights to which he or she is entitled even in confinement [In re Allison (1967) 66 Cal. 2d 282, 285, 57 Cal. Rptr. 593, 425 P.2d 193 , cert. denied, 389 U.S. 876, 88 S. Ct. 172, 19 L. Ed. 2d 163] .

Chapter 292 HABEAS CORPUS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.12

§ 292.12 Proper Court

The Supreme Court, courts of appeal, and superior courts have original jurisdiction in habeas corpus proceedings [Cal. Const., Art VI, § 10; see In re Elias (1962) 209 Cal. App. 2d 262, 264, 25 Cal. Rptr. 739] . However, an appellate court has discretion to refuse to issue a writ of habeas corpus when application has not been made therefor in a lower court in the first instance [In re Hillery (1962) 202 Cal. App. 2d 293, 294, 20 Cal. Rptr. 759] . In general, habeas corpus proceedings should be tried first in superior court rather than in an appellate court when there are factual issues to be resolved [see In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363 ; In re Wren (1957) 48 Cal. 2d 159, 165, 308 P.2d 329 ; In re Elias (1962) 209 Cal. App. 2d 262, 264, 25 Cal. Rptr. 739 ; In re Hillery (1962) 202 Cal. App. 2d 293, 294, 20 Cal. Rptr. 759] . An appellate court may also, in lieu of declining to issue the writ, issue a writ or order to show cause that is returnable before the superior court [Penal Code § 1508(a), (b); In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 873-874, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1 ; see § 292.20].

A habeas corpus petition filed in superior court generally must be heard and resolved in the court in which it is filed [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(a); see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(d) (petition filed in superior court must be decided by single judge and must not be considered by appellate division of superior court)]. However, the superior court in which the petition is filed must determine, based on the allegations of the petition, whether the matter should be heard by it or in the superior court of another county [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(b)(1)]. If the court determines that the matter may be more properly heard by the superior court of another county, it may nonetheless retain jurisdiction in the matter; or it may, without first determining whether a prima facie case for relief exists, order the matter transferred to the other county [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(b)(2)]. A transfer may be ordered in the following circumstances [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(b)(2)]:

> (1) If the petition challenges the terms of a judgment, the matter may be transferred to the county in which judgment was rendered. However, transfer is mandatory if the petition challenges the denial of parole or the petitioner's suitability for parole and is filed in a superior court other than the court that rendered the underlying judgment. In such a case the court must transfer the matter before determining whether the petition states a prima facie case for relief, and the court must specify in the order of transfer the reason for the transfer [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(c); see In re Roberts (2005) 36 Cal. 4th 575, 586-593, 31 Cal. Rptr. 3d 458, 115 P.3d 1121] .

(2) If the petition challenges the conditions of an inmate's confinement, it may be transferred to the county in which the petitioner is confined [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(b)(2)(B) (change in institution of confinement that effects change in conditions of confinement may constitute good cause to deny petition)].

The transferring court must specify in the order of transfer the reason for the transfer [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(b)(3)]. If the receiving court determines that the reason for the transfer is inapplicable, the receiving court must, within 30 days after receiving the case, order the case returned to the transferring court, which must then resolve the matter [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(b)(4)].

Chapter 292 HABEAS CORPUS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.13

§ 292.13 Petition

[1] Purpose

Application for the writ is made by petition signed and verified either by the party for whose relief it is intended or by some person in his or her behalf [Penal Code § 1474]. The function of the petition is to obtain issuance of the writ [In re Egan (1944) 24 Cal. 2d 323, 330, 149 P.2d 693 , cert. denied, 323 U.S. 785] .

[2] Contents of Petition

The petition must state that the person in whose behalf the writ is applied for is imprisoned or otherwise restrained in his or her liberty. It must also specify the officer or person by whom he or she is confined or restrained and the place of confinement [see Penal Code § 1474(1)]. If the imprisonment is alleged to be illegal, the petition must also state the nature of the alleged illegality [see Penal Code § 1474(2)].

The petition should do both of the following [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 474, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] :

- State fully and with particularity the facts on which relief is sought [People v. Karis (1988) 46 Cal. 3d 612, 656, 250 Cal. Rptr. 659, 758 P.2d 1189] .

- Include copies of reasonably available documentary evidence supporting the claim, including pertinent portions of trial transcripts and affidavits or declarations [In re Harris (1993) 5 Cal. 4th 813, 827 n.5, 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 373, 855 P.2d 391 ; In re Clark (1993) 5 Cal. 4th 750, 781 n.16, 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 509, 855 P.2d 729] .

Conclusory allegations made without any explanation of the basis for the allegations do not warrant relief, nor will they support the holding of an evidentiary hearing on the pleading [People v. Karis (1988) 46 Cal. 3d 612, 656, 250 Cal. Rptr. 659, 758 P.2d 1189 ; see People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 474, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] .

Special requirements apply when the petition is filed by an attorney. For example, the petition need not be on the official form (Judicial Council Form MC-275; see § 292.81), but it must be typewritten or produced on a computer, and it must contain the information requested in that form and must comply with Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.40(b),(c) (cover requirements), and Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.204(a), (b) (contents and form of briefs) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(a)(1)]. Any memorandum accompanying the petition must comply with Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.204(a), (b) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(a)(2)]. Except in habeas corpus proceedings related to sentences of death, any memorandum must also comply with the length limits in Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.204(c) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(a)(2)]. The petition must be accompanied by a copy of any petition, excluding exhibits, pertaining to the same judgment and petitioner that was previously filed in any state court or any federal court; however, if such documents have previously been filed in the same court of appeal as the present petition, or in the Supreme Court, and the petition so states and identifies the documents by case name and number, copies of those documents need not be included in the supporting documents [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(b)(1)]. If the petition asserts a claim that was the subject of an evidentiary hearing, the petition must be accompanied by a certified transcript of that hearing [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(b)(2)]. Any supporting documents accompanying the petition must comply with Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.486(c)(1), (2) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(b)(3)]. The petition and any accompanying memorandum must support any reference to a matter in the supporting documents by a citation to its index tab and page [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(a)(3)]. The attorney must file the number of copies of the petition and supporting documents required by Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.44(b) [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(c)]. Finally, if the attorney's petition fails to comply with any of the foregoing requirements, the clerk must file the petition, but the court may notify the attorney that it may strike the petition or impose a lesser sanction if the petition is not brought into compliance within a stated reasonable time of not less than five days [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.384(d)].

