

FAQ

When Bryan Bly signed his name did he know what he was signing?

Yes. As a matter of fact he knew exactly what he was signing. Nationwide Title Clearing is hired by the leading national mortgage lenders and servicers and is contractually and legally authorized to prepare, sign and record mortgage assignments and lien releases. The documents prepared by Nationwide Title Clearing are guaranteed to be legitimate and legally correct documents.

Many specific, qualified NTC employees are authorized to sign on behalf of our clients, which often include Bryan Bly, Crystal Moore and others. Bryan and Crystal do in fact sign a lot of documents, but they are not the only people at NTC signing and notarizing documents on our clients' behalf.

In nearly 20 years of business, there has not been a single legal judgment against NTC, Bryan Bly or any other signer employed by NTC for improper signing practices or document practices out of the tens of millions of documents that the company has accurately prepared and filed.

FAQ