For forms of petitions, see § 292.80 et seq.

[3] Action on Petition; Time Limit

Any court or judge authorized to grant the writ must grant the writ without delay if it appears that the writ should be issued [Penal Code § 1476]. In some cases, however, the court may issue an order to show cause why the writ should not be issued [see § 292.15], request an informal response to the petition [see § 292.13[4]], or issue a warrant [see § 292.16], instead of the writ itself.

On the filing of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the superior court, the clerk of the court must immediately deliver the petition to the presiding judge or his or her designee [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(a)(3)(A)]. The court must rule on the petition within 60 days after the petition is filed, either by issuing an order to show cause, denying the petition, or requesting an informal response [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(a)(3)(A), (a)(4)].

If the court fails to rule on the petition within 60 days of its filing, the petitioner may file a notice and request for a ruling [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(a)(3)(B)]. The petitioner's notice and request for a ruling must include a declaration stating the date the petition was filed and the date of the notice and request for ruling, and indicating that the petitioner has not received a ruling on the petition. A copy of the original petition must be attached to the notice and request for ruling [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(a)(3)(B)(i)]. If the presiding judge or his or her designee determines that the notice is complete and the court has failed to rule, the presiding judge, or his or her designee, must assign the petition to a judge and calendar the matter for a decision without appearances within 30 days of the filing of the notice and request for ruling. If the judge assigned by the presiding judge rules on the petition prior to the date the petition is calendared for decision, the matter may be taken off calendar [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(a)(3)(B)(ii)].

A petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed in the superior court must be decided by a single judge; it must not be considered by the appellate division of the superior court [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.552(d)].

[4] Request for Informal Response

Before passing on a petition for habeas corpus, a superior court may request an informal response from the respondent or real party in interest. The court may also request an informal response from the custodian of any record pertaining to the petitioner's case, directing the custodian to produce the record or a certified copy to be filed with the clerk of the court. A copy of the request must be sent to the petitioner [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(b)(1), (2)].

The informal response, if any, must be served on the petitioner by the party of whom the request is made. The informal response must be in writing and must be served and filed within 15 days. If the informal response consists of records or copies of records, a copy of every record and document furnished to the court must be furnished to the petitioner [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(b)(2)].

If any informal response is filed, the court must notify the petitioner that he or she may reply to the informal response within 15 days from the date of service of the response upon the petitioner [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(b)(2)]. The court may not deny the petition until the petitioner has filed a timely reply to the informal response or the 15-day reply period has expired [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(b)(3)]. Within 45 days after receipt of the informal response, the court must issue an order to show cause or deny the petition [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(a)(5)].

[5] Criteria for Appellate Court Grant or Denial of Petition

If the petition is presented to an appellate court, the court evaluates the petition by asking whether, assuming the petition's factual allegations were true, the petitioner would be entitled to relief [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 474-475, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Clark (1993) 5 Cal. 4th 750, 769 n.9, 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 509, 855 P.2d 729] . If no prima facie case is stated, the court will summarily deny the petition. If the court finds that the factual allegations, taken as true, establish a prima facie case for relief, the court will issue an order to show cause [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 475, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Clark (1993) 5 Cal. 4th 750, 781 n.16, 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 509, 855 P.2d 729] , which requires the custodian of the confined person to file a return [see § 292.17[1]].

[6] Statement of Reasons for Denial of Petition

Any superior court order denying a petition for a writ of habeas corpus must contain a brief statement of the reasons for the denial. An order only declaring the petition to be "denied" is insufficient [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(g)].

Volume 25: Habeas Corpus thru Initiative, Referendum, and Recall-Chs. 292-302
Chapter 292 HABEAS CORPUS
PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.15

§ 292.15 Issuance of Order to Show Cause

Although it is not expressly provided for by statute, the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal have developed the practice of ordering the custodian to show cause why the relief sought should not be granted. This practice has developed because, although the Supreme Court and appellate courts exercise original habeas corpus jurisdiction, appellate courts are not equipped to have prisoners brought before them and to conduct testimonial hearings on disputed issues of fact. Many issues cognizable on habeas corpus can be resolved on the basis of documentary evidence or stipulated facts without bringing the body of the petitioner before the court [In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 873-874 n.2, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] . Thus, the order to show cause has developed as an appropriate means by which to initiate a hearing and disposition of a petition on behalf of a person in custody without bringing the petitioner before the court [In re Lawler (1979) 23 Cal. 3d 190, 194, 151 Cal. Rptr. 833, 588 P.2d 1257] .

The order to show cause will be issued when it initially appears from the allegations of the petition and from any matter of record pertaining to the case that the petitioner is entitled to relief [see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.385(d); People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 475, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 874 n.2, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] .

The California Rules of Court prescribe a similar procedure for habeas corpus petitions in superior court [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(c); see Inre Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 873-874 n.2, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1 (even before adoption of Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(c), many superior courts, especially in counties where there are large state prisons and therefore many habeas corpus filings, had developed practice of issuing orders to show cause); see also People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 475, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] . In such a case, the superior court must issue an order to show cause if the petitioner has made a prima facie showing that he or she is entitled to relief [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(c)(1); see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.550(b)(2)]. To determine whether the petitioner has made a prima facie showing, the court takes the petitioner's factual allegations as true and makes a preliminary assessment regarding whether the petitioner would be entitled to relief if those factual allegations were proved. If so, the court must issue an order to show cause [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(c)(1)].

On issuing an order to show cause, the court must appoint counsel for any unrepresented petitioner who desires but cannot afford counsel [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(c)(2)]. The Rules of Court specify that, although an order to show cause may be referred to as "granting the writ," it does not grant the relief sought in the petition. Rather, an order to show cause is simply a determination that the petitioner has made a showing that he or she may be entitled to relief, and an order directing the respondent to file a return [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rules 4.550(b)(2), 4.551(c)(3); see Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.550(b)(6) (order granting or denying relief sought by petitioner is called "order on writ of habeas corpus")].

§ 292.16 Issuance of Warrant

When it appears to the court or judge authorized by law to issue the writ that anyone is illegally held in custody, confinement, or restraint, and that there is reason to believe that the person will be carried out of the jurisdiction of the court or judge before whom the application is made or that the person will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with a writ of habeas corpus can be enforced, the court or judge may cause a warrant to be issued, reciting the facts and directed to any peace officer, commanding the peace officer to take the person held into custody, confinement, or restraint, and bring him or her immediately before the court or judge to be dealt with according to law [Penal Code § 1497]. The court or judge may also insert in the warrant a command for the apprehension of the person charged with the illegal detention and restraint [Penal Code § 1498].

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.17

§ 292.17 Return

[1] When Required

If the court issues a writ of habeas corpus, an order to show cause, or a warrant, the custodian of the confined person files a responsive pleading called a return [see Penal Code §§ 1480, 1500, 1503; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.550(b)(3) ("return" is respondent's statement of reasons that court should not grant relief requested by petitioner); People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 475, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 873-874 n.2, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] . For forms of returns, see § 292.93 and 292.94.

The Penal Code provides that the return must be made "forthwith, unless the court or judge shall specify a particular time for any such return" [Penal Code § 1503]. The writ or order to show cause will generally specify the time within which the written return must be filed.

In superior court, the respondent may file a return within 30 days after the court issues an order to show cause. The return must be served on the petitioner [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(d)].

[2] Contents of Return

[a] Statutory Requirements

The Penal Code provides that the person on whom the writ is served must state the following, plainly and unequivocally, in his or her return:

- Whether or not he or she has the party in his or her custody, or under his or her power or restraint [Penal Code § 1480(1)].

- If he or she has the party in his or her custody or power, or under his or her restraint, the authority and cause of the imprisonment or restraint [Penal Code § 1480(2)].

- If the person on whom the writ is served had the party in his or her power or custody, or under > restraint, at any time before or after the date of the writ, but has transferred custody or restraint to another person, the name of the person to whom custody or restraint was transferred to, the time and place of the transfer, and the cause and authority for the transfer [Penal Code § 1480(4)].

If the person is detained by authority of any writ, warrant, or other written authority, a copy of that written authority must be attached to the return, and the original must be produced and exhibited to the court or judge at the hearing of the return [Penal Code § 1480(3)]. The return must be signed by the person making the return and, unless made by a sworn public officer acting in his or her official capacity, must be verified under oath [Penal Code § 1480(5)].

[b] Judicial Requirement of Specificity

[i] General Rules

Because of the importance of the return in defining the factual issues that the court must determine, the courts have required more of the return than just compliance with the literal requirements of Penal Code § 1480. Thus, the courts have held that the return must allege facts tending to establish the legality of the petitioner's detention [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 476, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Saunders (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 1033, 1047, 88 Cal. Rptr. 633, 472 P.2d 921] . The factual allegations of the return must respond to the allegations of the petition that form the basis of the petitioner's claim that the confinement is unlawful [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 476, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; People v. Romero (1994) 8 Cal. 4th 728, 738, 35 Cal. Rptr. 2d 270, 883 P.2d 388] . Furthermore, the return should also, when appropriate, provide documentary evidence, affidavits, or other materials that will enable the court to determine which issues are truly disputed [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 476, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Lewallen (1979) 23 Cal. 3d 274, 278 n.2, 152 Cal. Rptr. 528, 590 P.2d 383] .

Because the respondent is generally required to affirmatively plead facts responding to the petitioner's allegations regarding the illegality of the confinement, a return consisting solely of general denials of the allegations of the petition is generally insufficient [see People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 479-481, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Lewallen (1979) 23 Cal. 3d 274, 278 n.2, 152 Cal. Rptr. 528, 590 P.2d 383] .

Any material allegation of the petition not controverted by the return is deemed admitted for purposes of the habeas corpus proceeding [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(d)]. If the return effectively admits the material factual allegations of the petition (and the traverse) by not disputing them, and the facts admitted justify the relief sought by the petitioner, the court may resolve the issues and grant the relief sought without ordering an evidentiary hearing [see In re Sixto (1989) 48 Cal. 3d 1247, 1252, 259 Cal. Rptr. 491, 774 P.2d 164 ; In re Saunders (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 1033, 1048, 88 Cal. Rptr. 633, 472 P.2d 921 ; see also People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 477, 479, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] .

[ii] Exception When Information Unavailable to Respondent

In cases in which critical information necessary to counter the allegations of the petition is unavailable to the respondent, the return will be sufficient if it sets forth the following with specificity [see People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 485, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] :

- Why information is not readily available.
- The steps that were taken to try to obtain it.
- Why a party believes in good faith that certain alleged facts in the petition are untrue.

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.18

§ 292.18 Traverse or Denial

[1] Contents

The party brought before the court or judge (usually the petitioner) may deny or controvert any of the material facts or other matters set forth in the return or allege any facts to show either that his or her imprisonment or detention is unlawful or that he or she is otherwise entitled to discharge. The petitioner may also except to the sufficiency of the return [Penal Code § 1484]. This response to the return (called the "denial" in the California Rules of Court) is often referred to as the "traverse" [see, e.g., Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.550(b)(4), People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 476, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] and is analogous to the answer in a civil proceeding. The petition may also be treated as the traverse by stipulation [In re Saunders (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 1033, 1047, 88 Cal. Rptr. 633, 472 P.2d 921 ; see People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 477, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] . When the petition is treated as a traverse by stipulation, the petition has the same effect as a traverse [In re Egan (1944) 24 Cal. 2d 323, 330, 149 P.2d 693 , cert. denied, 323 U.S. 785] .

Any material allegation of the return that is not denied in the traverse is deemed admitted for purposes of the habeas corpus proceeding [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(e); see also People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 477, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Lawler (1979) 23 Cal. 3d 190, 194, 151 Cal. Rptr. 833, 588 P.2d 1257] . The issues are joined by the return and the traverse, and any new matter alleged in the traverse is deemed denied and must be proved by the party alleging it (i.e., the petitioner) [In re Saunders (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 1033, 1047-1048, 88 Cal. Rptr. 633, 472 P.2d 921 ; In re Egan (1944) 24 Cal. 2d 323, 330, 149 P.2d 693 , cert. denied, 323 U.S. 785, 65 S. Ct. 272, 89 L. Ed. 626] . If the petition is by stipulation treated as a traverse, the respondent need not file, in addition to the return, a pleading specifically denying the affirmative allegations of the petition [In re Masching (1953) 41 Cal. 2d 530, 533, 261 P.2d 251] .

When the petitioner excepts to the sufficiency of the return in the traverse, questions of law are raised in a manner analogous to a demurrer to a complaint [People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 477, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252 ; In re Saunders (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 1033, 1048, 88 Cal. Rptr. 633, 472 P.2d 921] .

Although the traverse may allege additional facts in support of the claim on which an order to show cause has issued, the traverse may not expand the scope of the proceeding by introducing additional claims or wholly different fact bases for those claims. The scope of the proceeding will be limited to the claims that the court initially determined to have stated a prima facie case for relief [see In re Clark (1993) 5 Cal. 4th 750, 781 n.16, 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 509, 855 P.2d 729 ; see also People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal. 4th 464, 478, 37 Cal. Rptr. 2d 259, 886 P.2d 1252] .

[2] Time Limit for Filing Denial

Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(e), provides that the petitioner may serve on respondent and file with the court a denial within 30 days after service and filing of a return to an order to show cause. Because Rule 4.551 appears in the portion of the California Rules of Court that governs the superior courts, this time limit is apparently inapplicable to habeas corpus proceedings in appellate courts.

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.19

§ 292.19 Hearing

[1] In General

The court or judge before whom the writ is returned must, immediately after the return, proceed to hear and examine the return and other matters that are properly submitted to their hearing and consideration [Penal Code § 1483]. On traverse to the return, the court or judge must summarily proceed to hear the proof that is produced against and in favor of the detention and to dispose of the person restrained as the justice of the case requires. The court or judge has full power and authority to require and compel the attendance of witnesses and to perform all other acts necessary to a full and fair hearing and determination of the case [Penal Code § 1484].

In habeas corpus proceedings in superior court, within 30 days after the filing of any denial or, if none is filed, within 30 days after the expiration of the time for filing a denial, the court must either grant or deny the relief sought by the petition or order an evidentiary hearing [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(f)]. An evidentiary hearing is required if, after considering the verified petition, the return, any denial, any affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury, and matters of which judicial notice may be taken, the court finds that (1) there is a reasonable likelihood that the petitioner may be entitled to relief, and (2) the petitioner's entitlement to relief depends on the resolution of an issue of fact [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(f)]. The petitioner must be produced at the evidentiary hearing unless the court, for good cause, directs otherwise [Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 4.551(f)].

[2] Appointment of Referee by Appellate Court

If an order to show cause is made returnable before the appellate court and issues of fact requiring an evidentiary hearing are framed, the court may appoint a referee to conduct the hearing and to report his or her findings and conclusions. The appellate court would then make an independent examination of the evidence taken before the referee and, giving respect to but not being bound by the referee's findings and conclusions, make its own determinations of fact [In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 874 n.2, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.20

§ 292.20 Writ or Order to Show Cause Made Returnable Before Lower Court

A writ or order to show cause issued by the Supreme Court or a judge thereof may be made returnable before the issuing judge or his or her court, before any court of appeal or judge thereof, or before any superior court or judge thereof. A writ or order to show cause issued by a court of appeal or judge thereof may be made returnable before the issuing judge or his or her court or before any superior court or judge thereof located in that appellate district [see Penal Code § 1508; Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 8.385(e), (f); In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 873-874, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] . When an appellate court makes a writ or order to show cause returnable before a lower court, that court must decide the issues before it and dispose of the petitioner as the justice of the case requires. When the appellate court makes the writ or order to show cause returnable before the superior court, the appellate court does more than simply transfer the petition to the superior court, or simply afford petitioner an opportunity to present evidence in support of the allegations of the petition; it also institutes a proceeding in which issues of fact are to be framed and decided. When an appellate court issues a writ or order to show cause returnable before a lower court, however, the appellate court's preliminary determination that the petitioner has stated grounds which if proved would entitle him or her to habeas corpus relief is not equivalent to a final appellate court decision on questions of law in favor of petitioner [In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 875-876 n. 4, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.24

§ 292.24 Appeal or Reapplication

When an application for a writ has been made by or on behalf of any person other than a defendant in a criminal case, an appeal may be taken to the court of appeal from a final order of a superior court granting all or any part of the relief sought. When the application has been heard and determined by a court of appeal, either on application filed in that court or on appeal from a superior court, and any or all of the relief sought has been granted, an application may be made for a hearing in the Supreme Court. The court that granted the relief or the court in which the appeal or petition for hearing is pending may stay the execution of the order pending final determination of the matter [Penal Code § 1507].

When the superior court denies the writ, its decision is nonappealable, but the petitioner may seek the same relief by instituting a new habeas corpus proceeding in the appellate court. The new proceeding is not a review of the superior court determination, nor are the doctrines of res judicata or collateral estoppel applicable to preclude reassertion of arguments rejected in the prior proceedings [In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789-790, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363] .

After denial by the court of appeal of the writ or relief sought, the petitioner may apply to the Supreme Court by petition for writ of habeas corpus just as after the denial of the writ by a superior court petitioner may reapply for the writ to the court of appeal [see In re Michael E. (1975) 15 Cal. 3d 183, 193 n.15, 123 Cal. Rptr. 103, 538 P.2d 231] . The Supreme Court has, however, stated that it disapproves of this procedure because rebriefing is wasteful and because a published opinion from the court of appeal denying the writ may remain on the books even though the Supreme Court would have granted a hearing. The Court has stated that it would therefore prefer that the petitioner apply to the Supreme Court for a hearing after denial of the writ, rather than filing with the Court a new petition for the writ of habeas corpus [see In re Michael E. (1975) 15 Cal. 3d 183, 193 n.15, 123 Cal. Rptr. 103, 538 P.2d 231] .

Nevertheless, appellate courts recognize that when habeas corpus is used to assert child custody rights rather than to secure relief from criminal prosecution, the superior court's determination of the issues will be given some weight. In these cases appellate courts recognize an exception to the general rule giving full res judicata effect to a superior court order and hold that the order denying the writ is not res judicata in the broad sense that it bars further proceedings for the custody of the child, but in the very narrow sense that a petitioner for a writ cannot again litigate the issues of fact decided in the superior court unless after the hearing in the superior court there is a change of circumstances which affects the right to custody. Nor does a decision by the superior court, which is merely a decision on a question of law rather than fact bar the petitioner from presenting the same question of law to the court of appeal on an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed with that court. Included in the category of questions of law is the determination of whether there is substantial evidence to support the trial court's findings of fact [In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 790-791, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363] .

When an appellate court makes an order to show cause returnable before the superior court and that court denies the writ of habeas corpus, the petitioner may again apply to the reviewing court for the writ, and the reviewing court will make its independent examination and appraisal of the evidence that was taken in the superior court [In re Hochberg (1970) 2 Cal. 3d 870, 874 n.2, 87 Cal. Rptr. 681, 471 P.2d 1] .

§ 292.25 Child Custody

[1] Enforcing Right to Custody

The person entitled to the physical custody of a child is entitled to enforce the right to custody as against one wrongfully withholding the child by a petition for a writ of habeas corpus [In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363 ; In re Croze (1956) 145 Cal. App. 2d 492, 495, 302 P.2d 595] . Habeas corpus may be used (1) to enforce an existing right to physical custody established by prior order; (2) to determine physical custody in the first instance when no previous custody order has issued (that is, when habeas corpus is not brought as a collateral attack); (3) to modify a modifiable order; (4) in a proceeding brought by a parent to protect a child from imminent danger; (5) in an original proceeding in habeas corpus brought by a natural parent lacking physical custody when his or her consent to an adoption was required but not obtained; and (6) to attack a prior order collaterally when the court issuing the prior order lacked jurisdiction [see Adoption of Alexander S. (1988) 44 Cal. 3d 857,866-867, 44 Cal. 3d 857, 867, 245 Cal. Rptr. 1, 750 P.2d 778] . Habeas corpus is not available, however, to attack a final, nonmodifiable judgment collaterally in an adoption-related action when the trial court had jurisdiction to render a final judgment in the action [Adoption of Alexander (1988) 44 Cal. 3d 857, 859, 245 Cal. Rptr. 1, 750 P.2d 778] .

[2] Enforcing Previous Court Order

The writ may be used to restore custody and possession of a child to the person entitled to custody by court order [In re Barr (1952) 39 Cal. 2d 25, 27, 243 P.2d 787] . For example, where the decree of a competent tribunal has awarded custody of a child to one parent, the writ may be used to compel delivery of the child to the parent entitled to custody [Rose v. Superior Court (1948) 86 Cal. App. 2d 173, 177-178, 194 P.2d 568] . The parent who is entitled to custody pursuant to a valid court order may use the writ to enforce that right against another parent who refuses to return the child after a visit [In re Kyle (1947) 77 Cal. App. 2d 634, 641, 176 P.2d 96] , and the writ may also be used to enforce court ordered visitation rights [see In re Taylor (1950) 100 Cal. App. 2d 292, 293, 223 P.2d 317] .

The party who is not entitled to custody pursuant to a court order has several defenses to use of the writ of habeas corpus by the parent entitled to custody. One such defense is the lack of jurisdiction of the court which rendered the previous decree [In re Saunders (1946) 76 Cal. App. 2d 635, 638, 173 P.2d 818] . Courts have also refused to enforce out-of-state decrees which attempted to affect custody lawfully held by a resident of California [Ferreira v. Ferreira

(1973) 9 Cal. 3d 824, 836 n. 12, 109 Cal. Rptr. 80, 512 P.2d 304 ; In re Walker (1964) 228 Cal. App. 2d 217, 222, 39 Cal. Rptr. 243] . Additionally, if there is an allegation that the child's health or safety will be jeopardized by enforcement of a previous court order, the court on writ of habeas corpus may properly refuse to return custody to the parent claiming custody pursuant to the previous decree and may grant temporary custody to the other parent [Ferreira v. Ferreira (1973) 9 Cal. 3d 824, 830, 836-837, 109 Cal. Rptr. 80, 512 P.2d 304 ; In re Inman (1939) 32 Cal. App. 2d 130, 133-134, 89 P.2d 421] .

The issue of the proper use of the writ of habeas corpus to enforce or seek a modification of a previous custody order often arises in the case of enforcement of an out-of-state custody order by a parent who is not a resident of California. In such cases, regardless of how the issue of modification of the previous decree arises, whether on petition for writ of habeas corpus or on modification of the previous order, the trial court employs the same standards and procedures [Ferreira v. Ferreira (1973) 9 Cal. 3d 824, 834, 109 Cal. Rptr. 80, 512 P.2d 304] . For further discussion of the right of a parent entitled to custody pursuant to an out-of-state decree to enforce that decree against a parent residing in California, see Ch. 394, Parent and Child .

[3] Illegitimate Children

The writ of habeas corpus was available to the mother of an illegitimate child to enforce her right to custody of the child and its service and earnings pursuant to former Civ. Code § 200 [see In re Croze (1956) 145 Cal. App. 2d 492, 495, 302 P.2d 595] . The mother's right to custody pursuant to former Civ. Code § 200 could be denied on her petition for a writ of habeas corpus where it could be shown that the mother had abandoned the child or was unfit to have custody and control [In re Croze (1956) 145 Cal. App. 2d 492, 495, 302 P.2d 595 ; In re Harmon (1953) 121 Cal. App. 2d 646, 648-649, 263 P.2d 649] or where the father of the child had legitimated the child pursuant to former Civ. Code § 230, in which case the father acquired custody rights in the child equal to those of the mother and the father was entitled to custody where the court found that to be in the best interests of the child [In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 801, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363] .

The Legislature has repealed former Civ. Code §§ 200 and 230 [Stats. 1975, ch. 1244]. The right to custody and therefore the possibility of relief by writ of habeas corpus is now governed by Fam. Code § 3010 which provides that the mother of an unmarried minor child is entitled to its custody, services, and earnings, and that the father of the child, if presumed to be the father under Fam. Code § 7611, is equally entitled to the custody, services, and earnings of the unmarried minor [see Fam. Code § 3010]. Where there is no presumed father under Fam. Code § 7611, the mother should still be able to recover custody of her child by writ of habeas corpus. Where the child is in the custody of a man claiming to be a presumed father under Fam. Code § 7611 and the mother disputes this presumption, the use of the writ should be allowed since courts in the past have determined the issue of paternity and proper custody on a writ of habeas corpus. Moreover, the writ is a proper means of determining the right to custody of minor children generally [Estate of Bauman (1947) 82 Cal. App. 2d 359, 360, 186 P.2d 154] , and it has been used to determine such factual issues as whether the father of an illegitimate child has legitimated the child pursuant to former Civ. Code § 230, a determination similar to that of whether a man is the presumed father of the child pursuant to Fam. Code § 7611 [see In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 791-800, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363] .

PART II. LEGAL BACKGROUND

25-292 California Forms of Pleading and Practice--Annotated § 292.26

§ 292.26 Mental Patients

[1] Right to Petition

Any person who has been committed is entitled to a writ of habeas corpus on a proper application made by the Department of Health, by the person committed, or by a relative or friend in the person's behalf to the judge of the superior court in which the hospital is located [Welf. & Inst. Code § 7250]. Persons held in hospitals and other institutions have a remedy by writ of habeas corpus even in the absence of such a statute, however, since the right to have determined by habeas corpus whether a person is in fact subject to commitment or whether a person has recovered from the condition which justified the commitment is secured by Cal. Const., art I, § 11, which provides that the writ of habeas corpus may not be suspended unless required by public safety in cases of rebellion or invasion [In re De La O (1963) 59 Cal. 2d 128, 142-143, 28 Cal. Rptr. 489, 378 P.2d 793] .

A person who is detained by certification for intensive treatment [see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 5250-5268] as mentally disordered or as dangerous or impaired by inebriation [see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 5150-5258] has a right to a hearing by writ of habeas corpus for release after the person detailed or a person acting on his or her behalf has made a request for release [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5275]. The staff member to whom the request for release is made must promptly provide the person making the request a copy of a form provided for by Welf. & Inst. Code § 5275 and must inform the superior court for the county in which the facility is located of the request as soon as possible [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5275]. Judicial review must be in the superior court for the county in which the treatment facility is located or in the county in which 72-hour evaluation was conducted if the patient or a person acting in his or her behalf informs the professional staff of the facility in writing that judicial review will be sought. No patient may be transferred from the county providing evaluation services to a different county for intensive treatment if the staff of the evaluation facility has been informed in writing that a judicial review will be sought, until the completion of the judicial review. The person must be informed of his or her right to counsel and to appointed counsel if necessary [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5276].

The court must either release the person or order an evidentiary hearing to be held within two judicial days after the petition is filed [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5276]. If the person is alleged to be a danger to himself or herself or to others, or is gravely disabled as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism, the district attorney must appear and defend the certification allegations in the habeas corpus hearings regardless of whether the person is confined in a public or a private hospital [St. Joseph Hospital v. Kuyper (1983) 146 Cal. App. 3d 1086, 1089-1090, 194 Cal. Rptr. 876] . If the court finds that the person requesting release is not, as a result of mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism, either a danger to othe rs or to himself or herself, or gravely disabled; that he or she had not been advised of, or had accepted, voluntary treatment; or that the facility providing intensive treatment is not equipped and staffed to provide treatment or is not designated by the county to provide intensive treatment, then the person must be released immediately [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5276].

The Lanterman-Petris-Short Act [Welf. & Inst. Code § 5000 et seq.] authorizes a process for the detention of the mentally disordered that is somewhat more medical than the former civil commitment procedures that it repealed; nevertheless, the provisions of the act, requiring notice of the 14-day certification for involuntary intensive treatment to be given to the superior court and to the various attorneys, among others, and the express specification of the rights of the patient who requests release to have counsel appointed and to seek habeas corpus, demonstrate the concern of the Legislature that the patient's rights receive full protection at all times [Thorn v. Superior Court (1970) 1 Cal. 3d 666, 674, 83 Cal. Rptr. 600, 464 P.2d 56] . A superior court acted within its jurisdiction in safeguarding those rights by holding that a patient's refusal to consent to voluntary treatment is tantamount to a request for release and triggers the patient's right to counsel and to seek habeas corpus. The court properly ordered that on certification for intensive treatment each patient so certified be promptly visited by counsel [Thorn v. Superior Court (1970) 1 Cal. 3d 666, 675, 83 Cal. Rptr. 600, 464 P.2d 56] .

However, a conservatee under an LPS conservatorship who is not subject to involuntary intensive treatment may not ordinarily utilize the habeas corpus writ to obtain a less restrictive treatment placement [see In re Gandolfo (1984) 36 Cal. 3d 889, 897, 206 Cal. Rptr. 149, 686 P.2d 669] . Nevertheless, habeas corpus directed to the court in the county of treatment may be an appropriate remedy for an unreasonable denial of such freedom as is essential to the conservatee's welfare, or for unreasonable consequences that might flow from limitations of the statutory review mechanism [see In re Gandolfo (1984) 36 Cal. 3d 889, 898, 206 Cal. Rptr. 149, 686 P.2d 669] .

Additionally, if the proper statutory procedures are not strictly followed for commitment of a person to a mental hospital, the person confined may petition the court for a writ of habeas corpus [In re Michael E. (1975) 15 Cal. 3d 183, 192-193, 123 Cal. Rptr. 103, 538 P.2d 231] . Where commitment procedures are set up by statute and are in the nature of special civil proceedings unknown to the com mon law, jurisdiction to enter an order of commitment pursuant to the statutory scheme depends on strict compliance with each of the specific statutory prerequisites for maintenance of the proceeding. Procedures for civil commitment of persons in mental hospitals are of this type of statutory procedure [In re Raner (1963) 59 Cal. 2d 635, 639-640, 30 Cal. Rptr. 814, 381 P.2d 638 (commitment for narcotics addiction); In re Hofmann (1955) 281 P.2d 96] .

[2] Order to Show Cause

An order to show cause to inquire into the detention and confinement of a person in the hospital may be issued by an appellate court and directed to the medical director of a state mental hospital [see In re L. L. (1974)39 Cal. App. 3d 205, 207, 114 Cal. Rptr. 11] or to test the conditions of confinement in the hospital [see In re Cirino (1972) 28 Cal. App. 3d 1009, 1011, 105 Cal. Rptr. 194] . For a discussion of issuing an order to show cause in lieu of a writ of habeas corpus, see § 292.15.

[3] Rights in Confinement

The Lanterman-Petris-Short Act also guarantees the person confined in a mental hospital certain rights, such as the right to wear his or her own clothes, to have reasonable access to a telephone to make and receive confidential calls, and to refuse shock treatment and psychosurgery [see Welf. & Inst. Code §§ 5325-5326.95]. The denial of these rights would seem to be an appropriate subject for review by habeas corpus, since the writ may be sought by one lawfully in custody for the purpose of vindicating rights to which he or she is entitled even in confinement [In re Allison (1967) 66 Cal.

2d 282, 285, 57 Cal. Rptr. 593, 425 P.2d 193 , cert. denied, 389 U.S. 876, 88 S. Ct. 172, 19 L. Ed. 2d 163 ; but see In re Gandolfo (1984) 36 Cal. 3d 889, 898, 206 Cal. Rptr. 149, 686 P.2d 669 (habeas corpus relief limited to unreasonable denial of freedom essential to conservatee's welfare, or unreasonable consequences flowing from limitations of statutory review mechanism)].

The writ may also be used to test the validity of criminal convictions or restraint after conviction; to attack commitment as a mentally disordered sex offender [In re Leyva (1970) 8 Cal. App. 3d 404, 406, 87 Cal. Rptr. 265] ; to challenge the validity of a Department of Corrections rule regarding inmate labor and wages [In re van Geldern (1971) 5 Cal. 3d 832, 834, 97 Cal. App. 2d 794, 61 Cal. Rptr. 874] ; to test the restraint of a person placed under quarantine for disease [In re Martin (1948) 83 Cal. App. 2d 164, 169, 188 P.2d 287 (decided under former Civ. Code § 2554, see now Civ. Code § 3110)]; to test the imposition of guardianship on an incompetent person or to test the restraint imposed by the guardian [Browne v. Superior Court of San Francisco, (1940) 16 Cal. 2d 593, 598-599, 107 P.2d 1] ; to protect against prosecutorial vindictiveness [see In re Bower (1985) 38 Cal. 3d 865, 873, 215 Cal. Rptr. 267, 700 P.2d 1269] ; or to test a commitment for contempt of court [In re Carvallo (1973) 29 Cal. App. 3d 983, 985, 105 Cal. Rptr. 925 ; for further discussion and forms, see Ch. 35, Contempt]. It should be noted, though, that a list cannot validly include all the possible uses of the writ since every person unlawfully imprisoned or restrained under any pretense whatever may prosecute the writ to inquire into the cause of the imprisonment or restraint [Penal Code § 1473].

§ 292.46 Decisions

[1] Appeal and Reapplication

Final order of superior court granting writ of habeas corpus in child custody case is made appealable by Penal Code § 1507. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789 n.3, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Decision of superior court denying writ of habeas corpus is nonappealable, but petitioner may seek same relief by instituting habeas corpus proceedings in appellate court. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363 ; In re Bruegger (1928) 204 Cal. 169, 170, 267 P. 101

Doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel do not preclude reassertion of arguments rejected in prior proceeding in which lower court denied writ of habeas corpus relief. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789-790, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Decision by superior court which constitutes merely decision of question of law rather than of fact as not bar to petitioner presenting same question of law rather than fact to court of appeal on an application for writ of habeas corpus filed in that court. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 791, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Appellate courts as recognizing that where habeas corpus is used to assert custody rights, rather than to secure relief from confinement resulting from criminal prosecution, principle and public policy require that the superior court's determinations be given some weight. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 790, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Where the writ is used to assert custody rights rather than to secure relief from criminal prosecution, superior court's determination of issues as given some weight by the appellate court on reapplication there for the writ; res judicata as applicable only to bar litigation of the issues of fact already decided unless there are changed circumstances; questions of law, including question of substantial evidence, as considered by appellate court. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 790-791, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Superior court order denying writ of habeas corpus as not res judicata in broad sense that it bars further proceedings for custody of child, but in very narrow sense that petitioner for writ cannot, in court of appeal, again litigate issues of fact decided in superior court unless after hearing in superior court there is change of circumstances which affects right to custody. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 790-791, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Where petitioner applies to appellate court for writ of habeas corpus after 3denial of writ by superior court, new proceeding as not review of superior court determination, doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel as not applicable to preclude reassertion of arguments rejected in prior proceeding. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 789-790, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363 ; In re Bruegger (1928) 204 Cal. 169, 170, 267 P. 101

Question of whether there is substantial evidence to support trial court's findings of fact as question of law which may be presented to appellate court on an application for writ of habeas corpus filed in that court. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 791, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Appellate court as empowered to issue writ of prohibition restraining improper issuance of writ of habeas corpus by superior court. Browne v. Superior Court (1940) 16 Cal. 2d 593, 597, 107 P.2d 1

Where habeas corpus proceedings have been prosecuted in superior court and that court has made findings of fact, its order as res judicata of issues tendered, tried, and decided by superior court; petitioner, in absence of change in circumstances, as estopped from again trying those issues on petition in court of appeal for writ of habeas corpus. In re Croze (1956) 145 Cal. App. 2d 492, 494, 302 P.2d 595

Superior court order denying writ of habeas corpus as not res judicata in broad sense that it bars further proceedings for custody of child, but in very narrow sense that petitioner for writ cannot in court of appeal again litigate issues of fact decided in superior court unless after hearing there is change of circumstances affecting right to custody and except that questions of law may be presented to court of appeal. In re Croze (1956) 145 Cal. App. 2d 492, 495, 302 P.2d 595

Mother of illegitimate child seeking to have consent to adoption revoked and child returned to her custody from its adoptive parents as bringing petition for writ of habeas corpus first in superior court, then, when that writ was discharged, in appellate court. In re Barents (1950) 99 Cal. App. 2d 748, 749, 222 P.2d 488

Where an appeal had already been taken from guardianship proceeding appointing child's mother as guardian, father of child as not entitled to obtain review of issue of his right to custody of child on an application to appellate court for writ of habeas corpus. In re Gianoli (1943) 58 Cal. App. 2d 160, 162-163, 136 P.2d 343

Where mother of an illegitimate child petitioned for writ of habeas corpus to have custody of child restored to her from child's grandparents, writ as properly granted and facts heard by referee of appellate court where superior court had denied writ but without making any findings of fact regarding proper custody. In re White (1942) 54 Cal. App. 2d 637, 638-639, 129 P.2d 706

[2] Child Custody

[a] Determination of Right to Custody

Proceeding on writ of habeas corpus as not available to attack collaterally final nonmodifiable judgment in adoption-related action as long as trial court had jurisdiction to render final judgment. Adoption of Alexander (1988) 44 Cal. 3d 857, 859, 245 Cal. Rptr. 1, 750 P.2d 778

Where there is substantial evidence to support trial court's determination that father legitimated an illegitimate child pursuant to Civ. Code § 230, father as acquiring custody rights in child equal to those of the mother; mother under these circumstances where trial court has granted custody to father as not entitled to writ of habeas corpus from appellate court returning child to her custody. In re Richard M. (1975) 14 Cal. 3d 783, 801, 122 Cal. Rptr. 531, 537 P.2d 363

Writ of habeas corpus as proper even against party who no longer has possession of child, if he or she has hidden child in anticipation of writ and it appears that child may be produced. Rose v. Superior Court (1948) 86 Cal. App. 2d 173, 177, 194 P.2d 568

Habeas corpus as proper means of determining rights of custody to minor children. Estate of Bauman (1947) 82 Cal. App. 2d 359, 360, 186 P.2d 154

[b] Right of Parent

Petitioner father's custody of child as properly denied on writ of habeas corpus where father had repeatedly been adjudged an unfit custodian for child in various proceedings, although child was residing with an aunt. In re Application of Britt (1917) 176 Cal. 177, 180-182

"Parent" as used in former Civ. Code § 4600 (now see Fam. Code § 3040 et seq.) on preference for child custody as including father of an illegitimate child. In re Reyna (1976) 55 Cal. App. 3d 288, 297, 126 Cal. Rptr. 138

Superior Court (1948) 86 Cal. App. 2d 173, 177, 194 P.2d 568*

Custody of child as properly returned to father on writ of habeas corpus where father was entitled to custody pursuant to valid Oklahoma decree and mother had wrongfully brought child to California and there were no changed circumstances entitling mother to modification of Oklahoma decree. Estate of Bauman (1947) 82 Cal. App. 2d 359, 360, 186 P.2d 154

Where child is brought into California in defiance of decree of another state awarding custody to one parent, other parent as entitled to regain custody of child by writ of habeas corpus until respondent to writ shows that welfare of child would be jeopardized by such custody in petitioner. In re Memmi (1947) 80 Cal. App. 2d 295, 300, 181 P.2d 885

Ordinarily where child is within jurisdiction of California courts, these courts as empowered to inquire into and determine what will promote welfare of a child despite existence of decree of another state. In re Memmi (1947) 80 Cal. App. 2d 295, 300, 181 P.2d 885

In absence of any showing that since entry of decree under which petitioner for writ of habeas corpus was granted custody of his child, he has become an unfit or unsafe person to have custody, or that changed circumstances affecting welfare of child have arisen, California courts as required to recognize right of peti tioner pursuant to sister state decree to obtain custody of child. In re Memmi (1947) 80 Cal. App. 2d 295, 299, 181 P.2d 885

As between two parents, both residents of California, parent who has custody of child under valid decree of another state as entitled to enforce his right to custody against other parent who has child for temporary visit and refuses to return him, in absence of allegations supported by proof that welfare of child will be jeopardized. In re Kyle (1947) 77 Cal. App. 2d 634, 641, 176 P.2d 96

Writ of habeas corpus sought by petitioner pursuant to sister state judgment of custody of child obtained without notice to respondent as properly discharged and relief denied. In re Saunders (1946) 76 Cal. App. 2d 635, 638, 173 P.2d 818

When child of marriage is legally in custody of parent entitled to custody by last valid court order, habeas corpus as not proper remedy to try issue of custody of child unless child is in some imminent danger as to its safety, health, morals, or reasonable comfort. In re Inman (1939) 32 Cal. App. 2d 130, 133-134, 89 P.2d 421

Where mother of child had brought child into California and established residence there without violating Colorado court order giving custody of child to its mother, writ of habeas corpus as properly denied to father of child who sought to base his right to custody on modification of Colorado decree obtained after mother had become resident of California and therefore without jurisdiction. In re Inman (1939) 32 Cal. App. 2d 130, 133, 89 P.2d 421

[3] Exhaustion of Remedies

Habeas corpus is generally not available as second appeal, and matters that could have been, but were not, raised on appeal are not cognizable on habeas corpus absent special circumstances warranting departure from that rule; but, if reference to matters outside record is necessary to establish that defendant has been denied fundamental constitutional right, resort to habeas corpus is not only appropriate, but required. In re Bower (1985) 38 Cal. 3d 865, 872, 215 Cal. Rptr. 267, 700 P.2d 1269

Failure to exhaust appellate remedies as bar to relief by habeas corpus as merely discretionary policy governing exercise of reviewing court's jurisdiction to issue writ and as excused where special circumstances are shown. In re Wallace (1970) 3 Cal. 3d 289, 292, 90 Cal. Rptr. 176, 475 P.2d 208

Petitioner California Rehabilitation Center committee is not required to exhaust administrative remedies in seeking relief on habeas corpus petition when relief sought is based on theory of equal protection, which brings petitioner within several stated exceptions to exhaustion doctrine. In re Mabie (1984) 159 Cal. App. 3d 301, 304-305, 205 Cal. Rptr. 528

Rule that litigant will not be afforded judicial relief in courts unless and until he or she has exhausted available administrative remedies as applicable to habeas corpus relief. In re Muszalski (1975) 52 Cal. App. 3d 500, 503-508, 125 Cal. Rptr. 286

Habeas corpus is unavailable when appeal constitutes plain, speedy, and adequate remedy, but is available when appeal constitutes an alternate method of review but does not constitute plain, speedy, and adequate remedy. In re Solis (1969) 274 Cal. App. 2d 344, 348, 78 Cal. Rptr. 919

[4] Insane Persons
